

No. XIV.

An Act to effect the change in the Style and Title of the Corporation of Melbourne, rendered necessary by the erection of the Town of Melbourne into a City. [Assented to, 3rd August, 1849.]

WHEREAS Her Majesty the Queen, by Her Royal Letters Patent, Preamble.
dated at Westminster the twenty-fifth day of June, in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's Reign, was graciously pleased to ordain the Town of Melbourne within the Colony of New South Wales, to be thenceforth a City, and to be called the City of Melbourne, and it has in consequence become expedient and necessary to make a corresponding change in the name, style, and title, of the Body Corporate and Politic of the said City of Melbourne, constituted under and by virtue of the Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, passed in the sixth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to Incorporate the Inhabitants of the Town of Melbourne." 6 Vic., No. 7. Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That from and after the passing of this Act, the name, style, and title of the said Body Corporate and Politic, shall be the "Mayor, Aldermen, Councillors, and Citizens of the City of Melbourne;" and that under such name, style, and title, they shall have all and the like rights, privileges, and immunities as have been heretofore possessed by them under the style and title of the "Mayor, Aldermen, Councillors, and Burgesses of the Town of Melbourne."

II. And be it enacted, That whenever in any Act, Law, or Statute, or in any Deed of Grant, or in any Proclamation, or other Public Document, or Notice, or in any proceeding of what kind or nature soever, the Town of Melbourne, or the Burgesses thereof, have been, or are referred to, or mentioned, such reference or mention shall be taken to signify and mean the City of Melbourne, or the Citizens thereof, as the case may be. The words "Town of Melbourne" and "Burgesses" whenever occurring in any Act, &c., to mean "City of Melbourne," and "Citizens" thereof.

Passed the Legislative Council, this twentieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine.

WM. MACPHERSON, CLERK OF THE COUNCIL.

CHARLES NICHOLSON,
Speaker.

In the name and on the behalf of Her Majesty, I assent to this Act.

CHAS. A. FITZ ROY,

Govt. House, Sydney, 3rd August, 1849.

GOVERNOR.

No. XV.

An Act to re-appoint the Honorable Francis Scott to be the Agent for the Colony of New South Wales for one year. [Assented to, 3rd August, 1849.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to re-appoint the Honorable Francis Scott to be the Agent for the Colony of New South Wales, and that the said Francis Scott shall attend and conform to such instructions as he may from time to time receive from the Committee of Correspondence through the Speaker of the Legislative Council: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of New South Wales, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, That the said Francis Scott shall be, and is hereby appointed to be the Agent for the said Colony of New South Wales for the period of one year from the passing of this Act: Provided that no instructions from any Committee of Correspondence appointed in that behalf by the said Council, shall be transmitted to the said Agent after any prorogation or dissolution of the said Council; and that every such Committee shall be appointed in conformity with the Preamble.

Honorable Francis Scott re-appointed Agent for New South Wales for one year.

Provide that no instructions shall be sent to Agent after any prorogation or dissolution of the said Council.
