GREAT BRITAIN AND DENMARK.

AGREEMENT FOR THE MUTUAL RELIEF OF DISTRESSED SEAMEN.

THE accompanying copy of an Agreement between the Governments of Great Britain and Denmark for the mutual relief of distressed seamen, which has been received by His Excellency the Governor from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, is published for general information.

By His Excellency's command.

G. D. LANGRIDGE,
Commissioner of Trade and Customs.

Department of Trade and Customs,
Melbourne, 31st October 1883.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND DENMARK FOR THE MUTUAL RELIEF OF DISTRESSED SEAMEN.

Signed at London, 25th July, 1883.

The Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of His Majesty the King of Denmark, being desirous to make arrangements for the relief of distressed seamen of the two nations in certain cases, the undersigned, duly authorized to that effect, have agreed as follows:—

If a seaman of one of the contracting States, after serving on board a ship of the other contracting State, remains behind in a third State or in its Colonies, or in the Colonies of that State whose flag the ship carries, and the said seaman is in a helpless condition in consequence of shipwreck, or from other causes, then the Government of that State whose flag the ship bears shall be bound to support the said seaman until he enters into ship-service again, or finds other employment, or until he arrives in his native State or its Colonies, or dies.

But this is on condition that the seaman so situated shall avail himself of the first opportunity that offers to prove his necessitous condition, and the causes thereof, to the proper officials of the State whose support is to be solicited, and that the destitution is shown to be the natural consequence of the termination of his service on board the ship: otherwise the aforesaid liability to afford relief lapses.

The said liability is also excluded if the seaman has deserted, or has been turned out of the ship for any criminal act, or has left it on account of disability for service in consequence of illness or wounding resulting from his own fault.

The relief includes maintenance, clothing, medical attendance, medicine, and travelling expenses; in case of death the funeral expenses are also to be paid.

The present Agreement shall come into operation on the 1st November 1883, and shall continue in force until one of the Contracting Parties shall announce to the other, one year in advance, its intention to terminate it.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorized for that purpose, have signed the present Agreement, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London in duplicate the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-three.

“IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT COMPANIES (COLONIAL REGISTERS) ACT 1883.”

THE following Act of the Imperial Parliament, entitled An Act to authorize companies registered under the Companies Act 1862, to keep Local Registers of their Members in British Colonies, is published for general information.

By His Excellency's Command,
JAMES SERVICE,
Premier.

Premier's Office,
Melbourne, 5th November 1883.

CHAPTER 30.

An Act to authorize companies registered under the Companies Act 1862, to keep Local Registers of their Members in British Colonies. [20th August 1883.]

WHEREAS many companies registered under the Companies Act 1862 carry on business in British colonies, and dealings in their shares are frequent in such colonies, but delay, inconvenience, and expense are occasioned by reason of the absence of any legal provision for keeping local registers of members, and it is expedient that such provisions as this Act contains be made in that behalf:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short title and construction.—This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Companies (Colonial Registers) Act 1883; and this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with the Companies Acts 1862 to 1880, and the said Acts and this Act may be referred to as the Companies Acts 1862 to 1883.

2. Definitions.—In this Act the term “company” means a company registered under the Companies Act 1862, and having a capital divided into shares; the term “shares” includes stock; the term “colony” does not include any place within the United Kingdom, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands, but includes such territories as may for the time being be vested in Her Majesty by virtue of an Act of Parliament for the government of India, and any plantation, territory, or settlement situate elsewhere within Her Majesty's dominions.

3. (1.) Power for companies to keep colonial registers.—Any company whose objects comprise the transaction of business in a colony may, if authorized so to do by its regulations, as originally framed or as altered by special resolution, cause to be kept in any colony in which it transacts business a branch register or registers of members resident in such colony.

(2.) The company shall give to the registrar of joint stock companies notice of the situation of the office where any such branch register (in this Act called a colonial register) is kept, and of any change therein, and of the discontinuance of any such office in the event of the same being discontinued.

(3.) 25 & 26 Vict. c. 82.—A colonial register shall, as regards the particulars entered therein, be deemed to be a part of the company's register of members, and shall be prima facie evidence of all particulars entered therein. Any such register shall be kept in the manner provided by the Companies Acts 1862 to 1880, with this qualification, that the advertisement mentioned in section thirty-three of the Companies Act 1862 shall be inserted in some newspaper circulating in the district wherein the register to be closed is kept, and that any competent court in the colony where such register is kept shall be entitled to exercise the same jurisdiction of rectifying the same as is by section thirty-five of the Companies Act 1862, vested, as respects a register, in England and Ireland in Her Majesty's superior courts of law or equity, and that all offences under section thirty-two of the Companies Act 1862 may, as regards a colonial register, be prosecuted summarily before any tribunal in the colony where such register is kept having summary criminal jurisdiction.

(4.) The company shall transmit to its registered office a copy of every entry in its colonial register or registers as soon as may be after such entry is made, and the company shall cause to be kept at its registered office, duly entered up from time to time, a duplicate or duplicates of its colonial register or registers. The provisions of section thirty-two of the Companies Act 1862, shall apply to every such duplicate, and every such duplicate shall, for all the purposes of the Companies Acts 1862 to 1880, be deemed to be part of the register of members of the company.

(5.) Subject to the provisions of this Act with respect to the duplicate register the shares registered in a colonial register shall be distinguished from the shares registered in the principal register, and no transaction with respect to any shares registered in a colonial register shall during the continuance of the registration of such shares in such colonial register, be registered in any other register.

(6.) The company may discontinue to keep any colonial register, and thereupon all entries in that register shall be transferred to some other colonial register kept by the company in the same colony, or to the register of members kept at the registered office of the company.

(7.) In relation to stamp duties the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a.) An instrument of transfer of a share registered in a colonial register under this Act shall be deemed to be a transfer of property situated out of the United Kingdom, and unless executed in any part of the United Kingdom shall be exempt from British stamp duty.

(b.) Upon the death of a member registered in a colonial register under this Act, the share or other interest of the deceased member shall for the purposes of this Act so far as relates to British duties be deemed to be part of his estate and effects situated in the United Kingdom for or in respect of which probate or letters of administration is or are to be granted, or whereof an inventory is to be exhibited and recorded in like manner as if he were registered in the register of members kept at the registered office of the company.

(8.) Subject to the provisions of this Act, any company may, by its regulations as originally framed, or as altered by special resolution, make such provisions as it may think fit respecting the keeping of colonial registers.

THE COMPANIES STATUTE 1864.

I HEREBY certify that the "Australasian Diamond Mining Company Limited" has been this day registered by me, and notify that the said company is incorporated, and is limited by shares.

Dated this first day of November 1883.
