EAST COLLINGWOOD MUNICIPALITY.

HIS Excellency the Governor has directed the following report of the several matters and questions, decided at a meeting of the resident householders and of the landholders within the Municipal District of East Collingwood, held on Monday, the 8th instant, together with the list of votes taken at a poll on the 9th instant, to be published in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Council, 18 Victoria, No. 15, sec. 15.

By His Excellency's Command,

R.13212.

WILLIAM C. HAINES.

Collingwood, 10th October, 1855.

SIR,—I take the earliest opportunity to inform you that in compliance with the provisions of the Act, intituled, "An Act for the establishment of Municipal Institutions in Victoria," and in compliance with duties of Chairman to which I had been duly nominated by His Excellency the Governor of Victoria, notice of which had been gazetted, I did preside at a meeting of the resident householders and landowners of the Municipal District of Collingwood, convened by a provisional committee, according to the provisions of the Act of Council, and such meeting was held at the appointed place on the eighth day of October instant, at the hour of Seven o'clock, P.M. I transmit herewith a concise report of the course then and subsequently pursued, and the results arrived at.

In pursuance of the commission intrusted to me I did at the appointed place and at the hour fixed, take the chair, and in a short speech laid before the Meeting the benefits likely to result, under good guidance on their part, from the Municipal Act which the Governor had forwarded to the Legislature and caused to be made law, and dwelt upon the very important position the Electors were placed in, calling their attention to the astonishing progress of their race, viz. the Anglo Saxon, and its almost incalculable increase within the last three centuries, urging them to bear this in mind, and assist our onward progress by putting the "fit men" in the "right place."

The meeting then proceeded to elect Assessors, and the names of the following gentlemen were submitted to meet approval, viz. :—Messrs. Jones, Scotchmere, Hood, Drew, Richard Norton, and Atkinson. I then called for a show of hands for each candidate, which resulted as follows:—Mr. Jones, 19 votes; Scotchmere, 22 votes; Hood, 68 votes; Drew, 13 votes; Norton, 100 votes; and Atkinson, 25 votes. The election then having fallen upon Messrs. Norton and Hood, those gentlemen took their seats. We then submitted the question of how many members the Council should consist of and the meeting quite unanimously decided to have seven Councillors, and further, that they should serve without pay.

The meeting then proceeded to nominate the candidates they intended to support, and although the meeting agreed to limit the time of each speaker to five minutes, the proposers and seconders of the various candidates took up so much time, and the meeting being so very multitudinous, myself and the Assessors agreed that a poll with voting cards should take place on the following morning at Eight o'clock, A.M., under the terms of the Act. The candidates proposed and duly seconded, were, Messrs. William Walker, William Findlay, John Myers, John Allen, Charles Curtis, Alexander B. Prichard, Thomas Barlow, Alexander Carnie, Joseph Avery, Henry Davidson, Francis Murphy, William Coleman, Samuel Turner, John Ferguson, John Owen, and W. Maidment, being sixteen. A poll was taken at the Independent Chapel, Oxford-street, Collingwood, commencing in terms of the Act, at Eight o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday, the 9th instant, and kept open until Four o'clock in the afternoon; and the number of votes polled for each person is herewith given, the first seven of whom we declared at the polling place this day, at One o'clock P.M., are the persons duly elected in accordance with the Act of Council under which we acted.

In the course of the Election several women tendered voting cards; some of these were received (when not objected to) in conformity with the instructions we held, and according to the practice at Richmond on a late occasion: others were rejected, having been objected to by resident landholders or householders. We are happy to inform you that the greatest unanimity prevailed between the Chairman and Assessors, and no marked disorder occurred more than is common on the first opening of similar civic institutions. We hereby beg leave to hand in the voting cards and the statement of the poll, together with all papers. We have each signed our names to the proper documents.

We are, Sir,

Your most obedient humble servants,

JOHN PASCOE FAWKNER,

Chairman.

 At Melbourne (including Williamstown, Hobson's Bay, Pentridge, Yarra Bend, &c.,) Nos. 1 to 11 inclusive.

CONDITIONS.

1. All the articles required by this notice are to be of the best quality of their several kinds, in the best condition, and to be delivered in sound packages.

2. The flour and bread must be the produce of prime wheat, from which on ration No. 1, twenty per cent, and on those of prisoners of the Crown, twelve per cent has been extracted in bran and waste.

3. Beef and mutton to be supplied in such proportions as may be required, and when the quantity admits of it, to be delivered in fore and hind quarters alternately.

4. When it may be necessary to substitute one article for another, the following proportions are to be observed, viz:—

Wheat flour, or
 Best wheaten biscuit, 1 lb., equal to $1\frac{1}{4}$ lb. of bread.
 Salt beef, 1 lb., or

5. The above substitutions are to be made whenever it may be considered advisable by the Officer authorised to draw the rations, but not otherwise.

6. The supplies are to be delivered direct to the establishment entitled thereto, on the written order of the Officer in charge or such person as he may appoint, except in the case of Aboriginal Stations, which are to be supplied under the Melbourne contract, and the several articles are to be delivered at the Colonial Stores.

7. Should the contractor fail to supply any articles when required, within twenty-four hours, they will be otherwise procured, and the expense over and above the contract price will be deducted from his account.

8. The contractor will be required to prepare his own account monthly in the prescribed form, and on the presentation thereof in a complete state, and signed by the Officer in charge of the Station by whom it was incurred, to the Colonial Storekeeper for examination, it will be forwarded through the proper channel for payment at the Colonial Treasury, or at the Sub-Treasuries, as the case may be. Where no Sub-Treasury has been established, the account will be defrayed from the Colonial Storekeeper's office by means of draft.

9. In the event of a difference of opinion between the contractor and the officer receiving the supplies as to the quality, the same is to be decided in cases where the article is not of a perishable nature, by a Board of Survey, composed of persons named by the Head of Department, and the decision of the Board is to be considered final.

10. If the Board shall decide that the article is not of proper quality, it must be immediately replaced by the contractor, failing which, it will be procured by the person requiring it, and the expense charged as in clause 7.

11. In the Country Districts when a Board of Survey cannot be conveniently assembled, and in all cases when the article is of a perishable nature, or when from some other cause injury would be sustained either by the persons to whom the rations are due, or to the contractor in waiting for a Board Survey, the Head of the Department, or Officer in charge of the Station, will have the power to reject such article or articles as are obviously of inferior quality, it being understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing; and that the contractor must take back the rejected article, and supply good in its stead, failing which, it will be obtained by the officer requiring it, and the expense will be charged as in clause 7.

12. A repetition of irregularity in the quantity or quality of the supplies, or of any delay in delivering or replacing them when required, will subject the contractor, upon report of the Colonial Storekeeper to such mulct not exceeding one fourth the amount of the monthly account, as the Governor may direct. It will also be in the power of the Governor upon such repetition to terminate the contract forthwith.

13. It will be competent for either party to limit the duration of the contract, by giving in writing a notice of three full calendar months to the opposite party, and to end the contract at the expiration of that period; it being understood that such notice can be given only from the first day of a month and within the period for which the contract is made.

CONDITIONS, ETC.

First.—It must be understood, that in all instances the usual mail road between the points abovementioned is to be travelled; and where no mail has heretofore run, that course is to be adopted which the Postmaster General may direct, or the Contractor specify in his tender.

Second.—Intending Contractors must give due consideration to the winter difficulties of the roads, and to the necessity for provision for the crossing of rivers or creeks by boat or otherwise, and they must bear in mind that no excuse for delay will be even entertained, unless supported by certificates from persons of known respectability, as to the cause of delay, and that it is attributable to no want of liberal provision both for ordinary duties and to overcome difficulties arising from stress of weather, or from the occurrence of accidents to the men, horses, or vehicles employed.

Third.—Contractors will be not merely bound to convey on and within such days and hours, and with such celerity (not less than six miles an hour) as the Postmaster General may direct, all mails, bags, letters, packets and newspapers, which may be delivered to them, under the authority of the Postmaster General or any Postmaster, but, further, to provide for that service such means of conveyance both as respects description and extent as may meet every emergency and all variations in the bulk of the mails, whether or not the transmission of such mails (either as respects address or contents) has been or is now customary. When there appears in the opinion of the Postmaster General or any officer by him duly authorised, any failure in respect of such ample provision, the deficiencies may be at once repaired by the hire or purchase of every requisite at the Contractor's cost and risk. The Postmaster General will especially require that due arrangements, either by locker, guard, or other satisfactory precautionary means, be made to protect mails from the possibility of being tampered with or abstracted by passengers or others without the immediate knowledge of the driver or other responsible person.

Fourth.—Contractors are invited to make any propositions for increased frequency of mails or definite arrivals and departures at the various stages on their roads; but they are at the same time cautioned that such special offers will not necessarily be regarded in the consideration of tenders; and so, to ensure their certainly appearing as competitors, they must also tender in a form unclogged by stipulations other than those of the above conditions.

Fifth.—Contractors can obtain the permission of the Postmaster General to convey, in addition to the mails, such limited number of passengers or weight of parcels as their means may appear equal to, such authority being, however, no plea or excuse for delays of mails, the conveyance of which must always be the paramount consideration; and the Postmaster General or other proper officer can at once revoke or modify such permission, when it appears that delays have ensued or are likely to ensue from passenger traffic. Every vehicle employed in the mail service must have painted on its door or body, in conspicuous characters, and in addition to the words "Royal Mail," or other sufficient indication of its being so employed, a statement of the number of passengers which it is permitted to convey. For every passenger, or corresponding weight of parcels carried in excess of such authorised and exhibited number, a penalty of Twenty Pounds sterling will be levied.

Sixth.—Contractors will be bound to prevent the conveyance of any letter or packet by any of their servants or passengers, or otherwise through their instrumentality, to the prejudice of the Post Office revenue; but they are bound to deliver along the prescribed or usual mail road, all loose letters and private bags entrusted or tendered to them either by or under the authority of a Postmaster; as well as to convey, and, at the first Post Office arrived at, deliver up every loose letter or private bag which, beyond the precincts of a post town, they may be required by any one to take charge of.

The penalty on the Contractor for every offence in these respects, as well as for the delivery or receipt within a post town, or within a mile of a Post Office, by a mail-man of any article subject to postage charge, shall be Five pounds.

No. 103.—OCTOBER 16TH, 1855.—6.

Seventh.—Contractors will be liable to a fine of Ten shillings for every five minutes' delay after the specified time of starting, unless such delay be under instructions and to await any overdue mail for further conveyance; and a like penalty will be inflicted for every ten minutes' delay in arrival, except for the first five or ten minutes respectively.

Eighth.—Contractors are particularly to remember that both on the main and branch roads they will be fined for the full delay that may, in consequence of their late arrival at any point of such road, ensue in the further transmission of each mail entrusted to them, and not merely for the amount of late arrival at such point. The delaying Contractor is bound to forward the mail by express to its final destination, or till it overtakes the proper conveyance at a Post Office in time for due transference through the hands of a Postmaster.

The Postmaster General will, when it appears not inconsistent with the public service, authorise arrangements dependent upon his continued approval, between Contractors for conjoining lines, to avert by awaiting one another's arrival, ill consequences to themselves and the public, but it is to be distinctly understood that the proper responsibility of each party to such an arrangement will not be altered or removed.

Ninth.—The Postmaster General will offer and pay, at the cost of the Contractor, such reward as in his judgment may appear fit, for the recovery of any lost mail, letter, packet, or newspaper.

Tenth.—For every separate mail package damaged by wet or otherwise injured through failure on the part of any Contractor to make adequate provision for its protection, such Contractor shall be liable to a penalty of One pound sterling, and to a further fine of sixpence for each damaged letter, packet or newspaper of its contents.

Eleventh.—Drivers, postmen and all persons in any way employed on the mail service, must be of certified good character; and they, as well as the horses, vehicles, and all other appliances of every kind, are to be at all times subject to the inspection and approval or rejection of the Postmaster General, or any person duly authorised by him. Every Contractor failing within such reasonable time as may be allowed him to remedy any deficiency in any of these respects, shall, for every such act, be mulcted in a sum not exceeding Ten pounds.

Twelfth.—Contractors employing, or required to employ, wheeled vehicles, boats or vessels, will be required, on the requisition of the Postmaster General, to provide free seats therein for officers or servants of the department travelling on the public service; such officers will be counted as authorised passengers.

Thirteenth.—All fines and penalties incurred under contract, may be either deducted by the Postmaster General from the payments becoming due to a Contractor, or recovered by ordinary legal process, and all such fines are to be considered over and above any penalties established by any Act of Council.

Fourteenth.—In all tenders the same division of the roads as shown above must be adopted, and each division (to be designated by number) must be separately tendered for; but a Contractor, desirous of uniting several lines in one service, may accompany his separate tenders for each with an offer of reduction, in the event of all, or any special lot of his tenders being accepted. But tenders for sub-divisions of the roads as above will be entertained, provided that by separate tenders each road as defined be completed.

Fifteenth.—No tender will be entertained which does not bear the bona fide signatures of two responsible persons, engaging to enter into a bond with the Contractor in double the amount of contract for the due performance of all its stipulations and the safety of the mails.

Sixteenth.—Contractors will be strictly bound not to sub-let any portion of their contracts without the consent of the Postmaster General.

Seventeenth.—The Postmaster General may appoint deputies to exercise all or any of the powers reposed in him by the contracts.

Eighteenth.—All further particulars may be obtained at the General Post Office, Melbourne, where intending Contractors are requested to apply.

Nineteenth.—Contractors will have to prepare their own accounts (forms for which can be had at the General Post Office), and take the necessary steps for their collection themselves, according to any regulations which exist or may be issued.

Twentieth.—Contractors will enjoy no exemption from payment of tolls, puntage, or any similar charges.

Twenty-first.—Conveyance by wheeled vehicles will be in all cases, where practicable, preferred.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.
