PUBLIC PARKS AND GARDENS.

Regulations in connection with the vote of Twelve thousand pounds (£12,000) for fencing and improving Public Parks and Gardens under the control of Borough Councils, Trustees, Committees of Management, &c.

1. A sum not exceeding One pound shall be paid to the treasurer of the managing body of any public park or garden having a claim on the vote for every One pound expended by such body on the improvement of such park or garden between 1st January 1879 and 31st December 1879, out of funds locally contributed, provided such claim be received by the Secretary for Agriculture on or before the 5th April 1880. Every statement of particulars of claim on the vote must be made in the form A, and be accompanied by a declaration in the form B.

2. The term "locally contributed" shall mean and include all moneys voted by the managing body of any public park or garden from its own funds for the improvement of such park or garden; also all moneys voluntarily contributed for the improvement of the same between the 1st January 1879 and 31st December 1879; but it shall not mean nor include any sums advanced by any bank, nor any subsidy paid by Government, between the above-mentioned dates, nor the balance of any subsidy paid by Government at any period prior to the 1st January 1879.

3. The subsidy last paid to the managing body of any public park or garden shall be deducted from the return of total expenditure for the year 1879 (vide form A), and the balance, if made up of local contributions as above interpreted, shall be paid as subsidy, provided that if the claims are in excess of the vote they shall be reduced pro rata.

4. In every case in which a claim sent in is deemed unsatisfactory, an officer of the department may be instructed to make an inspection of the books kept by the managing body, and of the vouchers for the several items of expenditure; and if such inspection be refused, the claim shall be disallowed.

5. Moneys expended in street planting must not be included in any claim upon the vote.

6. The foregoing shall not apply to parks and gardens within the limits of the city of Melbourne, nor to the Botanical Garden of Geelong.

the.....Horticultural Society.

Declared before me at.....this.....day of.....1880.

.....Justice of the Peace.

Instructions.

1. The blank spaces in the declaration, form E, for the sums awarded and paid in prizes and raised by members' subscriptions and private donations, between the 1st January 1879 and the 31st December 1879, must be filled up in words as well as in figures, and the declaration must be made before a justice of the peace by the treasurer of the society.

2. The account is then to be prepared by making the Government Dr. for the amount declared to have been awarded and paid away in prizes.

3. The account must be signed by the treasurer, and be countersigned by the president or the vice-president, or by two members of the committee of management. It should then be returned to the Department of Agriculture, with the declaration and statement appended.

[It may expedite the payment of the money to fill in at the top of the account the name of the nearest pay office in the space left blank for that purpose. It is necessary to bear in mind that, if that space be not filled up, the account will be payable at Melbourne only.]

4. Challenge cups must not be included in the return of prizemoneys paid, unless such cups have been finally awarded.

NOTE.—The forms B, C, and D are forwarded herewith by way of guidance, but can be made use of at the option of the society. If, however, extra forms be required, the same must be furnished by the applicant, and be of uniform size and pattern.

Approved by the Governor in Council the 16th March 1880.

ROB. WADSWORTH,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

The following information is provided for the purpose of providing a general overview of the project and its objectives. This information is intended to be used as a guide and should not be used as a substitute for professional advice. The information is provided as is and without any warranty of accuracy or completeness.

The project is a research study that aims to explore the relationship between the variables of interest. The study is designed to be a descriptive study and will involve the collection and analysis of data from a representative sample of the population.

The study will be conducted in a systematic and methodical manner. The data will be collected using a structured questionnaire and will be analyzed using statistical methods. The results of the study will be presented in a clear and concise manner and will be used to draw conclusions about the relationship between the variables of interest.

The study is expected to contribute to the understanding of the relationship between the variables of interest and to provide a basis for further research in this area.
