QUARANTINE OF VESSELS, ETC., ARRIVING FROM THE DUTCH EAST INDIES.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Right Honorable JOHN HENRY THOMAS VISCOUNT CANTERBURY, of the City of Canterbury in the County of Kent, and BARON BOTTESFORD, of Bottesford in the County of Leicester, in the Peerage of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Public Health Statute 1865 (28 Vict. No. 264) it is amongst other things enacted that if the Governor in Council shall by Proclamation notify that any place beyond the seas is infected with the cholera or other infectious or contagious disease, and that it is probable such disease may be brought from such place to Victoria, immediately after such notification all vessels whatever arriving from or having touched at any such place, and all vessels and boats receiving any person or thing whatsoever from or out of any vessel so coming from or having touched at any such infected place as aforesaid (whether such person or thing shall have come or been brought in such vessel or such person shall have gone or have been put on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessel at any place in Victoria, and whether such vessel was or was not bound to any place in Victoria), and all persons and things whatsoever on board of any vessel so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats as aforesaid, shall be liable to quarantine within the meaning of this Part of this Act, and of any order made by the Governor in Council and notified by proclamation concerning quarantine and the prevention of infection from the time of the departure of such vessels from such infected place as aforesaid or from the time such persons or things shall have been received on board respectively; and it is also enacted that all such vessels and boats as aforesaid, and all persons (as well pilots as others), and all things whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place as aforesaid or going or being put on board the same either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any place in Victoria, and all persons and things as aforesaid on board such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, shall upon their arrival at any place in Victoria be obliged to perform quarantine in such places for such time and in such manner as shall be from time to time directed by the Governor in Council and notified by proclamation as aforesaid. Until such vessels and boats persons and things as aforesaid shall have respectively performed and shall be duly discharged from quarantine, no such persons or things shall either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any place in Victoria come or be brought on shore or go or be put on board any other vessel or boat in order to come or be brought on shore in any such place (unless in such manner and in such cases and by such license as shall be directed or permitted by any such order as aforesaid). Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do by this Proclamation notify that the settlements of the Dutch in the East Indies are infected with Cholera and other Infectious or Contagious Diseases, and that it is probable such diseases may be brought from such places to Victoria; and that all vessels therefrom arriving at this Port shall perform Quarantine until released by the Health Officer of Port Phillip.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the Colony this fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and seventy, and in the thirty-fourth year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.)

CANTERBURY.

By His Excellency's Command,

J. McCULLOCH,
Chief Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

By Authority: JOHN FERRELL, Government Printer, Melbourne.
