Whenever any vessel proceeding in one direction meets a vessel proceeding in another direction, and the Master or other person having charge of either such vessel, perceives that if both vessels continue their respective courses they will pass so near as to involve any risk of a collision, he shall put up the helm of his vessel to port so as to pass on the port side of the other vessel, due regard being had to the tide, and to the position of each vessel with respect to the dangers of the channel, and as regards sailing vessels to the keeping of each vessel under command; and the Master of any steam vessel navigating any river or narrow channel shall keep as far as is practicable to that side of the fairway or mid channel thereof which lies on the starboard side of such vessel. And if the Master or any other person having charge of any steam vessel neglect to observe these regulations, or either of them, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

43. Steamers when steering the same course inside of Gollibrand's Point, either with or without vessels in tow, and one overtaking the other, the vessel gained upon to slack her speed if practicable until the other has passed her.

QUARANTINE.

60. No fire or light to be burning during the time such Gunpowder is being discharged.
