THE SYDNEY RAILWAY COMPANY.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, made and passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to incorporate a Company to be called 'The Sydney Railway Company,'" it is enacted, for settling all differences which may arise between the said Company and the several owners of or persons interested in any land which shall or may be taken, used, damaged, or injuriously affected by the execution of any of the powers by the said Act granted to the said Company, and for determining the amount of compensation to be paid by the said Company, in respect to any lands taken, used, damaged, or injuriously affected as aforesaid; that upon the application of either party, or in case the owner, or person entitled to such compensation should be absent from the Colony, or cannot be found, then, upon application by the said Company, it should be lawful for any two Justices in Petty Sessions assembled, in the District in which the lands taken, used, or injuriously affected are situated, and having no interest in the matter, by writing under their hands, to nominate and appoint three able practical Surveyors, for determining what compensation should be paid by the said Company to the owner or person interested in the lands taken, used, or injuriously affected as aforesaid, and such Surveyors, or any two of them, should determine the same accordingly, and should annex to their valuation, a declaration in writing subscribed by them, of the correctness thereof, and such valuation should be binding and conclusive upon all parties; Provided always, that the said Surveyors, in assessing such compensation are authorised and empowered, and shall take into consideration the enhancement in value of the adjoining land belonging to the party to whom compensation is to be made, by the increased facilities of access to the different Stations and termini of the said Railways, in reduction of such compensation; and further, that before making any such application to the Justices as aforesaid, either party should give at least ten days notice to the other of his or their intention to make such application, and where the owner or person interested in the land should be absent from the Colony, and cannot be found, notice of such intention should be given by the said Company, by advertisement in the New South Wales Government Gazette, and in one or more of the Sydney Newspapers, describing the premises in respect of which compensation was to be assessed, ten days at the least before making such application. And whereas, all that piece or parcel of land (mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, and particularly described in a map or plan exhibited at the office of the said Company, No. 247, Elizabeth-street, Sydney,) situated near Homebush, in the parish of Liberty Plains, in the district of Parramatta, in the County of Cumberland, belonging or reputed to belong to Thomas Underwood, or in which he has or claims some estate, share, interest, or charge, in, over, or affecting the same, or some part thereof, or which he claims to be empowered to sell, release, and convey, is required to be taken and used by the said Company, for the purposes mentioned in the said Act, and which said land the said Company is by the said Act empowered to take; and whereas the said Thomas Underwood is absent from the Colony, or cannot be found, now the said Company do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act give notice to the said Thomas Underwood, that the said is required for the purposes aforesaid, and that the said Company intend, after the expiration of ten days from the publication of this notice, and in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to apply to two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in Petty Sessions assembled in Parramatta, being the district in which the said land is situated, to nominate and appoint by writing under their hands, three able practical surveyors for determining what compensation should be paid by the said Company, to the said Thomas Underwood, in pursuance of the said Act, for the said land.

Dated at Sydney, this twelfth day of December, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty.

CHARLES COWPER,
Manager of the said Railway Company.

To Mr. Thomas Underwood, and all other persons claiming satisfaction or compensation for the above-mentioned land, or for any share or interest therein, or for any injury or damage occasioned by the taking the said lands by the said Company, or otherwise by reason of the execution of the said Act, and to all other persons whom it may concern.

The Schedule referred to in the foregoing notice.

All that piece or parcel of land, being a portion of the property of Thomas Underwood, which is situated on the southern side of the Sydney and Parramatta Road, opposite the present Homebush Race Course, and lying between the Estates of Joseph Hyde Potts, on the eastern side, and John Wentworth, on the western. The ground intended for the Railway, passing in a westerly direction through the property, and varying in width from 45 to 96 feet, and extending in length for 38 chains 10 links, and which is more particularly described in the map or plan exhibited in the Office of the Sydney Railway Company.

THE SYDNEY RAILWAY COMPANY.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, made and passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, "An Act to Incorporate a Company to be called the Sydney Railway Company," it is enacted, for settling all differences which may arise between the said Company and the several owners of or persons interested in any land which shall or may be taken, used, damaged, or injuriously affected by the execution of any of the powers by the said Act granted to the said Company, and for determining the amount of compensation to be paid by the said Company in respect of any lands taken, used, damaged, or injuriously affected as aforesaid, that upon the application of either party, or in case the owner or person entitled to such compensation should be absent from the Colony, or cannot be found, then upon application by the said Company it should be lawful for any two Justices in petty sessions assembled in the district in which the lands taken, used, or injuriously affected are situated, and having no interest in the matter, by writing under their hands, to nominate and appoint three able practical surveyors, for determining what compensation should be paid by the said Company to the owner or person interested in the lands taken, used, or injuriously affected as aforesaid; and such surveyors, or any two of them, should determine the same accordingly, and should annex to their valuation a declaration in writing, subscribed by them, of the correctness thereof; and such valuation should be binding and conclusive upon all parties: Provided always, that the said surveyors, in assessing such compensation, are authorised and empowered and shall take into consideration the enhancement in value of the adjoining land belonging to the party to whom compensation is to be made, by the increased facilities of access to the different stations and termini of the said Railways, in reduction of such compensation. And further, that before making any such application to the Justices as aforesaid, either party should give at least ten days notice to the other of his or their intention to make such application, and where the owner or person interested in the land should be absent from the Colony, or cannot be found, notice of such intention should be given by the said Company by advertisement in the New South Wales Government Gazette, and in one or more of the Sydney newspapers, describing the premises in respect of which compensation was to be assessed, ten days at the least before making such application. And whereas all that piece or parcel of land, (mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed, and particularly described in a map or plan exhibited at the office of the said Company, No. 247, Elizabeth-street, Sydney,) situated near Homebush, in the parish of Liberty Plains, in the district of Parramatta, in the county of Cumberland, belonging or reputed to belong to John Wentworth, or in which he has or claims some estate, share, interest, or charge, in, over, or affecting the same, or some part thereof, or which he claims to be empowered to sell, release, and convey, is required to be taken and used by the said Company, for the purposes mentioned in the said Act, and which said land the said Company is by the said Act empowered to take. And whereas the said John Wentworth is absent from the Colony, or cannot be found; now the said Company do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, give notice to the said John Wentworth, that the said land is required for the purposes aforesaid, and that the said Company intends, after the expiration of ten days from the publication of this notice, and in pursuance of the provisions in the said Act contained, to apply to two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions assembled, in Parramatta, being the district in which the said land is situated, to nominate and appoint, by writing under their hands, three able practical surveyors, for determining what compensation should be paid by the said Company to the said John Wentworth, in pursuance of the said Act, for the said land.

No. 143, 13TH DECEMBER, 1850.—9.

Dated at Sydney, this twelfth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty.

CHARLES COWPER,
Manager of the said Railway Company.

To Mr. John Wentworth, and all other persons claiming satisfaction or compensation for the above mentioned land, or for any share or interest therein, or for any injury or damage occasioned by the taking the said land by the said Company, or otherwise, by reason of the execution of the said Act, and to all other persons whom it may concern.

The Schedule referred to in the foregoing notice.

All that piece or parcel of land, being a portion of the property of John Wentworth, which is situated on the southern side of the Parramatta Road, adjacent to the present Homebush Racecourse, and lying between the estate of Thomas Underwood on the eastern side, and the estate of C. Nicholson and Lithgow on the southern. The ground intended for the Railway passing in a south-westerly direction through the property, varying in width from 44 to 88 feet, and extending in length for 22 chains and 10 links, and which is more particularly described in the map or plan exhibited at the office of the Sydney Railway Company.
