WHEREAS by The Passengers, Harbors, and Navigation Statute 1865 it is amongst other things enacted, that the Governor in Council, by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette, may, from time to time, define the limits and boundaries of ports in Victoria, and frame rules and regulations for the governance and preservation of the said ports respectively, and for the regulation of shipping in the same; and also for the due protection and preservation and good government and management of all public wharfs, and may appoint officers to carry out and enforce such rules and regulations; and from time to time, in like manner, may alter, amend, or repeal any such limits, boundaries, rules, and regulations, and substitute others in their stead: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, do hereby proclaim the following to be additional Port and Harbor Regulations, and to be observed accordingly:—

- All steamers going down the River Yarra-Yarra from the Melbourne wharfs shall proceed at the time advertized.
- All sailing vessels will be required, if possible, to swing at their berths at the Australian Wharf, and not, as hitherto, at the basin.
- Steamers are to swing, if possible, at the recess now being excavated between Hanna's and Cook's Ferries; but in cases where it is necessary to proceed to the basin for the purpose of swinging, notice must be given by the master, and the permission of the Harbor-master at Melbourne obtained before doing so.

The shallowest water in this channel is 10½ feet over a patch of rock 60 feet from the N.E. end of the stone wharf.

In order to ensure, as far as possible, the safety of vessels navigating the river during the progress of these works, it is requested that the regulations approved by the Governor in Council on the 7th instant, and published above, may be strictly observed.

1. 5. The interest in this license may not be transferred without the consent of the Minister and payment of a fee of one pound (£1), and upon sanction of transfer thereof a new license will issue to the transferee.
