Mounted Police.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the re-publication of the following Notice relative to the manner in which the Mounted Police is required to act in connection with the Civil Police.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 2nd November, 1840.

Mounted Police.

IT having appeared, on different occasions, that the rule is not perfectly understood under which the Mounted Police are required to act in connection with the Civil Police, His Excellency the Governor directs it to be notified for the information and guidance of the Magistrates and the Officers of the Mounted Police, that, although the Mounted Police are subject to Military discipline, they form a part of the Civil Police of the Colony; and that all Mounted Policemen, when not under the immediate command of one of their Commissioned Officers, are bound to obey the orders of a Civil Magistrate.

The Officers of Mounted Police being Magistrates of the Territory, are, of course, upon an equality in respect to their civil authority with all other Magistrates; they cannot therefore be absolutely called on to execute the orders of any Magistrate or even of a Bench of Magistrates, but it is their duty, as directed in the following extract of the instructions for the Mounted Police, as far as their power lies, to aid the Magistrates, and to co-operate with them for the Public security.

By His Excellency's Command,
(Signed) E. DEAS THOMSON.
