It shall also be the duty of each registrar to effect all the registrations required by this bye-law, so far as regards the subject matters of such registrations as hereinafter specified to be performed by him within his division; and all registrations shall be classified according to their respective subject matters, and shall be numbered in the order, and shall set forth exactly the hour of the day upon which they shall have been respectively effected, and shall also set forth the respective localities of their respective subject matters, and generally shall be in the forms respectively hereinafter prescribed for them. The registrars shall report to the mining board upon all Crown lands which may from time to time be gazetted for sale, shall register or file, as the case may be, all applications for claims, setting forth the day and hour upon which each application is made; shall make surface surveys of claims, and shall, upon final registration, furnish the persons so registered with a plan of the claim or privilege so surveyed by said registrars; shall register applicants for the same; shall transfer registered claims or shares in registered claims; and shall supply gratis all schedules prescribed as necessary in performing the duties of their office under this bye-law. Each registrar shall also forward to the district registrar within two months from the gazettement of this bye-law a correct copy of the registration books of his division, excepting so far as regards claims that are abandoned, and shall further forward to the said district registrar duplicates of all registrations, transfers, and liens effected by him within his division, together with a statement of the fees received by him in respect of the same.

4. Deputy registrar.—It shall be lawful for a registrar to appoint any fit and proper person to act as the deputy of such registrar, or as his assistant, in the discharge and performance of the duties of his office, and to effect all such registrations as, but for this clause, should have been effected by the registrar himself, and in the name of the registrar to sign the same, and all such other documents as require the registrar's signature, and generally to do and perform all and every such other acts and deeds as pertain to and constitute the duties of such registrar; and it shall be lawful for such registrar to remove such deputy or assistant at his pleasure, the appointment or dismissal of such deputy or assistant to be registered by the clerk of the mining board; and no deputy or assistant shall have power to perform any acts under this bye-law until his name shall have been registered as aforesaid; and any registrar appointing such deputy or assistant shall be responsible for all and every the acts and proceedings of such deputy or assistant under this bye-law; and all acts done by such deputy or assistant, in relation to the office of registrar, shall be as valid and effectual as if done by the registrar himself: provided always that no neglect or default of any registrar, or his deputy or assistant, shall in any way prejudice the right or title of any person to any interest, matter, or thing, in respect of which such registrar shall have any duty to perform under this bye-law.

5. Safe custody and disposal of registration books, &c.—All registration books, plans, and other documents relative to mining, which shall be in or come into the possession of a registrar by virtue of his office, shall be the property and be at the disposal of the mining board, and the registrar shall be responsible for the safe custody of all such books and documents until he shall have delivered up the same to the chairman or clerk of the said board.

FRONTAGE CLAIMS.

7. Frontage claims.—Claims on alluvial leads of a greater depth than 200 feet shall be worked as frontage claims, and the registrar shall determine and declare whether they are alluvial leads, and whether the depth is greater than 200 feet.

8. Minimum depth of frontage claims.—No claim shall be taken possession of or worked on the frontage system, where the depth of sinking does not exceed 200 feet.

9. Application for frontage claims.—As soon as any lead shall have been declared a frontage lead, the registrar shall be at liberty to receive applications for claims upon such lead, and every such application shall be registered by the registrar in a book to be kept for that purpose, under the date and hour upon which such application is made: provided always that such application be made in accordance with the provisions of section 10 of this bye-law.

10. Mode of taking possession of frontage claims.—Any person or persons taking possession of frontage claims, in accordance with schedule II. hereunto appended, upon any frontage lead, shall define, as nearly as the circumstances of the case will permit, the extent of such claim, by not less than six posts firmly fixed into the ground, three on each parallel of such claim, and distant at least fifty feet from each other, and projecting not less than three feet above the surface, and shall, within forty-eight hours after the time of so taking possession, make application, in the form of schedule III. hereunto appended, to the registrar for such claim, and such possession shall be a good and sufficient title to such claim for mining purposes within the meaning of the Act of Parliament 21 Victoria No. 32, except as hereinafter provided, until it shall have been properly laid off and registered by the registrar; and any one person, duly authorised in writing, may, as agent for any number of persons, take possession of, and apply for, claims in the manner hereinbefore described.

11. Method of laying off frontage claims.—All claims upon frontage leads shall be laid off by the registrar in accordance with plan A, referred to in bye-law No. VIII. of the mining board of Ballaarat, deposited in the office of the said board, and published in the Government Gazette of the 15th day of April 1859, in so far as the principle of radiating and parallel lines is therein set forth: provided that when it shall be found that the length of claims would be diminished in consequence of the divergence of such radiating lines, the registrar in every such case shall lay down other lines bisecting the space between the radiating lines aforesaid.

12. Extent of frontage claims before discovery of lead.—The registrar shall determine, from the most reliable data at his disposal, the depth by which to regulate the extent of frontage claims, in accordance with schedule II. hereunto appended; and no frontage claim shall be extended or diminished by reason of any variation in the depth of the workings.

13. Width of frontage claims after discovery of lead therein.—The width of a frontage claim, after and wherever the lead shall have been discovered therein, shall be equal to one and a half times the depth of the workings in such claim, such depth to be assumed from the data upon which the extent of claim has been estimated; and such width shall extend equidistant from the centre, as hereinafter defined, of the lead or gutter.

14. Main drive to be constructed through the gutter.—When the lead shall have been discovered in any frontage claim, the owner or owners thereof shall, with the least possible delay, construct or cause to be constructed a main drive into, and thence along the course of such lead throughout such claim; and the centre of the main drive so constructed shall, for the purpose of fixing the lateral boundaries and marking the course of the lead on the surface, be considered the central line of the lead. And the owner or owners of the claim shall define such central line (so far as the same may from time to time be traced or determined by the workings of the claim) on the surface, by pegs firmly fixed in the ground, and projecting three feet at least above the surface, and distant not more than 200 feet from each other, and such pegs shall not be varied or altered at any time.

15. Junction of leads.—A junction of two or more leads shall be considered to have taken place when such leads shall have joined and formed one lead, and the point of junction shall be deemed to be the point at which two lines drawn along the centres of such leads towards their confluence or junction, and produced, shall intersect each other, such centres being hereby understood to mean the respective centres of those portions of the confluent leads which, after the last bends in such leads respectively prior to their confluence, flow towards each other.

16. Width of frontage claims on converging leads.—When, from the convergence of two or more leads, the quantity of ground between said leads is insufficient to allow the registered claimholders upon the respective leads to obtain the full width of the claim allowed by this bye-law, the ground lying between such leads shall be divided between such claimholders in accordance with the principle indicated in schedule IV. hereunto appended.

17. Converging leads.—When, two leads converge and are discovered to be distant from each other 1000 feet or less, the registrar shall stay final but not conditional registration, until the actual point of junction, if any, of said leads shall have been discovered, when the persons conditionally registered shall be dealt with as provided in section 18 of this bye-law, or until it shall have been ascertained that such leads diverge from each other in courses sufficient in extent to allow spaces for claims thereon beyond the points at which final registration has been discontinued as aforesaid, or until it shall appear to the registrar that no junction in fact exists, when final registration shall be resumed; and no person shall be permitted to commence mining operations on any ground in respect of which final registration shall have been so stayed until such registration is resumed as aforesaid, when the persons conditionally registered shall be entitled to final registration according to priority of their conditional registration.

18. Rights of holders of claims in case of a junction.—When it shall be found that two or more leads have formed a junction within any claim or claims, the owners of which shall have been conditionally registered for the same as provided in section 17, the holders of those claims in respect of which conditional registration shall have been first effected shall be entitled to take possession of and hold the claim or claims within which or above which said junction has been formed; and the registrar, upon satisfying himself that a junction has been formed as aforesaid, shall forthwith finally register for said claim or claims the said persons who hold priority of conditional registration; but when it shall be found that a junction of leads exists in or above claims, the owner or owners of which have been finally registered for such claims, the persons who have been so finally registered for, and who are actually and bond fide in possession of ground within which such junction exists, or which such conjoined leads shall, after their junction, be found to traverse, shall continue to hold possession thereof, notwithstanding that other persons may have been, prior to the final registration of said actual possession, either conditionally or finally registered for claims on said leads; and the registrar shall forthwith cancel the registration of such other persons.

BLOCK CLAIMS.

19. Definition of block claims.—Block claims shall mean and embrace all claims other than frontage claims, and shall be designated "registered block claims" and "unregistered block claims."

20. Mode of taking possession of registered block claims.—Any person or persons taking possession of an area of ground comprising one or more claims, shall immediately define the boundaries of said area by a post firmly fixed in the ground at each corner of the said area, and projecting not less than three feet above the surface; and shall, within forty-eight hours thereafter, deliver to the mining registrar a notice and application in the form contained in schedule III. hereunto appended, stating the extent and situation of the area, the date and hour of taking possession, and the numbers and dates of his or their miners' rights; and such possession shall be deemed a good and sufficient title to such area for mining purposes, within the meaning of the Act of Parliament 21 Victoria No. 32, subject always to the provisions of this bye-law, and to the adjustment of the boundaries of such claim by the registrar, until the persons taking possession as aforesaid shall have been registered for said area; and any one person, duly authorised in writing, may, as agent for any number of persons, take possession of and apply for claims in the manner hereinbefore described.

21. Registration of block and frontage claims.—Upon the receipt of the notice and application, as provided in sections 10 and 20 respectively of this bye-law, the registrar shall file the same, and shall immediately post and keep posted during office hours, for a period of four days consecutively, a copy thereof upon a proper board to be kept outside and in front of his office for that purpose; and the registrar shall at the same time inform the applicant or applicants that he will, on a certain day to be fixed by said registrar, be on the ground for the purpose of making a correct measurement of the claim, the subject matter of the notice and application aforesaid; and after having made such measurement, the registrar, provided no objection and complaint shall have been lodged with him as hereinafter mentioned, shall, after said four days, but not before the expiration of that period, finally register the applicant or applicants, or other the persons on whose behalf such notice and application shall have been given and made for such claim, in the form contained in schedule V. hereunto appended, and shall furnish the persons so registered with a register ticket in the form contained in schedule VI. hereunto appended; and such registration shall be final and conclusive, and shall be a perfect title to the claim applied for as aforesaid as against all persons, save and except those who may have previous to and at the time of such application legally held the ground in respect of which such registration shall have been so effected; but should any person or persons object to the registration of the applicant or applicants for the claim taken possession of and applied for as aforesaid, he or they shall, within four days after the posting of the notice at the office as aforesaid, deliver a notice in writing to the registrar, in the form of schedule VII. hereunto appended, stating his or their objections to such registration; and shall, within one week next after the delivery of such last-mentioned notice, lodge a complaint before a warden against the occupation by the said applicant or applicants of the claim applied for as aforesaid, or shall bond fide proceed to obtain an injunction from the warden or court of mines, restraining the said applicant or applicants from obtaining registration in respect of the claim, the subject matter of such proposed registration; and the registrar shall not register said applicant or applicants until such complaint shall have been determined in favor of the said applicant or applicants, and a copy of the decree of the warden, or the court of mines, as the case may be, or an authenticated notice from the objector or objectors of his or their having withdrawn his or their objections, shall have been delivered to him, or until he shall have received proof that the objector or objectors has or have not taken the necessary legal steps hereinbefore provided; but upon receipt of the decree, notice, or proof as aforesaid, the registrar shall forthwith register such applicant or applicants; provided always that previous to any registration under this bye-law the miner's right or miners' rights of the person or persons applying for the same shall be produced to the registrar.

22. Size and form of registered block claims.—Single registered block claims shall be of the size and form prescribed by schedules VII. or IX. hereunto appended, and the area of any number of claims occupied conjointly shall be a claim.

23. Unregistered claims.—Single unregistered claims shall be of the form and extent specified in schedule X. hereunto appended, and it shall be lawful for every holder of a miner's right to take possession of such claim, and to hold the same for the purpose of mining.

24. Taking possession of unregistered claims.—No person shall be deemed to have taken lawful possession of an unregistered claim, or be entitled to mine thereon, until he shall have defined the boundaries thereof by a V trench at least six inches deep and six inches wide at each and every corner of the claim, and continued along each line forming the boundary of such claim to a distance of not less than six feet from such corner, or by a post at each corner of the claim firmly fixed in the ground and projecting not less than three feet above the surface; and such trenches or posts shall be kept visible at all times by the occupant of such claim.

25. Forfeiture of unregistered claims by abandonment.—Any unregistered claim, or share in such claim respectively, shall be deemed to be abandoned within the meaning of the Gold Fields Act, and shall be absolutely forfeited by the owner or owners thereof when such claim, or share of such claim, shall have been left unworked for eight days consecutively, Sundays and public holidays excepted.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

26. Mode of working and time for commencing to work upon claims.—At the expiration of eight days from and after the time when final registration of claims, whether single, united, or amalgamated, ought, under this bye-law, to be effected, the owner or owners of such claims, united as companies or otherwise, or of any share or interest therein not specially privileged in that behalf under this bye-law, or as many of them as can from time to time be properly employed thereon, shall bond fide proceed to work, and shall continue to work regularly upon or in connection with such claims, according to the usual course and practice of efficient mining; and any such owner, or every one of them neglecting or failing to work, and to continue to work, as aforesaid, either by themselves or himself, or else by substitutes or substitute employed by them or him, or on their or his behalf, shall be deemed to have forfeited all their or his right, title, and interest in and to such claims: provided nevertheless that any person or company may work his or their share or claim by contract, hired labor, or otherwise, and the title of such person or company to such share or claim shall not be vitiated by reason of such work being done by contract, hired labor, or otherwise, or by a smaller number of men than are registered in respect of the claim, provided such share or claim be worked efficiently.

27. Lien upon shares or claims to be registered.—The holder or holders of any registered claim, share, or interest, may grant a lien upon the same to any other person or persons as security for the due payment of any debt or liability which such holder or holders may have contracted, either before or at the time of such lien being granted; and upon production to the registrar of the register or transfer ticket, or certificate by virtue of which the intending lienor holds the claim, share, or interest intended to be made the subject of a lien, and of the miner's right of the intending licensee, and upon the execution of a lien ticket by the lienor and licensee, in the form prescribed in schedule XI. hereunto appended, duly signed by the said lienor and licensee, and attested by the registrar, the registrar shall register a lien upon the aforesaid claim, share, or interest, in the form prescribed in schedule V. hereunto appended; and after having made such registration the registrar shall issue to the licensee a duplicate of the lien ticket, in the form prescribed in schedule XI. hereunto appended, as aforesaid, and shall inscribe on the register or transfer ticket, or certificate of the lienor, the date and amount of the lien, and the name of the licensee; and every such lien, granted and duly registered as aforesaid shall be a specific charge upon the claim, share, or interest which shall have been so made the subject of a lien until the debt or liability shall have been discharged in full, and shall take precedence according to the dates of their respective registrations by the registrar; and every transfer of any claim, share, or interest, held under lien shall be made subject to every registered lien thereon: provided that upon the delivery to the registrar by the lienor of a certificate duly signed by the licensee that the debt or liability for which such lien was held has been fully discharged, the registrar shall forthwith cancel such lien: and further provided that the registrar shall not register a lien upon any claim, share, or interest, or transfer or release the same, without the consent of the lienor and licensee respectively.

28. Forfeiture of claims or shares on non-payment of lien, &c.—The holder of any registered lien upon any claim, share, or portion thereof, upon production to the registrar of satisfactory proof that the holder or holders of the subject of such lien has or have failed to fulfil any agreement, or to pay any debt, charge, or liability secured under such lien, or that the holder or holders of the subject of such lien has or have abandoned such subject, shall be entitled to be conditionally registered for such subject in accordance with schedule XII. hereunto appended; and such conditional registration shall entitle the holder of the lien to all the benefits arising out of such claim, share, or portion thereof; and unless the holder or holders of the subject of such lien shall within three calendar months from and after the date of the conditional registration aforesaid, reclaim the said subject and satisfy the claim of the holder of the lien, the said holder or holders of the subject of such lien shall forfeit all right and title to such subject, and the holder of the lien shall be absolutely registered, in the form in schedule V. hereunto appended, for and become the actual possessor of the said claim, share, or portion thereof, the subject of the lien aforesaid.

29. Transfers of shares by companies.—It shall be lawful for any mining company holding a registered claim, to effect and register transfers of shares or interests therein from the holder or holders thereof to any other person or persons, or to effect the registration of any lien granted on any share or interest therein by the holder or holders thereof to any other person or persons, subject to the restrictions and conditions hereinafter prescribed, that is to say:—Every mining company taking advantage of this section previous to effecting any transfer of any share or interest, or effecting the registration of any lien upon any share or interest therein, shall deliver to the mining registrar of the division in which such company's claim is situated, a notice in writing, which notice the said mining registrar shall retain and file, intimating the intention of the said company to effect transfers of shares or interests, and to effect registrations of liens upon shares or interests in such company's claim as aforesaid; and the said notice shall set forth the name or names of one or more person or persons, who shall therein be nominated, appointed, and empowered to act as the agent or agents of said company, in effecting and registering transfers, and in effecting registrations of liens as aforesaid, subject to the provisions of this bye-law, on such company's behalf; and said notice shall be signed by a majority of the shareholders in said company, and shall be generally in the form set forth in schedule XIII. hereunto appended; and the person or persons who have been duly nominated, appointed, and empowered as aforesaid, upon the production to him or them of the register or transfer ticket, or certificate by virtue of which the intending transferor holds the share or interest intended to be transferred, provided the act to be performed be the transfer of a share or interest in said company's claim, and of the miner's right of the intending transferee, and upon the request, either orally or in writing, of said transferor and transferee, shall, during proper and reasonable hours, effect in triplicate a transfer of said share or interest, in the form contained in schedule XIV. hereunto appended, which triplicate form of transfer shall be signed by the transferor and transferee, in presence of the person or persons duly authorised as aforesaid, and shall be attested by said person or persons, in the form contained in said schedule XIV.; and the said duly authorised person or persons shall register the transferee for the share or interest so transferred, in the form contained in schedule V. hereunto appended, under the date and hour on which the transfer was effected, and shall issue to the transferee two of the forms of transfer so effected in triplicate, to be disposed of as hereinafter directed; and in case the transferor shall have transferred only a portion of the interest held by him in said company's claim, shall also issue to said transferor a certificate, in the form contained in schedule XV. hereunto appended, showing the amount of interest retained by said transferor; and the transferor and transferee shall, within forty-eight hours next after the date of the transfer aforesaid, deliver to the mining registrar the register or transfer ticket, or certificate by virtue of which the transferor held the interest transferred previous to transfer, and the certificate, if any, of the interest retained by said transferor, and the two triplicate forms of transfer held by the transferee; and on production of the said tickets or certificates, and of the triplicates of transfer aforesaid, provided the same shall have been duly signed and attested as prescribed, the registrar shall forthwith register the transferee in his books for the share or interest transferred, as from the date of the transfer set forth on the triplicate forms of transfer aforesaid; and the registrar shall retain and file one of the said triplicate forms of transfer so delivered to him, and shall also retain and file any certificate or ticket by which such share or interest may have been held previous to transfer, and shall endorse with his signature, and the date and hour of its delivery to him, the remaining triplicate of transfer, and thereupon return the same to the transferor, and shall in like manner endorse the certificate, if any, of the interest retained by the transferor, and return the same to the said transferor; and in case the act to be performed shall be the registration of a lien, as hereinbefore mentioned, the person or persons duly authorised as aforesaid, upon the production to him or them of the register or transfer ticket, or certificate by virtue of which the intending lienor holds the share or interest intended to be made the subject of a lien, and of the miner's right of the intending licensee, and upon the execution of a lien ticket by the lienor and licensee, in the form prescribed in schedule XI. hereunto appended, duly attested by the person or persons authorised as aforesaid, shall register the said licensee for a lien upon said share, in the form prescribed in schedule V. hereunto appended; and the lien ticket as aforesaid shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be disposed of as hereinafter directed; and the person or persons duly authorised as aforesaid shall inscribe on the register or transfer ticket, or certificate produced by the lienor, the amount and date of the lien, and the name of the licensee, and shall attest the same by his or their signature, and return it to the lienor; and the lienor and licensee shall, within forty-eight hours next after the date of such registration, deliver to the mining registrar the register or transfer ticket, or certificate by virtue of which the lienor holds the share or interest which has been so made the subject of a lien, and the duplicate lien tickets held by the licensee; and on production of the said tickets or certificates, and of the said duplicate lien tickets, provided the same shall have been properly prepared and attested, the registrar shall forthwith register the licensee in his books for a lien upon the aforesaid share or interest, as from the date set forth on the duplicate lien tickets produced by the licensee; and the registrar shall retain and file one of the duplicate tickets so produced, and the remaining duplicate ticket he shall endorse in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, and return the same to the licensee; and all transfers of shares or interests effected and registered in the manner herein specified, and all registrations of liens effected in the manner herein specified, shall be deemed to be good and sufficient evidence that the said shares or interests have been duly transferred, or that the said liens have been duly registered, as the case may be; and the persons whose names are set forth as transferors or licensees on the aforesaid transfer or lien tickets respectively, shall be deemed to be the lawful owners of the shares or interests set forth therein; and no transfers of shares or interests, or registrations of liens effected by any mining company, or any agent or agents empowered to act on their behalf, shall be deemed to be legally effected, or be binding on such company, or any other person, unless the provisions of this section shall have been complied with.

30. Shares transferable.—In cases where companies do not effect their own transfers and registrations, as provided in section 29 of this bye-law, it shall be lawful for the registered owner or owners of any claim or share, or part thereof, or interest therein, and for the registered holder of any lien thereon, to transfer the same; and the registrar, on production to him of the miner's right or miners' rights, registration, transfer, or lien tickets, by virtue of which the transferor or transferors holds or hold the interest so transferred, shall forthwith register such transfer; and such registration shall be in the form in schedule V. hereunto appended; and the transfer ticket shall be signed by the parties thereto, and shall be attested by the registrar or his deputy, who shall thereupon deliver a transfer ticket, in the form set forth in schedule XIV. hereunto appended, to the transferee or transferees; and the registrar shall retain and file the original or last registration or transfer ticket relating to the interest transferred; and in case the person making the transfer shall retain any interest in the claim, share, or lien, in relation to which the transfer shall have been effected, the registrar shall issue to him a certificate, in the form contained in schedule XVI. hereunto appended, showing the amount of interest held or retained by the transferor.

31. Forfeiture of claims or shares.—Any person employing hired labor to work any claim, share, or interest, shall not be deemed to have forfeited his right, title, and interest in and to the same through any neglect, absence, or omission on the part of any workman or substitute employed by him or on his behalf in respect of said claim, share, or interest, of which sufficient and properly authenticated notice in writing shall not have been served upon him, either by the delivery of such notice to him in person, or by its being left at his usual place of abode, or, in case his place of abode be unknown to the persons interested in serving such notice, by the publication of said notice for four days consecutively in a daily newspaper circulating in the district in which such claim, share, or interest is situated: provided always that upon such notice having been given as aforesaid to the person holding such claim, share, or interest, to the effect that owing to the neglect, absence, or omission of any workman or substitute employed by him, or on his behalf, his said claim, share, or interest is being neglected, or is not being worked in an efficient manner; and upon continued neglect by him for a period of four days consecutively from and after the date of the service of the notice aforesaid, or four days from and after the date of the last publication of such notice in a daily newspaper, as the case may be, to work or cause to be worked said claim, share, or interest, in the manner last aforesaid, he shall thereupon forfeit all right, title, and interest in and to such claim, share, or interest; and should any working shareholder fail for any period of eight days consecutively to attend to or engage in any work which it shall be his duty to perform, such shareholder shall, unless a fit representative shall have attended to and performed his work during said days, be deemed to have abandoned and forfeited his share.

32. Possession of, and registration for, abandoned shares.—When any person shall have been put into possession of any abandoned share, in accordance with the provisions of the 21st Victoria No. 32, section 77, the registrar, upon delivery to him by the person to whom possession has been given of a certified copy of the warden's order in such case, which order the registrar shall retain and file, and upon the production to him of the miner's right of said person, and upon the application by said person to be registered for said share, shall forthwith register such person from the date of the warden's order aforesaid, for the whole of the interest held by the person incurring the forfeiture at the time of said forfeiture, in the forms set forth respectively in schedules V. and XVI. hereunto appended, and shall issue to the said person a certificate in the form contained in schedule XVI. hereunto appended: provided always that nothing in this bye-law contained shall be deemed to exonerate or release any person whose claim, share, or interest shall have been forfeited, in accordance with the provisions of this bye-law, from any liability in respect of said claim, share, or interest, to which he may have been legally subject at the time of such abandonment or forfeiture.

33. Liability of holders of shares worked by contract, &c.—Persons holding shares or portions of shares in claims which are being worked by contract or hired labor, or by a smaller number of men than are registered for the same, shall be deemed to be working shareholders; and non-payment of calls made for the purpose of defraying the expenses of working the claim, and payable by such persons, shall be deemed to be neglect of work within the meaning of this bye-law; and the share or shares, or portions thereof, of persons neglecting to pay any calls payable in respect of the same within twenty-one days after such call shall become due, shall, in the absence of some rules made by the company or party holding such claim providing otherwise, be deemed to be abandoned, and shall be forfeited, and may be taken possession of (subject to such calls) by any other person, as provided in section 32 of this bye-law: provided nevertheless that no forfeiture shall be incurred under this section for non-payment of any call unless notice in writing of such call shall have been served on the person whose interest is intended to be forfeited, seven days at least before the expiration of the aforesaid period of twenty-one days: provided also that in case the person liable to pay such call cannot after reasonable enquiry be found, it shall be sufficient to post such notice on the claim in which such share or interest is held, and also at the office of the registrar of the division in which such claim is situated, and such posting shall be deemed a service of such notice on the defaulting shareholder.

34. Portions of shares liable to forfeiture.—In case the interest held by any holder of a claim or share, or part thereof, shall be forfeited, such forfeiture shall only affect the interest then held by the person or persons incurring such forfeiture, and shall not extend to any portion of interest previously disposed of by transfer, or by way of lien; and any person taking possession of a forfeited claim or share, or part thereof, shall do so subject to all liabilities affecting the same respectively, and also subject to the conditions registered by the registrar, and also to the rules of the company under which they may respectively have been held.

35. Liability of holders of sleeping portions of shares.—In the event of the working portion of a share being forfeited, and no person taking possession of and working the same, the liability to work it shall fall upon the holder for the time being of that portion of such share which shall have been last transferred by the original shareholder or his transferee or representative (in case such shall have been the subject of transfer), and in default of such holder working such share and paying all liabilities due in respect thereof, he shall forfeit his interest therein; and in every such case the holder of the next last transferred portion of said share shall work or pay the expenses of working the forfeited portion of said share and liabilities due in respect thereof, and such work or payment shall entitle him to the portions of the share so forfeited, and to be registered in respect of the same; and failing to work such share or make such payment, he also shall forfeit his interest, and so on in the like manner until the whole of said share shall have been forfeited, or until the forfeited portion or portions shall be taken up and worked.

36. Liability of holders of working portions of shares.—The working partner in a share shall be primarily responsible to the company for all calls and expenses incurred in working such share, and for all fines which may be imposed by the company in respect of such share for neglect of work; and when a working partner in a share has incurred expense by fines, wages, or otherwise, and refuses to pay the same, and such company neglect to proceed by due process of law to recover such expenses, all liabilities incurred by said working partner, over and above the sum of Ten pounds (£10), in addition to the amount due for calls, shall be at the company's own risk, and shall not be chargeable against the other partner or partners in said share.

37. Sleeping shareholders to be liable for calls, &c.—Should any person holding sleeping interest, and being a sleeping partner in any share, claim, or company, neglect to pay the portion of calls or other liabilities to which he is legally subject, either by special agreement or in any other way, and should the working shareholder or the company sustain any loss by such neglect, the sleeping shareholder shall be liable to make good such loss within eight days after a notice has been served upon him requiring him to pay to the secretary or other officer of the company named in such notice, the amount of the liabilities so incurred by him; and in case of his non-compliance with the terms of such notice, or in case he cannot after reasonable enquiry be found so that such notice can be served upon him, if a copy thereof shall be left at his last known place of abode, and a copy thereof also posted, and kept posted for eight days consecutively upon the claim to which he shall belong, and a copy thereof be inserted in one at least of the local newspapers for eight days consecutively, and payment of such liabilities shall not have been made within said eight days, then in either of said cases the interest of said sleeping shareholder shall be forfeited to the working partner or the company, as the case may be, and the registrar of the division in which such forfeited interest shall be situated shall register the said working partner or company in respect of the sleeping partner's interest in such claim; and the said registrar is hereby required to do so in the form set forth in schedule XVI. hereunto appended, on production of a certificate signed by the chairman, secretary, or other proper officer of the company, stating that such sleeping partner has failed to comply with such notice.

38. Abandonment of shares.—Any person holding a share or shares in a registered claim may abandon the same, provided that previous to such abandonment the said shareholder shall give to his partner or partners, and also to the registrar, a notice in writing to that effect, and shall publish four days consecutively a copy of said notice in a daily newspaper circulating in the district in which such claim is situated; and the registrar, after having been satisfied that notice has been given in each of the ways aforesaid, shall forthwith cancel the registration by which such share has been held; and the said shareholder shall thereupon be released from all further liability in respect of such share: provided always that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to interfere with, set aside, or cancel any debt, agreement, engagement, or contract which may at the date of such abandonment exist between said shareholder and his copartner or copartners.

39. Removing slabs out of abandoned shafts.—No person shall remove slabs out of any abandoned shaft without filling up such shaft as the slabs are removed.

40. Registration and transfer of furnishing shares.—Upon receipt of a certificate from the owner or owners of a claim, or from the secretary of a company holding a claim, stating that said owner or owners, or company, have agreed to give to the person or persons named in such certificate one or more sleeping or working shares, as the case may be, in such claim, and also stating the terms and conditions upon which such share or shares are given, the registrar shall thereupon register such person or persons in the form set forth in schedule V. hereunto appended; and all such shares shall be held, and shall only be transferred, changed, or otherwise disposed of, subject to the conditions under which such shares are registered.

41. Claims or areas may be held in reserve under protection registration.—When any person or company requires time for the purpose of procuring and erecting machinery before commencing operations, or to repair his or their machinery, or when any person or company requires to suspend or partially suspend operations at any time, such person or company, or the manager or secretary duly authorised on his or their behalf, shall make a statutory declaration setting forth the reasons for which he or they require registration, and such declaration shall be in the form in schedule XVII. hereunto appended; and on receipt of such declaration the registrar shall, upon ascertaining and satisfying himself that such reasons are good and sufficient, register such person or company for permission to suspend or partially suspend operations for any term not exceeding one month, in the form set forth in schedule XVII. hereunto appended, and may, upon the like grounds, renew such registration from time to time; and no statutory declaration shall be required for any subsequent registration, but the manager or secretary of a company, or the person or persons holding such claim or area, shall sign and deliver to the registrar a written document affirming that the same reasons as those for which they were originally registered exist at the time of the renewal; and no person but the owners shall be allowed to take possession of any claim or area so registered during the term of the aforesaid registration; provided always that such registration shall afford no protection to the parties obtaining the same in any case where the same has been obtained through any material misrepresentation of facts; and in case the owner or owners of any claim or area shall not, within forty-eight hours after the expiration of the period of such registration, cause work to be renewed according to the usual course of proper and efficient mining, such claims shall be deemed to be abandoned to all intents and purposes.

42. Abandonment of claim or area.—Any registered claim or area shall be forfeited and deemed to be abandoned when mining operations thereon or in connection therewith shall have been wholly discontinued for the space of eight days consecutively, exclusive of Sundays and public holidays, unless such claim or area be held under protection registration.

46. Auriferous earth and quartz may be stacked and registered.—Any person or persons shall be at liberty to hold possession of any quartz, stone, or other substance containing gold, that may have been raised, stacked, or stored by him or them, or of which he or they may be the owner or owners, provided that the same shall not have been stored on any ground occupied by any other person; and such owner or owners shall give notice to the registrar of the division in which the same shall be stacked or stored, of their having stacked or stored such quartz, stone, or other substance; and the registrar shall thereupon register the title of the person or persons to such quartz, stone, or other substance, such registration to be in the form contained in schedule XXI. hereunto appended; and such registration shall be made for any period not exceeding twelve calendar months; and the owner or owners shall cause a copy of such registration to be legibly painted or written on a board or metal plate, which shall be posted and kept posted upon the stack or store; and no person or persons shall remove any quartz, stone, or other substance stacked or stored, and registered in accordance with this section of this bye-law, without the consent of the registered owner or owners of the same; but should such owner neglect or fail to give notice and obtain registration as aforesaid, or otherwise to comply with the provisions of this section, or neglect or fail to remove the same within the period of twelve months as aforesaid, such quartz, stone, or other substance shall be deemed to be forfeited and abandoned, and may be taken possession of by any other person or persons who shall have lawfully taken possession of the ground upon which such quartz, stone, or other substance may have been stacked or stored.

47. Rights of holders under previous bye-laws.—Any person or company occupying any claim or claims under any mining regulations in force previous to the passing of this bye-law shall be at liberty, without relinquishing any rights or privileges which they may hold under such mining regulations, in so far as such rights or privileges relate to the area of such claims or the tenure by which they are held, to take advantage of all and every of the privileges conferred by this bye-law, provided that the rights of other persons shall not be thereby interfered with.

cants shall have been registered for the same or until such registration shall have been properly refused.

71. Registration for water-rights.—Upon receipt of the notice and application, as provided in section 70 of this bye-law, the registrar or registrars shall file such notice, and the said registrar or registrars shall post, and keep posted for eight days consecutively, upon his or their office or offices, a copy or copies of said notice and application; and if at the expiration of the said eight days there be no objection, as provided in section 72 of this bye-law, to said application, the registrar or registrars, or any or either of them, shall examine and survey the source or sources from which the water is to be obtained, the course or courses of the race or races, the position or positions and extent of the dam or dams, if any; and the said registrar or registrars, or any or either of them, shall make and deliver to the applicants a plan showing all the sources from which the water is to be obtained, the course or courses of the race or races, the position or positions and extent of the dam or dams, if any; and the said registrar or registrars, or any or either of them, shall then register the said applicant or applicants for all or any of the privileges aforesaid, subject always to the prior rights of any other person or persons, and also subject to the several provisions of this bye-law, and shall file a copy of the aforesaid plan of said privileges.

72. Objections to registration for water-rights.—Any person or persons having any objection to the registration of any applicant or applicants for any of the rights aforesaid shall, within the period of eight days from the date of the posting of the notices aforesaid, take such and the like proceedings in all respects as are provided in section 21 of this bye-law for opposing registration for block claims.

75. Gauge or measurement of water.—Any person or persons diverting or using water for mining purposes shall use a gauge or measurement, to be called a "sluice-head," which sluice-head shall be such a quantity of water as shall pass through an aperture sixteen inches wide and one inch deep, with a pressure not exceeding six inches; and every person diverting and using water as aforesaid shall cause a gate or hatch to be placed at the head of the race or at the source from which the water used by him or them is taken: provided always that in cases where the water is obtained from several sources the gate or hatch shall be placed in the race as nearly as possible to the head, but below the point of confluence from all the sources from which the water conveyed in the race is obtained.

76. Quantity of water allowed.—The quantity of water to which any person or persons holding a miner's right or miners' rights shall be entitled, and the quantity in addition thereto to which the owner or owners, or employer or employers, of machinery shall be entitled in respect of such machinery, shall be in accordance with schedule XXVIII. hereunto appended.

77. Width of ground for protection of race.—Any person or persons occupying a race for the conveyance of water for mining purposes shall be entitled to a width of ten feet on each side of the race, measuring from the centre: provided always that where the depth of a cutting exceeds eight feet, or where a tunnel is used, the width shall be twenty feet on each side of the race, measuring from the centre.

78. Heads of races not to be shifted.—No person or persons shall shift the head or heads of his or their race so as to interfere with the right of any other person or persons, or to diminish the supply of water to which such last-mentioned person or persons shall be entitled.

79. Priority of registration to give priority of right.—Holders of water-rights or privileges shall take precedence in respect thereof in the order in which they shall have been registered for the same, and if at any time the water becomes insufficient to supply all the persons registered in respect of the same, the person or persons lastly registered shall forego their rights during such deficiency of water as against persons previously registered; but in the event of there being at any time any waste water, any person or persons may construct a dam or dams for the purpose of conserving such waste water, and such last-mentioned person or persons shall be entitled to use the water so conserved.

80. Persons shall not be permitted to waste water.—No person or persons holding water-rights under this bye-law shall allow any water to run to waste, but such water shall be appropriated to the use of the next holder or holders of a right in respect of such water, according to the date of their respective registrations.

81. Water to be left running in creeks, &c.—The holders of water-rights shall not be entitled to take water from any river or main creek, or tributary creek, when by so doing they will reduce the quantity of water in a river bed or main creek to less than one sluice-head, or in a tributary creek to less than half of a sluice-head.

82. Water-rights may be held in reserve under protection registration.—When any person or persons holding a water-right or

Quartz claims shall not exceed eighty yards in length on the course of the vein, by a width not exceeding one hundred and fifty yards across such course, the measurement to be horizontal. The holder of any such claim to be responsible for the performance of the following duties, viz:—

1st. He shall register the occupation of the claim with the registrar within forty-eight hours after such occupation.

2nd. He shall cause a post to be erected at each corner of the claim, such post to be not less than three inches in diameter; the same to be firmly fixed in the ground, and to extend to at least three feet above it, and to be kept so erected during the occupation of the claim.

3rd. He shall keep constantly employed on or in connection with such claim, at least two men for a period extending to not less than three months. If at any period after the expiration of such time he shall be unable to continue the working of the claim, either from want of funds or the want of crushing machinery in the locality, the warden may, on such causes being made known to him, grant to such claimholder a written permission to suspend all workings on the claim for a period not exceeding six months. A notice of such suspension to be posted on some conspicuous place on the claim.

BYE-LAW No. 9.—CLAIMS ON WORKED AND ABANDONED GROUND.

1. Claims on worked and abandoned ground shall not exceed the following dimensions, viz:—

A dry bank claim not in the bed of a creek or river or on a frontage lead, 160 yards in length by 120 yards in width.

A wet bank claim not in the bed of any creek or river or on any frontage lead, 200 yards in length by 100 yards in width.

A creek claim, 200 yards in length in the direction of the course of the stream by a width not exceeding the boundaries of the creek as defined by the warden.

2. Any person cutting an expensive tail-race, or erecting expensive machinery for the purpose of working such ground, may occupy in addition to the area to which the number of men he keeps constantly employed on such ground entitled him, an extended area not exceeding two entire claims of the same class. If after the cutting of such tail-race, or the erection of such machinery, any person considering that the extended claim is more than sufficient, and desiring to occupy a portion thereof, shall bring the matter into the warden's court, and if the court shall determine that such extended claim is more than sufficient to remunerate the holders for the expenses incurred by them in the cutting of such tail-race or the erection of such machinery, then the extended area shall be deemed to be forfeited, and the owners of the tail-race or machinery shall be entitled to occupy as much thereof as the court has deemed sufficient for the remuneration aforesaid.

3. The holder of any such claims to be responsible for the due performance of the following duties, viz:—

1st. He shall register the occupation of the claim with the registrar within forty-eight hours after such occupation.

2nd. He shall cause a post to be erected at each corner of the claim; such posts to be not less than three inches in diameter, to be firmly fixed in the ground extending at least three feet above it, and to be kept constantly erected during the occupation of the claim.

3rd. He shall keep constantly employed on or in connection with the working of the claim the following number of men:—

If a dry bank claim, one man for every forty yards comprised in the width of the claim.

If a wet bank claim, one man for every twenty-five yards comprised in the width of the claim.

If a creek claim, one man for every hundred feet comprised in the length of the claim.

BYE-LAW No. 10.—PROSPECTING CLAIMS.

1. Any person prospecting for new alluvial gold workings (elsewhere than in the bed of a creek or river, and than in any gully in which gold has been discovered in payable quantities, or in which any prospecting claim is at the time occupied), shall be entitled to hold a prospecting claim not exceeding one thousand yards square.

2. Upon the discovery of gold in payable quantities within such prospecting claim at a depth not exceeding forty feet, the claim shall be forfeited, and the holder shall be entitled to occupy, in addition to the area that the number of men registered for and constantly employed on such prospecting claim would entitle him to, an extended area equal to five entire claims of the same class, together with an additional area equal to one claim for every five miles that the prospecting claim is distant from the nearest previously discovered gold workings.

3. If the discovery is made at a greater depth than forty feet, and a frontage lead is proclaimed by the surveyor, the prospecting claim shall be forfeited. If the discovery is made within five miles of any previously discovered gold workings, the holder of the prospecting claim shall be entitled to hold, in addition to the area that the number of men registered for and constantly employed upon such claim would entitle him to, an extended area equal to five entire claims of the same nature and depth of sinking. If the discovery is made at a distance exceeding five miles from any previously discovered gold workings, the extended area to which the discoverer shall be entitled shall be equal to ten claims of the same nature and depth of sinking as the claim he is entitled to hold by occupation.

4. Any person prospecting for new alluvial gold workings in the bed of a creek or river shall be entitled to occupy, in addition to the area that the number of men he keeps constantly employed on the spot would entitle him to, an extended area equal to five entire claims of the same class, together with an additional area equal to a claim for every five miles that the prospecting claim is distant from any previously discovered gold workings, except in the Omeo division, in which the extended area equal to five claims, may be increased by an additional area equal to one claim for every ten miles that the prospecting claim is distant from the nearest previously discovered gold workings.

5. Any person searching for a new quartz reef, or for the supposed continuation of a reef previously discovered, if at a distance exceeding five hundred and sixty yards from the nearest occupied claim on such reef, shall be entitled to occupy, in addition to the area to which the number of men constantly employed on the spot would entitle him, an extended area not exceeding the ordinary size of quartz claims.

6. The holder of any such claim shall be responsible for the due performance of the following duties:—

1st. He shall register the occupation of the claim with the registrar within forty-eight hours after such occupation.

2nd. He shall cause a post to be erected at each corner of the claim, with a written notice thereon setting forth that it is a prospecting claim, and stating the names of the men registered for the claim; such posts to be not less than three inches in diameter, firmly fixed in the ground, extending at least three feet above it, and to be kept erected during the occupation of the claim.

3rd. He shall keep constantly employed on or in connection with the claim the following number of men, viz:—

If an alluvial claim not in the bed of a creek or river, four men for an entire claim, or a proportionate number for one of less size.

If in the bed of a creek or river, six men for an entire claim, or a proportionate number for one of less size.

If in a quartz claim, two men.

7. If the claim is an alluvial claim, not in the bed of a creek or river, and gold in payable quantities is found therein, at a depth exceeding forty feet, he shall, within forty-eight hours after such discovery, give notice thereof, in writing, to the surveyor, together with such information as will enable him to find the claim in which the discovery has been made.

BYE-LAW No. 11.—FORFEITURE FOR NON-OCCUPATION, WITH EXCEPTIONS.

1. If a claimholder shall not, within one week from the occupation of his claim, employ, and continue to employ thereon or in connection therewith the requisite number of men, the claim shall be deemed to be forfeited, and the holder shall be entitled to re-occupy as much thereof as the number of men he has employed would represent.

2. When any lawful occupant of a claim is incapacitated from work by illness, or has to attend any court of law, or upon any urgent business, he may, if he shall cause a notice, stating the reasons of his absence, to be posted on a conspicuous place on the claim, absent himself without rendering the claim liable to forfeiture; but if any dispute shall arise as to the truth of the assigned reason of absence, the onus of proof shall rest with the absentee.

3. When any claim is fairly opened and in working order, the holder of such claim, or the representative or representatives of any portion thereof, may absent himself or themselves for any period not exceeding one week, without rendering the claim liable to forfeiture; and he or they may absent himself or themselves from the claim for a longer period if they shall procure permission, in writing, from the warden, stating the time of and reasons for such absence, and shall post a copy of such permission on a conspicuous place on the claim.

4. When at any time a claim which has been fairly opened and in working order shall become unworkable from the failure of the usual and necessary supply of water, such supply being sufficient for at least three months in each year, or in consequence of floods, excessive drainage, or any other unavoidable cause, the claimholder may suspend the working of such claim without rendering it liable to forfeiture, if he shall procure from the warden permission, in writing, stating the time of and reason for such suspension, and shall post a copy of such permission on a conspicuous place on the claim.

5. Any person on whose claim water has been struck in such quantities as will render the employment of horse, water, or steam power necessary, may suspend the working of the claim for one month if horse power is required, two months if water, and four months if steam power is required, without rendering the claim liable to forfeiture, if he shall register with the registrar such suspension, the nature of the power required, and the names of all shareholders, if any, in the claim, and shall post a notice on a conspicuous place near the shaft in which the water has been struck, setting forth these particulars. If at the end of this period it shall be found insufficient, the claimholder may suspend the occupation of the claim for a further period without rendering the claim liable to forfeiture, if he shall obtain the written sanction of the warden, and shall post a notice containing a copy of such sanction on the place upon which the previous notice was posted.

6. Any permission to suspend working operations so granted shall have a specified period set forth in such permission, and no such permission shall be rescinded.

BYE-LAW No. 12.—UNION OF CLAIMS.

Any two claims (not situated on that portion of the Woolshed Creek between the upper end of Kneebone's claim and the junction of the said creek with the Owens River) which shall adjoin each other in at least one-half their length or width, may be united and occupied as one claim; and any number of claims (not situated on the portion of the Woolshed Creek above mentioned) which shall be so situated that each claim in excess of two shall adjoin two claims with which it is sought to be amalgamated in at least half their respective lengths or widths, may be united and occupied as one claim: provided always that the number of men necessary to be employed on or in connection with the claims, if occupied singly, shall be employed on or in connection with the united claim; and that where a creek claim is united to one or more claims of any other class, the water privileges of such creek claim shall not extend further than if such creek claim had not been united to any other. All such unions shall be registered with the registrar.

BYE-LAW No. 13.—TAKING POSSESSION OF GROUND CLAIMED TO BE OCCUPIED PROHIBITED.

Any person who shall consider that any claim is liable to forfeiture, and who shall desire to occupy such claim, or any portion thereof, shall apply to the warden to put him in possession of such claim or any portion thereof, and no person shall take possession, by his own authority, of any ground claimed to be occupied by any other person.

BYE-LAW No. 14.—AREAS WHICH MAY BE OCCUPIED FOR CERTAIN MINING PURPOSES.

1. Any person desirous of erecting a quartz mill driven by steam or water power may occupy for such purpose an area not exceeding two acres, the length of which shall not exceed twice the width; provided such occupation is registered with the registrar.

2. Any person requiring to form a road or tramway to or from his occupied claim shall be deemed to be in occupation of the ground required for such road or tramway; provided that such occupation is registered with the registrar.

3. Any person stacking any auriferous earth or quartz shall, for the protection thereof, be deemed to be in occupation of the ground covered thereby, for a period not exceeding six months; provided that such earth or quartz is stacked to an average height of not less than four feet—that a fence not less than two feet in height is erected round it—that such occupation is registered with the registrar, and that a notice is posted on the stack, stating the name of the owner thereof and the date of registration.

BYE-LAW No. 15.—BUSINESS AND RESIDENCE SITES.

1. When any business or residence site is occupied within fifty yards of any road or thoroughfare existing at the time of such occupation, the frontage of such site towards such road or thoroughfare shall not exceed sixty-six feet, and the depth thereof shall not exceed eighty-two and one-half feet.

2. No person shall occupy a business or residence site any portion of which is within thirty feet of the centre of a road or thoroughfare, or within ten feet of any site previously occupied.

3. Any person being in lawful possession of a business or residence site, and having erected thereon a dwelling or place of business, may absent himself for thirty consecutive days, and provided he gives written notice to the warden of the division, of his intention to absent himself, he may be absent for any space of time not exceeding six months from the date of giving such notice, without forfeiture of the right to such site and building; provided always that a copy of such notice to the warden shall be posted upon such building in some conspicuous part.

4. No person shall take up and occupy for residence or business purposes any ground within twelve feet of any race, unless with the consent of the registered holder of such race.

BYE-LAW No. 16.—CAUSING CLAIMS TO BE FLOODED PROHIBITED.

No person shall back the water of any creek, race, or water-course upon any claim, or otherwise cause any claim to be flooded, either wilfully or by neglect.

BYE-LAW No. 17.—PUDDLING MILLS TO KEEP THEIR TAILINGS CLEAR.

The holder of a puddling mill in the Spring Creek division shall keep his sludge clear of any occupied claim which had been occupied prior to the erecting of his mill.

BYE-LAW No. 18.—RACES.

1. Any person intending to cut a race shall register such intention with the registrar, stating the proposed extremities thereof, and shall mark the proposed course thereof with pegs at intervals not exceeding one hundred yards. He shall then be deemed to be in possession of such proposed course; but if he shall not within one calendar month begin to form such race, or having begun shall not continue the formation thereof, he shall forfeit his title to any portion of the proposed course of the race in or upon which it has not been formed.

2. Any person extending any race or altering the course thereof shall in such extension or alteration be subject to the same conditions as if he was forming a new race.

3. The head of any race cut for the purpose of diverting the water from any creek or river shall not be shifted without the written sanction of the warden, nor to the prejudice of any existing right.

4. The registered holder of any race shall keep it in proper repair, and shall, on receipt of a written order from the warden, build an efficient bridge where any road in ordinary use crosses the race.

5. If any race which shall hereafter be formed in the Snake Valley or Spring Creek divisions shall be cut to a depth not exceeding five feet at any place within one hundred yards of any source from which another race is supplied, it shall not be used to convey water to any claim or reservoir without the written sanction of the warden, nor unless the applicant for such permission shall have given fourteen days' notice to the owner or owners of any race or races which derive any portion of their supply from a source within one hundred yards of any portion of the new race which may exceed five feet in depth, of his intention to make such application.

BYE-LAW No. 19.—RESERVOIRS.

Any miner desirous of forming a reservoir shall register with the registrar of the division the site or place for such proposed reservoir.

BYE-LAW No. 20.—PROTECTION TO ROADWAYS, SIDES OF RACES AND DAMS.

1. The undermentioned lands shall not be occupied for mining purposes unless with the written consent of the warden, viz.:—

All land within a distance of three feet of any race constructed in unworked ground, and five feet where constructed in worked ground.

All land within a distance of twelve feet of any tail-race for a distance of twenty yards from the boundaries of the claim with which the tail-race is connected, and all land within a distance of five feet of the remaining portion, if any, of such tail-race.

All lands within a distance of twenty feet of the lower side of any dam or reservoir constructed for the purpose of storing water.

2. No person shall, under any pretence whatsoever, damage, destroy, or otherwise interfere with any race, tail-race, dam, reservoir, or any appurtenances connected therewith, unless with the consent of the registered owners thereof. In the Yackandandah division, and Wombat Creek, Omeo, tailing dams to be considered as public property, to be used by any party or parties paying a fair share of the expenses incurred in their erection, such expenses to be decided by arbitration or by warden and assessors. Parties using such dams for the reception of tailings must contribute towards keeping them in good repair.

BYE-LAW No. 21.—WATER-RIGHTS.

1. Rights to divert water from creeks or rivers shall be divided into three classes, viz.:—Creek rights, bank rights, and motive-power rights.

2. Creek rights shall in all cases be superior to others.

3. Bank rights shall be superior to motive-power rights, except in the Yackandandah and Buckland divisions, in which motive-power rights shall be superior to bank rights.

4. Creek and motive-power rights taken up in connection with a creek claim, shall be deemed to belong to the claim or area with which they were occupied, and shall not be used on any other.

5. Bank rights shall be deemed to belong to the race in which the water is diverted, and may be used on any claim or for any mining purpose.

6. Superiority among rights of the same class shall be determined by priority of occupation, the earlier occupier having the superior right. In all cases where the occupier of a bank right claims under a permit or authority in writing to cut the race in which it is conveyed, granted by a commissioner of the gold fields or warden, the occupation of such right shall be taken to have commenced from the period at which such permit or authority in writing was granted.

7. If at any time the use of a bank right has been abandoned for any period exceeding one month at any time that water was available for it, occupation of the right shall be deemed to have commenced at the last re-occupation thereof.

8. If the use of a bank right shall be abandoned for any period exceeding one month at a time that water is available for it, the right shall be deemed to be forfeited.

9. The alteration or extension of a race at any time shall not in any way affect any right or privilege attached to such race.

10. The transfer or assignment of any race, or any interest therein, shall not affect any right or privilege attached to such race.

11. If the water flowing in any creek or river is not sufficient to furnish all the rights deriving their supply from such creek or river with the quantity of water to which they are entitled, the owner of any right shall, on the receipt of a written notice from the owner of any superior right, stating that the supply of such superior right is less than he is entitled to, cease to divert, or make available to the superior right his supply of water, or such portion thereof as will be necessary to make up the supply of the superior right.

12. Any person forming a new race, or extending one previously formed, shall, during such formation or extension, be deemed to be in occupation of all the rights and privileges attached to such race.

13. Every bank-right shall be registered with the registrar by the owner of the race in which it is, or is intended to be, diverted.

14. The holder of any creek or motive-power right shall not be entitled to demand a supply of water at a higher level than is sufficient for his purposes.

15. The holder of any water-right in the Snake Valley or Spring Creek divisions shall be limited to a stream of water running for twelve hours on each day, to be gauged by a box six feet long, twelve inches wide, and six inches deep in the inner measurement, with an opening of a uniform depth of one inch and one-eighth of an inch across the bottom; but in cases where the occupier of a right claims under the written permission of any commissioner or warden of the gold fields to be entitled to a supply of water for any longer period than twelve hours, and has continued to occupy under such permission, the occupier of the race shall be entitled to the full supply set forth in the written permission of such commissioner or warden, to be gauged nevertheless as aforesaid. The holder of any bank right to divert water from any creek or river in the Woolshed, Buckland, and Omeo divisions, shall be limited to a stream of water running continuously, and gauged by a box of the same length, width, and depth as before mentioned, with an opening of a uniform depth of three inches across the bottom. And in the Yackandandah division, to a stream of water running continuously, and gauged by a box of the same length and width as before mentioned, but only three inches and a half deep in the inner measurement, and with an opening of the uniform depth of three inches across the bottom. The box shall be fixed level in the race, the lower edge of which shall be level with the edges of the box for a distance of not less than twelve feet immediately above it, and in races running more than one head of water the box shall be increased in width twelve inches for every additional head of water the race may be permitted to carry. The gauge shall be placed immediately below the place where the race receives its last supply, except in the Buckland and Omeo divisions, in which the gauge may be fixed at any other place in the race, provided that such alteration of position shall not interfere with any existing right.

BYE-LAW No. 22.—SURVEYOR'S DUTIES.

The surveyor shall, on receipt of a report of a discovery of new alluvial gold workings at a depth exceeding forty feet, affix a notice outside his office, and on a conspicuous place on the claim in which such discovery has been made, stating a time within four days at which he will attend for the purpose of causing such discovery to be tested. At the time appointed the surveyor shall attend at the shaft in which the discovery has been made, and shall call on the miners there assembled to elect five men from among themselves for the purpose of testing the value of the discovery, and shall authorise them to descend the shaft, and obtain a sufficient quantity of auriferous earth for their purpose; and if they shall decide that such ground is payable, he shall proclaim a lead, and shall proceed to measure off the claim to which the prospectors are entitled, and give them possession thereof. He then shall lay down a base line upwards and downwards from the boundaries of the prospect claim on the supposed course of such lead, on which lines he shall mark the length of claims, and shall allot such claims according to priority of occupation on the lead, and at each boundary he shall lay down cross lines, as near as possible at right angles with the base line, of not less than one hundred feet in length. If the actual course of the lead is found to differ materially from the base line, and if the majority of the claimholders affected by such difference shall request the surveyor to alter the course of the base line, he shall, within four days after the receipt of such request, comply therewith, and shall lay off claims on the new base line in the same order as on the first base line. He shall, within four days after receiving notice in accordance with the provisions of the frontage-by-law, lay off the reduced width of each claim. He shall at any time alter the boundary of such reduced claim within four days, as provided for in the frontage bye-law. He shall be entitled to a fee of Seven shillings and sixpence from the holder of each claim on a proclaimed lead, and a further fee of Seven shillings and sixpence for altering the boundaries of each reduced frontage claim. He shall when called upon define the boundaries of any quartz claim situated in the division for which he is appointed, for which he shall be entitled to a fee of Twenty shillings, together with Two shillings and sixpence for each mile exceeding three that the claim is distant from his office; and shall, when called upon, make underground surveys, and shall furnish a plan of such survey, for which he shall be entitled to a fee of Two pounds sterling.

BYE-LAW No. 23.—REGISTRAR'S DUTIES.

1. The registrar shall keep his office open from Ten o'clock a.m. to Four o'clock p.m. daily, and shall keep books columned as in the schedule attached, and shall register therein the occupation, amalgamation, transfer, or suspension of the working of any claim, other than an ordinary claim; the occupation or transfer of any race, reservoir, bank, water-right; the occupation of any road, tramway, quartz-mill site, or ground on which auriferous earth or quartz is stacked, or the suspension of the occupation of any building site. No such registration to be held as effected until actually entered in such book of registry, when the registrar, upon production of a certificate of the record of each such application, shall be entitled to demand a fee of One shilling and sixpence.

2. He shall give an extract of any entry in his books or allow any person to inspect the books personally, on payment of the fee of One shilling; he shall also keep constantly posted, in a conspicuous place in his office, copies of all bye-laws then in force in the district.

3. He shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, send a return to the mining board of all the registrations effected during the previous month, in the form of the schedule attached.

BYE-LAW No. 24.—PROVIDING FOR THE NON-APPOINTMENT OF SURVEYORS OR REGISTRARS.

In any division for which there is no registrar duly appointed, non-registration shall not be deemed a breach of the mining board bye-laws, nor shall bar the exercise of any privilege under these bye-laws. In a division in which there is no surveyor duly appointed, the non-fulfilment of any of the surveyor's duties shall not invalidate the title to any claim. Where any surveyor or registrar shall refuse to perform the duties attached to his office by these bye-laws, and thereby prevent the fulfilment of the conditions imposed by any bye-law on any claimholder, such non-fulfilment shall not be deemed a breach of a bye-law, and shall not invalidate the title to any mining interest or privilege held or enjoyed by such claimholder.

BYE-LAW No. 25.—INTERPRETATION BYE-LAW.

1. In the construction and for the purposes of these bye-laws the following terms shall, if not inconsistent with the context or subject matter, have the respective meanings hereby assigned to them.

2. The words "warden," "surveyor," and "registrar" shall mean respectively, the warden, surveyor, and registrar for the time being of the division in which the events in connection with which they are mentioned shall happen.

In creek or other claims, when the occupiers are in a position to commence washing, except in cases in which an extensive tail-race is to be cut, the words shall then mean when the occupiers have been at work on or in connection therewith for a period not less than two months.

ADDITIONAL AREA ANNEXED TO THE MUNICIPAL DISTRICT OF SANDHURST.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR HENRY BARKLY, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, and Vice-Admiral of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Lieutenant Governor and Legislative Council of Victoria, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the establishment of Municipal Institutions in Victoria, it was amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lieutenant Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, if he should think fit, on the receipt of a petition signed by the householders purporting to be the majority resident within an area adjoining to any proclaimed municipal district containing an average of thirty-six resident householders for each square mile thereof, praying that such locality by a general description might be united with and form part of such previously proclaimed municipal district, to declare by proclamation, with the consent of the council of such proclaimed district, such locality to be united with and form part of such previously proclaimed municipal district, and also by the same or any other Proclamation, to define the limits and boundaries of such locality, and upon the publication of any such Proclamation in the Government Gazette, such locality so defined should be and be deemed to be united with and should form part of such previously proclaimed municipal district; provided that no such Proclamation be issued as above until the substance and prayer of such petition should have been published for at least one month previously in the Government Gazette: And whereas the householders purporting to be the majority resident within an area adjoining to the municipal district of Sandhurst have presented a petition to the Governor, praying for the annexation of the locality therein mentioned to the said municipal district: And whereas the substance and prayer of such petition have been duly published, and the council of the said municipal district have consented to such annexation: Now therefore I, Sir Henry Barkly, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, and with the consent of the municipal council of Sandhurst, do by this my Proclamation declare that the locality hereinafter described shall be united with and form part of the said municipal district of Sandhurst, that is to say:—

PETITION UNDER THE MUNICIPAL ACT.

SALE.

THE Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has directed the publication of the substance and prayer of the petition hereinafter set forth, signed by One hundred and fifty-three householders and landowners, at and near Sale, in the district of Gipps Land, praying for the erection of their locality into a municipal district.

JOHN O'SHANASSY.

Chief Secretary's Office,
 Melbourne, 8th April, 1862.

The petitioners state that they are householders and landowners in the township and parish of Sale, and that necessity exists for the erection of the township into a municipal district, to further its improvement and good government.

They further state that it is the centre of a large agricultural district, and that the elements of wealth, such as a large and increasing population, genial soil, and mineral productiveness, are there concentrated; but the greatest inconvenience is caused by the want of proper roads, whereby the outlet of produce is obstructed and the cost of imported necessities is enhanced.

That the township, possessing no improvements in the way of street making and draining, is, during several months in the year, all but uninhabitable, and that owing to its isolation in position and interest, local self-government is indispensable to its welfare and progress.

They suggest the following area for a municipal district, viz.:-"Bounded on the west by the western boundary of the parish of Sale, commencing at Flooding Creek, at the south-west corner of lot 101, and bearing north to the north-west corner of the said parish; thence on the north by the northern boundary of the said parish, or two-chain road, bearing east to the one-chain road on the west side of 'The Heart,' thence by a one-chain road bearing south, and a line in continuation till it intersects Flooding Creek; thence by that creek to the point of commencement; comprising an area of about nine square miles, no part of which is distant six miles from any other."

And the petitioners pray as follows:-

"Your petitioners hereby pray that your Excellency will be pleased to cause the area above described to be proclaimed as 'The Sale Municipal District.'"

[The signatures to the above-mentioned petition appeared in No. 43 of the Gazette, pp. 618, 619 ante.]
