

NEW SOUTH WALES GOVERNMENT GAZETTE,

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, 6 APRIL, 1849.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 2nd April, 1849.*

NOTICES FOR THE GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

GREAT Inconvenience being now experienced in consequence of Notices for insertion in the Government Gazette being, in many instances, only furnished to this Office on the day of publication; His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs the attention of Departments to the established practice, that Notices for the Gazette are to be forwarded as early as possible on the day previous to the day of publication, which rule it is particularly requested may be strictly followed in future.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 22nd March, 1849.*

REWARD.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that in the month of January last, the huts and yards on three stations belonging to Mr. Richard Harris, (two situated on the Sandy Creek, in the Bligh District, and the other on Pien Buen Creek, in the District of Mudgee,) were maliciously destroyed by fire; His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that in addition to the pecuniary reward offered by Mr. Harris, any Prisoner of the Crown who may within six months from the present date, give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the parties who committed either of these outrages, will be recommended to Her Majesty for the allowance of a Conditional Pardon.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 19th March, 1849.*

REWARD.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that on the night of the 4th instant, a Barn, at Raymond Terrace, belonging to the Reverend Charles Spencer, was wilfully set on fire and totally destroyed, together with about fourteen tons of lucerne hay, and seven or eight bushels of lucerne seed stored therein; His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that a reward of twenty pounds will be paid to any free person or persons, who may within six months from the present date, give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the party or parties guilty of the above outrage; and if the person giving such information be a Prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty for the allowance to such Prisoner of the Crown of a Conditional Pardon.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

*Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 19th March, 1849.*

REWARD.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Government, that at the latter end of the month of January last, three horses, of which descriptions are annexed, were stolen from Mr. Assistant Surveyor McCabe, at Maiden's Punt; His Excellency the GOVERNOR directs it to be notified, that a reward of fifty pounds will be paid to any free person or persons who may, within six months from the present date, give such information as shall lead to the apprehension and conviction of the guilty parties; and if the person giving such information be a Prisoner of the Crown, application will be made to Her Majesty, for the allowance to such Prisoner of the Crown, of a Conditional Pardon.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

TO CONSTABLES AND OTHERS,
FIFTY POUNDS REWARD.

STOLEN or Strayed from Towpruck, Lachlan River, near Murrumbidgee River, three horses of the following description:—

One white gelding, aged, branded ∞ under mane, about 16 hands high, short tail, thin mane, a remarkably large scar on wither near side, caused by a pack saddle, draft marks.

One light bay saddle gelding, aged, white face and legs, branded Z under mane, about 15 hands high, short tail.

One bay draft gelding, aged, branded I.T.H. under saddle near side, broad arrow near shoulder, blind near eye, about 15 hands high, switch tail.

Any person delivering the same to the undersigned, at the above place, shall be handsomely remunerated for his trouble.

If stolen, a Reward of £50 will be paid on prosecution to conviction of the party or parties concerned in the theft.

F. P. MACCABE,
Assistant Surveyor,
Maiden's Punt.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 19th March, 1849.

TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS.
NEW COLONIAL TREASURY.

TENDERS will be received at this Office, until noon of Monday, the 9th April next, from persons willing to contract for the performance of work required towards the erection of a New Colonial Treasury, Sydney.

Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for work towards erecting New Treasury, Sydney."

Payment will be made at the rate of seventy-five per cent, upon the completion of certain portions of the work, the particulars of which, and any further information required, may be obtained at the Colonial Architect's Office, Hyde Park, where also the plans, specification, and form of Tender may be seen.

Tenders must state the time within which it is proposed to complete the work, and at the foot of every Tender, there must be a memorandum signed by the party tendering and two responsible persons as sureties, agreeing to be responsible for the due performance of the Contract, in the event of the Tender being accepted, and undertaking in that event that they will severally execute and deliver at the Office of the Civil Crown Solicitor, in Sydney, within seven days from the notification of acceptance, a Bond to Her Majesty in the penal sum of £500 for securing such performance, in failure of which the Tender and acceptance thereof, will be void.

Parties tendering, or their agents, are requested to attend at this Office at the time named for opening the Tenders, to afford any information or explanation that may be required.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

Colonial Secretary's Office,

COURT OF CLAIMS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Claims for Deeds of Grant of town allotments will be ready for the examination of the Commissioners appointed for that purpose, under the Act of Council, 5 William IV., No. 21, at the expiration of two months from this date, before which day any caveat or counter claim must be entered at the Office. Due notice will be given of the days appointed for the hearings.

Case No. 1284.—Trustees of the late Simeon Lord, by their Solicitors Messrs. Rodd and Dawson, opposed by the Bank of New South Wales.

Nineteen perches, more or less, County of Cumberland, City of Sydney, parish of St. James, allotment No. — of section No. —; bounded on the south by the building line in Bridge-street, commencing at the wall on the east side of the tank stream, bearing easterly 111 feet, more or less, to that part of the said premises already granted to Simeon Lord; on the north-east by those premises, being a line bearing, according to the deed of grant, west 35 degrees, north 125 feet, more or less, to the said wall on the east side of the tank stream; and thence on the west by the aforesaid wall, bearing south 2 degrees, west 99 feet, more or less, to the point of commencement.

This Land having been in possession of the late Simeon Lord, prior to the 30th June, 1823, and not being reserved to the Crown, a Deed of grant thereof is claimed, under the provisions of Governor Darling's Proclamation of 8th June, 1829.

Case No. 1285.—William Benson, of Richmond, by his trustees William Bowman and Stephen Field, both of Richmond.

Two acres and 20 perches, County of Cumberland, parish of Ham Common, Town of Richmond, allotment No. 7 of section No. 9; bounded on the north-west by allotment No. 6, being a line bearing 8 chains 21 links; on the south-west by Lennox-street, being a line bearing east 20½ degrees, south 2 chains 66 links; on the south-east by East Market-street, being a line bearing north 18¾ degrees, east 8 chains 27½ links; and on the north-east by March-street, being a line bearing west 19½ degrees, north 2 chains 56 links.

This allotment formed the subject of the Case No. 1197, and the Commissioners recommended a Deed of Grant to issue to Samuel Bayliss, but its preparation being delayed by legal consideration, Bayliss in the mean time became insolvent, and the trustees of his estate sold the allotment to John Fawcett, who, dying, devised in trust to claimant.

Case No. 1286.—John Wedderburne, of Keith House, Haddingtonshire, North Britain, by his Solicitors Messrs. Holden and McCarthy.

Two thousand five hundred and sixty acres, County of Durham, parish of Howick, commencing at the western extreme of the north boundary line of James Robson's 2000 acre grant, and bounded on part of the south by that boundary line bearing east 80 chains; on part of the east by 40 chains of the west boundary line of J. K. James' 2000 acre grant, bearing north to the north extreme thereof; on the residue of the south by the north boundary line of T. H. James' grant aforesaid, bearing east 80 chains; on the residue of the east by a north line of 140 chains; on the north by a west line of 160 chains; and on the west by a south line of 180 chains to the western extreme of the north boundary line of James Robson's 2000 acre grant aforesaid.

This land was located on an order of Governor Darling's, dated 17th October, 1828, in favor of John Tooth, who it is alleged, sold to Thomas Horton James, from whom claimant derives his title.

By the direction of the Commissioners,

JOHN THOMPSON,

Secretary.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both primary and secondary data collection techniques. The primary data was gathered through direct observation and interviews, while secondary data was obtained from existing reports and databases.

The third section details the statistical analysis performed on the collected data. This involves the use of descriptive statistics to summarize the data and inferential statistics to test hypotheses. The results of these analyses are presented in a clear and concise manner, highlighting the key findings of the study.

Finally, the document concludes with a discussion of the implications of the findings. It suggests that the results have significant implications for the field of study and provides recommendations for further research. The author also acknowledges the limitations of the study and offers suggestions for how these can be addressed in future work.

On Saturday, the Seventh instant, and following days, between the hours of 10, a. m., and 4, p. m., the hiring of the Male Immigrants will be proceeded with.

Before 10 o'clock on the morning of Saturday, the Seventh instant, or at any other times than those fixed, as above stated, for the hiring of the Immigrants, no stranger or person in quest of servants will be admitted, or allowed to remain on board. Strict orders have been given to the Policeman on duty in the Ship, to enforce the observance of this rule.

All applications for servants must be made to the Surgeon Superintendent on board, and the Immigrants will be cautioned against hiring themselves to any person without his sanction, and without a formal agreement, to be signed by the two contracting parties, and witnessed by an Officer of the Immigration Department, who will attend on board of the ship for the purpose.

Before sanctioning any engagement, the Surgeon Superintendent will be required to satisfy himself of the respectability of the hiring party, either by reference to the Officer of the Immigration Department who will be in attendance, or by such other means of enquiry as may be available.

No stranger will be allowed to visit the 'tween decks of the vessel unless accompanied by the Surgeon Superintendent. Any person infringing this rule will be ordered to quit the ship forthwith.

The Ship will be anchored at the entrance of Sydney Cove, and will be provided with an external accommodation ladder.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.
