SHIRE OF TALBOT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Council of the Shire of Talbot did, on the 19th day of April, 1866, make the following bye-law by special order:—

BYE-LAW No. 1.—STANDING ORDERS TO REGULATE THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE COUNCIL.

1. The ordinary meetings of the council shall be held at the office of the council on the last Thursday of every month, at Two o'clock in the afternoon. The business to commence as soon as the required quorum is present; but should a quorum not be present at the expiration of one hour after the time appointed for meeting, no business shall be transacted at the meeting, and the names of all councillors present shall be recorded in the minute book by the secretary.

2. Special meetings may be summoned at any time by the secretary, upon his receiving a written requisition signed by three councillors; stating the matter to be brought forward at such meetings, provided he shall give to each councillor written notice thereof at least four clear days before such meeting.

3. At every ordinary meeting of the council, the first business thereof shall be, the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting for confirmation, and no discussion shall be permitted thereon except as to their accuracy as a record of proceedings.

4. At all meetings of the council, the reading, considering, and ordering upon correspondence unconnected with the orders of the day, the receiving and reading of petitions and memorials, and bringing up of reports of committees and of officers, shall have precedence of regular business.

5. Any petition or memorial addressed to the council must be presented by a councillor, who shall be responsible for its being respectfully worded; and no debate shall take place thereon, except as to its being received and taken into consideration after the orders of the day, or at any future meeting, or, if necessary, that it be referred to a committee.

6. The orders of the day shall include all matters arising out of the proceedings of former meetings of the council, all business of which due notice has been given, and any subject which the president may think fit to bring under consideration.

7. Notices of motion shall be given to the secretary, in writing, and read aloud at the meeting previous to that at which the same shall be taken into consideration; and all such notices shall be considered in the order in which they are given.

8. No motion entered on the notice paper shall be proceeded with unless the councillor who has given such notice, or some one authorised by him, in writing, be present when the business is called on. Notices not proceeded with shall be struck out of the paper.

9. Every councillor, including the president, shall stand while addressing the council.

10. The president's ruling shall be final on all matters of order or practice.

11. Every motion or amendment shall be entered on the minutes with the names of the mover and seconder; and on a division, the secretary may be required by any councillor to record the votes.

12. One amendment only shall be discussed at one time, but if lost another may be moved before the original motion is put to the vote; but upon any amendment being carried, it shall be competent for any councillor to move one other amendment thereon.

13. Any councillor moving or seconding any motion or amendment shall be held to have spoken on that motion or amendment.

14. No councillor shall speak twice on the same question, excepting by way of explanation or reply upon an original motion of which he may have been the mover, or as mover of an amendment last proposed; and after the reply, the amendment or the original motion, as the case may be, shall be immediately put to the vote.

15. Any councillor when proposing a motion or amendment, or if speaking on any matter, shall address the president, and shall not be interrupted unless called to order, when he shall be silent until the councillor calling to order shall have been heard, and the question of order decided. The councillor in possession of the chair shall then proceed with the subject.

16. Any councillor who shall refuse to obey when ruled out of order, or who shall use any expression capable of being applied offensively to any other councillor, and who, if required by the president, shall refuse to withdraw such expression and make a satisfactory apology, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

17. Any councillor may require the secretary to take down any particular words used by a councillor immediately upon the same being used.

18. Upon the adoption of any amendment of the council, such amendment shall be held to have quashed the original motion; and for all purposes of subsequent discussion, the amendment so carried shall be acted upon as an original motion.

19. Any councillor may enter his protest against any resolution of the council. Notice of intention to protest must, however, be given in every case on the adoption of the resolution to be protested against; and the protest, signed by the councillor or councillors protesting, and specifying the reasons for protesting, must be entered before the next ordinary meeting of the council, by the protesting councillor or councillors, in a book to be kept for that purpose in the office of the council.

20. No discussion shall be allowed on any motion for adjournment of the council; but if, on the question being put, the motion be negatived, the subject then under consideration, or the next on the notice paper, shall be discussed, or any other that may be allowed precedence, before any subsequent motion for adjournment be carried. The business then undisturbed of shall have precedence at the next meeting of the council.

21. No motion, the effect of which, if carried, would involve the expenditure of any sum of money exceeding £50, shall be entertained by the council, unless notice of such motion be given in the usual manner.

22. It shall be competent for any councillor, without previous notice, to move for a call of the whole council for the consideration of any subject at the next or any subsequent meeting; and upon such motion being carried, due notice thereof and of the date for which the order of the day or notice of motion for which such call is made is set down for consideration shall be given by the secretary to each councillor; and any councillor not in attendance when such order of the day or notice of motion comes on for discussion, or at the voting on such question, or any amendment thereon, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £2, unless reasonable cause for such absence be shown.

23. No election to any vacant office at the disposal of the council, the yearly emolument of which shall exceed £50, shall take place until six clear days' public notice shall have been given by advertisement in the local newspapers, inviting applications from candidates properly qualified.

24. No tenders for works shall be received unless accompanied by a preliminary deposit according to the following scale, as a guarantee of the bond fide intention of the tenderer:—

If the tender is under £100, a deposit of £2
Over £100 and under £500	£3
Over £500	£5

In the event of the tender not being accepted, this deposit to be returned; if the tender is accepted, then this deposit to be taken as part of the ten per cent. deposit on the contract, or to be absolutely forfeited to the council if the tenderer fails to take up the contract as allotted to him.

25. All contracts amounting to £50 and upwards shall be made by tender, and advertised not less than twice in the local newspapers. Tenders shall be addressed to the president, and only opened at the time of their consideration by the council; the respective amounts, together with the names of the parties tendering, to be entered in every case on the minutes of the council. The security in all cases of contract shall be ten pounds per cent. upon the amount of the contract, paid over by the contractor to the treasurer of the council, which amount shall be lodged in the bank with the other moneys of the council, and only repaid to the contractor when he obtains his final certificate that the works under such contract are satisfactorily completed: No officer or councillor shall have any pecuniary interest, either directly or indirectly, in any contract under the council.

26. Advances may be made to contractors, at a rate not exceeding £90 per cent. on the inspector's estimate of the value of work then done.

27. All payments shall be made by cheque, signed by the president, or by the presiding chairman, and one other councillor, and countersigned by the treasurer; and no such cheque shall be given unless the account for which it is given be passed at an ordinary meeting of the council.

28. In all cases it shall be considered sufficient for the collector to call once for payment of any amount due on the assessment roll; and in the event of any such amount not being paid to him, a notice shall be left stating that unless the amount be paid before the expiration of fourteen days from the date thereof, legal proceedings shall be taken for its recovery. The collector shall, once a week at least, pay to the treasurer of the council all moneys received by him from time to time, and at the same time furnish the secretary with an account of such moneys.

29. The secretary shall present a statement of the monetary affairs of the council at each ordinary meeting of the council.

30. Any one or more of the standing orders may be suspended pro tem., with the consent of a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present at any meeting.
