TRADE BETWEEN SOUTH AUSTRALIA AND VICTORIA BY WAY OF THE RIVER MURRAY.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve and confirm the arrangements understated, which have been made with the Governments of New South Wales and South Australia, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, 17 Victoria, No. 17, section 20, viz. :—

1. The duties, as authorised by the tariff of South Australia, will, in the first instance, be collected at a Custom House in South Australia, upon all goods intended for transit up the River Murray.

2. The Master of every ship trading on the River Murray, beyond the limits of the Province of South Australia, and carrying goods which would be liable to duty if landed in either of the Colonies of New South Wales or Victoria, will be required to enter his ship outwards at the Goolwa, and before such ship depart deliver to the Collector or other proper officer a content in writing, signed by him, shewing the destination of such ship, her name, country and tonnage, the port of registry, the name and country of the Master, the marks and numbers of the goods laden, and the names of the respective shippers and consignees, and shall make and subscribe a declaration to the truth of such content, as far as any of such particulars can be known to him; and upon the further declaration of the Master of such ship, made before the Collector or other proper officer, to the effect that such goods have been duly landed, as consigned, the Colonial Treasurer will be instructed to place to the credit of the Governments of New South Wales or Victoria, as the case may be, the amount which would have been leviable as duties of Customs if the goods had been landed in the first instance at some port in either of those Colonies, to the extent that the duty collected on the said goods under the South Australian tariff will admit.

3. In other respects Masters of ships trading on the River Murray will be subject to the provisions of the Customs Regulations Acts of Victoria, 16 Vic., No. 23, 17 Vic., No. 17, 18 Vic., No. 29.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.
