O'Brien Henry,

Name of Run—Berambah.

Estimated Area—38,000 Acres.

Estimated Grazing Capabilities—1,300 Cattle.

Boundaries—on the east by Mr. Peter's station; on the west by Mr. Slater's station; on the south by the Murrumbidgee River; and on the north by a range of sand hills distant about 25 miles from the Murrumbidgee River. The sand hill part of the run serves as a winter run, at which time only it has a supply of water; between the river and the sand hills is an extensive range of unavailable country, made so from a total want of water and worthless nature of soil or sand. The river and back parts of this run are sufficient to maintain 1,300 cattle throughout the year. The extent of available pasture land I believe to be about 38,000 acres, but I cannot speak positively on the subject. The back or winter run is supplied during the winter months only with water, and that supply depends entirely upon the rains. The river part of the run becomes annually destitute of grass, in the month of November, and remains so until the commencement of Spring. This run forms a portion of the desert country which lies in the Lachlan River country.

Bounded on the east by a line running north and south half a mile above the hut, which divides it from Sloan's run, and from thence by a line running north and south $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles below the hut, (the meaning is down the creek;) on the north by a line running east and west 3 miles back from the Cudgemy Country Creek; and on the south by a line running east and west 3 miles back from the said creek. The fact is that it runs 5 miles down from Sloan's side line, and is 6 miles wide, being nearly divided in halves by the creek, measuring 6 miles by 5 miles.
