THE remains of a human body have been found near the road leading from Mr. Bettington's to Jerry's Plains, and have not as yet been recognized. The skull appears to have been fractured, and the bones scattered about. Half a gold ring, a small quantity of hair, a striped shirt, and some fragments of a pair of black cloth trousers were lying about the spot. By the appearance of the bones the body is supposed to have been dead about two months.

* From the 1st of January the Fees of the Courts of Requests instead of being paid into the Treasury, have been appropriated to defray the salaries of the officers and other expenses of the Courts. The sum £191 1s. 6d. consists of arrears of Fees collected in 1844.

This decrease is owing to the contribution from the Military Chest for 1844, not having yet been paid into the Colonial Treasury.
