NOTICE TO MARINERS.

By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.

H. M. Surveying Ship "Rattlesnake," at Sydney, 11th February, 1850.

SIR,

I beg leave to inform you, that I have recently returned from an examination of the Louisiade Archipelago and south-east coast of New Guinea, and that during the Survey a clear channel of at least 30 miles wide has been surveyed, extending from the easternmost end of the Louisiade to Cape Possession, the point where Captain Blackwood's work terminated. The coast of New Guinea does not appear to afford any opening for trade, as the only article of commerce seen during our stay on the coast, was a small quantity of tortoiseshell of inferior quality, and the natives were so numerous and of such treacherous and warlike dispositions, that it would be highly dangerous for any trading vessel to attempt to communicate with them.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) OWEN STANLEY,
Captain.

THE HONORABLE E. DEAS THOMSON,
COLONIAL SECRETARY,
&c., &c., &c.
