TENDERS are hereby invited and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 16th October, 1867, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one year from the 1st January, 1868, to 31st December, 1868.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Par-

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1868.

TENDERS are hereby invited and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 30th October, 1867, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one year from the 1st January, 1868, to 31st December, 1868.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenders are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses, by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

The mortality of Melbourne and suburbs, together with the mean temperature in the shade, and the mean atmospheric pressure during the month of August, for the last eight years, were as follow:—

Year	Number of Deaths.	Mean Temperature.	Mean Height of Barometer.
August, 1860	271	49°4'	30°173 inches.
" 1861	265	49°2'	30°036 "

" 1865	289	49°4'	30°040 "
" 1866	218	50°4'	30°044 "
" 1867	258	50°4'	30°044 "
Mean of eight years	241	49°6'	30°025 "

The mortality during August, although lower than during July, was above the average. The temperature in the shade was nearly a degree higher than the mean during eight years.

Males and females died in the same relative proportions as in July, namely, 53 and 47 per cent. of the whole mortality respectively. Thirty-nine per cent. of the deaths were of children who had not attained their fifth year, against 44 per cent. in August, 1866; 49 per cent. in August, 1865; 34 per cent. in August, 1864; 38 per cent. in August, 1863; 43 per cent. in August, 1862; 49 per cent. in August, 1861; and 49 per cent. in August, 1860.

Fifteen deaths was the highest number recorded for any one day, viz., for the 12th. The lowest number recorded was 2 for the 30th.

Five persons, all males, died at the age of 75 years or upwards. The following are their exact ages and the complaints given as having caused their deaths:—75 years, of bronchitis; 75 years, of dysentery; 79 years, of old age; 90 years, of paralysis; 99 years, of old age.

The violent deaths numbered 12, of which 9 are supposed to have been accidental, 2 homicidal, and 1 suicidal. The following are the particulars:—A female infant, aged 60 weeks, died from injuries caused by being thrown from a dray; a boy, aged 5, was killed by a kick from a horse; a boy, aged 7, by being thrown from a horse; a lad, aged 15, by a fall from a cart whilst driving; a lad, aged 16, died of an injury to the spine; a timber salesman, aged 33, of an injury from a dray-wheel; a male, aged 51, of the effects of a fall down stairs; an infant, aged 43 weeks, of a scald; an infant, aged 5 days, was suffocated in bed; a newly-born infant was murdered by suffocation; a female, aged 37, was poisoned by antimony (husband committed for trial for murder); a male, aged 35, committed suicide by drowning.

Fifty-five deaths or 21 per cent. of the whole number recorded took place in public institutions, viz.:—33 in the Melbourne Hospital, 1 in the Lying-in Hospital, 2 in the Benevolent Asylum, 5 in the Immigrant's Home, 4 in the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum, 4 in the Carlton Lunatic Asylum, 5 in the Industrial Schools, and 1 in the Melbourne Gaol.

The following table shows the number of persons of all ages according to the last census; the number of deaths of persons under and over five years of age, the total at all ages, and the number of deaths to every 1000 of the population during the month of August, in the Statistical District of Melbourne and suburbs, and in each of the sub-districts of which it is composed:—

NOTE.—The Melbourne Hospital is in Melbourne Proper, the Benevolent Asylum in North Melbourne and Carlton, the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum in Jika-jika parish (remainder of), and the Industrial Schools in South Yarra and Prahran.

* This calculation is made upon the population at the last census, instead of the present population, as there are no means of estimating the changes which have taken place in the different sub-districts since the census was taken. It is believed that the present population of the whole district of Melbourne and suburbs amounts to about 165,000. If this be correct, the mortality of the month under review would indicate a proportion of 1.56 deaths to every 1000 persons living.

The deaths of children under five years of age numbered 100, of which 49, or 49 per cent., were of males, and 51, or 51 per cent., were of females. Of those dying, 50 were under one year of age, 20 were between one and two years, 10 were between two and three, 13 were between three and four, and 7 were between four and five.

The persons dying at a more advanced age than five years numbered 158, of which 88, or nearly 56 per cent., were males, and 70, or about 44 per cent., were females; 25 were between five and ten, 8 were between ten and fifteen, 6 were between fifteen and twenty, 8 were between twenty and twenty-five, 14 were between twenty-five and thirty, 20 were between thirty and thirty-five, 16 were between thirty-five and forty, 19 were between forty and forty-five, 13 were between forty-five and fifty, 9 were between fifty and fifty-five, 5 were between fifty-five and sixty, 4 were between sixty and sixty-five, 4 were between sixty-five and seventy, 1 was between seventy and seventy-five, 3 were between seventy-five and eighty, and 2 were eighty and upwards, and 1 was of age unspecified.

The following table shows the causes of the deaths of persons of both sexes under and over five years of age, and the proportions per cent. of deaths from each cause, in Melbourne and suburbs, during the month of August, 1867:—

Tenders.CONVEYANCE OF MAILS.

TENDERS are hereby invited, and will be received at this Office until noon of Wednesday, the 16th October, for the Conveyance of Mails to and from ULLINO and MIDDLE CREEK, or, to and from GLENGOWER and MIDDLE CREEK, three days a week.

WILLIAM TURNER,
 Deputy Postmaster-General.

General Post Office,
 Melbourne, 26th September, 1867.

Tenders for the Service of 1868.CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1868.

TENDERS are hereby invited and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 16th October, 1867, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one year from the 1st January, 1868, to 31st December, 1868.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenderers are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bona fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly endorsed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

Melbourne, 16th August, 1867.

CONVEYANCE OF MAILS, 1868.

TENDERS are hereby invited and will be received until Noon of Wednesday, the 30th October, 1867, for the Conveyance of Post Office Mails, as undermentioned, for one year from the 1st January, 1868, to 31st December, 1868.

Tenders are required to be written on a form, printed copies of which may be had gratuitously on application at any post office in the colony, and may be forwarded (if by post, pre-paid) addressed to the Deputy Postmaster-General, with the words "Tender for the Conveyance of Mails" endorsed on the cover, or placed in the Tender-box at the General Post Office.

Tenders are requested to describe by their numbers, as below, the mail services for which they tender, and every tender will be taken to include the entire service as called for.

Every tender must bear the bond fide signatures and addresses of the tenderer, and of two responsible persons willing to become bound for the fulfilment of the same in such sum as the Government may direct, not exceeding the gross amount of the contract.

Every tender must be accompanied by a bank deposit-receipt for a sum equal to twenty per cent. of the amount for which the tenderer is willing to undertake the service; the money to be lodged to the credit of the Deputy Postmaster-General, and to be absolutely forfeited to the Government in case the person whose tender may be accepted shall fail to complete, within ten days of the date of notice being given of the acceptance of his tender, the usual bond and contract to the satisfaction of the Government. The notice of acceptance, if delivered at the address named in the tender, shall be deemed sufficient.

The money deposited by unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them on application, and on their signing receipts for the respective amounts, but not otherwise.

Persons tendering are requested to state the description of the vehicle they intend to use, and the number of horses, by which it is to be drawn.

A separate tender must be sent in for each service, but notwithstanding this condition, any offer will be entertained for the performance of any number of services for a lump sum. The number of the service or services tendered for must be plainly enclosed on the outside of the cover.

The tender of any person failing to comply with the foregoing conditions will not be entertained.

The general conditions referred to in the printed form of tender, and upon which the tender is to be made, can be inspected by persons proposing to tender, either at the General Post Office or at any post office in the colony.

The attention of tenderers is drawn to the condition which requires that in cases where vehicles are used Members of Parliament shall be conveyed free of charge between the districts they represent and Melbourne.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.
