

PORT PHILLIP GOVERNMENT GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 21, 1849.

THE following congratulatory Addresses were presented to the Governor, during his Excellency's visit to the Port Phillip District.

THE CLERGY OF MELBOURNE.

To His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Captain General and Governor-in-Chief in and over the Territory of New South Wales, and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

May it Please Your Excellency,

We, the Bishop of Melbourne, and Clergy of the United Church of England and Ireland, in this City and neighbourhood, beg leave to express the gratification which we feel at your Excellency's arrival in this Province, and to tender to your Excellency, as the Representative of our Most Gracious Sovereign, the assurance of our loyal attachment.

The unanimous voice of all classes throughout the Middle District of the Colony has borne testimony to the wisdom and uprightness of your Excellency's administration; and we trust that your visit to Port Phillip will afford additional proof of the respect and esteem with which your Excellency is regarded.

We feel that the time and thoughts of your Excellency must be at present fully engrossed. We would therefore only further express our earnest hope, that your Excellency, with the advice of your Council, may be enabled to devise some means of providing the Ordinances of the Gospel as well for the large existing population of this Province, as for the many hundreds of Immigrants who are almost every month landed upon our shores;—and likewise of affording a sound Scriptural Education to the many children of professed Christian parents, who are now growing up in almost heathen ignorance.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ may in this, and in all other matters, direct and bless your Excellency, is the humble prayer of your faithful and obedient servants.

To the Lord Bishop and Clergymen.
My Lord Bishop and Rev. Gentlemen,

I receive the address which you have presented to me, with feelings of high gratification, and I beg to assure you, in reply to the hope you express, that it is my earnest desire to assist in providing the ordinances of the Gospel, as well for the now existing population of the Province, as for the numerous Immigrants who are flocking to its shores;—and for the promotion of sound Scriptural Education among the people of Port Phillip, as far as the resources placed at my disposal may permit.

CHAS. A. FITZ ROY.

THE TOWN COUNCIL.

His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, &c., &c.

May it please your Excellency,

We the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the City of Melbourne, avail ourselves of the opportunity afforded us, by your Excellency's first visit to the City and Province, to tender to your Excellency the expression of our loyal and dutiful attachment to our most gracious Sovereign the Queen, accompanied with the most cordial assurance of our respect and esteem for your Excellency as her Majesty's Representative in the Colony.

We hail with the highest gratification your Excellency's arrival in Port Phillip, and we trust that your stay will be sufficiently prolonged to afford your Excellency opportunity to judge from personal observation as to the condition and prospects of the Province; for, satisfied that we are in the possession of the essential elements of prosperity, and have within ourselves the means of successfully working them out, if allowed to reap the benefit of our own resources, we feel assured that your Excellency's personal acquaintance with our wants and wishes is alone required, to ensure that justice which we seek.

In the anxious expectation of the immediate separation of this Province from the Middle District, and its erection into a distinct colony, under the Royal designation of VICTORIA, we cannot look forward to a long duration of your Excellency's administration of the government of this Province; but it is nevertheless our ardent desire to give your Excellency a cordial welcome, and whatever may be the duration of your Excellency's visit, that your experience of this City and its inhabitants should be such as to impress your Excellency with pleasurable recollections of the City of Melbourne and the District of Port Phillip.

To the Worshipful the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the City of Melbourne.

Mr. Mayor and Gentlemen,

I am gratified by this assurance of loyalty and attachment to our most gracious Sovereign, from the Chief Magistrate and Corporation of a City about to become the capital of a colony, which her Majesty has been pleased to intimate shall receive the high distinction of being named after herself.

During my short stay in this important Province, it will be my duty to devote my attention to its condition and prospects, and I can assure you of my sincere desire to promote its welfare.

Whenever the Separation of the Port Phillip from the Middle District may take place, it is my earnest hope, that this measure may be conducive to its prosperity and happiness.

I beg to thank you for the cordial welcome which you have offered me on this occasion.

CHAS. A. FITZ ROY.

THE INHABITANTS OF MELBOURNE.

To His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

May it please your Excellency—

We the inhabitants of the City of Melbourne, in public meeting assembled, avail ourselves of your Excellency's arrival in the province, to present to your Excellency this expression of our loyalty and attachment to our Most Gracious Sovereign, and of our respect and esteem for your Excellency, as the Governor of the Colony of which this province is still a dependency.

Devotedly attached to the constitution and institutions of our native land, we would, under any circumstances, gladly hail the arrival among us of the representative of our beloved Sovereign; but your Excellency's visit is doubly welcome, because located as we are, at a distance from the seat of Government, and shut out, in great measure, from the fostering care and superintendence of both the executive and legislative branches of the administration, we regard your Excellency's appearance among us as indicative of your desire to become personally acquainted with the wants and resources of our city and province, and we feel assured that if your Excellency's stay is sufficiently prolonged to admit of your judging for yourself of the extent and fertility of our soil, our commercial and agricultural resources, and the energy, wealth, and enterprise, of our population, we may rely upon a just and prompt consideration of our interests for the remainder of the period during which this province is to continue in subjection to the middle district of the colony.

We congratulate your Excellency on your safe arrival in the province, and we hope that your sojourn among us may be sufficiently agreeable to secure for this city and province a lasting and favorable position in your Excellency's recollections.

To the Inhabitants of the City of Melbourne.

Gentlemen,

I receive with confidence the expression of your loyalty and attachment to our most gracious Sovereign, and I thank you for the assurance of your respect and esteem for myself, as her Majesty's representative in this Colony.

It is my anxious desire to make myself personally acquainted with the wants and resources of this rising city and province, and you may rely upon the impartial exercise of my judgment in all matters relating to their interests during the time they may remain under my administration.

CHAS. A. FITZ ROY.

MECHANICS' SCHOOL OF ARTS, MELBOURNE.

To His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Commander of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain-General, and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c.

May it please your Excellency,

We, the President, Vice-Presidents, and Committee of Management of the Melbourne Mechanics' School of Arts, beg most respectfully to approach your Excellency with the expression of the extreme gratification which we feel in welcoming your Excellency to this Dependency of your government.

We have the utmost confidence in assuring your Excellency, that the inhabitants of the District of Port Phillip are not surpassed in loyalty to their Sovereign, or respect for the laws and institutions of the Empire, by any subjects of the British Crown.

We joyfully embrace the opportunity, which your Excellency's visit to this District of the Colony affords, of informing your Excellency that the Melbourne Mechanics' School of Arts, which has been in existence for upwards of nine years, has been, considering the difficulties incidental to its formation in an infant colony, exceedingly successful in carrying out the objects for which kindred Institutions were established.

We beg to tender to your Excellency our grateful thanks, for the countenance and support which our Institution has hitherto received from your Excellency's government, and we venture to hope that a personal observation of its growth and usefulness, may induce a continuance of your Excellency's fostering auspices.

It is our anxious wish that your Excellency's visit to this portion of the colony, may prove agreeable, and that returning to your seat of Government in safety, you may long continue to enjoy in health and happiness, the confidence of your Sovereign, and of the people over whom you are called upon to rule.

To the President, Vice-Presidents, and Committee of Management of the Melbourne School of Arts.

Gentlemen,

I beg to thank you for the kind manner in which you welcome me to this portion of my government.

I cannot doubt that the inhabitants of the District of Port Phillip, are equal in loyalty to their Sovereign, and in respect for the laws and institutions of the Empire to any of Her Majesty's subjects.

It gives me much pleasure to learn, that the Melbourne Mechanics' School of Arts has been so successful in carrying out the objects for which it was instituted, and I shall be happy to continue to promote its interests by every means in my power.

CHAS. A. FITZ ROY.

INHABITANTS OF GEELONG AND DISTRICT OF GRANT.

To His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

Sir,

We, the undersigned inhabitants of Geelong and District of Grant, respectfully approach Your Excellency to tender our joyous congratulations on the occasion of Your Excellency's visit to this remote district.

As dutiful subjects of Our Most Gracious Sovereign Queen Victoria we avail ourselves of this opportunity to express to you, as Her Representative, our continued loyalty and attachment to Her Person and Government.

Believing as we do, that Your Excellency has ever been actuated by an earnest desire to promote the moral and physical welfare of the people over whom you have been placed, we look forward to the most gratifying results arising from Your Excellency's becoming personally conversant with the capabilities of this district and being thus enabled the better to form a judgment upon the requirements for its continued prosperity.

Trusting that you will return to the seat of your government in health and safety, strengthened in the conviction of the importance of this province as an appendage to the British Empire, and its affording an advantageous outlet for the redundant population of the mother-country; also, that the cordial good-will and reciprocal confidence which have ever existed between Your Excellency and the inhabitants of this province, will be cemented by closer intercourse.

We beg to subscribe ourselves,
Your Excellency's most faithful and humble servants,

To the inhabitants of Geelong and District of Grant.

Gentlemen,—

I thank you for your congratulations upon my arrival among you; and, as the Representative of Our Most Gracious Sovereign, I am happy to receive the expression of your loyalty and attachment to Her Majesty's person and government.

I am glad to have now an opportunity of becoming personally acquainted with the capabilities of this flourishing District, and I hope that the gratifying result which you anticipate may be realised by the continuance of its prosperity.

MECHANICS' SCHOOL OF ARTS, GEELONG.

To His Excellency Sir Charles
Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight,
Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies.

May it please your Excellency, the Resident Members of the Geelong Mechanics' Institute and School of Arts, hasten to tender their sincere congratulations to your Excellency on your auspicious arrival in this interesting portion of the Australian Territory; an event at this time peculiarly pleasing, for while it affords us the opportunity of expressing our warm attachment to the Person and Government of our beloved Sovereign, we can also render to Her Majesty's representative, our grateful acknowledgments for the interest so promptly exercised in our behalf, as evinced in your Excellency's reply to our application from the Revenue, in aid of our infant institution.

The thriving appearance of our Town and District is calculated to excite feelings of surprise at the energy and perseverance of this community, who amidst the daily occupations of life have successfully established an institution numbering two hundred and thirty members, having for its objects the encouragement of Literary and Scientific pursuits, and the elevation of the character of the working classes.

Trusting that your Excellency may be gratified with the results of your visit to this place, and may return safely and in the enjoyment of health to the seat of government.

We have the honour to be,

I thank you for your congratulations on my arrival in this portion of my Government, and I accept with full confidence, the warm expression of your attachment to Our Most Gracious Sovereign.

I have derived much gratification from witnessing the thriving appearance of this rising town, and I cannot doubt that the energy and perseverance already displayed by its inhabitants will at no distant date render it equal in importance to any in this part of Her Majesty's Dominions.

I sincerely hope that an Institution so well calculated to elevate the character of the working classes of the community may continue to prosper.

SAINT PATRICK'S SOCIETY.

To His Excellency Sir Charles Augustus Fitz Roy, Knight, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain-General and Governor in Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice Admiral of the same:

May it please your Excellency,

WE, the President, Vice-President, Office bearers, and Committee, of the "Saint Patrick's Society, of Australia Felix," as the legitimate representatives of that Institution, avail ourselves of Your Excellency's arrival in this Province, to tender to you, as Viceroy of our most gracious Sovereign, Victoria, an expression of that heart-felt loyalty and devotedness, which has ever been the most marked characteristic of our race and country.

Your Excellency has already been officially informed of the nature and objects of our Institution, which are, solely of a national, literary, and benevolent character; or, as primarily expressed, in our fundamental law—"The cherishing of Irish patriotism—the education of children of Irish descent—and the promotion of the peace, honour, and happiness of Australia Felix." We are, therefore, peculiarly happy to have this opportunity of acknowledging the recognition and pecuniary co-operation of your Excellency, and to assure you of our sincere gratitude and esteem.

We are precluded, by the nature of our Institution, from giving expression to any opinion affecting the political relations of the District, but, as Colonists necessarily and deeply interested in the advancement of our adopted country, one of the fairest portions of Her Majesty's boundless empire, we confidently hope, that the advent of Your Excellency's visit will be calculated to promote its prosperity, and secure the welfare of all its inhabitants.

We offer to your Excellency our warmest wishes for your personal happiness, and earnestly trust that you may long continue to occupy that exalted position which your public and private worth equally contribute to adorn.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

JOHN O'SHANASSY, President,
EDMUND FINN, Vice-President,
MICHAEL O'CONNELL, Hon. Sec.
JAMES MARTIN, M. D.

Office bearers, and Committee of the St. Patrick's Society of Australia Felix:

Gentlemen,

I am gratified at receiving the expression of your loyalty and devotedness to our most gracious Sovereign.

I beg to convey to you my best thanks for the assurance of your esteem, and I request you to believe that my endeavours shall not be wanting to promote, by every means in my power, the prosperity and happiness of the inhabitants of this District.

I trust that the benevolent objects of your Institution may meet with success.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS.

To His Excellency Sir Charles A. Fitz Roy, Knight, Companion of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of the Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

May it please your Excellency,

We, the Officers and Members of the Melbourne Duke of York and Loyal Fitz Roy Lodges, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, founded in Melbourne, by Dispensation from the Australian Supreme Grand Lodge, Sydney, and subject to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, London, of which Order as working in New South Wales and Port Phillip your Excellency has graciously allowed yourself to be nominated the Patron;

Beg leave to approach your Excellency, with the warmest and sincerest expressions of Welcome, upon your first visit to the City of Melbourne and the Province of Port Phillip, and with our assurances of the high respect we entertain for your person, as Representative of Her Most Gracious Majesty our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, as President in Council of these Territories, and as the Promoter in your private capacity of the social and moral harmony and excellence, of the people committed to your charge.

Amongst the numerous addresses which your Excellency will doubtless receive from various classes of this community, political and commercial, we venture to hope that the humble and unobtrusive greeting of a Fraternity, with whose practical benevolence your Excellency's distinguished name is connected, will not be the least acceptable.

It is our constant aim that never, either in your Excellency's time, nor in that of any of your Successors, may the Order to which we belong, belie in the smallest degree, those principles which have taught its members to "Fear God, Honor the Ruler, Maintain the Brotherhood, and live in Peace with all Men," nor fail in those deeds which have marked them out, as a "peculiar people zealous of good works."

We have the honour to congratulate your Excellency upon your arrival in this city and dependency, to pledge to you our loyalty and affection for the Throne, and to avow ourselves,

With profound respect,

Your Excellency's

Most obedient and humble servants, to command.

To the Officers and Members of the Melbourne Duke of York and Fitzroy Lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Gentlemen,

I have to thank you for the warm expression of your welcome to the City of Melbourne and to the province of Port Phillip, and for the assurance of your respect for me as her Majesty's representative in this colony.

I cannot doubt that the principles of loyalty, charity, and peace, in which the members of your fraternity have been instructed, will be fully maintained by them.
