Most of the unmarried females by this ship being members of families which have been forwarded by the Government into the Interior, the number left on board does not exceed twelve. The hiring of the male Immigrants will therefore be proceeded with on the same day.

Before 10 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, the Twelfth instant, or at any other times than those fixed, as above stated, for the hiring of the Immigrants, no stranger or person in quest of servants will be admitted, or allowed to remain on board. Strict orders have been given to the Policeman on duty in the Ship, to enforce the observance of this rule.

All applications for servants must be made to the Surgeon Superintendent on board, and the Immigrants will be cautioned against hiring themselves to any person without his sanction, and without a formal agreement, to be signed by the two contracting parties, and witnessed by an Officer of the Immigration Department, who will attend on board of the ship for the purpose.

Before sanctioning any engagement, the Surgeon Superintendent will be required to satisfy himself of the respectability of the hiring party, either by reference to the Officer of the Immigration Department who will be in attendance, or by such other means of enquiry as may be available. This rule will be observed in every instance, but it will be acted upon with especial strictness in the case of the unmarried females; and these latter will be recommended not to accept situations in Inns or other Houses of public entertainment, as it is considered that such places are better suited to servants who have been for some time in the Colony, than to Immigrant girls on their first arrival.

No stranger will be allowed to visit the 'tween decks of the vessel unless accompanied by the Surgeon Superintendent. Any person infringing this rule will be ordered to quit the ship forthwith.

The Ship will be anchored at the entrance of Sydney Cove, and will be provided with an external accommodation ladder.

E. DEAS THOMSON.
