No discussion shall take place except on a motion moved and seconded, and delivered in writing, signed by the mover, to the chairman, who shall add the name of the seconder.

Immediately upon a motion or amendment being so delivered, it shall be read by the chairman for discussion, and shall not then be withdrawn without leave of the meeting.

Every amendment on a motion shall be dealt with in like manner, but only one amendment shall be entertained and decided upon at a time; and if any amendment is carried it shall be held to have negatived the original motion and stand in its place, and it shall be competent, whether any amendment is carried or not, to receive other amendments, one at a time, in like manner, to be discussed and decided on until the subject is finally disposed of: Provided that no member shall propose more than one amendment upon any motion, and no member shall speak more than once upon any motion or amendment except the original mover of the motion first proposed, who shall be entitled to one reply and no more during the debate on the subject.

The seconder of a motion or amendment shall not be held to have spoken thereon if he have only seconded the same without remark; and any member may, with leave of the chairman, offer an explanation of any particular words he has used, and which have been misunderstood, but shall not add new matter.

No question which is substantially the same as one which has been negatived at the same meeting shall be entertained at such meeting or adjournment thereof.

Any amendment to proceed with the next business shall, if carried, supersede the original motion and every amendment thereon.

The chairman of any meeting or committee shall have no vote except in cases of equality.

All motions shall be decided by the holding up of hands, unless a ballot be previously decided upon by the meeting.

Minutes of committee meetings shall be read prior to the adjournment or close of the same, but shall not be confirmed until the next meeting.

Minutes of "general" or "special" meetings of the corps shall be read and confirmed prior to the close of such meetings.

No meetings shall be adjourned or dissolved without a motion to that effect.

SUBSCRIPTION.

5. Each member of the corps shall subscribe, in advance, the sum of One shilling per month to the funds of the corps, and in default of payment thereof shall be sued for the same.

6. No alteration or addition whatever shall be made to these rules, unless at a meeting of the corps specially convened for that purpose.

Adopted at a special meeting of the corps called for that purpose, on Friday the 27th day of November 1874.

W. COWPER, Lieutenant and Brevet-Captain, Commanding,
Chairman.
