COMMITTAL OF PRISONERS & ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES IN CRIMINAL CASES.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has been pleased to direct the publication for general information of the following Circular Letter addressed to the several Benches of Magistrates throughout the Colony, relative to the Committal of Prisoners, and the mode of procuring the Attendance of Witnesses at the Criminal Sessions of the Supreme and Circuit Courts of the Colony.

By His Excellency's Command,
W. LONSDALE,
Colonial Secretary.

[CIRCULAR.]

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 22nd May, 1852.

GENTLEMEN,

I have the honor to inform you, that as the mode of binding over Witnesses to appear and give evidence at Criminal Sessions, heretofore existing in this country, involves a necessity in most cases for the subsequent service on each Witness of a Writ of Subpœna and is found to be attended with inconvenience, His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor has determined to adopt the practice which obtains in England and the adjacent Colony of New South Wales, where Prisoners are committed for trial at particular Courts, and the Witnesses bound over to appear at stated times and places to give evidence. I have therefore, the honor to request, that after the First day of June next, in Committals before your Bench, you will comply with the following Instructions.

1. You will commit each Prisoner for Trial to the Gaol of the District within which the offence has been perpetrated; thus you will select the Gaol at Portland, Geelong, or Melbourne; according as the crime has been committed within the limits of the Portland Circuit District, the Geelong Circuit District, or in any part of the Colony of Victoria not included in those limits.

The boundaries of each Circuit District have been published in the Government Gazette of the 18th day of March, A. D. 1852., and are sent herewith.

2. You will bind in a separate Recognizance every material Witness, as well those examined for the Defence as for the Prosecution, absolutely to appear on the First day of the Sittings of the Supreme or Circuit Court as the case may be, at which the Prisoner is to be tried, and thence to attend from day to day until duly discharged, without any further notice by Subpœna or otherwise.

3. You will at the same time give a written notice to each Witness of the time and place, at which the Court he is bound to attend will be held. The forms of Recognizances to be in future used by you, and of the notice are subjoined, and shall be supplied to you when required. You will observe that all Blanks are carefully filled up in words at length, particularly the name, residence, and occupation, of each Witness in the Recognizance, and you will cause the Recognizance to be explained to, and when fully understood, to be duly acknowledged by each Witness in your presence.

4. You will observe the Calendar of the Criminal Sessions for the year; calculate the probable time of the arrival of each Prisoner at the Gaol, to which he is committed; and bind over each Witness to appear at the next or the succeeding Sessions, as the case may be; but so as to allow in City cases of two, and in Country cases of five days intervening between the arrival of the Prisoner at the Gaol, and the first day of the Sessions, at which the Witness is required to attend. This will claim your particular attention, as the object is two-fold; that should no Information be found against the accused, the attendance of the Witnesses may be countermanded; and also, that should additional evidence be required, sufficient time to communicate with you may be allowed. Instances may occur in which exercising a sound discretion, you may consider it advisable to deviate from this rule.

A List of the times of holding the Criminal Sessions of the Supreme and Circuit Courts for the remainder of this year is annexed, and a Calendar will be annually published in the Gazette or forwarded to you.

The Recognizances, Depositions and Statements, if any, of the accused, should be transmitted immediately to the Attorney General at Melbourne, but in cases for Trial at a Circuit Court which may be too near at hand to afford sufficient time for the purpose, you will address them to the Attorney or Solicitor General at the place of holding the Circuit Court; forwarding to the Attorney General, at Melbourne, a memorandum of the names and descriptions of the Prisoners committed, the nature of the charge, and the date of committal and the offence and the place to which the Depositions have been sent.

Should any matter arise for which these instructions do not provide, you will accommodate your proceedings to the circumstances of the particular instance, and give specific information on the subject to the Attorney General, at the time when you forward the Depositions.

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,
