When inward bound, and between the Powder Buoy and the entrance to the North Arm, get the beacons into line and keep them so until the False Arm begins to open out, when a course can then be steered to enter the new Cutting.

[No. 20 of 1883.]

LAKE'S ISLAND AND ROCKY ISLET, GULF OF CARPENTARIA.

LAKE'S Island, which is not laid down on the Admiralty Charts, lies in lat. 16° 14' S. and long. 139° 30' E., bearing from Rocky Islet S. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. 3 miles.

The island is about 1 mile long north and south, and $\frac{1}{2}$ a mile wide, the north end being a low sand-bank, the land gradually rising at the S.E. end to a height of about 50 feet.

A reef extends $\frac{1}{2}$ a mile from the north end of the island, and also the same distance from the east side, where it dries at low-water. There is good anchorage off the west side, during the S.E. monsoon, in 4 fathoms of water, at $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile from the shore.

A good clear passage, about 11 miles wide, will be found between Lake's and Mornington islands. Vessels from Normanston should take this passage, as it gives a fair wind to the anchorage, but they should not approach within 2 miles of Mornington Island, as numerous coral patches lie off its northern shore.

A good supply of firewood and fresh water can be obtained from Mornington Island, between the White Cliffs and Low and Woody Point. In the month of July the water was running over the beach. A small craft even cannot, however, approach the shore within $\frac{1}{2}$ a mile, as a fringing reef runs out for that distance, the water shoaling suddenly from 4 fathoms to 9 feet.

Rocky Islet is shown on the chart to the southward and westward of its correct position, and is placed by Capt. Lake, by whom the foregoing information has been supplied, in lat. 16° 11' S. and long. 139° 29' E.

A farmer having under cultivation not less than one-tenth portion of the land occupied by him, may depasture on such common one additional head of large cattle, or the equivalent in small cattle, for every ten acres of such land cultivated by him.

2. The scale of fees, payable half-yearly in advance on the 31st day of May and on the 30th day of November in every year, for depasturing stock on the commons shall be as follows:—

For every horse, 7s. 6d. per annum.

For every head of other large cattle, 4s. per annum.

For every head of small cattle, 4s. per annum.

Progeny of horned cattle or horses under six (6) months old, if running with their mothers, Free.

3. No person shall depasture stock on the commons who is not the bona fide owner of same.

4. Bulls or entire horses over the age of nine months shall not be allowed on the commons without the written sanction of the managers, first obtained.

5. Sheep shall be allowed to depasture on such portions only of the commons as the managers may set apart for that purpose.

6. The herdsmen of the commons shall attend on the seven days immediately preceding the commencement of each half-year, at a place to be named, for the purpose of registering stock and receiving fees, and due notice of such attendance and the time and place thereof shall be given by the managers.

7. All persons taking stock to depasture on the commons shall deliver them into the charge of the herdsman at the time and place as aforesaid, together with a written statement of the number and brands of such stock; and the manager shall upon receiving the fees thereon give a receipt for the same in the prescribed form, and the herdsman shall forthwith, with the assistance of the owner or person in charge, brand such stock in a conspicuous place with the common brand, which shall be of pitch or tar; and such brand shall be renewed whenever necessary, so as to be plainly legible during the whole period that such stock may depasture on the commons.

8. No stock registered in the books of the managers shall be removed from the commons, unless notice of intention so to do is first given to the herdsman, who shall obtain a receipt from the owner for the stock removed.

9. The managers or herdsmen shall not be responsible for the loss of any stock legally depasturing on the commons, save as provided by clause ten (10) of these regulations.

10. The herdsman shall, on any stock straying from the commons, or on being removed therefrom without the owner's consent, notify the owner within ten days thereof; and if the herdsman fail or neglect to give the owner notice, in writing, within that time, the former shall, should such stock be lost, be held responsible for such loss, which shall be computed at the rate of Two pounds sterling per head for horses, and Two pounds sterling per head for horned cattle.

11. The managers may grant to butchers or to slaughtermen special licenses to depasture on the Alexandra Common for such periods of time as may be agreed upon. Stock intended for slaughter subject to the condition that the fees shall not be at a proportionately less rate than Two shillings per head per annum for large cattle, and One shilling per head per annum for small cattle.

12. All stock depasturing on the commons on which the prescribed fees shall not have been paid within ten (10) days after the date for renewal of license shall be deemed to be trespassing on the commons, and shall be liable to be impounded.

13. All carcasses found on the commons which the owner or owners may refuse or neglect to remove, after receiving twenty-four hours' notice, in writing, from the managers or herdsmen, may be removed or destroyed, by burning or otherwise, at the expense of such owner or owners.

14. No animal affected with any contagious disease shall be allowed to depasture on the commons; and as soon as the herdsman shall discover that any stock legally depasturing thereon is infected with any such disease, he shall forthwith give notice thereof, in writing, to the owner of such stock, to the nearest inspector of stock having jurisdiction in the district in which such common is situated, and to the managers of the common.

15. Whenever in these regulations any act or thing is required to be done by the managers, it shall be considered to be well and truly done, if done by any two or more of them, duly appointed from time to time to act on their behalf.

Every person offending against any of the foregoing regulations shall, on conviction before any justice, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds for each offence.
