ALTERATIONS IN LIGHTS AT SHORTLAND'S BLUFF.

THE accompanying Notice to Mariners, respecting the New Lights at Shortland's Bluff, is published for the information of Navigators and others.

ROBERT S. ANDERSON,
Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

Department of Trade and Customs,
Melbourne, 31st December, 1862.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

PORT PHILLIP HEADS LIGHTS.

IN accordance with a notice to mariners, dated 17th April, 1862, navigators are hereby informed that on and after the evening of the 19th of February next, a Fixed Light, upon the dioptric principle, will be exhibited from each of the two towers recently built at Shortland's Bluff, close to and on the same line of bearing from each other as the two old towers, namely, N. 33° E. and S. 33° W., and distant from each other one thousand and fifty-six feet. On the exhibition of the new lights the present lights will be extinguished, and the old towers removed as speedily as possible.

HIGH LIGHTHOUSE.

Fixed Bright White Light.

The new high lighthouse will, like the present one, exhibit a fixed bright white light between sunset and sunrise, and be visible from seaward to vessels in the offing from about E. by N. to N., but vessels close in with the Lonsdale land will not see the light except from N.E. by E. to N.

The light will be visible within the Heads from S.W. by W. to about N.E. by E., i.e., from the Swanspit Lighthouse round southerly to Lonsdale Head.

The tower is built of bluestone, and will remain its natural color. The centre of the light will be one hundred and thirty (130) feet above high-water level, and be visible at a distance of seventeen miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

The attention of navigators is called to the fact of the new light being twenty feet higher than the present one and of greater intensity, it will therefore show further seaward and into the Barwon Bight than the latter did.

The alteration made in the new high lighthouse from the old high lighthouse consists in a change of color from white to grey, greater intensity of light and range in an E. and W. direction.

LOW LIGHT.

Fixed Red and White.

The new low lighthouse tower will be painted white like the present one.

The centre of the light will be ninety feet above high-water level.

The white light will be visible at a distance of fourteen miles, and the red light at a distance of ten miles, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

With the view of facilitating the navigation between the Heads and through the South Channel, and guiding ships to a safe anchorage at night, the following alterations will be made in the color of the low light, which has hitherto been all red:—

On and after the evening of the 19th of February next, the low light will show white from about N.E. by E. to N.E., and from N.N.E. to W. by N.; and red from about N.E. to N.N.E.

These bearings, it will be observed, show the low light to be white from Point Lonsdale to a safe berth clear of the reef; No. 2.—JANUARY 6, 1863.—1.

thence red to a safe berth clear of the Corsair Rock; thence white to a line passing from the lighthouse through the south channel to the southward of the Pope's Eye and black buoys, and to the northward of the white buoys, so that vessels caught after dark with light winds or adverse tide in the south channel will be aided in their passage through by a bearing of the light.

The change of color from red to white is intended to warn vessels approaching Points Lonsdale and Nepean Reefs to haul to the eastward or westward, as the case may be, to get into the stream of red light which will lead them clear of both reefs.

The two lights in one will, as heretofore, be the safest course for vessels of heavy draught entering between the heads.

SWAN SPIT LIGHT.

Fixed Red and White.

This light, which has hitherto been colored red all round, will, on and after the 10th February next, be altered so as to show white from about E.N.E. to N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E., and from N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. to N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W., and red from N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. to N.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ N. and N. by W. $\frac{1}{4}$ W. to S. $\frac{1}{4}$ W.

These bearings show white from the Queenscliff jetty round to a safe berth clear of No. 1 black buoy; thence red to a safe berth clear of the Royal George white perch buoy; thence white to the chequered buoy on Nicholson's Knoll; thence red across the Symonds and Lælia's Channels, and up the West and Cole's Channels.

These changes are intended to obviate the difficulties hitherto experienced in estimating a vessel's distance at night from the Shortland Bluff Reef and the two channel buoys at the entrance of the West Channel.

CORSAIR ROCK MARKS.

Alteration in the marks on Shortland's Bluff for clearing the Corsair Rock.

The present leading marks to clear the Corsair Rock are the flagstaff kept open west of the low lighthouse.

As the latter will be removed on the exhibition of the new lights, and the flagstaff been now on the spot where the lighthouse keeper's quarters are to be built, it will also be removed on the 19th of February to a site close to the high lighthouse, and from that date will cease to be a mark for the Corsair Rock.

Before the removal of the old low lighthouse and flagstaff, a stone obelisk, forty (40) feet high, colored red, will be erected close to the site of the former.

The leading marks to clear the Corsair Rock will then be the Red Obelisk and the east end of the Queenscliff Telegraph Station, a two-storied light-colored building, close to the high lighthouse.

On and after the 19th of February next, the following will be the directions to clear the Corsair Rock:—

Keep the east end of the Telegraph Station open to the westward of the Red Obelisk until you open the White Beacon on Point Nepean well out to the northward of the Red Beacon when bound inwards, and well out to the southward of the Red Beacon when bound outwards.

Masters of vessels and others who may possess the sailing directions and charts for this port can have the particulars of this notice inserted in their proper place in the directions, and the positions of the recently discovered rocks laid down on their charts, by sending them to this office.

The bearings are all magnetic, and are given from the ship, not from the lights.

3. Prospecting by hired labor.—Any person may prospect by hired labor, and shall be entitled to all gold that may be produced from such prospecting claim worked by labor hired by him, provided his interest is properly represented by holders of miners' rights in accordance with the provisions of these by-laws.

13. Justifiable absence.—Any miner whose absence from his claim is caused by illness, or attendance on a sick person, or court of justice, or by urgent business, shall not forfeit his share or interest during such absence, but a majority of the other shareholders may have his place supplied by a competent miner, and he shall be responsible for any reasonable wages to the miner so employed.

26. Claims may be held unworked.—Claims may be held unworked while the owners are engaged erecting machinery, constructing a water-race, tunnel, tramway, or dam, or other work in connection therewith; or if by the surface flooding of claims the working thereof shall be impeded, or if the supply of water be insufficient to carry on the work of said claims, the owners of such claims may, by posting a notice to that effect, containing the names of all shareholders, in some conspicuous place on their claims, hold the same and work other claims until the flooding shall have ceased, or sufficient water shall be obtained for working the claims so held; provided that, within four days after the flooding shall have ceased, or sufficient water has been obtained, work must be resumed on claims so held, or they will be liable to forfeiture.

27. Protection to claimholders employed but not on claim.—Claimholders employed in procuring timber, or at any work necessary in any way for forwarding work connected with their claim, shall be held in lawful possession of such claim.

28. Holidays.—Miners may be absent from their claims on all the following days (viz.):—Good Friday to Easter Tuesday, both inclusive; 24th December to 2nd January, both inclusive; any day on which the election of a member of the legislature or mining board of this district may take place, the day before and the day after such election, and any day proclaimed a holiday by the warden.

29. Penalty for breach of bye-law.—In accordance with the provisions of the Gold Fields Act, any person who shall infringe any bye-law of this mining board shall be liable for every such offence to be fined in any sum not exceeding Ten pounds.

WET SINKING.

30. Interpretation clause.—The term "wet sinking" shall mean where water occurs below the surface drift or gravel in sufficient quantities to render slabbing and baling necessary.

31. Commencement of work.—Claimholders within three claims of the last claim bottomed and at work in which water has been struck, shall without delay commence to sink their shaft and must continue to do so during the usual working hours of every lawful day until the "well" shall be completed or the claim abandoned, unless the water shall prove too heavy, and work shall be stuck with the consent of the adjoining claimholders.

32. Shepherding.—Any party beyond the three claims above mentioned may hold their claims unworked by fulfilling the conditions specified in clause 8.

33. Water baling.—The owners of any claim neglecting or refusing to bale their fair proportion of water during the day, or night if necessary, shall render their claim liable to forfeiture.

34. Injury to claims by not baling.—Claimholders within three claims of any claim in which water has been struck neglecting or refusing, when requested by the holders of adjoining claims, to bale their fair proportion of water, shall be liable for any injury done thereby to adjoining claimholders.

35. Claims may be amalgamated.—Parties desirous of amalgamating their claims, for the purpose of working them by means of machinery, must post a notice in some conspicuous place about the centre of such claims about to amalgamate, stating the number and position of the claims and the names of all the shareholders.

WATER PRIVILEGES.

36. Notice for water privilege.—Any person or persons desirous of obtaining the exclusive right to a water privilege shall post a notice on some conspicuous place on the site in the following form:—I (or we) hereby give notice of my (or our) intention to take possession of (here specify the site) as a water privilege for mining purposes, in accordance with the bye-laws of the division relating thereto (name or names in full of the parties). A copy of the above, legibly written, must be kept posted on the site to be taken possession of seven days, and a copy lodged with the registrar of the division; and if no valid objections be made to the registrar, in writing, within the seven days, the site may be taken possession of.

37. Extent of dams.—The extent of dam where machinery is used shall not exceed one hundred (100) yards square above the main embankment; where machinery is not employed, the extent shall not exceed sixty (60) yards square.

38. Sludge.—Where machinery, either horse or steam, is employed, the owner or owners thereof shall construct a second embankment, for the purpose of retaining the sludge, not more than one hundred (100) yards below the main embankment; except it can be more conveniently carried off by drainage, without injuring other persons by running into old workings or roads in ordinary use.

39. Injury to property by dams.—In case of any dam breaking away and injuring the property of others, the owner or owners of such dam shall be liable for any injury sustained thereby, unless it can be proved that such breaking away did not result from the faulty construction of the dam.

40. Drains.—When sludge or water drains run across any road in general use, a substantial bridge, not less than fourteen feet in width, the culvert of which must be of sufficient size to carry off the said sludge or water, must be constructed and kept in repair by the owner or owners of the claim or claims from which such sludge or water proceeds.

41. Penalty for defiling or carting away water.—Any person driving cattle into, or in any way defiling or carting away the water from any dam, without the consent of the owner or owners thereof, shall be liable to the penalties specified in clause 29.

42. Forfeiture of dams.—Any dam not commenced within seven (7) days from the date of taking possession of the site thereof, or not completed within two (2) months, shall be deemed forfeited.

43. Water-holes reserved.—Water-holes, reservoirs, or springs, may be reserved by the warden for domestic purposes, but no monopoly of any spring or natural water-hole shall be allowed.

WATER-RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES FOR SLUICING PURPOSES.

44. Extent of hill and surfacing claims for sluicing purposes.—The extent of hill and surfacing claims in worked or partially worked ground, or in unworked ground, where open and prospected by a sluicing party, shall be:—

Forty (40) yards frontage.

One hundred and sixty (160) yards in length.

Three (3) men at least to be employed at each claim.

45. Extent of claims in gullies.—The extent of claims in gullies in worked or partially worked ground, or in unworked ground, where opened and prospected by a sluicing party, shall be:—

Thirty (30) yards wide.

Two hundred and sixty (260) yards in length.

Three (3) men at least to be employed at each claim.

46. Size of extended claims.—Claimholders having to cut an extensive tail-race, or using expensive machinery, shall be entitled to an extended claim not exceeding four ordinary claims.

47. Claims to be marked by pegs.—A conspicuous peg, two (2) feet at least above the surface, shall be kept exposed at each corner of the claim.

48. Registration of claims.—A written notice must be given to the registrar of all claims, ordinary and extended, at whose office a registration of such claims shall be kept.

49. Protection to claims during work.—Claimholders employed procuring timber, or any work necessary in any way for forwarding work connected with the claim, shall be held in lawful occupation of such claim; where employed in cutting a race, they shall have protection for one claim only.

50. Protection to claims during drought.—During failure of the requisite supply of water, claimholders shall be entitled to suspension of work in accordance with the necessity of the case.

51. Forfeiture of claim.—Claims unoccupied or abandoned for seventy-two (72) hours shall be deemed forfeited, except in cases of sickness, attendance at courts of justice, public holidays, urgent business, or unless specially provided for in this bye-law where partially unoccupied, that portion of the claim unrepresented only to be held forfeited. The original holders of the claim shall determine what portion of the claim shall be forfeited.

52. Responsible parties.—The person or persons in whose name a claim is registered shall be held responsible for the fulfilment of all conditions under which such claim is held, and for all and any damage resulting to other parties by the working of such claim.

53. Notice of intention to take up a water-right.—A written notice of intention to take up a water-right, or to shift the head of a race, shall be left with the registrar, who shall keep a copy posted and kept exposed for fourteen (14) clear days at his office before such right can be taken possession of. Any person intending to object shall leave a written notice, stating reasons for such objections, with the registrar, who shall keep a copy posted and exposed at his office seven (7) clear days before the same can be taken possession of.

54. Gauge.—Each water-right shall entitle the holder or holders thereof to a column of water three and a quarter (3¼) inches by twelve (12) inches, running without intermission, gauged in the following manner, that is to say:—A box six (6) feet in length and twelve (12) inches in width, with a scale of a quarter (¼) of an inch, marked on the inner side at the lower end, shall be placed at the head of the race, with a fall or inclination of one (1) foot in the entire length of it, and the gauge of water as above specified (3¼ inches by 12 inches) shall be taken at the mouth of the box, where the water is discharged.

55. Priority of rights.—In case of failure of water the junior water-right shall give way to the next preceding senior right, and so on in rotation, as the supply diminishes; and six (6) clear working days after notice from the registrar, such junior right holder shall turn sufficient water down the creek from the head of his race to make up the deficiency in the gauge of the preceding right, and without further notice shall continue or increase the quantity of water so diverted, as the case may require, to keep up the gauge.

56. Protection to races during drought.—The race and the right to the water shall not be held forfeited by the proprietors working in other claims when the supply of water is insufficient.

57. Protection to tail-races.—No person taking up a claim shall approach either by sinking or driving within six (6) feet of any tail-race.

58. Distance between races.—Any person cutting a race so close to an existing race as thereby to cause drainage, or to the properly surveyed line of an intended race in actual and bona fide course of formation, thereby causing drainage or any other damage, shall be responsible to the proprietors for such damage.

59. Damage to races.—No person shall cut or damage any race, tail-race, dam, or reservoir, constructed for sluicing purposes, or obstruct the flow of water in them, or sink or approach within six (6) feet of them, without first securing them to the satisfaction of the proprietors.

60. Keeping races in repair and making bridges.—Proprietors of races must keep them in good repair, and make efficient bridges where necessary, fourteen (14) feet at least in width, in places where the race crosses roads in ordinary use.

61. Abandoned races.—Races abandoned for two (2) months during sufficient supply of water shall be held forfeited, except in cases of justifiable absence.

62. Heads of races may be shifted.—All races shall have a given point specified for their head; the head, however, may be shifted, provided such shift be not above or below the head of an existing right, or to its injury or prejudice.

63. Construction of dams, &c.—Dams or reservoirs may be constructed for sluicing purposes where not injurious to general mining interests. Any person wishing to work the ground on which a dam or reservoir is situate, may remove it, provided he previously, at his own expense, erect one of equal size and value, and as available for the supply of water, and the convenience of using it as in the one to be removed.

64. Tail-water.—All right or control over the water shall cease upon its leaving the sluice of any water-right holder, except in cases where the length is fifteen (15) miles or upwards along the course of the race from its head, when the right or control shall remain with the right-holder so long as he conducts the water in a proper channel.

65. Amalgamation.—To give increased facility in working sluicing claims, and to prevent unnecessary waste of water, any two or more water-rights may be amalgamated, provided the rights amalgamated follow in rotation as to priority. All such amalgamations must be registered with the registrar.

66. Hired labor.—No hired miner shall have any right or title to any interest in any race or sluice claim in consequence of working therein.

STREAM MACHINERY.

67. Steam machinery.—Any miner or party of miners erecting steam machinery for the purpose of working a claim, shall be entitled to hold an additional area of ground, viz., the area allowed for one miner for each nominal horse-power of the machinery so employed, provided the same can be had without interfering with existing rights.

68. Erection and repairs of machinery.—Holders of machinery claims shall be allowed a reasonable time for the erection and repairs of their machinery, plant, and all appliances.

69. Abandoned shares or claims.—Should any share, interest, or claim on which machinery has been erected be abandoned, the owner or owners of such machinery may take possession of and continue the working of such share, interest, or claim by means of hired labor or otherwise, provided each share is represented.

70. Registration of machinery claims.—All machinery claims must be registered, together with the names of each and all shareholders in such claim; and any miner or miners taking possession of any unoccupied share or interest in any claim, shall be liable for any reasonable amount of expense that may be due thereon.

FRONTAGE LEADS.

71. Declaration of frontage leads.—Whenever it may appear expedient to place any wet lead under the frontage system, any one or more miners holding claims on it may call a public meeting of the claimholders, to be held on the lead in question between the hours of Nine a.m. and Noon. Should a majority decide in favor of placing it under the frontage system, the chairman of said meeting shall at once post a notice on the lead in the following form:—"We, the undersigned miners, do hereby declare this (here insert name of lead) lead to be a frontage lead, and subject to the bye-laws relating thereto, from and after the date hereof." Such notice shall be signed by the chairman and not less than (20) shareholders, and a copy shall be forwarded to the warden and registrar without delay.

72. Existing rights.—Notwithstanding anything herein enacted, the existing rights of any claimholders enjoyed on any lead at the time when it is placed under the frontage system, shall in no way be interfered with.

73. Size of claims.—The size of claim shall be thirty (30) feet for each man along the supposed course of the lead, and may be of any width not exceeding four hundred (400) yards, until the course of the lead or gutter be determined; the claimholders shall then be entitled to the full width of the lead only.

74. Marking off claims.—Parties marking out frontage claims shall do so by fixing a conspicuous peg at each end of the claim (the upper and the lower) on the supposed course of the lead.

75. Numbering of claims.—All claims shall be numbered consecutively from No. 1 upwards, and registered.

76. Registration of claims and shares.—Within six days after marking off and taking possession of a frontage claim, the owners shall register their claim; and a copy of such registration, including the names of all shareholders, must be kept posted on some conspicuous part of the claim during the working thereof.

77. Transfers.—Any person to whom a share or interest is transferred must register the same.

78. Forfeiture of claims.—Claimholders within three (3) claims of the last claim bottomed and at work, in which water has been struck, shall without delay commence to sink their shaft, and must continue to do so during the usual working hours of every lawful day until the "well" shall be completed or the claim abandoned, unless the water shall prove too heavy, and work shall be struck with the consent of the adjoining claimholders; beyond the above limits, any party may hold their claim unworked by being present thereat every lawful day for two (2) consecutive hours between Nine a.m. and Noon. Non-compliance with this clause shall render the claim liable to forfeiture. No share or interest in any such claim being shepherded, shall, under any circumstances, become liable to forfeiture, unless through absence from such claim during the hours specified above.

79. Claims may be amalgamated.—Parties desirous of amalgamating their claims for the purpose of working them by means of machinery, must post on some conspicuous part of their claim a notice in the following form:—"We, the undersigned owners of claims numbered respectively (here insert the number of each No. 2.—JANUARY 6, 1863.—2.

claim) hereby give notice that we wish to amalgamate them." The notice must contain the name of each shareholder, and eight (8) days after posting the notice, unless objected to, the amalgamation shall be allowed.

80. Giving notice on striking the lead.—Parties striking the lead shall make the same known by hoisting a flag on a pole at their shaft, and shall keep such flag exposed for three consecutive days; any party neglecting to do so shall be liable to the penalty specified in clause 29.

OLD WORKINGS.

81. Interpretation clause.—Old workings shall mean ground on which a number of shafts have been sunk, and which has been for the greater part undermined or abandoned for at least three months.

82. Machinery, tramway, tunnel, or water-race.—Any person or persons erecting a whim, puddling machine, steam engine, or other machinery, for the purpose of working a claim, shall be entitled to hold an additional extent of ground of two hundred (200) feet by one hundred (100) feet for each nominal horse-power so employed, or for each mile of water-race, or for each one hundred (100) yards of tunnel or tramway constructed.

83. Repeal clause.—On and after this bye-law coming into force, all former alluvial bye-laws are repealed, in so far as they relate to the Pleasant Creek and Barkly divisions of the Ararat mining district, subject, however, to all existing rights.

YACKANDANDAH ROAD DISTRICT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

THAT the business of the Yackandandah District Road Board be conducted with open doors.

2. The regular meetings of the board shall be held at the board room on the first Tuesday in every month, at One o'clock p.m., and business shall commence as soon after that hour as a quorum of five shall be in attendance; but if in half an hour after the time named for meeting there be no quorum present, such meeting shall stand adjourned till the next usual day of meeting, and such circumstance, together with the names of the members present, shall be recorded on the minutes.

3. The minutes of any preceding meeting not previously confirmed shall be read first at all meetings, in order that they may be confirmed, and no discussion will be allowed regarding them unless as to their accuracy; and all correspondence not previously submitted to the board, reports ordered to be brought up by the secretary or any officer, or by any member or sub-committee of the board, and petitions to be presented to the board, shall have precedence in the order named of the regular business of each meeting.

4. Memorials to be presented by members only; every such member presenting a memorial shall be responsible for its being respectfully worded.

5. Orders of the day shall include all business incomplete at a former meeting, all matters of which due notice has been given, and any business which the chairman shall see fit to introduce; and such orders of the day as arise out of former proceedings, or from notice of motion having been given, shall take precedence in the order in which they stand on the minute book and the notice book respectively.

6. When the business arising out of the orders of the day shall have been concluded, notices of motion for the next meeting of the board, containing the name of the proposer, may be handed to the secretary, who shall enter them in a book kept for that purpose.

7. Every member giving notice of motion shall read it aloud, and state the day of bringing on such motion.

8. No motion entered on the notice paper shall be proceeded with unless the member giving such notice, or some member authorised by him, be present when the business is called in order. Notices not so proceeded with shall be either postponed or struck out, as the members present shall decide.

9. No member shall speak twice on the same motion or amendment, except by way of explanation or in reply upon any original motion of which he may have been the mover, or as the mover of the amendment last proposed; and the chairman shall, without waiting for the interposition of the board, call to order any member proceeding to speak a second time on the same motion or amendment.

10. One amendment only shall be discussed at a time, and if lost, another may be moved before the original motion is put from the chair; but if any amendment be carried it shall be looked upon as the original motion, and it shall be competent to move thereon one other amendment, but not more.

11. That no motion or amendment shall be entertained by the board until the same be seconded, and no motion or amendment once brought forward shall be withdrawn without leave of the board.

12. The chairman shall put each question first in the affirmative and then in the negative, and shall there and then decide which is in a majority.

13. The ruling of the chairman shall be final on all points of order, and shall be given without argument or comment, except by way of citing precedent; and if two or more members rise to speak at the same time the chairman shall decide which has the first claim.

14. No discussion shall be allowed on any motion for adjournment of the board; but if on the question being put the motion for adjournment be negatived, the subject then under consideration or the next on the notice paper, or any other that may be allowed precedence by the chairman, shall be discussed before any subsequent motion for adjournment be entertained; and if the motion for adjournment be carried, then the business undischarged shall have precedence at the next meeting of the board.

15. No motion the effect of which if carried would be to rescind any motion which has already passed the board, shall be entertained for the same year, unless a call of the whole board has been made for that purpose; and no such motion for rescinding any resolution of the board which shall have been negatived by the board shall be again entertained during the next six months.

16. It shall be competent for any member, without previous notice, to move for a call of the whole board for the consideration of any subject, on any day not sooner than ten from the date on which such motion is made; and if the motion of call be passed by the board, the secretary shall give due notice by post to the other members of the board of the object of any meeting resulting therefrom, and the time and place at which such meeting shall be held.

17. Any member or members of the board may protest respectfully against any resolution of the board, provided that at the time such resolution is passed, the member or members so protesting shall give the secretary a written notice, signed by him or them, stating reasons for protesting; and the secretary shall notice the protest in the minutes, and make an entry of the same in a book kept for that purpose.

18. No motion the effect of which if carried would involve the expenditure of a sum exceeding Ten pounds, can be entertained by the board, unless notice of the same has been given at a previous meeting.

19. No member shall digress from the subject matter of the question under discussion, or impute improper motives to others; and all personal reflections upon any member shall be considered as highly disorderly, and the member making use of such offensive expressions shall make an apology, if required by the board to do so.

20. Any member may require the secretary to take down in writing any particular words used by a member, immediately upon the same being used.

21. All contracts shall be advertised in some of the local journals, at least twice, and each tender shall be addressed to the chairman of the board, and shall not be opened until the time for its consideration arrives, when the contractor may also be present; and the amounts, together with the names of the parties tendering, shall be entered on the minutes of the board; and whenever tenders are accepted, a contract shall be entered into and signed by the contractor and two members of the board.

22. The security in all cases of contract shall be Ten pounds per cent. on the amount specified in the tender, and shall be paid over by the contractor to the chairman, or anyone appointed by the board for that purpose; and the moneys so paid shall be lodged in the bank with the other moneys of the board, and shall not be repaid to the contractor until he has obtained a certificate from the engineer of the board that the works under his contract are satisfactorily performed.

23. No member of the board shall contract, directly or indirectly, for any work ordered by, or become security for any officer or contractor under, the board; and if any infringement of this rule is proved to the satisfaction of the board, it shall be competent for it, on the motion of any of its members, to cancel the contract or agreement by which such infringement has been made.

24. At each meeting of the board the secretary shall report banker's balance, liabilities actually incurred, balance in hands of collector, and the amount of rates collected since last meeting.

25. Before the issue of rate receipts, they shall be signed by the chairman of the board, and the receipt books of the collector's receipt book shall be numbered consecutively; and at every investigation of his accounts he shall be required to produce receipts for the rates stated by him to be in arrears, and produce bank vouchers for the payments made by him.

26. In committees of the whole board, the standing orders shall be observed except the rule limiting the number of times each member may speak.

27. There shall be three permanent committees of the board, viz., the public works committee, the finance committee, and the legislative committee; and each committee shall consist of the whole of the members of the board, of whom three shall form a quorum.

28. The chairman and any two members of the board may call a special meeting by giving, through the secretary or otherwise, seven days' notice of their intention of so doing to the other members.

29. It shall be competent for a majority of the board in session to suspend, during the discussion of any subject, any standing order herein contained, except the purpose of such suspension be the rescinding of any motion previously adopted by the board.

30. The board shall vote in all cases by show of hands, except in the election of officers, in which cases the voting shall be by ballot.

31. In all cases it shall be considered sufficient for the collector to call once for payment of any sum due on the assessment roll; and in the event of any such sum not being paid to him, a notice shall be left stating that unless the sum be paid before the expiration of fourteen days from the date thereof legal proceedings will be taken for its recovery.

32. The collector shall in no case distrain without the order of the chairman.

33. No election of any officer shall take place until six clear days' public notice shall have been given by advertisement in a local newspaper inviting applications from candidates properly qualified.

34. All payments shall be made by cheque, signed by the chairman and one other member of the board and countersigned by the secretary, and no such cheques shall be given unless they be passed at a regular meeting of the board.

Printed forms of tender may be obtained from the Government Storekeeper, Melbourne, or from the officer in charge of police at each station, by whom also any information or explanation will be afforded to persons tendering.

The tenders for each station will be accepted or rejected separately.

Tenders may be for either of the supplies required, oats, bran, hay, or straw only, and if all be included in one tender, it will be accepted for one article only if advisable.

As much forage as the storage will accommodate will be drawn at a time for the convenience of contractors.

The price must be per ton for hay and straw, and per bushel for oats and bran, including delivery at the stations and all charges; bags to be returned when empty.

The net weight only after deducting the tare is to be charged.

No tender will be entertained unless accompanied by a certificate from two responsible persons that they are willing to become bound as sureties for the due fulfilment of the contract in one-third the estimated cost of the entire supply at the station tendered for; and in the event of the tender being accepted, the bond must be executed within twenty days, failing which the contract may be again advertised or another tender accepted.

The names and addresses of the tenderers and of their proposed sureties must be stated at full length.

All tenders must be enclosed in a separate envelope, marked, "Tender for ——" (as the case may be), and deposited in the box at the Government Stores, King street, or if sent by post they must be addressed to the Government Storekeeper, Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

The decision of the Government will be made known by Gazette notice and by letter to accepted tenderers.

CONDITIONS.

1. The hay to be eaten, good, sound, and sweet; the straw to be wheaten, and both to be in all respects of the best quality; oats (colonial grown) and bran to be sound and sweet and of the best description.

2. The supplies to be delivered on the requisition of the officer in charge of the district or station, the quantities stated in schedule being, however, only approximative, and it must be understood that the Government will draw either more or less than stated. The excess over the estimate will not, however, exceed during the whole year 50 per cent. of the estimated quarterly consumption.

3. The contracts entered into under this notice are not to be considered as being infringed or vitiated by any contracts made by the military commissariat.

4. The forage, when delivered, must be accompanied by an invoice of quantity showing the gross weight, the tare, and the net weight (this should be on the back of the requisition or order), which, when signed by the officer in charge of the station for the net quantity received, will be returned to the contractor, and by him rendered in support of his account.

5. Each contractor will be required to prepare his own account in the prescribed form, and on presentation thereof to the officer in charge of the station or district, it will be forwarded for payment at the Treasury, Melbourne, or the Pay Office of the District, as may be indicated by the contractor on the account.

6. Should forage duly ordered under these contracts not be delivered within forty-eight hours from a reasonable time to be fixed on the order, it will be competent for the department (should circumstances require it) to purchase the same at the risk of the contractor, from whose account any expense over and above the contract price is to be deducted.

7. In the event of a difference of opinion between the contractor and the officer receiving the forage as to quality of the same, it is to be decided by a board of survey composed of persons named by the head of a department, and the decision of the board is to be considered final.

8. If the board shall decide that the forage is not of proper quality, it must be immediately replaced by the contractor, failing which, it will be procured elsewhere, and the extra cost, if any, will be charged as in clause 6.

9. When a board of survey cannot be conveniently assembled, or when from some other cause injury would accrue either to the public service or the contractor, by waiting for a board of survey, the officer in charge will have the power to reject such supplies as are obviously of inferior quality, it being understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing; and the contractor must take back the rejected forage and supply good in its stead, failing which it will be obtained by the officer requiring it, and the expense will be charged as in clause 6.

10. A repetition of irregularity in the quantity or quality of the forage, or of delay in delivering or replacing it when required, will subject the contractor, upon report from the Government Storekeeper, to such mulct, not exceeding one-fourth of the monthly account, as the Government may direct. It will also be in the power of the Government, upon such repetition, to terminate the contract forthwith.

11. It will be competent for the Government Storekeeper on behalf of the Government, or for the contractor on his own behalf, to terminate the contract by giving in writing a notice of three full calendar months to that effect, it being understood that such notice only can be given from the first day of a month, and provided that no such notice can be given before the 30th June, 1863.
