NOTICE TO MARINERS.

HIS Excellency the GOVERNOR-GENERAL directs the publication, for general information, of the following letter, addressed to Captain King, R.N., by Mr. F. B. Chilcott, Master of the barque "Arabia," reporting the existence of a dangerous sunken rock off No. 8 Island, (Claremont Group,) in Torres Strait.

*By His Excellency's Command,
E. DEAS THOMSON.*

Barque "Arabia,"

Booby Island, Torres Strait, 1st July, 1851.

CAPTAIN P. P. KING, R.N.

Dear Sir,

I wish to bring to your notice the fact, that the rock discovered by me off No. 8 Island, (Claremont Group,) in the Straits, is still omitted in the Admiralty Charts—those that I have, at least, do not contain it and they are your charts, with additions by Captain Owen Stanley. The Island bore west  $\frac{1}{2}$  south, by compass  $1\frac{1}{2}$  mile. You will immediately perceive, on reference to the charts, that the rock is directly in the way, and if its existence is not made known by the time the steamers pass that route, the danger will be considerable. I passed this time about 30 yards to the eastward of it, (it was low water spring tides, and then only a wash.) The rock is about two ships' length north and south, and about eight yards east and west.

I remain, dear sir,

Yours sincerely,

F. B. CHILCOTT,
Commanding barque "Arabia."
