TRANSMISSION OF GOLD IN LETTERS THROUGH THE POST OFFICE.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

WITH the view of affording facilities to persons resident on the gold fields and elsewhere, for transmitting by post to parts beyond the seas small quantities of gold without the necessity for entering such gold at any custom house, His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve of gold being examined at the places mentioned below, subject to the following regulations, in accordance with the 235th clause of The Customs Act 1857 :—

Ararat
Avoca
Barkly
Ballarat
Beechworth
Castlemaine
Creswick
Daylesford
Dunolly
Hamilton
Inglewood
Maryborough
Sandhurst
Stawell (Pleasant Creek)
Smythesdale
Talbot (Back Creek)
Wood's Point

Receipt and Pay Offices.

REGULATIONS.

1. Duty will be received at any of the above Receipt and Pay Offices on small quantities of gold to be transmitted by post to parts beyond the seas. The quantity so forwarded may in no case exceed four ounces.

2. Persons desirous of availing themselves of this permission should present their gold, together with the letter or packet in which they intend to forward it, at a Receipt and Pay Office, and pay the amount of duty required.

3. As instructions have been given to the Receivers and Paymasters to seal and secure such packages containing the gold so to be transmitted, and to certify to the quantity, all persons must be careful to observe that these letters or packages must in no cases be re-opened, otherwise they will subject themselves to a penalty and render the gold liable to forfeiture.

Tenders.

TENDERS FOR LANDS FOR PASTORAL PURPOSES.

TENDERS will be received (under the 39th section of The Amending Land Act 1865) by the Board of Land and Works, up to Noon of Tuesday, the 29th August next, for the occupation, for Pastoral Purposes only, of the portions of land hereunder described, subject to the following terms and conditions:—

1. The period of occupation will be for one year from the date of the acceptance of the tender.
2. The minimum fee in each case will be £5, in accordance with the regulations of the 16th May last.
3. License fee must be paid every year in advance, the first fee upon the acceptance of the tender by the tenderer or his agent.

4. If the land be not required for sale, or for other appropriation, the license will be renewable, at the option of the said Board, on the same terms and conditions.

5. The licenses will confer no right to claim any valuation for improvements made upon the land by licensees.

6. Upon expiration of the license, one month will be allowed for the removal of improvements.

7. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for Land under the 39th Section," and to be deposited in the "Crown Lands" Tender-Box, at the entrance of this office.

Plans can be seen at the Occupation Office of the Crown Lands Department, and at the several District Survey Offices where the land is situated.

BYE-LAWS.

THE MELBOURNE AND HOBSON'S BAY UNITED RAILWAY COMPANY.

THE Melbourne and Hobson's Bay United Railway Company, by virtue of the powers and authorities vested in them for that purpose, do by this writing under their Common Seal make the following Bye-laws and Regulations, that is to say:

1. Melbourne time is to be observed.—Melbourne time is to be observed at all stations.
2. Tickets not transferable.—Tickets belong to the company, and are not transferable. A ticket can only be used by the person for whom it may be issued.
3. Passengers not to rebook by same train.—No passenger shall be entitled to take a ticket at any intermediate station for the purpose of travelling in any train if such train shall have arrived at such station.
4. Return tickets available only at certain stations.—Tickets, whether single or return, shall be available and shall be used by passengers only to convey them to the stations named thereon, or to any station short of that destination provided the passenger by so using a ticket derives no advantage as regards fare. In no case, however, shall the "cheap" or "excursion" tickets be used at or for any other station than those named thereon. Any person using, or attempting to use, a ticket in violation of this bye-law, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
5. Penalty for defacing tickets.—No ticket will be recognised by any collector or servant of the company authorised to collect or examine tickets, unless the number, date, and names of the stations printed on such ticket are perfectly legible. The holder of any ticket which may be defaced or rendered illegible in any of the above particulars will be regarded as not having paid his fare, and will be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
6. Penalty for selling return tickets, &c.—Any person, not being duly authorised by the company, who shall sell, or offer for sale, any free pass, ticket, or portion of a return ticket, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
7. Ladies' waiting-rooms and carriages to be kept private.—No male passenger will be allowed to enter or remain in any waiting-room or carriage set apart for the accommodation of females, and any person persisting in remaining in any such room or carriage after being warned to leave the same shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
8. Punishment for opening carriage doors.—Any person, not being a servant of the company, who shall open any carriage for the purpose of entering the same with a key or other instrument after the tickets have been examined and the carriage doors locked by the station-master, guard, or other person appointed for that purpose, or any person who shall let him or herself out of any carriage on arrival at any station or at any time during the journey by the use of a private key or other instrument, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
9. Punishment for attempting to travel outside.—No person shall be permitted to travel outside a carriage or vehicle on the railway under any circumstances whatever, or to get into or upon, or to quit any carriage or vehicle when the train is in motion, and any person doing so, or attempting to do so, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
10. Smoking prohibited.—Smoking is strictly prohibited in any of the railway sheds, yards, offices, pier, or waiting-rooms; and any person found smoking in any such shed, yard, office, pier, or premises, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two pounds.
11. Dogs.—Dogs will be conveyed and charged for according to printed conditions. Any person taking a dog into any passenger carriage without the permission of the station-master, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
12. Gratuities forbidden.—No gratuity is, under any circumstances, allowed to be received by the servants of the company, on pain of immediate dismissal. Any person giving or offering a gratuity to any such servant shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
13. Punishment for abusive language.—Any person making use of insulting or abusive language to any officer or servant of the company while in the execution of his duty, or any person making use of obscene or blasphemous language in any carriage, or upon any platform or premises of the company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
14. Penalty for crossing the line when train is in sight.—Any person driving or riding, or attempting to drive or ride, any vehicle or animal across the line when a train is in sight, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
15. Penalty for allowing cattle to stray.—Any person or persons wilfully driving or negligently allowing to stray any cattle, horses, sheep, or other animal, on the railway, or any lands or premises of the company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
16. No touting or soliciting of custom allowed at stations.—No carman, cabman, or hackney coachman, drayman, porter, carter, or other person, will be allowed to come into or upon the lands, pier, or premises of the company, for the purposes of removing passengers or luggage, either with or without a vehicle, or hand-cart, or truck, unless licensed so to do, or required by a passenger and specially engaged by him for such purpose; and no person will be allowed to come into or upon the premises of the company for the purpose of touting or soliciting custom or hire of whatever kind unless licensed so to do; and any carman, cabman, or hackney coachman, drayman, carter, porter, or other person evading, or attempting to evade, or being guilty of a breach of this regulation, or refusing or neglecting to quit the premises of the company when thereto required by a station-master, or other servant of the company, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.
17. Bathing in reservoirs prohibited.—Any person found bathing, swimming dogs, or otherwise polluting the water in any of the railway reservoirs or tanks, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

18. Bill sticking prohibited.—Any person or persons, unless those duly authorised by the company, who shall be found posting or sticking bills, &c., within or upon any of the railway property or premises, shall be subject to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

19. Company not required to carry diseased cattle or sheep.—No person shall be entitled to require to be carried upon or along any part of the railway of the company any sheep, cattle, horses, or live stock, which, in the judgment of the company, their officers or servants, may be infected with any disease of whatsoever nature; and the company, their officers or servants, may refuse to take any sheep, cattle, horses, or live stock, suspected by them to be diseased. Any person causing or procuring any diseased sheep, cattle, horses, or live stock, to be carried, or offering or causing any of them to be offered, for the purpose of being carried upon or along any part of the railway, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

20. Punishment for driving diseased cattle on railway premises.—If any person shall willingly, knowingly, or negligently drive, or attempt to drive, or allow to stray into any railway station, yard, shed, or premises, or upon any lands or within any fences the property of the company, any sheep infected with scab or other disease, or any cattle, horses, or live stock, having or suffering from any disease whatsoever, he shall be liable to a penalty for every such offence not exceeding Five pounds.

21. Goods not to remain on pier.—Whosoever shall allow any goods to remain upon the railway pier, or in the approach thereto, for a longer time than six hours, or later than Four o'clock in the afternoon, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

22. Goods may be loaded or unloaded at owner's risk.—If any goods, produce, timber, or other merchandise shall be brought into any station, either by the owner or consignee, or in the wagons or vehicles of the company, and which goods or merchandise, in accordance with the conditions of the published tariffs, it shall be the business of the owner, consignor, or consignee, to load into or discharge from the railway wagons or vehicles, and in case the owner, consignor, or consignee refuses or neglects to load into or discharge from the railway wagons or vehicles such goods within twelve working hours of their arrival at the station, the company, their officers and servants, may forthwith proceed to load into or discharge from the railway trucks such goods at the risk of the owner, consignor, or consignee; and such goods shall be subject to the costs of such loading or unloading, as the case may be, in addition to the freight and other charges (if any).

23. Cloak-room regulations.—The company will not be responsible for articles left by passengers at any station unless the same be duly registered, for which a charge per article will be made, and a ticket given in exchange; and no article will be given up without the production of the ticket or satisfactory evidence of the ownership being adduced, and any article will be delivered up to the bearer of the ticket unless previously delivered up to the owner. The company will not be responsible for any package exceeding the value of Ten pounds.

24. Vessels to remove from pier when the cargo is discharged.—When and so soon as the discharge of the cargo of any vessel at the railway pier shall have been completed (and whether or not such discharge shall happen within the period fixed therefor), the master of such vessel shall immediately thereafter cause to be taken on board thereof such sand or stone ballast as may be required to steady such vessel, and, if required by the pier-master so to do, shall thereupon leave the pier and anchor such vessel at a distance of at least three hundred yards from the railway pier; and any person guilty of a breach of this bye-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

25. Vessels to be removed when notice is given by pier-master.—Every vessel shall be removed by the master thereof from the railway pier, within twelve hours after written notice shall have been left on board by the pier-master requiring the removal of such vessel; and any master failing to remove his vessel within the period aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every day, or fractional part of a day, thereafter during which such vessel may occupy a berth at the said pier.

26. Vessels to discharge cargo beyond working hours.—The master of any vessel arriving at the pier shall cause the discharge thereof to be proceeded with beyond the usual working hours, that is to say, in the summer from Six o'clock in the morning until Six o'clock in the evening, and in winter from Seven o'clock in the morning until Five o'clock in the evening, if so required by the pier-master. And if the master of any vessel when so required shall neglect or refuse to cause the discharge of his vessel to be proceeded with accordingly, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for each and every day, or fractional part of a day, he shall so neglect or refuse.

27. To be discharged at expense of agent or master.—Every vessel shall be discharged by stevedores, and such stevedores shall be employed by and at the expense of the masters or agents of such vessel, and not by or on behalf of the company.

28. No person to supply ballast unless authorised.—No person not authorised by the company to supply ballast to vessels lying at the pier, will be allowed to come upon such pier, or within three hundred yards thereof, with ballast for any vessel. Any person guilty of a breach of this bye-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

29. No boats to ply from pier without license.—No boatman, waterman, or other person will be allowed to ply for hire to or from the railway pier, or within a distance of three hundred yards therefrom, unless licensed by the company to do so; and any person infringing this bye-law will be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

30. No person to be employed without a license.—No person shall be employed by the importer, exporter, or proprietor of any goods in the loading, unloading, removing, sorting, cooping, packing, or repacking of any goods in any railway shed, unless licensed by the company to do so; and any person infringing this bye-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

31. No vessel to be moored without authority.—No ship, barque, steamer, brig, schooner, sloop, lighter, barge, boat, or other vessel of any kind or description whatsoever, shall be moored or fastened to the railway pier, or attached to any ship, barque, steamer, brig, schooner, sloop, lighter, barge, boat, or other vessel of any kind or description whatsoever so moored or fastened, without the consent in writing of the pier-master; and the master or other person causing any such ship, barque, steamer, brig, schooner, sloop, lighter, barge, boat, or other vessel to be so moored or fastened or attached, without such consent as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds. And should the pier-master not have given his consent to the mooring or fastening of such vessel, he may proceed to remove the vessel in the manner pointed out by the thirty-fourth clause of The Railways Act 1863.

32. Charges on goods received from lighters.—All goods that may be brought to or taken from vessels lying alongside the railway piers or breakwater by lighter or other craft will be subjected to the following charges, namely, One shilling per ton on goods, and Sixpence per bale on wool.

33. Damages, railway carriages, &c.—Any person who shall wilfully damage or destroy the whole or any part of any railway carriage or truck, or shall wilfully remove or deface any notice, placard, or bill posted therein respectively, or in or at any railway station, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

34. Sampling of goods.—No person shall take a sample of any goods, whether bonded or free, lying in any railway shed upon the railway premises, without a written order from the proper officer of customs; and any person infringing this bye-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

35. Removing goods from vessels alongside pier.—No person shall remove any goods from any vessel lying at the railway pier without a written order from the proper officer or servant of the company; and no person, without the permission of the pier-master, shall load or receive from any lighter or other craft any goods into any vessel receiving or discharging cargo at the railway pier, or shall unload or receive into or upon any lighter or other craft, any goods from any vessel discharging or receiving cargo at the railway pier; and any person infringing this bye-law will be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds.

His testimony whereof the said company have hereunto affixed their Common Seal, this first day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.
