GROWTH OF THISTLES ON PROCLAIMED COMMONAGES.

NOTICE TO MANAGERS OF COMMONS.

THE attention of the Board of Land and Works having been repeatedly and urgently called to the extensive growth of thistles on many of the proclaimed commonages, to the serious detriment of contiguous lands, and to the fact that no measures are adopted by managers of those commons for extirpation and prevention of the growth of thistles thereon, the Board of Land and Works hereby notify that it is intended to take steps with a view to sale or other appropriation of such commonage lands as may be ascertained to be thus neglected by the managers thereof.

DISTRICTS FOR BEER LICENSES.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency SIR CHARLES HENRY DARLING, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Wines, Beer, and Spirit Sale Statute, 1864 (No. 227), it is amongst other things enacted that a beer license shall authorise the licensee to sell, and dispose of, not earlier than Six o'clock in the morning nor later than Eight o'clock in the evening, any ale or beer to be drunk in the house or on the premises described in such license, except in the city of Melbourne or town of Geelong, or in any borough, and if the premises described in such license be subsequently to the granting of such license brought within any borough such license shall expire at the end of the then current year; provided that upon the application by the council of any borough the Governor in Council may by proclamation in the Government Gazette declare the whole or any part of such borough a district wherein beer licenses may be granted, and may on a like application revoke any such proclamation: And whereas the Councils of the Boroughs of Daylesford, Maryborough, and St. Arnaud have respectively made applications that the said boroughs may be declared districts under the proviso of the Act above recited: And whereas the Council of the Borough of Castlemaine has made application that a portion of the Borough of Castlemaine may be declared in like manner: Now therefore I, Sir Charles Henry Darling, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, under and by virtue of the power conferred by the above-recited Act, do by this my Proclamation declare the boroughs and portion of a borough hereinafter mentioned to be respectively districts wherein Beer Licenses may be granted, that is to say:—

The whole of the Borough of Daylesford.

The whole of the Borough of Maryborough.

The whole of the Borough of St. Arnaud.

The part of the Borough of Castlemaine situated outside of the following boundaries, viz., Berkeley street on the north, Gingell street on the west, Saint street on the south, and Fletcher street on the east.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this eleventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and in the twenty-eighth year of Her Majesty's reign.

VICTORIAN VOLUNTEER FORCE.

THE Governor in Council has approved of the subjoined Rules, adopted by the Victorian Volunteer Engineers, in lieu of those which were approved on the 24th of November, 1863.

GEO. VERDON,
Treasurer.

Treasury,
Melbourne, 18th July, 1864.

REGULATIONS FOR THE VOLUNTEER ENGINEERS.

THE following Regulations are substituted for those previously published:—

ENROLMENT.

No person shall be enrolled as a member of the Victorian Engineer Corps unless he shall have been educated as an architect, surveyor, civil, mechanical, or mining engineer, or as an assistant to one or other of them, or shall be a skilled mechanic, or have served in the corps of Royal Engineers.

DEFINITION OF AN EFFECTIVE.

On the 1st of January in any year after 1865, the following volunteers, and no others, will be classed as effective in the above-named branch of the force:

- (A.) Any volunteer who was enrolled before the 1st April of the year next preceding, and who has during that year—
 - (1.) Attended two battalion parades.
 - (2.) Attended nine parades of the corps.
 - (3.) Attended and passed an official inspection.
 - (4.) Passed an official inspection in some branch of military engineering.
 - (5.) Attended eighteen musters of the corps for exercise and instruction, of which ten at least were for engineering instruction.
 - (6.) Gone through the modified course of musketry instruction as laid down for the corps.
- (B.) Any volunteer who was enrolled between the 1st April and 30th June of the year next preceding, and who has during that year—
 - (1.) Attended two battalion parades.
 - (2.) Attended and passed an official inspection.
 - (3.) Passed an official inspection in some branch of military engineering.
 - (4.) Attended six parades of the corps.
 - (5.) Attended twelve musters of the corps for exercise and instruction, of which seven at least were for engineering instruction.
- (C.) Any volunteer who was enrolled between the 1st July and 30th September of the year next preceding, and who has during that year—
 - (1.) Attended one battalion parade.
 - (2.) Attended and passed one parade for official inspection.
 - (3.) Attended five parades of the corps.
 - (4.) Attended nine musters of the corps for exercise and instruction, of which five at least were for engineering instruction.

On the 1st of January, 1865, all who have qualified as effectives, either under these regulations, or under those hitherto existing, will be classed as such.

RECRUIT DRILL.

Every recruit before enrolment shall attend twelve drills of one hour each within three weeks, and shall pass in squad drill and the manual and platoon exercises, unless he shall at some previous time have been in the army, or a member of the volunteer force, in which case it shall be sufficient to attend such drills as the commanding officer may order, and to pass.

PARADES.

In the definition, a parade shall mean an assembly of the corps under arms in the open air, for instruction in the field exercises and evolutions of infantry, at which twenty at least are present.

ALLOWANCES FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE CORPS.

On the 1st of January in each year the commanding officer of the corps will be credited with a sum of £6 for each effective should the number of effectives be below 75, and if over that number with a sum of £3 for each effective in excess of that number; but no claim shall be admitted should the number of effectives be below 37.

FINES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Every member of the corps who fails to attend muster twice in each month shall pay 2s. 6d. fine; every corporal or sergeant, 5s.; every commissioned officer, 10s., unless on leave of absence or medical certificate.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Any member who shall not, during the time of training and exercise, conduct himself in an orderly manner, or shall not obey the command of his superior officer, may be placed in the custody of members of the volunteer force for the period of such training or exercise.

Any member may, for any military offence, be placed under arrest by his superior officer.

Arrest shall signify a suspension from all military duty; and members placed in arrest shall, on demand, deliver up their arms and accoutrements and uniform to such person as the officer commanding the corps may direct.

The officer commanding the volunteer force may, at any time, order a court of enquiry to be assembled; and such courts of enquiry shall be conducted, as far as practicable, according to the regulations in force in Her Majesty's army.

Acting appointments for temporary purposes, as officers and non-commissioned officers, may be given by the officer commanding the force; and members, while holding such appointments, shall exercise the same authority as though they were permanently appointed.

HEXHAM CEMETERY.

RULES and Regulations of the Hexham Cemetery.

- All charges must be paid when orders are given.
- Any persons making a vault or erecting and placing a monument in the cemetery, by and with the permission of the trustees, and upon payment of the charges therein mentioned, is entitled to have, maintain, and keep up such vault, monument, or tombstone, according to the terms of such permission, to and for the sole and separate use of such person or persons, and his and their representatives for ever.
- Application for such permission must be made to the trustees. A certificate of permission, in the form set out in schedule B, will be granted to the party applying for such permission, on payment of the charges in schedule A.
- The charges will be remitted on the burial of any poor person in such cemetery, on the certificate of a minister of religion, or other evidence proving to the satisfaction of the trustees that such person was a pauper, or that the relations and friends of the deceased are unable to pay the costs and charges.
- Orders for interments must be given six working hours prior to the hour fixed for the funeral; if not, an extra charge will be made (see schedule A). No free interment will be allowed without the above notice.
- The trustees will cause all ordinary graves to be dug; but parties wanting brick vaults will be required to construct them under the direction of such person or persons as the trustees may appoint.
- The name, age, late place of residence, and probable cause of death of the deceased, must be stated at the time of giving the order (see schedule C).
- All monuments, vaults, graves, and grave-stones, must be kept in repair and proper condition by and at the expense of the owners.
- Drawings or plans of every stone, tomb, or monument to be erected, and a copy of every epitaph or inscription, must be submitted to the trustees for approval before being admitted into the cemetery.
- No catacombs or any wooden fencing allowed round graves without the approval of the trustees.
- The ground will be open daily to the public from sunrise to sunset.
- A plan of the cemetery showing the situation of the graves is kept at the office, and may be inspected at the charge set out in schedule A; and registers of all grants will be kept by the secretary.

13. The trustees reserve the right to make any alterations from time to time in these charges and regulations.
