2. Messages will be delivered free of charge within one mile of either of the Offices; over that distance portage will be charged, and on Messages to be delivered on shipboard in Hobson's Bay an extra charge (to cover boat expenses) will be made.
3. Messages will be transmitted in the order of their reception, and no precedence will be allowed in transmission, except for Government despatches, the police service, and in cases of death.
4. All messages will be held strictly confidential.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 1st March, 1854.

ASSAY OFFICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Government Assay Office, in La Trobe-street west, Melbourne, is now open to receive Gold for smelting and assay, subject to the following regulations:—

1. Deposits of crude gold will be received every day, except Saturdays, between the hours of eleven and two.
2. Each parcel of gold so received will be weighed in the presence of the owner, or his agent, depositing the same at the Office, who will be required to sign the Deposit Book in which an entry of the particulars of the parcel is made, and will receive a corresponding deposit receipt, and the gold when assayed will be delivered to the person producing the deposit receipt. The individual depositing will, in every case, be taken to be the original owner of the gold.

3. Persons wishing to transmit gold per Escort to be passed through the Assay Office, are required to write in distinct characters on the outside of the parcel the words "For Assay." Parcels so directed will immediately on arrival in Melbourne be deposited at the Government Assay Office, and as soon as assayed will be deliverable in the form of bar at the Assay Office instead of the Gold Office, on production of the receipt and the owner's name.

4. The delivery of assayed gold will be made either at the Assay Office or at one of the Banks with which arrangements for that purpose may have been made by the depositor.

5. The detention at the Assay Office will in general be about three days, and will rarely exceed a week.
