EXILES.

REFERRING to the Government Notice, which appeared in the New South Wales Government Gazette, of the 28th January; and the Port Phillip Government Gazette of the 19th January, the Exiles who arrived by the following ships:—Sir George Seymour, March, 1845, and Stratheden, January, 1846, are

By order of his Honor the Superintendent,

Public Works' Office,
Melbourne, 6th March, 1848.

informed that the transcripts of the enlarged pardon in their favour, in each instance, under the hand of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, have been forwarded to the Superintendent's Office, and will be delivered upon a personal application, and the production of the Certificate under my hand, originally issued.

With respect to the Exiles who arrived in Port Phillip by the ships Royal George, Maitland, Thomas Arbuthnot, Joseph Somes, and Marion, respectively, it is to be understood that the Pardons under sign Manual, issued in their favor, impose no condition save that of not returning to the United Kingdom during the period of their respective sentences. It is further notified that any individual who holds a form of Certificate from this Office imposing any further condition, as I am led to believe may be the case in a few instances, will, upon application to this office, either in person or by letter, enclosing the Certificate in question, be furnished with an amended form, shewing the extent of the pardon issued in his favor.
