ROYAL VICTORIAN ARTILLERY.

EAST MELBOURNE CORPS.

Rules.

1. At any meeting of the corps, the senior officer present shall take the chair.
2. The commanding officer may at any time convene a special meeting of the corps; and must do so on receiving a requisition signed by not less than twenty (20) members, provided the subject to be dealt with be not of a military nature. Such special meeting shall be deemed duly convened by notice being given at parade or company drill, and an advertisement inserted in one or other of the local papers one week previous to such meeting.
3. Any member changing his permanent address, and failing to give notice of the same to the commanding officer, in writing, within fourteen (14) days thereof, shall be fined Two shillings and sixpence.
4. Any member appearing at parade or company drill with uniform, arms, or accoutrements dirty or unserviceable from neglect, or who may at any time wear a portion only of the uniform, may be fined by the officer in command, or the captain commanding, the sum of Two shillings and sixpence.
5. A list of all fines imposed in any month shall be signed by the commanding officer, and posted in the orderly-room or other appointed place, previous to the first drill day in the following month.
6. All fines must be paid to the sergeants in charge of squads within the month in which the list is posted.
7. An account of all fines imposed and paid shall be kept in a book open to the members at the orderly-room on drill days.
8. A general meeting of the corps shall be held in the second week of January and July respectively in each year, at which meeting a detailed statement of the financial position of the corps shall be laid before the members; the meeting to be convened by advertisement and notice being given at parade or drill one week previous to such meeting.
9. The civil business of the corps shall be managed by a general committee, consisting of twelve (12) members, of whom not less than five (5) shall be non-commissioned officers, to be chosen at each half-yearly meeting; candidates to be proposed and seconded; should the number proposed exceed the number required, a ballot to be taken. The committee to consider and decide as to the eligibility of all candidates for admission to the corps; consider, pay, and recommend to be paid all expenditure of corps funds, no expenditure exceeding £5 to be incurred without the consent of the commanding officer; and the committee to take into consideration any matters submitted to them by the officer commanding. The committee to meet monthly, and as often as occasion may require. A secretary shall be elected from the committee to keep the books and accounts of the corps, take minutes of all meetings, and transact all correspondence connected with the civil business; to convene all meetings of committee when necessary, no committee meeting shall be deemed convened unless all the members are duly warned. The commanding officer to be ex officio a member of committee. Two auditors shall be elected at each meeting, and a third appointed by the commanding officer, whose duties shall be to examine half-yearly all books and accounts of the corps, and bring up a report at each general meeting, such auditors not to be members of committee.
10. A bank account shall be kept in the name of the corps. All moneys granted by the Government shall, when obtained, be deposited in the bank to the credit of the company, together with all sums arising from fines or other sources.
11. No general committee, or other meeting of the corps, shall be dissolved without a motion having been carried to that effect.
12. The name, address, and occupation of any person desirous of joining the corps shall be posted for one week in the orderly room. Any member objecting to the candidate shall communicate the same to the committee, who shall decide as to his admission.
13. An account shall be kept between the corps and each of its members, wherein the member shall be debited with the liabilities incurred by the corps on his behalf, and credited with the amount earned by him as an effective. If, on the first day of January in any year, a member's debit exceed his credit by ten (10s.) shillings or upwards, he shall be fined the amount of such difference: Provided always that the amount of such fine shall in no case exceed two pounds (£2); but the committee may remit such fine or portion of it, or defer payment of it, at their discretion. Any payment made under this rule shall be placed to the credit of the member paying it.

14. Any member desirous of leaving the corps under the provisions of the Act shall be fined the amount (if any) that his debit exceeds his credit, but subject to the same conditions as the next preceding rule.

15. Supernumerary members shall be subject to the rules of the corps while their names remain on the books. They may at any time have their names struck off by applying, in writing, to the commanding officer, and paying all amounts due by them to the corps.

16. Any member desirous of altering, rescinding, or adding to the above rules must give fourteen days' notice of such intention to the commanding officer, who shall, on a requisition duly signed by twenty (20) members, convene a special general meeting of the corps, and that such proposed new rules or alteration of rules be posted in the orderly-room at least seven (7) days prior to such meeting.

The above 16 Rules, passed at a general meeting of the corps held at the drill-room on the 21st August, 1866.

J. C. RAVEN,
Captain Commanding.

TEMPORARY LIGHT ON GATCOMBE HEAD, PORT CURTIS.

The Government of Queensland has given notice, that a temporary light, 50 feet above the sea, has recently been established on that part of Gatcombe Head north-west of the Oyster Rock, entrance to Port Curtis.

Vessels entering Port Curtis at night by the north channel, should bring the light to bear about S.W. by W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., being careful to keep it well open of Settlement Point, in order to avoid the rocks extending from that point.

LIGHT VESSEL AT UPPER FLATS, FITZROY RIVER.

A light vessel has also been moored head and stern, in the position of the large black buoy, at the crossing place at the Upper Flats in Fitzroy River. The vessel shows a red light at the mast head, and by day and night the following tidal signals are exhibited:—

Depth of Water.	Day Signal.	Night Signal.
6 ft. 0 in.	Ball north yard-arm.	White light north side.
6 ft. 6 in.	Ball south yard-arm.
7 ft. 0 in.	Flag north yard-arm.	White light south side.

Tenders for the Service of 1867.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1867.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received, until Noon of Thursday, the 11th October, 1866, for the conveyance of Post-office Mails, as undermentioned, for one year, from the 1st January, 1867, to 31st December, 1867; and for services numbered 1, 2, 3, 4, 14, 15, 27, 28, 32, 33, 40, 41, 43, 52, 53, 54, 56, 66, 67, 68, 70, for one or three years.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1867.

TENDERS are hereby invited and will be received until Noon of Thursday, the 25th October, 1866, for the Conveyance of Mails, as undermentioned, for one year, from the 1st January, 1867, to 31st December, 1867.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenders are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.
