II.

Convention between the Governments of Greece and Egypt. Signed March 3, 1884.

M. Anasthase Byzantios, Agent Diplomatique et Consul-Général Hellénique d'une part, et son Excellence Nubar Pasha, Président du Conseil des Ministres, Ministre des Affaires Etrangères de Son Altesse le Khédive, dûment autorisés par leurs Gouvernements respectifs; sont convenus de ce qui suit:—

ARTICLE I.

Le Commerce Hellénique en Egypte et le Commerce Egyptien en Grèce seront traités sous le rapport des droits de douane, tant à l'importation qu'à l'exportation, comme le commerce de la nation la plus favorisée.

No. 115.—SEPTEMBER 26, 1884.—1.

ARTICLE II.

Aucune mesure de prohibition ne pourra frapper le commerce réciproque d'importation ou d'exportation des deux pays, si elle n'est également étendue à toutes les autres nations. Il est toutefois entendu que cette restriction ne s'applique pas aux mesures spéciales que l'un des deux pays pourrait prendre, afin de se garantir contre l'épizootie, le phylloxéra ou tout autre fléau.

ARTICLE III.

Le Gouvernement Egyptien s'engage, sauf les exceptions mentionnées à l'Article VI ci-après, à ne prohiber l'importation en Egypte d'aucun article, produit du sol et de l'industrie de la Grèce, de quelque lieu qu'arrive cet article.

ARTICLE IV.

Les droits à percevoir en Egypte sur les produits du sol et de l'industrie de la Grèce, de quelque lieu qu'ils arrivent, seront réglés par un tarif qui sera établi par des Commissaires nommés ad hoc par les deux Gouvernements.

Comme base de ce tarif l'on prendra le droit fixe de 8 pour cent ad valorem à calculer sur le prix des marchandises à l'échelle de débarquement, mais le Gouvernement Egyptien se réserve la faculté de porter à un taux plus élevé les droits sur les boissons distillées, les vins et les articles de luxe; ces droits ne devront cependant, en aucun cas, excéder le taux de 16 pour cent ad valorem.

Le Gouvernement Egyptien se réserve aussi le droit d'abaisser jusqu'au taux de 5 pour cent, et même de supprimer entièrement, les taxes, sur les articles de première nécessité entrant en Egypte.

Les droits de douane seront perçus sans préjudice des pénalités édictées en matière de fraude et de contrebande par les règlements.

ARTICLE V.

Le tabac, sous toutes ses formes, et le tombac, ainsi que le sel, le natron, le hachiche et le salpêtre sont exclus des stipulations de la présente Convention.

Le Gouvernement Egyptien conserve un droit absolu par rapport à ces articles, dont le régime sera applicable aux sujets Hellènes dans les mêmes conditions qu'aux sujets locaux.

Le Gouvernement Egyptien pourra procéder, dans les magasins ou demeures, à toutes perquisitions immédiates qu'il jugera nécessaires. Le double de l'ordre de perquisition sera envoyé à l'autorité Consulaire Hellénique qui pourra aussitôt assister, si elle le juge convenable, sans que cette formalité puisse retarder la perquisition.

ARTICLE VI.

Par exception aux stipulations de l'Article III, les armes de guerre (comprenant les armes à feu et les armes blanches) et les munitions de guerre ne seront pas admises à l'importation en Egypte.

La restriction ci-dessus ne s'applique pas aux armes de chasse et de luxe, ni à la poudre de chasse; l'entrée de ces articles fera l'objet de dispositions particulières de la part du Gouvernement Egyptien.

ARTICLE VII.

Les marchandises importées en Egypte et réexportées dans un délai n'excédant pas six mois, seront considérées comme marchandises de transit et ne paieront à ce titre qu'un droit de transit de 1 pour cent, calculé sur la valeur à l'échelle de débarquement.

Après ce délai de six mois elles seront passibles de l'intégralité du droit d'importation.

Si la réexportation a lieu par le port même du débarquement, à la suite d'un simple transbordement ou bien après débarque-ment et séjour des marchandises à tort, dans les conditions de surveillance prévues par les règlements douaniers, pendant un délai n'excédant pas un mois, ces marchandises ne seront sujettes à aucun droit; mais le droit de transit sera dû, si, après avoir été débarquées et déposées temporairement, soit dans les magasins de la Douane, soit dans les magasins particuliers, flottants ou non, les marchandises sont réexportées, après avoir fait l'objet d'une opération commerciale.

ARTICLE VIII.

Si des marchandises, après avoir été frappées du droit d'importation en Egypte, sont expédiées à d'autres pays, avant l'expiration du terme de six mois, à dater du jour de leur débarquement, elles seront traitées comme marchandises en transit et la Douane Egyptienne restituera à l'exportateur la différence entre le droit payé et celui de transit mentionné à l'Article VII.

Pour obtenir le drawback, l'exportateur devra fournir les preuves que le droit d'importation a été payé sur les marchandises réexportées.

ARTICLE IX.

Les produits du sol et de l'industrie de l'Egypte, à destination de la Grèce, paieront un droit d'exportation de 1 pour cent ad valorem, calculé sur la valeur des marchandises à l'échelle d'exportation.

Pour plus de facilité, ces produits seront, autant que possible, tarifés périodiquement, d'un commun accord, entre les représentants du commerce d'exportation et l'Administration des Douanes Egyptiennes.

ARTICLE X.

Sont seuls exemptés de toute vérification à l'entrée et à la sortie, ainsi que du paiement des droits, les objets et effets personnels appartenant aux Consuls-Généraux et Consuls de Carrière, n'exerçant pas d'autres fonctions, ne s'occupant ni de commerce ni d'industrie et ne possédant ou n'exploitant pas des biens-fonds en Egypte.

ARTICLE XI.

Dans un délai maximum de trente-six heures, après l'arrivée d'un navire dans une rade ou un port Egyptien, le capitaine ou l'agent des armateurs doit déposer à la Douane deux copies du manifeste de cargaison, certifiées, par lui, conformes à l'original. De même, les capitaines doivent, avant leur départ d'un port Egyptien, présenter à la Douane une copie du manifeste des marchandises chargées à leur bord. Le manifeste original, soit à l'arrivée, soit au départ, sera présenté en même temps que les copies pour être confronté avec elles.

Si un navire s'arrête dans un port Egyptien, pour un motif paraissant suspect à la Douane, celle-ci pourra exiger la présentation du manifeste et faire immédiatement toutes perquisitions qu'elle jugera nécessaires; l'ordre de perquisition sera adressé, dans ce cas, à l'autorité Consulaire Hellénique, ainsi qu'il est dit à l'Article V.

Les excédants ou déficits, résultant du rapprochement du manifeste avec la cargaison, donneront lieu à l'application des amendes prévues par le Règlement Douanier qui sera promulgué par le Gouvernement Egyptien.

ARTICLE XII.

Toute opération de Douane en Egypte, soit à l'arrivée, soit au départ, doit être précédée d'une déclaration signée par le propriétaire de la marchandise ou par son représentant.

La Douane peut, en outre, en cas de contestation, exiger la présentation de tous les documents qui doivent accompagner l'envoi d'une marchandise, tels que: factures, correspondances, &c.

Tout refus de faire la déclaration, à l'arrivée ou au départ, tout retard apporté à la dite déclaration, toute différence en plus ou en moins constatée entre les marchandises et la déclaration donneront lieu à l'application des amendes prévues par le Règlement Douanier Egyptien, pour chacun des cas spécifiés.

ARTICLE XIII.

Les Agents de la Douane, les officiers des bâtiments du service postal Egyptien, et les officiers des navires de l'Etat, peuvent aborder tout bâtiment à voile ou à vapeur d'une portée au-dessous de 200 tonneaux, à l'ancre, ou louvoyant, dans les 10 kilom. du littoral, sans justification de force majeure; s'assurer de la nature du chargement, saisir toute marchandise prohibée et constater toute autre contravention aux Règlements Douaniers.

ARTICLE XIV.

Toute introduction de marchandises en contrebande donnera lieu à l'application des confiscations et amendes édictées par le Règlement Douanier Egyptien.

Les décisions qui prononceront les confiscations et amendes devront être communiquées dans les délais légaux à l'autorité Consulaire Hellénique.

ARTICLE XV.

Il est entendu que la présente Convention ne peut en rien porter atteinte aux droits d'administration qui appartiennent aux deux Gouvernements Contractants et qu'ils pourront appliquer toute réglementation utile au bon fonctionnement des services et à la répression des fraudes.

ARTICLE XVI.

La présente Convention aura son effet pendant sept ans à partir du vingt Mars, 1884.

A l'expiration de cette période la présente Convention restera en vigueur pendant l'année suivante et ainsi de suite d'année en année jusqu'à dénonciation ou conclusion d'un nouvel accord s'il y a lieu.

ARTICLE ADDITIONNEL.

L'effet des modifications au tarif actuel des droits, prévues à l'Article IV, demeure suspendu jusqu'à ce que ces modifications aient été adoptées par les autres Puissances intéressées.

En foi de quoi les soussignés ont signé la présente Convention.

Fait en duplicata au Caire, le 3 Mars 1884.

[Translation.]

M. Anasthase Byzantios, Diplomatic Agent and Consul-General of Greece, of the one part, and His Excellency Nubar Pasha, President of the Council of Ministers, Minister for Foreign Affairs of His Highness the Khedive, duly authorized by their respective Governments, have agreed as follows:—

ARTICLE I.

The commerce of Greece in Egypt, and the commerce of Egypt in Greece, shall be treated upon the footing of the most favored nation as regards customs duties, both of import and export.

ARTICLE II.

No prohibition of importation or exportation can be applied to the reciprocal commerce of both countries unless it be equally applied to all other nations. It is nevertheless understood that this restriction does not extend to the special measures which either of the two countries may take in order to protect itself against cattle plague, phylloxera, or any other plague.

ARTICLE III.

The Egyptian Government engages, with the exceptions hereafter specified in Article VI., not to prohibit the importation into Egypt of any article being the produce of the soil or industry of Greece, whencesoever arriving.

ARTICLE IV.

The duties to be levied in Egypt upon the produce of the soil or industry of Greece whencesoever arriving, shall be regulated by a Tariff to be fixed by Commissioners appointed ad hoc by the two Governments.

The fixed duty of 8 per cent. ad valorem shall be adopted as a basis for this Tariff, and shall be calculated on the value of the goods at the landing-stage; but the Egyptian Government reserves the right to raise to a higher rate the duties on distilled drinks, wines, and articles of luxury; these duties shall, however, in no case exceed the rate of 16 per cent. ad valorem.

The Egyptian Government further reserves the right to diminish to the rate of 5 per cent., and even to abolish entirely, the duties on articles of prime necessity imported into Egypt.

The customs duties shall be collected without prejudice to the penalties fixed by the regulations in cases of fraud and contraband.

ARTICLE V.

Tobacco of all kinds, tombac (metal), salt, carbonate of soda, hachish, and saltpetre are excluded from the stipulations of the present Convention.

The Egyptian Government reserves an absolute right with regard to these articles, the regulations in regard to which shall be applied to Hellenic subjects under the same conditions as to natives.

The Egyptian Government may make all immediate searches in shops or dwellings which they may think necessary. A duplicate of the search warrant shall be sent to the Hellenic Consular authority, who may at once attend if he thinks expedient. This formality shall not, however, delay the search.

ARTICLE VI.

The exceptions to the stipulations of Article III, namely, warlike arms (comprising fire-arms and side-arms) and munitions of war, shall not be admitted to importation into Egypt.

The above restriction does not apply to arms for the chase or arms of luxury ("armes de luxe"), nor to powder for hunting purposes. The importation of these articles shall be regulated by special provisions on the part of the Egyptian Government.

ARTICLE VII.

Goods imported into Egypt and re-exported within a period not exceeding six months, shall be considered as goods in transit, and under that category shall pay only a duty of 1 per cent., calculated on the value at the landing-stage.

After the period of six months they shall be liable to the full import duty.

If the re-exportation takes place at the actual port of disembarkation—by means of a simple transshipment—or after disembarkation and deposit of the goods on land under the surveillance provided by the Customs Regulations, within a period of not more than one month, the goods shall not be subject to any duty, but the transit duty shall be due if, after having been disembarked and temporarily deposited either in the Customs warehouses or in private warehouses, whether floating or not, the goods are re-exported after having been the medium of a commercial operation.

ARTICLE VIII.

If goods, after having paid the import duty in Egypt, shall be sent to another country before the expiration of the period of six months, counting from the day of disembarkation, they shall be treated as goods in transit, and the Egyptian Customs shall refund to the exporter the difference between the duty already paid and the transit duty mentioned in Article VII.

In order to obtain the drawback, the exporter must produce proof that the import duty has been paid on the re-exported goods.

ARTICLE IX.

The produce of the soil and industry of Egypt exported to Greece shall pay an export duty of 1 per cent. ad valorem, calculated on the value of the goods at the exporting stage.

In order to provide greater facility, such produce shall be, so far as possible, tariffed periodically by mutual agreement between the representatives of the export trade and the Egyptian Customs Administration.

ARTICLE X.

The following are alone exempt from all examination on entry or departure, as well as from all payment of duty, viz., articles and personal effects belonging to Consuls-General and Commissioned Consuls ("Consuls de Carrière"), who do not exercise other functions, are not engaged in commerce or manufacture, and do not possess or make use of landed property in Egypt.

ARTICLE XI.

Within a period not exceeding thirty-six hours after the arrival of a vessel in an Egyptian port or harbor, the captain or agent of the owners must deposit at the Custom House two copies of the cargo manifest, certified by him to be true copies of the original. In the same manner the captains must, before departure from an Egyptian port, present at the Custom-house a copy of the manifest of the goods composing the cargo of their ships. The original manifest, whether on arrival or departure, must be presented at the same time with the copies, to be compared with them.

If a vessel stops in an Egyptian port, for a motive which appears suspicious to the Customs authorities, the latter may require the presentation of the manifest and may immediately make such search as they may deem necessary: the search warrant shall be addressed in such cases to the Hellenic Consular authority, as provided in Article V.

Excess or deficit, resulting from the comparison of the manifest with the cargo, will entail the application of the fines specified in the Customs Regulations which shall be promulgated by the Egyptian Government.

ARTICLE XII.

Every Customs formality in Egypt, whether on arrival or departure, must be preceded by a declaration signed by the proprietor of the goods or by his representative.

If any question arises the Customs authorities may require the production of all the documents which should accompany a consignment of goods, such as invoices, correspondence, &c.

Any refusal to make the declaration, either on arrival or departure, any delay in making the said declaration, any difference, less or more, which may exist between the goods and the declaration, shall entail the application of the fines provided by the Egyptian Customs Regulations in each of the specified cases.

ARTICLE XIII.

Custom officers, officers of the vessels belonging to the Egyptian postal service, and officers of vessels belonging to the State, may board any vessel whether sailing or steam of more than 200 tons burden, at anchor or cruising within 10 kilom. of the shore, without the plea of "force majeure;" may assure themselves of the nature of the cargo, may seize all prohibited goods, and substantiate any other contravention of the Customs Regulations.

ARTICLE XIV.

Any contraband importation of goods shall entail the application of the confiscation and fines provided by the Egyptian Customs Regulations.

Decisions imposing confiscations and fines must be communicated within the legal period to the Hellenic Consular authority.

ARTICLE XV.

It is understood that the present convention shall in nowise infringe the administrative rights which belong to both the Contracting Governments, and that they may put in force any regulation which may be useful for the good working of the service and the repression of fraud.

ARTICLE XVI.

The present Convention shall remain in effect for seven years commencing on the 20th of March, 1884.

On the expiration of that period the present Convention shall remain in force during the following year, and so on from year to year until it is denounced, or until the conclusion, if necessary, of a new agreement.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE.

The operation of the modification in the existing tariff of duties, contemplated by Article IV., remains suspended until these modifications have been adopted by the other Powers interested.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Convention.

Done in duplicate at Cairo, the 3rd March, 1884.

* Aborigines are included in the figures relating to Victoria and New South Wales, but not in those relating to the other colonies. The following are the numbers of aborigines enumerated at the Census of 1881.—In Victoria, 780; New South Wales (civilized aborigines only), 1643; Queensland (roughly estimated), 20,583; South Australia (in settled districts only), 6,346; Western Australia (number employed by settlers only), 2,346; Tasmania, nil; New Zealand (Maoris), 44,097.

† In Victoria the figures of revenue and expenditure are for the year ended 30th June, but in the other colonies for the year ended 31st December 1883.

†† Estimated.

§ The accrued sinking fund of New Zealand amounted on the 31st December to £2,715,094. The net liability was therefore £28,970,317.

|| The figures in these columns are intended to represent the lands of which the purchase in fee-simple was completed during the year. The figures for New South Wales and Tasmania however, denote instead the lands sold conditionally, in addition to lands sold by auction, &c. The purchase-money of the former in New South Wales has been computed at £1 per acre.

¶ The agricultural statistics of New South Wales are for 1882-3 instead of 1883-4 as in the other colonies. The area under cultivation in Western Australia and New Zealand is exclusive of grass-sown lands. In the latter they are much smaller than in the previous year, owing to the coasting trade being, for the first time, excluded.

 The figures for sheep and pigs in New South Wales are for the year 1882-3, those for horses, cattle, and pigs in New Zealand are derived from the returns of the Census of 1881.

* In cases where the minus sign (-) is prefixed to any number, it implies that the deaths exceeded the births by that number.

† Including the Melbourne Hospital, the Homoeopathic Hospital, the Alfred Hospital, the Immigrants' Home, the Lying-in Hospital, the Children's Hospital, the Metropolitan Lunatic Asylum, the Yarra Bend Lunatic Asylum, the Austin Hospital, and the Benevolent Asylum.

The number of births and deaths in Melbourne and suburbs, together with the mean temperature in the shade, and the mean atmospheric pressure, during the month of August of each of the ten years 1874-1883, were as follow:—

August	Number of Births.	Number of Deaths.	Mean Temperature.	Mean Height of Barometer.

" 1883	1,011	467	50.4°	29.962 "
Mean of ten years	805	413	50.4°	29.970 "

The births of 954 children, viz., 496 boys and 458 girls, were registered in Melbourne and suburbs during the month of August. In the month of July 950 births were registered, or 4 fewer than in the month under review. The births were 149 above the average of the previous ten years, but only 31 above that average, if allowance be made for the increase of population.

The deaths registered in August numbered 591, viz., 315 of males, and 276 of females; the births thus exceeded the deaths by 363. The deaths outnumbered those in July by 9, and exceeded the average of August during the previous ten years by 178. If, however, allowance be made for the increase of population, they will be found to have been above the average of those ten years by 119 only.

To every 1,000 of the population of the district the proportion of births registered was 3.13, and of deaths registered 1.94.

The highest temperature in the shade recorded at Melbourne Observatory during the month was 73.0° on the 30th, and the lowest was 33.0° on the 1st. The mean temperature of the month (52.6°) was two degrees and one-fifth above the average. The greatest range of the thermometer in any one day (28.7°) took place on the 22nd, viz., from a maximum of 63.0° to a minimum of 34.3°. The least range (8.3°) was on the 7th, viz., from a maximum of 57.1° to a minimum of 48.8°. The mean daily range was 15.7°. The mean atmospheric pressure (29.902 inches) was a fraction below the average. Rain fell on 16 days; the amount of rainfall being 1.6 inch or more than 1½ inch.

Males contributed 53 per cent., and females 47, to the mortality of the month. SHIRE OF KORONG.

PROPOSED SEVERANCE OF AREA AND CONSTITUTION OF NEW SHIRE.

IN pursuance of the provisions of The Local Government Act 1874 (No. 506, sec. 46), the substance and prayer of a Petition, in accordance with the 44th section of the said Act, which has been presented to His Excellency the Governor, are published, viz. :-

The petitioners purport to constitute a majority of the rate-payers in the portion of the Shire of Korong, which is described in their petition, and they desire that the area so described may be severed from the Shire of Korong and constituted a new shire, under the name or title of "The Shire of Charlton," and that such shire be not sub-divided at present.

Area described in the petition: Commencing at a point on the River Avoca intersected by the southern boundary of the Shire of Swan Hill, in the parish of Narrewillock; thence along the southern boundary of allotment 45; thence north to the north-west angle of allotment 55; thence east by the northern boundary of same allotment to its intersection with the eastern boundary of allotment 54; thence to the north-west angle of allotment 56; thence east by the northern boundary of same allotment to a road running north; thence along that road to the north-west angle of allotment 13; thence by a road running east to the western boundary to the parish of Terrapee (the said boundaries from starting point on the River Avoca constituting the southern boundary of the Shire of Swan Hill, in the parish of Narrewillock); thence by a road and the southern boundary of the Shire of Swan Hill to the eastern boundary of the parish of Terrapee in J. A. Lanty's selection 16A; thence south by that boundary and the eastern boundary of the parish of Buckrabanyule to the south-east angle of that parish; thence west by the southern boundary of that parish to the north-west angle of allotment 2, section B, in the parish of Woosang; thence southerly through that parish by a one-chain road to the south-east angle of allotment 50, section B; thence west to the south-west angle of same allotment; thence southerly by the eastern boundary of allotment 25, section A, to its south-eastern angle; thence south to the south-east angle of allotment 25, section A; thence south-easterly to the south-east angle of George Morecroft's selection, allotment 25, section A; thence west by the southern boundary of that allotment to the north-east angle of David Pluckes' selection, allotment 26, section A; thence south to the northern boundary of allotment No. 6 (F. Tonsing's); thence east to the north-east angle of said allotment; thence south to the south-east angle of allotment No. 2 (F. Tonsing); thence south-easterly by a road to the north eastern angle of allotment 39, section A; thence south to the southern boundary of the parish of Woosang and the south-east angle of Alexander Kinninmonth's selection, allotment 5, section A; thence south through the parish of Barrakee and by the eastern boundary of allotment 29 to the south-east angle of allotment 45 and the main road leading from Coonoor to Wedderburn; thence westerly by that road to the north-east angle of allotment 14, parish of Coonoor East (T. Carruthers'); thence southerly by the eastern boundary of allotment 16, section B, to the south-eastern angle of said block; thence westerly to the western boundary of allotment 25; thence south to the south-eastern angle of allotment 30 (J. Lyons); thence west to the north-eastern angle of allotment A (New Zealand and Australian Land Company); thence south by that boundary and the eastern boundary of Yowan Springs Pre-emptive right to the south-eastern angle of that pre-emptive right and the southern boundary of the parish of Coonoor East; thence west by that boundary and the southern boundary of allotment 1, parish of Gowar (W. Williams' selection) to the River Avoca; thence northerly by that river to the commencing point in the parish of Narrewillock.

Petitioners state that the portion desired to be severed contains an area of about 220 square miles, and rateable property which will yield an annual revenue of at least £1090; and furthermore, that it is the intention of many residents of the adjoining shires of St. Arnaud and Swan Hill to petition for annexation to the proposed new shire. In this way the new shire would comprise an area of over 700 square miles, with an annual revenue at from £3000 to £4000; that the Korong Shire is too unwieldy, and completely strains the principles of local self-government.

They therefore pray that the area above described may be constituted a separate municipality, and that the number of the councillors be six (6).

Notices for the petitioners may be served upon Mr. R. Ruse, High street, Charlton.

ALFRED DEAKIN,
Commissioner of Public Works.

PORT OF GREYMOUTH.

THE Harbor-master of Greymouth reports that during the progress of wharf extension at that port, known as the Johnstone street Contract, a red light will be exhibited between sunset and sunrise from a lantern placed on the north-west corner of the contractor's staging, and as the works progress to the westward the light will be advanced. Masters of vessels must be careful to pass to the northward of this red light, which has no connection with and is easily distinguished from all other lights at that point by its color and low elevation.
