ESCAPED CONVICT.

WHEREAS Thomas McSorley, convict, effected his escape from the wood-cutting gang belonging to the Pentridge Stockade, on the afternoon of Thursday, the 10th of January instant: Notice is hereby given that a reward of Five pounds will be paid to any person giving information which will lead to the apprehension of the said convict.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.

PARTICULARS.

Thomas McSorley is a native of Tyrone, in Ireland, 5 feet 5½ inches high, swarthy, has dark brown hair and grey eyes, and is 28 years of age. He is a gardener. Marks—scars on left eyebrow and left cheek; burn mark outside right arm, lower part; scars on the tip of right forefinger, and the first joint of the second finger of the right hand; blue mark inside left arm, lower part; scar on the palm of the left hand near the wrist; large boil mark under the right side of the breast; large boil mark above the navel; boil mark on the cap of the right knee; two burn marks below the left knee outside; cut inside left shin. He arrived at Adelaide, 1853, on board the ship California, and was convicted at Ballaarat on 21st July, 1855, of wounding with intent.

Further Particulars.—He was transported from Ireland in 1845 to V. D. L. per Ratcliffe, was in the police at Port Esperance and Westbury, V. D. L., and also in the police force at Ballaarat or Castlemaine, and shot a man for not showing his license, for which he received a sentence of three or six months. He has since been living at Mr. Dewey's, farmer, about nine miles from Port Fairy, next to Mr. McGuire's station, and is supposed to have gone there again. When last seen he was in the vicinity of the Caledonian Gold Fields.

PETITION FOR MUNICIPAL INSTITUTIONS.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

IN pursuance of the Act of Council, 18 Victoria, No. 15, His Excellency the Senior Military Officer in Victoria has, with the advice of the Executive Council, directed the publication of the substance and prayer of a petition to His Excellency hereinafter set forth, signed by three hundred and twenty-two householders resident in the town of Williamstown, in the county of Bourke.

By His Excellency's Command,
WILLIAM C. HAINES.

The petitioners state that they are resident householders within the district of Williamstown, the area of which does not exceed nine square miles, and that no one point in such area is distant more than six miles from any other point thereof.

The petitioners further state that the district contains a population of more than three hundred householders, who are desirous of availing themselves of the provisions and advantages of the Act of Council, 18 Victoria, No. 15.

And the petitioners pray as follows:—

"That your Excellency will take into your favorable consideration the prayer of this their petition, and proclaim the said district of Williamstown a Municipal District within the meaning of the Act of Council beforementioned."

PETITION FOR ALTERATION OF MUNICIPAL BOUNDARIES, CASTLEMAINE.

IN pursuance of the Act of Council, 18 Victoria, No. 15, His Excellency the Senior Military Officer in Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct the publication of the substance and prayer of a petition to His Excellency, hereinafter set forth, signed by one hundred and fifty-five householders resident in the Municipal District of Castlemaine, in the county of Talbot and county unnamed.

By His Excellency's Command,
T.513. WILLIAM C. HAINES.

The petitioners express their anxiety to have the most eligible and advantageous form of municipal boundary, and they earnestly solicit that the present boundaries may be altered and amended according to a plan furnished by the petitioners, and more particularly described by the petitioners as follows, viz. :-

A square block of nine square miles, extending from the centre of the Market-square one mile south, two miles north, one and a half mile east, and one and a half mile west.

And they state as follows :-
Your petitioners consider that form and the ground it includes most desirable and best adapted for this municipality.
And your Excellency's petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

WITH a view to apportion the unclaimed proceeds arising from the sale of impounded cattle paid into the Treasury, under the laws in force in that behalf, among Charitable Institutions, His Excellency the Officer administering the Government hereby requests the several Committees or persons managing the affairs of such institutions to forward their applications to the Treasury on or before the 10th proximo, together with the following information, viz. :-

1. The name and purpose of the institution.
2. A copy of the regulations.
3. A list of private contributors, and the amounts contributed in 1855.
4. The number of persons relieved or assisted, and the total revenue and total expenditure during 1855.

By His Excellency's Command,
CHARLES SLADEN

Treasury,
Melbourne, 28th January, 1856.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

IT is hereby notified that the following Regulations having been framed respecting the apportionment of monies reserved for Public Worship in Victoria by the Act 18 and 19 Victoria, c. 55, His Excellency the Officer administering the Government, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to approve of the same, and direct that they shall take effect from the 1st of January, 1856.

1. The Head of every Christian denomination intending to claim aid under these Regulations is requested to send on or before the 20th day of February in this year, and on or before the 5th of January in each ensuing year, a notice to the Treasurer in the accompanying form (A), and no denomination will be entitled to receive aid during the year unless this notice shall have been given.

2. In cases where no aid has been given during the previous year, the notice must be accompanied by a certificate signed by at least 300 adults that they are bona fide members of the denomination, that the head of the denomination has been duly appointed, and that it has a church or chapel for the performance of public worship.

3. A schedule shewing the distribution among the several denominations of the sum appropriated for public worship will be communicated to the heads of denominations, and may be inspected at the Treasury.

Stipends.

4. One-half of the amount allotted to each denomination will be applicable to the payment of stipends.

5. At any time after the allotment referred to in the 3rd section, the head of any denomination may apply to the Treasurer in the form (B), for such stipends as may be required for ministers of that denomination.

6. This application must be accompanied by a declaration in the form C, to the effect that a sum equal to one-half of the gross stipends claimed will be obtained in the course of the year by contributions from other sources; and in cases where a minister is appointed for the first time to any church or chapel, by a certificate in the form (D), signed by at least one hundred adults.

7. No stipend exceeding £500 will be granted, except to the head of a denomination.

8. Payments of stipends, when sanctioned by His Excellency, will be made monthly at the Treasury upon the usual form of voucher.

9. On or before the 31st day of December in each year the head of each denomination is required to send to the Treasurer an account in the accompanying form E, shewing the contributions received during the year, under the declaration provided for in section 6 of these regulations. Should the amount of these contributions received by any denomination fall short of the sum required, a corresponding reduction will be made in the sum allotted to that denomination for the ensuing year.

10. A statement in the form (F) is required to be sent by the head of each denomination to the Treasurer, on or before the 5th of January in each year, shewing the amount of stipend received by each minister during the previous year, and certifying that he has during such time as he shall have received that stipend faithfully performed the duties allotted to him.

Buildings.

11. One half of the amount allotted to each denomination will be applicable towards the erection of churches, chapels, and ministers dwellings.

12. Applications for aid in this respect must be made in form (G.) by the head of the denomination to the Treasurer, and must be accompanied by satisfactory proof that the land upon which the buildings are to be erected has been duly conveyed to a trustee or trustees approved by the Governor in Council.

13. No application for aid towards the erection of a church or chapel can be entertained until 200l. at least, shall have been raised by contributions, and actually paid over to the trustees; and in like manner 50l. at least, must have been raised and paid over in the case of an application being made to erect a minister's dwelling; and in support of each application, the head of denomination must forward a list of the contributors, with the amount which each has paid over to the trustees, with a certificate in the accompanying form (H) signed by the trustees that they have actually received the sums therein shown for the erection of the building in question.

14. Upon the above conditions being complied with, grants will be sanctioned by His Excellency out of the sums allotted to each denomination, equal to twice the amount paid to the trustees. But the total amount of the grants to any church or chapel will not exceed 3000*l.*, or to any minister's dwelling 600*l.*

15. Payments (in sums of not less than 50*l.* each) will be made to the trustees from time to time as the building progresses, upon the production of an account in the usual form, supported by the necessary vouchers, for the sums actually expended, and by a certificate from a clerk of works, or (where no such officer is resident within a reasonable distance) from a stipendiary magistrate, that he has examined the building, that the workmanship and materials are good and sufficient, and that he believes the sum specified in the account to have been actually laid out.

By His Excellency's Command,
CHARLES SLADEN.

Castlemaine, 25th January, 1856.

The Municipal meeting adjourned from 21st July, 1855, convened at the Survey Office, Castlemaine, on the 21st day of January, 1856, at noon, and adjourned from that place to the Hall of Castlemaine, in consequence of the sittings of the County Court.

In the absence of Mr. Thos. Butterworth, one of the assessors, Mr. Chas. Blackwell was elected in his place.

The majority of the landholders and householders resident within the Municipal District, present, declared in favour of seven being the number of councillors, and that none receive remuneration.

Sixteen gentlemen were put in nomination, and after having been proposed and seconded, a show of hands was taken for each, and on a declaration of the names having the greatest majority, two of the minority demanded a poll, which was announced for for next day, at Eight o'clock a.m.

The poll closed at Four o'clock p.m., and the result was there-after declared at the same place.

The following gentlemen were duly elected:—
