Tenders Required.

Superintendent of Bridges office,
Melbourne, 24th February, 1845.

TENDERS will be received at this office and at the Police office, Portland, on or before the 24th March next, from persons willing to contract for the erection of a Pier at Portland.

The pier to extend (500) five hundred feet into the bay from low water mark, to be (15) fifteen feet in width, clear of the outside, piles to be (6) six feet above high water, and the outside piles to stand (4) four feet above the pier, for the purpose of forming a hand railing on each side.

A double railway to be made with scantling 6 x 4 the whole length of the pier, and secured with screw bolts.

The piles to be drove at least six feet into the solid ground, and where the water exceeds six feet in depth, at low water, the piles to be drove the same depth into the solid ground as the depth of water at the same place, (exclusive of the sand.)

A road to be made from the beach to the pier, (50) fifty feet in width, and (3) three feet above high water, this road to be made with large stones outside, laid in courses, and each course forming a step; and the centre to be covered with gravel, or broken stones.

A stair to be made from this road on to the pier, and another stair to be made from low water, on to the end of the pier, both stairs to be made with logs secured to a frame, bolted to the piles, and the outer stair further protected from the surf by a row of piles drove in the form of a semicircle at the end of the pier, and by the stairs ascending in the centre of the pier.

All the timber to get two coats of coal tar put on while boiling hot, and while the timber is dry, and all the iron work to get a coat of coal tar put on while the iron is hot.

Plans and specifications may be seen, and further information obtained, by applying at this office any day, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock.

Advances will be made as the work proceeds, to the amount of 80 per cent. upon the value of the work performed, and the bonds, and 20 per cent. will be retained for 12 months, after the work is completed, until the stability of the work is tried.

Offers to be endorsed "Tender for Portland Bay Pier," and to contain the names of two responsible persons willing to become sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract.

By order of his Honor the Superintendent.

DAVID LENNOX,
Superintendent of Bridges.
