WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled, "An Act for the transportation of offenders from Great Britain," it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to appoint any place or places beyond the Seas, within or without His Majesty's dominions, to which felons and other offenders under sentence or order of transportation or punishment should be conveyed.

And whereas by the said Act it was further enacted, that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to declare His Royal will and pleasure, that male offenders convicted in Great Britain, and being under sentence or order of transportation, should be kept to labor in any part of His Majesty's dominions out of England, to be named in such Order or Orders in Council.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled, "An Act for punishing offences committed by transports kept in labor in the Colonies, and better regulating the powers of Justices of the Peace in New South Wales," it was among other things enacted, that it should and might be lawful for His said late Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him from time to time for that purpose issued, with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint, or by any such Order or Orders in Council, to authorise the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or other person for the time being administering the Government of any of His Majesty's Foreign Possessions, Colonies, or Plantations, to appoint the place or places within His Majesty's dominions to which any offender convicted in any such Foreign Possessions, Colonies, or Plantations, and being under sentence or order of transportation, shall be sent or transported; and it was thereby enacted, that all such persons should within the place or places to which, in pursuance of any such Order or Orders in Council, they should or might be so sent or transported, be subject and liable to all such and the same Laws, Rules, and Regulations as were or should be in force in any such place or places, with respect to convicts transported from Great Britain.

And whereas in pursuance of the powers so vested in the Crown as aforesaid by the said recited Acts, certain orders have been made by the advice of the Privy Council, during the reigns of their late Majesties King George the Fourth and King William the Fourth respectively, and of Her present Majesty, namely,—on the 23rd of June, 1824, the 11th day of November, 1825, and the 22nd May, 1840,—for the purpose of appointing places to which such felons and other offenders should be conveyed, and the places to which offenders convicted in such Foreign Possessions, Colonies, or Plantations, should be transported.

And whereas it hath seemed fit to Her Majesty, on the advice of Her Privy Council, to revoke the said Orders in Council, and to substitute in lieu thereof such other provisions as are hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in Her Majesty in Council by the said recited Acts of Parliament, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered that upon and from the 25th day of November, 1848, the said Orders in Council shall be and the same are respectively revoked, so far as regards any act, matter, or thing to be done from and after the said 25th day of November in the premises.

And it is hereby further ordered by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, that from and after the said 25th day of November, the following shall be the places to which felons and other offenders in the United Kingdom, then being or thereafter to be under sentence or order of transportation, shall be conveyed under the provisions of the said recited Act of the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, namely,—

New South Wales,
Van Diemen's Land and Norfolk Island, together with the Dependencies comprised under the Governments of the aforesaid Colonies respectively.

And it is hereby further ordered by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, that male offenders convicted in the United Kingdom and being under sentence or order of transportation shall, from and after the said 25th of November, 1848, in pursuance of the provisions of the said last recited Act, be kept to hard labor in Her Majesty's Colony of Bermuda; and it is further ordered by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority aforesaid, that from and after the said 25th day of November, the respective Governors, Lieutenant Governors, and other persons for the time being, administering the Government of any of Her Majesty's Colonies, shall in pursuance of the provisions of the said recited Act of the 6th year of the reign of His said late Majesty, by Proclamations, to be by them respectively for that purpose issued, appoint the place or places within Her Majesty's Dominions, to which any offender convicted in any such Colonies, and being under sentence or order of transportation shall be sent or transported, provided that neither the said Colony of Bermuda, nor any of Her Majesty's Colonies in New Holland, or in the Southern Ocean, be so appointed for that purpose by any such Proclamation as aforesaid, other than the said Island of Van Diemen's Land and Norfolk Island and the islands adjacent to and comprised within the Government of Van Diemen's Land.
