Chief Secretary's Office,
Melbourne, 13th November, 1856.

HIS Excellency the Officer administering the Government, deeply impressed with the duty of invoking the blessing of Almighty God upon the deliberations of the Houses of Legislature about to assemble under the New Constitution, and desirous that the ministers and people of all Denominations should receive every facility for simultaneously meeting with this intent, in their respective places of worship, has been pleased to direct, that all public offices be closed on THURSDAY next, the 20th instant, and hereby invites the Chief Magistrates, and others having authority in cities, towns, and incorporated districts, to call upon persons carrying on business therein, to close their houses of business on that day.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.
