GENERAL ORDER.

5.—By MAJOR GENERAL EDWARD MACARTHUR.

Who is the soldier serving within the "Australian Command," with whom the respected name of "Florence Nightingale" is not as familiar as the cherished household words of his native land?

Who has not heard of the gentle being, who, nursed in luxury, quitted its lap without one lingering thought, in order that by her presence and example, the sick, wounded, and afflicted of the British army, who have gloriously served in the Crimea, might have a compassionate hand to bind their wounds, restore their strength, and kindle anew in their minds the ardour with which they had fought in their country's cause?

The mission of this honored lady has been fulfilled with a bright and more than ordinary success; but in order to hand down to posterity the memory of her feminine devotion, and, by her own request, to obtain for soldiers in after times the succour and consolation which British troops have received at her hands, it has been resolved, with the entire concurrence of Her Majesty, and that of the Field Marshal Viscount Hardinge, Commanding in Chief, to found an Institution "for the training, sustenance, and protection of nurses and hospital attendants."

The Field Marshal wishes that all ranks should be invited to contribute towards a fund for so great and worthy an object.

It is therefore requested that Officers commanding Companies "will read this Order to Non-Commissioned Officers and men, and take upon themselves the honorable trouble of collecting whatever is given by them freely, and of their own accord."

The Major General himself subscribes one day's pay.

By Command,

J. MARTIN BLADEN NEILL,
Lieut. Col. Dep. Adj. Genl.

Chief Secretary's Office,
