Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 1st November, 1852.

QUARANTINE.

CASES of Fever, Diarrhœa, and Hooping Cough, having occurred on board the ship Chance throughout her passage from England to this port, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, under the authority vested in him by the provisions of the Acts 3 William 4, No. 1, and 5 Victoria No. 12, of the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales, has deemed it necessary to place the Vessel, Crew, and Passengers under Quarantine, of which all persons are hereby required to take notice accordingly.

The Boundaries of the Quarantine Station, Hobson's Bay, are specified in the Proclamation of the 26th December, 1851, of which His Excellency directs the republication.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. LONSDALE.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency CHARLES JOSEPH LA TROBE, Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the Colony of Victoria and its dependencies.

IN accordance with the provisions of the Acts of the Governor and Council of New South Wales, 3 William 4th. No. 1, and 5 Victoria, No. 12, I, by this proclamation, declare and order that the Quarantine Ground in Hobson's Bay shall be the portion of the said Harbour commencing at a point two miles distant from the South end of St. Kilda, and bearing W. by S. from it; from thence extending for two miles in a southerly direction, at the same distance from and parallel to the Beach leading to Brighton, with an uniform width of one mile and a half, and I do hereby strictly prohibit all persons, not being themselves under Quarantine, or duly authorized for the purposes of necessary communication with Vessels under Quarantine, or the Quarantine Ground, from going under any pretence whatever, within the limits hereinbefore described in Hobson's Bay, when any Ship or Vessel is performing Quarantine in Hobson's Bay, or any persons, goods, wares, or merchandize, are undergoing Quarantine within the said limits, under the pains and penalties prescribed by Law.
No. 43.—NOVEMBER 1st, 1852.—18.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at the Government Offices, Melbourne, this first day of November, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and in the sixteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign.

(l. s.) C. J. LA TROBE.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. LONSDALE.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
