Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Spain and France, signed in Spanish and French at Paris, February 6, 1882.

His Majesty the King of Spain and the President of the French Republic, equally actuated by the desire of drawing closer the bonds of friendship by which the two countries are united, and wishing to improve and extend the relations of commerce and navigation between the two States, have determined to conclude a treaty for this purpose, and have appointed their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

His Majesty the King of Spain, Don Manuel Falco d'Adda, Duke de Fernan-Nuñez, de Montellano and Del Arco, Count de Cervellon, Marquis de Almonacid, Grandee of Spain of the first class, Knight of the illustrious Order of the Golden Fleece, Grand Cross of the Order of Charles III, Knight of Calatrava, Senator of the Kingdom, his Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the French Republic; and Don Salvador de Albacete y Albert, ex-Minister for the Colonies, Member of the Cortes, Grand Cross of the Order of Isabella the Catholic, Commander of the Order of Charles III, Commander of the Legion of Honour, and His Majesty's Chamberlain in function;

And the President of the French Republic, M. C. de Freycinet, Senator, President of the Council, Minister for Foreign Affairs; M. P. Tirard, Deputy, Minister of Commerce; M. Maurice Rouvier, Deputy, former Minister of Commerce and for the Colonies,

Who, after having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be full and entire freedom of commerce and navigation between the Kingdom of Spain and the French Republic.

The native and naturalized subjects of the two States shall not pay, in respect of their trade or industry, in the ports, towns, or other places of the respective countries, whether they are there established, or temporarily resident, other or higher duties, taxes, imposts, or contributions of whatever description than those levied or which may hereafter be levied upon native subjects; and the privileges, immunities, and other favours of whatever kind, which shall be enjoyed in respect of trade, industry, and navigation by the citizens of either State, shall be likewise enjoyed by those of the other, save in the exceptions contained in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The native and naturalized subjects of each of the two High Contracting Parties shall, equally with native subjects, be entitled to enter with their vessels and freights all the ports and rivers of the States, provinces, and possessions of the other; to travel, reside, and settle wherever they shall deem suitable to their interests; to acquire and possess all kinds of movable and immovable property; to exercise every kind of industry and calling, to carry on wholesale and retail business; to hire the houses, warehouses, and shops which they may require; to despatch and receive merchandize or valuables by sea or land; to receive consignments both from the country and from abroad; and this without paying other duties than those which are or may be imposed on native subjects.

They shall be entitled, in buying and selling, to fix the price of merchandize and goods of whatever description, whether imported or native, whether sold in the country or intended for exportation; provided always they conform to the laws and regulations of the country.

They shall be entitled to conduct and administer their own business themselves, or to have themselves represented by persons properly authorized; whether for purchasing or selling their goods, effects, or merchandize, or for lading, unloading, and despatching their vessels.

ARTICLE III.

Spaniards in France and Frenchmen in Spain shall mutually enjoy a constant and complete protection for their persons and property, and shall have the same rights (except political rights) and the same privileges which are or shall be granted to native or naturalized subjects, upon condition, however, of their submitting, with regard thereto, to the laws of the country where they reside.

They shall, consequently, have free and easy access to the Courts of Justice, both for claiming and for defending their rights, to all the degrees of jurisdiction, established by law. They shall be entitled to employ, in the Courts of every instance, advocates, solicitors, and agents of every kind, according as they may deem expedient, and in fine they shall, in this respect, enjoy the same rights and advantages as are accorded or may hereafter be accorded to native subjects.

ARTICLE IV.

Spaniards in France and Frenchmen in Spain shall be liable to pay both the ordinary and extraordinary taxes due upon the immovable property possessed by them in the country of their residence and upon the profession or industry which they carry on, provided always that the same be in accordance with the general laws and regulations of the respective States. They shall equally, with the natives, be subject to burdens and levies in kind, as well as to municipal, urban, provincial, and departmental taxes to which their movable property, their profession or industry may render them liable.

Moreover, Spaniards in France and Frenchmen in Spain shall be exempt from any war tax, advance payment of ordinary imposts, from loans and credits, and any other extraordinary tax whatever, which may be established in either of the two countries on account of exceptional circumstances, except when such burdens are imposed upon landed property.

They shall likewise be exempt from all municipal duty or employment, and from all personal service, whether in the army or navy, or the militia or National Guard, and also from all requisition to perform military services.

ARTICLE V.

The native or naturalized subjects of the two States shall be entitled to dispose at their discretion, by donation, sale, exchange, will, or in any other manner, of all the property which they possess in the respective territories, and to withdraw their whole capital from the country. The native or naturalized subjects of either of the two States, capable of inheriting property situate in the other, shall be entitled to take possession, without hindrance, of the property coming to them by law, even ab intestato, and the said heirs or legatees shall not be obliged to pay other or higher succession duties than such as would be imposed in similar cases upon the natives of the country where the property is.

ARTICLE VI.

The native or naturalized subjects of the two High Contracting Parties shall not be, on either side, liable to any embargo, nor to be detained within their vessels, crews, vehicles, and commercial effects of whatever kind, for any military expedition, nor for any public service, without a previously agreed-on indemnity being granted to the interested parties. They shall, however, be liable to requisitions for transport (baggage); but in this case they shall be entitled to the remuneration officially fixed by the competent authority in each province, department, or locality, for the natives.

ARTICLE VII.

Spaniards in France and, reciprocally, Frenchmen in Spain shall enjoy the same protection as native subjects in all that concerns property in manufacturers' and trade marks and in designs and industrial and manufacturers' models of all kinds.

The exclusive right of using a design or manufacturer's or industrial model shall not extend to Spaniards in France, or, reciprocally, to Frenchmen in Spain for a period longer than that fixed by the law of the country for its own subjects.

If the design or the industrial or manufacturer's model be in common use in the country of origin, a right to its exclusive use shall not be acquirable in the other country.

The provisions of the two preceding paragraphs shall be equally applicable to manufacturers' and trade marks.

The rights of Spaniards in France and, reciprocally, of Frenchmen in Spain shall not be subject to the obligation to work ("utilizar") the industrial or manufacturers' models or designs either in France or in Spain.

ARTICLE VIII.

Subjects or naturalized subjects of one of the countries who desire to secure in the other country property in a mark, a model, or a design, shall comply with the formalities respectively prescribed for that purpose by the law of the two countries.

The manufacturers' marks to which this and the preceding Article shall be held to apply are those which have been legitimately acquired in the two countries by the manufacturers or merchants using the same, that is to say, the character or nature of a French manufacturer's mark shall be judged according to the French law, and in the same way a Spanish mark shall be judged according to the Spanish law.

ARTICLE IX.

Spanish manufacturers and merchants, and also commercial travellers, travelling in France on the business of a Spanish house, and, reciprocally, French manufacturers, traders, and commercial travellers travelling in Spain in the interest of a French house, shall be entitled to effect, without thereby being subjected, either in France or Spain, to any duty, purchases requisite for their trade, and to book orders with or without samples, but without carrying about merchandize.

ARTICLE X.

Objects liable to import duty, which are used as samples and are imported into Spain by French manufacturers, merchants, or commercial travellers, and into France by Spanish manufacturers, merchants, or commercial travellers, shall on either side be temporarily admitted free, provided the Customs formalities are duly complied with, which are required to insure their re-exportation, or their return to bond. These formalities shall be agreed upon by the two Governments.

ARTICLE XI.

The objects of Spanish origin or manufacture enumerated in the Tariff A, annexed to the present Treaty, and imported directly by either land or sea, shall be admitted into France at the duties fixed by the said Tariff and the notes therein inscribed, all additional duties being included in the said duties.

The objects of French origin or manufacture enumerated in Tariff B, annexed to the present Treaty, and imported directly either by land or sea, shall be admitted into Spain at the duties fixed by the said Tariff and the notes therein inscribed, all additional duties being included in the said duties.

It is understood, on the one part, that the exemptions inscribed in the Spanish General Tariff shall be maintained, and that, on the other part, the duties at present inscribed in the second column of the said Tariff cannot be increased in so far as they apply to the articles which are free under the Tariff A, annexed to the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XII.

The duties on exports from either of the two States to the other shall be levied in conformity with Tariffs C and D, annexed to the present Treaty.

The products not specified in these two Tariffs may not be made subject to duties or interdicted from exportation except in case of war, and only for merchandise considered as articles of warfare.

In order to facilitate the transport of agricultural produce on the frontier of the two countries, cereals in sheaf or in ear, hay, straw, and green forage, may be imported and exported reciprocally, free from duty.

ARTICLE XIII.

Goods of whatever kind crossing either of the two countries shall pay no transit duty.

The transit of counterfeit goods or fraudulent reproductions is prohibited.

The transit of gunpowder, arms, and munitions of war may likewise be forbidden, or allowed only on special authorization.

ARTICLE XIV.

Each of the two High Contracting Parties engages to accord to the other, immediately and without compensation, every favour, all privileges, or reductions in the import and export Tariff of duties upon Articles, whether mentioned or not in the present Treaty, which either has granted or may hereafter grant to a third Power.

The High Contracting Parties further engage not to establish the one against the other any import or export duty or prohibition which shall not at the same time be applicable to all other nations.

The most-favoured-nation treatment is reciprocally guaranteed to each of the High Contracting Parties, in respect of everything relating to the consumption, warehousing, re-exportation, transit, and transshipment of merchandize and trade and navigation in general.

ARTICLE XV.

The principle recognized in the preceding Article is not applicable—

1. To the importation, exportation, and transit of merchandize, which is or may become the object of State monopoly.

2. To merchandize whether specified or not in the present Treaty, in regard of which one of the High Contracting Parties should deem necessary to establish temporary prohibitions or restrictions, with regard to importation or transit, for sanitary reasons, for opposing the spread of cattle diseases or destruction of crops, or on account of and in view of warlike events.

ARTICLE XVI.

The repayment of duties ("drawbacks") now existing or which may be established on the exportation of Spanish products and, reciprocally, the return of duties ("drawbacks") established on the exportation of French products shall be the exact equivalent of the excise charges or taxes levied on the consumption of the said articles or the materials employed in their manufacture.

ARTICLE XVII.

Merchandize of any kind having origin in either of the two countries and imported into the other, shall not be liable to higher excise dues or taxes on their consumption than those imposed, or which may be imposed, upon similar merchandize of home production.

Import duties may, however, be increased by an amount equivalent to the sums which, on account of expenses thrown on the home producers, in consequence of the tax on manufacture (excise), is levied on them under that heading.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The Spanish Government guarantees that French products shall not in any case be subjected, by any provinces, communes, establishments, or corporations, to taxes on consumption or any other imposts of any denomination whatsoever, other or higher than those to which the products of the country are liable; and the French Government, on its part, guarantees that the products of Spain shall not be subjected by any departments, communes, establishments, or corporations, to taxes on consumption, or to any other imposts of any denomination whatsoever other or higher than those to which the products of the country are subject.

ARTICLE XIX.

Silversmiths' and jewellers' wares in gold and silver imported from one of the countries shall be submitted in the other to the assay instituted for similar articles of native manufacture, and shall be liable, upon the same footing as the latter, to the dues for assay marks.

ARTICLE XX.

Each of the two High Contracting Parties may insist that the importer, in order to prove that the products belong by origin or manufacture to the other country, shall present at the Customs office of the country to which they are imported an official declaration setting forth the circumstances made by the producer or manufacturer of the merchandize, or by any other person duly authorized by him, before the local authorities of the place of production or depot; the respective Consuls or Consular Agents shall certify, free of all expense, to the signatures of the local authorities.

ARTICLE XXI.

Spanish vessels, laden or not, and their cargoes in France or Algiers, and French vessels, laden or not, and their cargoes in Spain, upon their arrival from any port, whatever the place of the origin or of the destination of their cargo, shall in every respect, upon their entry, during their stay and at their departure, enjoy the same treatment as the native vessels and their cargoes.

ARTICLE XXII.

Spanish vessels entering a port of France and, reciprocally, French vessels entering a port of Spain, intending to unlade in such port only a portion of their cargo, shall, provided they conform to the laws and regulations of the respective States, be entitled to retain on board the portion of their cargo shipped for another port, whether of the same or of another country, and to re-export it without being compelled to pay upon such portion of their cargo any customs duty except that of surveillance, and the same shall be at the rate fixed for native shipping.

ARTICLE XXIII.

Wholly exempt from shipping, harbour, tonnage, and clearance dues in the ports of either party, are—

1. Vessels, from whatever port, who enter in ballast and leave in ballast.

2. Vessels which, passing from a port of one of the two States into one or more ports of the same State, either to unlade there the whole or a portion of their cargo, or to take up or complete their freight, shall show that they have already paid these duties.

3. Vessels which, having entered a port with freight, whether by choice or stress, shall leave it without having effected any commercial transaction.

The unlading and relading of merchandize to facilitate the repair of a vessel which shall have been compelled to put into port, the transshipment on board another vessel in case the first shall have been rendered unseaworthy, the outlay necessary for revictualling, and the sale of averaged goods when authorized by the Customs Administration, shall not be regarded as commercial transactions.

ARTICLE XXIV.

Flotsam and averaged merchandize from a vessel of one of the two High Contracting Parties, when not entered for home consumption, shall not be liable to duties of any kind.

ARTICLE XXV.

Vessels navigating under the flag of either of the two States, owned and registered according to the laws of the country, and furnished with papers and letters regularly issued by the competent authorities, shall be considered as French or Spanish vessels respectively.

The High Contracting Parties agree to settle in concert the conditions on which the respective certificates of tonnage measurement shall be reciprocally admitted in either countries.

ARTICLE XXVI.

The two High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the power to impose upon any article mentioned in the present Treaty, or upon any other article, to the same extent as they shall affect native vessels, the lading and unlading dues, devoted to paying for the requisite establishments at the port of importation or exportation.

With respect to the berthing of vessels, and their lading or unlading in the ports, roads, harbours, or basins, and generally all formalities and regulations to which trading vessels may be subjected, with their crews and cargoes, no privilege or favour shall be extended to native vessels in either of the two States which shall not be likewise granted to the vessels of the other Power, the will of the High Contracting Powers being, that in this respect also Spanish and French vessels should be treated on a footing of perfect equality.

ARTICLE XXVII.

Merchandise not of Spanish origin imported from Spain* to France, whether by land or by sea, shall not be burdened with surtaxes higher than those paid for merchandise of the same kind imported to France from any other European country, except directly in French vessels.

And, reciprocally, merchandise not of French origin exported from France to Spain, either by sea or land, shall not be burdened with surtaxes higher than those to which is liable merchandise of the same kind imported to Spain from any other European country except directly in a Spanish vessel.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

Packet-boats performing postal service, and belonging to Companies subsidized by either of the two States, shall not, when in the ports of the other State, be liable to be forced to change their destination or course, nor to arrest by judicial sentence, embargo or Arrêt de Prince.

With respect, however, to the application of the present Article, the High Contracting Parties agree to concert the regulations necessary to give to the Administration the guarantee of the Companies subsidized, relative to responsibilities which may be incurred both by the captains of their packets and by the said Companies themselves.

ARTICLE XXIX.

The provisions of the present Treaty apply neither to the coasting trade nor to the right of fishing. Each of the High Contracting Parties reserves to its native subjects the exclusive right of fishing in its territorial waters.

ARTICLE XXX.

The provisions of the present Treaty of trade and navigation are applicable on the one side to the Adjacent Isles and to the Canaries, as well as to the Spanish possessions on the Morocco coast, and on the other to Algeria.

ARTICLE XXXI.

The provisions contained in Articles II, III, IV, V, and VI of this Treaty shall be observed, in the colonial possessions of either State, under the reservations required by the special system to which those possessions are subject.

In regard to these same possessions, the High Contracting Parties guarantee to each other, in respect to trade, industry, and navigation, the treatment granted by the special system of those possessions to the most favoured nation.

It is, nevertheless, understood, that each of the High Contracting Parties guarantees to the native and naturalized subjects of the other the enjoyment in the said possessions of the privileges, immunities, and any other favours which are, or may hereafter be, granted to the subjects of a Third Power.

ARTICLE XXXII.

The present Treaty shall come into force on the 16th May, 1882, and shall be operative until the 1st February, 1892.

In case neither of the two High Contracting Parties should notify twelve months before the end of the said period their intention to cause it to cease, it shall remain binding until the expiration of a year from the day on which one or other of the High Contracting Parties shall have denounced it.

ARTICLE XXXIII.

The present Treaty shall be submitted to the approval of the Legislative Chambers of each of the two States, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Paris at latest on the 12th May, 1882.

In faith whereof the Plenipotentiaries have signed it and affixed thereto their seals.

Done at Paris, in duplicate original, the 6th day of February, 1882.

Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Spain and Germany, signed in Spanish and German at Berlin on the 12th of July 1833.

His Majesty the King of Spain and His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, desirous of drawing closer the bonds of friendship between the two States, and to facilitate and promote mutually commercial and shipping relations between the two countries, have agreed for this purpose to conclude a Treaty, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries:—

His Majesty the King of Spain, His Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary accredited to His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, Don Francisco Merry y Colom, Count of Benomar;

His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, Franz Emil Emmanuel von Barchard, Secretary of State of the Imperial Treasury and Privy Councillor; and Victor von Bojanowski, Privy Councillor of Legation and Director in the Foreign Office;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have concluded the following Treaty of Commerce and Navigation, saving ratification by the High Contracting Parties:—

ARTICLE I.

Between the High Contracting Parties there shall be perfect and complete freedom of commerce and navigation. The subjects of each of the High Contracting Parties shall reciprocally enjoy in the territories of the other, so far as the present Treaty makes no exception, with respect to commerce, navigation, and industry, the same rights, privileges, and advantages of every kind which are, or shall be, conferred upon nationals; and no other or more onerous general, or local taxes, burdens, restrictions, or duties of any sort shall be imposed on them than are or shall be imposed on nationals.

ARTICLE II.

The subjects of each of the High Contracting Parties shall be permitted reciprocally in the territories of the other, to an equal degree with the nationals, to enter all harbours and rivers with their vessels and cargoes, to travel, to sojourn, and to establish themselves, to carry on wholesale or retail trade and industry, to hire or to possess houses, warehouses, and shops, to send goods or specie by sea or land, as well as to receive consignments, whether from the country where they reside or from abroad, on payment of those taxes only as are or shall be payable by nationals; they may buy and sell with or without the agency of a middleman chosen by them, and fix the price of goods, effects, wares, or other articles, whether imported or native, and whether the same are intended for the home market or for exportation; and so long as they obey existing laws and Ordinances they may transact their business affairs, present customs declarations, acting themselves or being represented by another, according as they find it suitable, and only against such charges as have been agreed to with the latter.

ARTICLE III.

The subjects of the High Contracting Parties shall be empowered in the territories of the other, to the same extent as the nationals, to acquire and possess any kind of movable or immovable property, and to dispose of it by sale, exchange, donation, testament, or any other way, as well as to acquire inheritances by testament or in accordance with the laws. And in none of the said cases shall they be subjected to different or higher taxes or imposts than the nationals.

They shall reciprocally enjoy the free exercise of their religion, in accordance with the laws of the country. They shall have free access to the Tribunals for the purpose of prosecuting their actions and protecting their rights, and, with this object, they shall enjoy all the rights and exemptions of the nationals, and be empowered, like them, to employ in any legal case barristers, attorneys, or solicitors, properly admitted according to the law of the land.

ARTICLE IV.

Joint-stock Companies and such like commercial, industrial, or financial societies, which are established in the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties, conformably to the laws there in force, shall enjoy the same rights in the territory of the other as are extended to the companies of the same description of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE V.

Merchants and manufacturers who are able to prove in the usual international way that in the country of their domicile they have been duly recognized as such shall in this respect in the territories of the other party pay no dues or taxes if they, with or without samples, but without taking about with them any goods, travel themselves through the country, or send commercial travellers or agents in the interests of their commercial or industrial business for the purpose of making purchases or of obtaining orders.

It is, however, to be understood that the above arrangement is not to contravene the laws and Ordinances on hawking which, in each of the two countries, apply to all foreigners.

Articles liable to customs duty, which are introduced as samples by merchants, manufacturers, and commercial travellers, shall mutually be relieved from duties, on the understanding that these articles be re-exported unsold within a period settled beforehand, with the proviso that the Custom-house formalities for the re-exportation or for the re-warehousing of the goods be complied with. These formalities shall be established by common understanding between the two Governments.

No impediment shall be placed on the movements of travellers, and the administrative formalities with reference to travellers' papers required on entering the territories of the High Contracting Parties, as well as on leaving the same, shall be limited to what the public safety absolutely requires.

ARTICLE VI.

The subjects of each of the High Contracting Parties shall, in the territories of the other, be free from every sort of compulsory service, whether official, judicial, administrative, or municipal, and from all personal service in the army, navy, in the territorial or naval reserves, or in the national militia, from all burdens, forced loans, military requisitions, and impositions, of whatever kind they may be, which are imposed in case of war or in consequence of other extraordinary circumstances, except as regards the obligation of billeting troops and furnishing supplies for the army in the same degree as nationals. Their property shall not be sequestered, and their ships, cargoes, goods, effects, shall not be embargoed for any public purpose without the interested parties having previously fixed the amount of compensation upon just and equitable grounds.

ARTICLE VII.

As regards marks applied to merchandise or to the packages of the same, as regards manufacturers' and trade marks, and as regards designs, models, and patents for invention, the subjects of one of the High Contracting Powers shall enjoy within the territory of the other the same protection as is enjoyed by nationals.

The protection of marks applied to merchandise of manufacturers' and trade marks, and of designs and models, shall be enjoyed by the subjects of the other Power to the extent only to which, and for so long only as, they are protected in their own country.

In neither country shall there be acquirable an exclusive right to use models, marks applied to merchandise, or manufacturers' or trade marks which in the other country are public property in trade, or in certain classes of trade. The protection of designs and models shall be enjoyed irrespectively of whether or not the articles have respectively been produced within the same country or not.

ARTICLE VIII.

The High Contracting Parties declare that they will not hamper the reciprocal commerce between their territories by any sort of prohibition of import, export, or transit which is not at the same time imposed either on all nations, or at least on those in identical circumstances.

ARTICLE IX.

The articles mentioned in the accompanying Tariff (A), of Spanish origin or manufacture, shall be allowed to enter Germany at the duties mentioned in the said Tariff, and in accordance with the provisions therein contained.

The articles mentioned in the accompanying Tariff (B), of German origin or manufacture, shall be allowed to enter Spain at the duties mentioned in the said Tariff, and in accordance with the provisions therein contained.

Each of the two High Contracting Parties binds itself to grant to the other, in the import or export of goods, whether specified or not in the present Treaty, immediately and unconditionally, every favour, privilege, or reduction in import or export duties which one of them has extended or shall hereafter extend to a third Power.

ARTICLE X.

For the duration of this Treaty all Spanish natural wines in barrels shall pay customs duties on entering Germany, without any difference being made as to their alcoholic strength, in such a manner that wines of a higher alcoholic strength shall not pay a higher duty than wines of a lower alcoholic strength.

Spanish wines shall not, so long as the present Treaty lasts, on being imported into Germany, pay any imposts and duties beyond the import duty, whether consumption duties or inland duties, either to the State or to Municipalities.

So far as Treaty rights are not opposed to it, Germany shall not extend the advantages mentioned in section I of this Article to any third State which taxes wines according to their alcoholic strength.

ARTICLE XI.

On goods exported to Spain there shall not be levied in Germany, and on goods exported to Germany there shall not be levied in Spain, any other or higher export duty than is imposed on similar articles exported to the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XII.

The High Contracting Parties reserve to themselves the right of requiring on the entry of goods the production of certificates of origin to establish the nationality of origin or of manufacture of such articles.

ARTICLE XIII.

For further facilitating commerce on both sides, freedom from export and import duties shall be reciprocally extended to goods (with the exception of provisions), so far as there is no doubt as to the identity of the articles exported and then re-imported, which are sent from the open markets of one of the High Contracting Parties for sale in those of the other, but which in the territory of the other are not put into the open market, but, on the contrary, are placed under the control of the Customs authorities in bonded warehouses, so long always as the goods in question are sent back unsold within a certain period to be previously determined.

ARTICLE XIV.

With regard to the amount of the import and export duties, to the guarantees taken for their payment, to the mode of collecting them, as well as with respect to transit, bonded warehouses, local dues, customs treatment and formalities, each of the High Contracting Parties binds itself to let the other share in every favour, privilege, and reduction in the Tariffs which either of them has extended to any other Power. Likewise, should any future advantage or exemption be granted by one of the Contracting Parties to a third Power, it shall immediately, and unconditionally, be extended to the other.

ARTICLE XV.

Goods of all kinds imported from the territories of one of the High Contracting Parties into those of the other shall not be charged with any higher interior taxes, or taxes on consumption, raised on behalf of the State or of municipalities, than those which are imposed on or shall be imposed on similar goods of national origin.

ARTICLE XVI.

All Spanish or German ships shall be recognised as such which are recognised as Spanish ships by the laws of Spain, or as German ships by the laws of the German Empire.

Certificates of tonnage shall be reciprocally recognised according to the rules of the agreement arrived at by the High Contracting Parties in the year 1879.

ARTICLE XVII.

The ships of one of the High Contracting Parties, which enter or leave the harbours of the other, in ballast or with cargo, whatever be the place of their departure or destination, shall be treated in the said ports in every respect on the same footing as national ships. As well on arriving as during their stay and on their departure they shall be charged no other or higher lighthouse, tonnage, pilot, harbour, towing, or quarantine dues, or other imposts of any kind assessed on the ship, whether they be raised in the name of, or for the benefit of, the State, public officials, municipalities, or any corporation, than such as are imposed or shall be imposed there on national ships.

With respect to the berthing, loading, and unloading of ships in harbours, bays, roads, and creeks, as well as generally with respect to all formalities and other regulations to which trading ships, their crews and cargoes may be liable, it is agreed that no privilege and no favour shall be extended to the ships of one of the High Contracting Parties which are not likewise extended to the ships of the other, since it is the decided wish of the High Contracting Parties that in this respect also their respective ships shall be treated on a footing of perfect equality.

ARTICLE XVIII.

With respect to the coasting trade, either one of the High Contracting Parties may claim for its ships all rights and favours which the other Party has granted or shall grant to any third country in so far as the one Party grants similar rights and favours in its own territory to the ships of the other Party.

The ships of either of the High Contracting Parties which enter a harbour of the other Party to fill up or to unload a portion of its cargo can, provided they comply with the laws and regulations of the country, retain on board that portion of it which is destined for some other harbour of the same country or some other country, and can re-export it without being called upon to pay for this latter portion of the cargo any tax other than supervision dues, which moreover must not be higher than those levied on national vessels.

ARTICLE XIX.

Shall be entirely free from tonnage and clearance dues in the harbours of either of the High Contracting Parties :-

1. Ships which enter and depart in ballast, from any place whatsoever.
2. Ships which come from a harbour or several harbours of the same country, and which can prove that they have already paid the above dues.
3. Ships which of their own free will or from necessity enter a harbour with cargo, and sail from the same without transacting any mercantile operation.

In case the entry has been from necessity, the unloading and reloading of the goods for the purpose of caulking the ship, the transfer of cargo to another ship, should the first have been rendered useless, the necessary transactions for provisioning the crew, as well as the sale of averaged goods, with the consent of the Custom-house Authorities, shall not be considered commercial transactions.

ARTICLE XX.

The war ships of the High Contracting Parties shall, in their respective harbours, be placed on the same footing as the war ships of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XXI.

The provisions of this Treaty shall, without exception, apply to the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg so long as the same forms part of the German Customs and Commercial system.

ARTICLE XXII.

As the colonial possessions of Spain are governed by special laws, the foregoing provisions of this Treaty shall apply to them only so far as is compatible with these laws.

German subjects shall there enjoy in every respect the same rights, privileges, and immunities, favours, and exemptions as are or shall be granted to the most favoured nation.

German products and merchandise shall in Spanish colonies be liable to no other duties, nor to other imposts and formalities than the products and merchandise of the most favoured nation.

The products and merchandise of the colonial possessions of Spain shall on entering Germany enjoy the same treatment as the colonial products and merchandise of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE XXIII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications exchanged as soon as possible in Berlin. The same shall come into force ten days after the exchange of the ratifications, and shall remain in force till the 30th June 1887.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereunto the seals of their arms.

Done at Berlin, the 12th July 1883.

Final Protocol.

At the signature of the Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Spain and the German Empire concluded to-day, the Plenipotentiaries of the two High Contracting Parties have agreed to the following remarks, declarations, and stipulations in the annexed Protocol:—

TO ARTICLE V.

Manufacturers or commercial travellers who in the territory of the other Contracting Party wish to purchase goods or endeavour to obtain orders, shall be granted free entry on condition of their being provided with trading licences issued by the authorities of their country.

These licences shall be drawn up according to the annexed form (see p. 21). The High Contracting Parties shall mutually inform each other as to what authorities are empowered to grant such licences, and as to what regulations are to be observed in the exercise of the said business.

TO ARTICLE VII.

In order that the subjects of one of the High Contracting Parties may acquire in the territory of the other, protection for their marks on merchandise, trade and commercial marks and for their designs and models, they must fulfil the formalities prescribed by the laws and Regulations of the latter country.

At present such marks, &c., should be deposited, in Spain, at the Ministry of Fomento, in Madrid; in Germany, at the "Amtsgericht," in Leipzig.

TO ARTICLE IX.

1. The Spanish Plenipotentiary declares that the Spanish Government is prepared to recognize as a German product only such spirit as has been prepared in Germany from German raw spirit; and, moreover, expressly reserves for the Spanish Consuls the right to demand, in accordance with the instructions they may receive from their Government, as proof that the exported spirit has been prepared from German raw spirit in the territory of the German Empire, not only the production of special certificates of origin, but also the production in duplicate of the certificates granting drawbacks. These instructions will be agreed upon by the two Governments.

The German Plenipotentiaries declare that they have no objection to make to the above declaration.

2. The Plenipotentiaries of both the High Contracting Parties are agreed that the maintenance at the present Tariff rate of the German duty on wine in bottles shall not affect effervescing wines; that the maintenance at the present Tariff rate of the German duty on rye is applicable to such rye only as can be proved to have been produced in Spain; and that the duty on salt sent by sea from Spain to Germany shall not be higher than the inland tax imposed in Germany upon German salt.

TO ARTICLE XIII.

With regard to the public warehouses, the exemption in Spain from Custom-house dues mentioned in this Article is only guaranteed in two cases:

1. For transit trade in general, with due observance of the formalities imposed or to be fixed by the Custom-house Regulations; and

2. For goods which are deposited in commercial warehouses—always, however, on the condition that they comply with the formalities fixed by the Custom-house laws for such warehouses—and notice is hereby given that at present there are commercial warehouses in the harbours of Barcelona, Cadiz, Mahon, Malaga, and Santander.

With regard to these matters, Germany shall enjoy the rights of the most favoured nation.

TO ARTICLE XVIII.

The Spanish Plenipotentiary declares that the coasting trade in Spain is in general reserved for ships of the Spanish mercantile marine.

The German Plenipotentiaries accept this declaration, and declare, on their side, that so long as German ships are excluded from the coasting trade in Spain, Spanish ships shall have no claim to participation in the coasting trade in Germany. The Spanish Plenipotentiary accepts this declaration.

TO ARTICLE XXIII.

The Plenipotentiaries are agreed that the present Protocol shall be laid before the High Contracting Parties at the same time as the Treaty, and that by the mere fact of the ratification of the latter, the declaration and agreements in the former shall be recognized as approved by both Governments without any further ratification.

SPANISH CUSTOMS TARIFF.

Note.

The following Return shows the rates of import duty leviable on the principal articles of British produce and manufacture under the Non-Conventional or General Tariff compared with what they will be under the Conventional Tariff when the new arrangement with Spain comes into force. The articles and classification are those used in the Return of Foreign import duties prepared by this Department.

It will be noticed that on most articles, especially cotton and woollen tissues, the duties on importation from non-conventional countries are largely in excess of the conventional rates. Thus, cotton piqués pay conventionally 2 fr. 10 c. per kilog. and 4 fr. 50 c. under the General Tariff, or more than double; cotton hosiery, 2 fr. 54 c. compared with 5 fr. 25 c.; cotton small wares, 2 fr. and 4 fr. 50 c.; pure woollen cloths, 4 fr. 50 c. compared with 8 fr.; woollen cloths with a cotton warp, 2 fr. 60 c. compared with 8 fr.; and woollen and worsted stuffs with a cotton warp, 2 fr. 17 c., against 5 fr. per kilog. in the General Tariff.

CHAPTER 33.

An Act to amend the Law respecting International and Colonial Copyright. [25th June 1886.]

WHEREAS by the International Copyright Acts Her Majesty is authorized by Order in Council to direct that as regards literary and artistic works first published in a foreign country the author shall have copyright therein during the period specified in the Order, not exceeding the period during which authors of the like works first published in the United Kingdom have copyright:

And whereas at an international conference held at Berne in the month of September One thousand eight hundred and eighty-five a draft of a convention was agreed to for giving to authors of literary and artistic works first published in one of the countries parties to the convention copyright in such works throughout the other countries parties to the convention:

And whereas, without the authority of Parliament, such convention cannot be carried into effect in Her Majesty's dominions and consequently Her Majesty cannot become a party thereto, and it is expedient to enable Her Majesty to accede to the convention:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Short titles and construction.—(1.) This Act may be cited as the International Copyright Act 1886.

(2.) The Acts specified in the first part of the First Schedule to this Act are in this Act referred to and may be cited by the short titles in that schedule mentioned, and those Acts, together with the enactment specified in the second part of the said schedule, are in this Act collectively referred to as the International Copyright Acts.

The Acts specified in the Second Schedule to this Act may be cited by the short titles in that schedule mentioned, and those Acts are in this Act referred to and may be cited collectively as the Copyright Acts.

(3.) This Act and the International Copyright Acts shall be construed together, and may be cited together as the International Copyright Acts 1844 to 1886.

2. Amendment as to extent and effect of Order under International Copyright Acts.—The following provisions shall apply to an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts:—

(1.) The Order may extend to all the several foreign countries named or described therein.

(2.) The Order may exclude or limit the rights conferred by the International Copyright Acts in the case of authors who are not subjects or citizens of the foreign countries named or described in that or any other Order, and if the Order contains such limitation and the author of a literary or artistic work first produced in one of those foreign countries is not a British subject, nor a subject or citizen of any of the foreign countries so named or described, the publisher of such work, unless the Order otherwise provides, shall for the purpose of any legal proceedings in the United Kingdom for protecting any copyright in such work be deemed to be entitled to such copyright as if he were the author; but this enactment shall not prejudice the rights of such author and publisher as between themselves.

(3.) The International Copyright Acts and an Order made thereunder shall not confer on any person any greater right or longer term of copyright in any work than that enjoyed in the foreign country in which such work was first produced.

3. Simultaneous publication.—(1.) An Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts may provide for determining the country in which a literary or artistic work first produced simultaneously in two or more countries is to be deemed, for the purpose of copyright, to have been first produced, and for the purposes of this section "country" means the United Kingdom and a country to which an Order under the said Acts applies.

(2.) Where a work produced simultaneously in the United Kingdom, and in some foreign country or countries is by virtue of an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts deemed for the purpose of copyright to be first produced in one of the said foreign countries and not in the United Kingdom, the copyright in the United Kingdom shall be such only as exists by virtue of production in the said foreign country, and shall not be such as would have been acquired if the work had been first produced in the United Kingdom.

4. Modification of certain provisions of International Copyright Acts.—(1.) Where an Order respecting any foreign country is made under the International Copyright Acts the provisions of those Acts with respect to the registry and delivery of copies of works shall not apply to works produced in such country except so far as provided by the Order.

(2.) Before making an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts in respect of any foreign country, Her Majesty in Council shall be satisfied that that foreign country has made such provisions (if any) as it appears to Her Majesty expedient to require for the protection of authors of works first produced in the United Kingdom.

5. Restriction on translation.—(1.) Where a work being a book or dramatic piece is first produced in a foreign country to which an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts applies, the author or publisher, as the case may be, shall, unless otherwise directed by the Order, have the same right of preventing the production in and importation into the United Kingdom of any translation not authorized by him of the said work as he has of preventing the production and importation of the original work.

(2.) Provided that if after the expiration of ten years, or any other term prescribed by the Order, next after the end of the year in which the work, or in the case of a book published in numbers each number of the book, was first produced, an authorized translation in the English language of such work or number has not been produced, the said right to prevent the production in and importation into the United Kingdom of an unauthorized translation of such work shall cease.

(3.) The law relating to copyright, including this Act, shall apply to a lawfully produced translation of a work in like manner as if it were an original work.

(4.) Such of the provisions of the International Copyright Act 1852, relating to translations as are unrepealed by this Act shall apply in like manner as if they were re-enacted in this section.

6. Application of Act to existing works.—Where an Order in Council is made under the International Copyright Acts with respect to any foreign country, the author and publisher of any literary or artistic work first produced before the date at which such Order comes into operation shall be entitled to the same rights and remedies as if the said Acts and this Act and the said Order had applied to the said foreign country at the date of the said production: Provided that where any person has before the date of the publication of an Order in Council lawfully produced any work in the United Kingdom, nothing in this section shall diminish or prejudice any rights or interests arising from or in connection with such production which are subsisting and valuable at the said date.

7. Evidence of foreign copyright.—Where it is necessary to prove the existence or proprietorship of the copyright of any work first produced in a foreign country to which an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts applies, an extract from a register, or a certificate, or other document stating the existence of the copyright, or the person who is the proprietor of such copyright, or is for the purpose of any legal proceedings in the United Kingdom deemed to be entitled to such copyright, if authenticated by the official seal of a Minister of State of the said foreign country, or by the official seal or the signature of a British diplomatic or consular officer acting in such country, shall be admissible as evidence of the facts named therein, and all courts shall take judicial notice of every such official seal and signature as is in this section mentioned, and shall admit in evidence, without proof, the documents authenticated by it.

No. 117.—OCTOBER 29, 1886.—2.

8. Application of Copyright Acts to colonies.—(1.) The Copyright Acts shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, apply to a literary or artistic work first produced in a British possession in like manner as they apply to a work first produced in the United Kingdom:—

Provided that—

(a.) the enactments respecting the registry of the copyright in such work shall not apply if the law of such possession provides for the registration of such copyright: and

(b.) where such work is a book the delivery to any persons or body of persons of a copy of any such work shall not be required.

(2.) Where a register of copyright in books is kept under the authority of the Government of a British possession, an extract from that register purporting to be certified as a true copy by the officer keeping it, and authenticated by the public seal of the British possession, or by the official seal or the signature of the Governor of a British possession, or of a Colonial Secretary, or of some secretary or Minister administering a department of the Government of a British possession, shall be admissible in evidence of the contents of that register, and all courts shall take judicial notice of every such seal and signature, and shall admit in evidence, without further proof, all documents authenticated by it.

(3.) Where before the passing of this Act an Act or ordinance has been passed in any British possession respecting copyright in any literary or artistic works, Her Majesty in Council may make an Order modifying the Copyright Acts and this Act, so far as they apply to such British possession, and to literary and artistic works first produced therein, in such manner as to Her Majesty in Council seems expedient.

(4.) Nothing in the Copyright Acts or this Act shall prevent the passing in a British possession of any Act or ordinance respecting the copyright within the limits of such possession of works first produced in that possession.

9. Application of International Copyright Acts to colonies.—Where it appears to Her Majesty expedient that an Order in Council under the International Copyright Acts made after the passing of this Act as respects any foreign country, should not apply to any British possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by the same or any other Order in Council to declare that such Order and the International Copyright Act and this Act shall not, and the same shall not, apply to such British possession, except so far as is necessary for preventing any prejudice to any rights acquired previously to the date of such Order; and the expressions in the said Acts relating to Her Majesty's dominions shall be construed accordingly; but save as provided by such declaration the said Acts and this Act shall apply to every British possession as if it were part of the United Kingdom.

10. Making of Orders in Council.—(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to make Orders in Council for the purposes of the International Copyright Acts and this Act, for revoking or altering any Order in Council previously made in pursuance of the said Acts, or any of them.

(2.) Any such Order in Council shall not affect prejudicially any rights acquired or accrued at the date of such Order coming into operation, and shall provide for the protection of such rights.

11. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression "literary and artistic work" means every book, print, lithograph, article of sculpture, dramatic piece, musical composition, painting, drawing, photograph, and other work of literature and art to which the Copyright Acts or the International Copyright Acts, as the case requires, extend.

The expressions "performed" and "performance" and similar words include representation and similar words.

The expression "produced" means, as the case requires, published or made, or performed or represented, and the expression "production" is to be construed accordingly.

The expression "book published in numbers" includes any review, magazine, periodical work, work published in a series of books or parts, transactions of a society or body, and other books of which different volumes or parts are published at different times.

12. Repeal of Acts.—The Acts specified in the Third Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed as from the passing of this Act to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned:

Provided as follows:—

(a.) Where an Order in Council has been made before the passing of this Act under the said Acts as respects any foreign country the enactments hereby repealed shall continue in full force as respects that country until the said Order is revoked.

An Act to regulate and restrict Chinese Immigration.
[Assented to, 28th July 1886.]

¶ Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient to regulate and restrict the immigration and introduction of Chinese into Western Australia: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. Interpretation.—For the purposes of this Act, the following words in inverted commas shall, unless the context otherwise indicate, bear the meanings set against them respectively:—

“Chinese.”—Any native of China or its dependencies, or of any island in the Chinese Seas, not born of British parents, or any person born of Chinese parents.

“Vessel.”—Any ship or other sea-going vessel, of whatsoever kind or description.

“Master.”—The person, other than a pilot, for the time being in actual command of any such vessel.

2. Master on arrival to give list of Chinese on board.—The master of every vessel having Chinese on board shall immediately on his arrival from beyond this colony in any port of the colony, and before making any entry at the Customs, deliver to the collector or other principal officer of Customs a list of such Chinese, specifying the name, place of birth, the apparent age, the ordinary place of residence, the place and date of shipment, and the calling or occupation of each such Chinese. And for each default herein, such master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Two hundred pounds.

3. Number of Chinese ships may carry—Penalty.—If any vessel shall arrive in any port in this colony having on board a greater number of Chinese passengers for any port in the colony than in the proportion of one to every fifty tons of the tonnage of such vessel, according to the registry thereof if British, and if not, then according to the measurement defined by The Merchant Shipping Act 1854, the owner, charterer, and master of such vessel shall each be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds for each Chinese passenger so carried in excess.

4. £10 to be paid for each Chinese arriving by vessel.—Before any Chinese arriving from beyond this colony shall be permitted to land from any vessel, and before making any entry at the Customs, the master of the vessel shall pay to such collector or other principal officer the sum of Ten pounds for every such Chinese, to be applied in manner hereinafter provided; and no entry shall be deemed to have been legally made or to have any legal effect until such payment shall have been made.

Penalty.—And if any master shall neglect to pay any such sum, or shall land, or permit to land, or suffer to land or to escape from such vessel at any port or place in the colony any Chinese, before such sum shall have been paid by such master or his agent, or before such list shall have been delivered, such master shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding Fifty pounds for each Chinese so landed, or permitted or suffered to land or to escape, and in addition to such penalty shall also pay the sum hereby required to be paid for each such Chinese.

And in every such case, in addition to any such penalty, the vessel shall be forfeited and may be seized, condemned, and disposed of in like manner as ships forfeited for a breach of any law relating to the Customs.

5. Like sum for Chinese arriving otherwise.—Every Chinese arriving in this colony after the passing of this Act, otherwise than by any vessel, shall pay, or there shall be paid for him to some officer whom, and at such places as the Governor in Council may appoint at or near the borders of the colony or otherwise conveniently situated for that purpose, the sum of Ten pounds.

6. Certificate of sum paid to be given and to be evidence.—The Collector or other officer receiving such sum from or for any Chinese shall, without demand, forthwith give a certificate in writing under his hand of the payment of such sum, and such certificate whensoever and wheresoever produced by such Chinese shall be conclusive evidence on behalf of such Chinese, and of any other person who may have paid such sum for him, that such sum has been duly paid.

7. Application of moneys.—All sums paid by or on behalf of any Chinese, and all penalties under this Act, and all moneys being the proceeds of any sale made under the authority of this Act, shall, unless herein otherwise provided, be paid over to the Colonial Treasurer for the public use of the Colony.

8. Penalty on non-payment of fee for entrance to the Colony.—If any Chinese shall enter or attempt to enter this Colony without paying or having paid for him the sum of Ten pounds aforesaid, he shall, besides such sum, be liable to a penalty not exceeding Twenty pounds, and on default of payment either of such penalty or sum shall, on summary conviction before two or more justices of the peace, be liable to imprisonment for twelve months, unless such penalty and sum be sooner paid, and may be apprehended and taken before any justice of the peace, to be dealt with in due course of law.

9. Evidence of person being a Chinese.—For the purposes of all proceedings under this Act the justices may decide, upon their own view any judgment, whether any person charged or produced before them is a Chinese within the meaning of this Act.

10. Certificate of exemption in certain cases.—It shall be lawful for the Colonial Treasurer or any person authorized by him, upon the application of any Chinese, and upon being satisfied that such Chinese was at the time of the passing of this Act a bona fide resident of this colony, and that he desires to be absent therefrom for a temporary purpose only, to grant to such Chinese a certificate that he is exempt from the provisions of this Act for a time to be specified in such certificate. And during the time so specified the holder of such certificate shall be exempt from all payments under this Act.

11. British subjects exempted.—Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, any Chinese arriving in Western Australia who produces evidence to the satisfaction of the Collector or other principal officer of Customs or other duly authorized officer that he is a British subject shall be wholly exempt from the operation of this Act, and a certificate of the Governor of any British colony, or of a British Consul, shall, on being verified to the satisfaction of such Collector or other officer, be sufficient evidence of the claim of such Chinese to exemption under this section.

12. Exemption of certain officials, &c.—The provisions of this Act shall not be applicable to any Chinese duly accredited to this colony by the Government of China, or by or under the authority of the Imperial Government, on any special mission, nor to any “laborer” within the meaning of The Imported Labor Registry Act 1884 brought into the colony under the provisions of that Act.

13. Act not to apply to crew.—The penalties and restrictions imposed by this Act shall not nor shall any of them be held to be applicable in respect of any Chinese being one of the crew of any vessel arriving in any port in Western Australia, and who shall not be discharged therefrom or land except in the performance of his duties in connexion with such vessel.

14. Rules and Regulations.—The Governor in Council may make such Rules and Regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act.

15. Burden of proof.—For the purposes of any proceeding under the provisions of this Act, the burden shall lie on the defendant of proving that he is exempt from the operation of any of such provisions, and it shall not be necessary in any information, complaint, summons, or conviction, or other document, to state or negative any exception in or exemption under this Act.

16. Collector or Sub-Collector of Customs may detain vessel in certain cases—Such detention to cease on security being given—On default by master in payment of penalties, &c., vessel may be seized and sold—Proceeds of sale how dealt with.—It shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs or any Sub-Collector of Customs, by writing under his hand, to authorize any Customs or Police officer to detain any vessel the master whereof shall, in the opinion of such Collector or Sub-Collector, have committed an offence or be a defaulter under this Act. Such detention may be either at the port or place where such vessel is found or at any port or place to which the Collector or Sub-Collector may order such vessel to be brought. For the purposes of such detention the officer so authorized shall be entitled to obtain in the customary manner such writ of assistance or other aid and assistance in and about the detention of or other lawful dealing with such vessel as are by law provided under the Ordinances and Acts regulating the Customs with reference to seizure of vessels or goods. But such detention shall be for safe custody only, and shall cease and be discontinued if a bond with two sufficient sureties be given by such master for the payment of the amount of such penalty or penalties and costs as may be adjudged to be paid, and such other sums as he shall be liable to pay under the provisions of this Act. Provided that if default be made in payment of any penalty incurred by such master in terms of any conviction adjudging the payment thereof, or if default shall be made by such master in payment of any other sum or sums which he shall be liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for such officer to seize such vessel, and for him and any other person duly authorized or empowered in that behalf to take all such proceedings for the purpose of procuring the condemnation and sale of such vessel as are provided by law in case of condemnation or forfeiture of a vessel for a breach of the Customs laws of the said colony. Provided that the proceeds of sale of any such vessel shall be paid to the Colonial Treasurer of the colony for the public use thereof; and after payment of the amount of such penalty or penalties and of all sums which such master shall be liable to pay under the provisions of this Act, and of all costs and expenses incurred in and about such sale and the proceedings leading thereto by virtue of this section, the balance shall be placed by the Colonial Treasurer to a trust account and be held in trust for the owners of or other persons lawfully entitled to the vessel so condemned and sold.

17. Chinese transhipped from one vessel to another.—Any vessel on board with Chinese shall be transhipped from another vessel and be brought to any port or place in this colony shall be deemed to be a vessel bringing Chinese into the said colony from parts beyond the colony, and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act, and all Chinese so transhipped and brought to such port or place shall be deemed to be Chinese arriving from parts beyond Western Australia.

18. Penalties, &c., how recoverable.—All sums of money payable under this Act and all penalties imposed by this Act may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered before two or more justices of the peace in petty sessions, in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinances and Acts regulating proceedings on summary conviction, in the name of some officer of Customs or other person thereunto authorized by the Governor.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

The births and deaths in Melbourne and suburbs, together with the mean temperature in the shade, and the mean atmospheric pressure, during the month of September of each of the ten years 1876-1885 were as follow:—

The births of 1,162 children, viz., 605 boys and 557 girls, were registered in Melbourne and suburbs during the month of September. In the month of August, 1,172 births were registered, or 10 more than in the month under review. The births were 336 above the average of the month during the previous ten years, but only 159 above that average, if allowance be made for the increase of population.

The deaths registered in September numbered 529, viz., 300 of males and 229 of females; the births thus exceeded the deaths by 633, or 120 per cent. The deaths were fewer than those in August by 35, but exceeded the average of September during the previous ten years by 128. If, however, allowance be made for the increase of population, they will be found to have exceeded that average by only 42.

To every 1,000 of the population of the district the proportion of births registered was 3.36, and of deaths registered 1.53.

The highest temperature in the shade recorded at Melbourne Observatory during the month was 78.9° on the 30th, and the lowest was 36.6° on the 12th. The mean temperature of the month (55.5°) was 2 degrees above the average. The greatest range of the thermometer in any one day (32.2°) took place on the 12th, viz., from a maximum of 68.8° to a minimum of 36.6°. The least range (8.9°) was on the 6th, viz., from a maximum of 59.9° to a minimum of 51.0°. The mean daily range was 19.7°. The highest atmospheric pressure recorded was 30.460° on the 15th, and the lowest was 29.123° on the 6th. The mean atmospheric pressure (29.961 inches) was slightly below the average.

Rain fell on 10 days, the amount of rainfall being 1.3 inch. The average rainfall in September during the previous ten years was 2.2 inches, or nine-tenths of an inch above that in the month under review.

Fog occurred on one day during the month.

Males contributed 57 per cent., and females 43 per cent., to the mortality of the month. Children under 5 years of age contributed 34 per cent. to that mortality, as against 27 per cent. in September 1885, 38 per cent. in September 1884, 32 per cent. in September 1883, 33 per cent. in September 1882, 28 per cent. in September 1881, 36 per cent. in September 1880, 31 per cent. in September 1879, 30 per cent. in September 1878, 38 per cent. in September 1877, and 28 per cent. in September 1876.

CONDITIONS OF SALE OF THE RIGHT TO LEASE FOR PASTORAL ALLOTMENTS.

- The occupation of the pastoral allotments will be offered for sale at the annual rents respectively stated and annexed to the description thereof, and the bidder of the highest sum by way of premium will be declared the purchaser, provided he shall immediately pay down such sum and sign the description hereunto annexed, of the pastoral allotment of the occupation of which he shall have become the purchaser, thereby binding himself to the observance of the above and following conditions; and in default of such payment being immediately made the pastoral allotment shall again be forthwith put up to auction.

If upon the report to the Governor in Council by the referee, made under the said clause 26 of the Regulations in the Second Schedule of the said Act, the Governor in Council shall, as such sole judge, determine that there has been any failure of, or compliance with, or that any breach of any of the requirements contained in this Order has occurred, by way either of commission or omission, then the powers conferred by this Order shall be forfeited, or shall cease and determine, or shall be suspended, as the Governor in Council shall direct; and in the case of the Governor in Council ordering a suspension only of such powers, then the Governor in Council shall, in his adjudication, state for what period such suspension shall take effect.

If, in such adjudication, the Governor in Council shall determine that the powers conferred by this Order shall be forfeited, or shall wholly cease and determine, then the Council of the said Municipality of the Shire of Coburg shall forthwith proceed to restore the streets along which the said route is laid out to the condition previous to the construction of said tramway, unless the Governor in Council otherwise order.

That, in the event of the Council of the said Municipality finding it necessary to provide work of a more substantial or expensive character than the work provided for in this Order, the Council of the said Municipality shall take upon itself all such additional expenditure, and no claim whatever shall be made upon the Government, or upon the Board of Land and Works, for any pecuniary assistance or aid in respect of such expenditure, or to provide funds therefor.

TENDERS INVITED FOR MOUNT ARAPILES TIMBER RESERVE, PARISH OF ARAPILES, SHIRE OF WIMMERA, UNDER GRAZING LICENSE, WITH BONUS FOR DESTRUCTION OF RABBITS.

NOTICE.—Tenders are hereby invited from persons desirous of taking out a grazing license for the above land, subject to a bonus being paid by this Department for the destruction of rabbits thereon. Area about 3,000 acres.

1. The license will be issued under section 119 of The Land Act 1884, and be subject to the following conditions:—

Conditions:—

(a.) The issue of this license shall not prevent the land comprised therein, or any part or parts thereof, being sold, leased, licensed, alienated, or dealt with under any of the provisions of The Land Act 1884, except under the 119th section thereof, under which the license is issued, or being resumed by order of the Governor or Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, for any of the purposes for which land may be reserved under section 10 of The Land Act 1884, or for mining purposes.

(b.) No licensee shall, in case of any resumption, be entitled to any compensation other than the return of such portion of the fee paid by him as the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering Part XI. of The Land Act 1884 may think fit. This license is also subject to the rights of the holders of miners' rights or of mining leases now issued or hereafter to be issued to enter upon the allotment hereby licensed, and to search for gold, and to mine therein, and to erect and occupy mining plant and machinery, without making any compensation for surface or other damage.

(c.) No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the land comprised in this license shall be deemed within its operation.

(d.) This license entitles the holder thereof, during the period for which it is granted, to use the land therein comprised for depasturing purposes only, but does not confer any right to build thereon, or to cultivate any portion thereof.

(e.) The interest in this license may not be transferred without the consent of the Minister aforesaid and the payment of a fee of £1.

(f.) This license is to be used under and in accordance with the regulations made or to be made under the provisions of the said Act and for the time being in force.

(g.) This license may be forfeited if the licensee commit a breach or neglect to comply with any of these conditions.

(h.) The publication of a notice in the Government Gazette purporting to declare that the Governor or Administrator, with the advice aforesaid, has forfeited this license shall be conclusive evidence that the license is forfeited.

2. The licensee must carefully protect all growing timber on the land, and is prohibited from ringing, felling, or in any way destroying same.

3. The term for which the land will be let is seven years from 1st January 1887.

4. The annual rent will be £20 payable yearly in advance.

5. The successful tenderer will be the licensee, and as such entitled to fence the land with a rabbit-proof fence, and to graze cattle, sheep, or horses over the said land; and liable under the provisions of the Rabbit Suppression Acts to all the pains and penalties thereof.

6. The tenderer must state the sum per annum for which he will undertake to destroy the rabbits on the land, and to keep the whole of the said land clear of the pests to the satisfaction of the Shire Council's Rabbit Inspector and the Inspector appointed by the Minister of Lands and Agriculture.

7. The Department will pay, annually, 75 per cent. of the annual amount of the contract only on the certificate of the Shire Council's Rabbit Inspector and the Inspector appointed by the Minister of Lands and Agriculture that the provisions of The Rabbit Suppression Act have been strictly carried out during the year, and the pests satisfactorily destroyed; the balance of the amount of the contract will be paid on termination of the seven years, subject to certificates from before-mentioned persons that the contract has been satisfactorily carried out and completed.

8. In the event of the licensee failing to destroy the pests and keep the land clear to the satisfaction of the two inspectors before mentioned, the licensee will be liable to immediate revocation, and the licensee to forfeit all rents paid, and all claim to the annual amount, or part thereof, which would have been payable had he satisfactorily carried out the conditions of tender.

9. In the event of any holder of adjoining land making complaint to this Department that the rabbits are not being satisfactorily destroyed, or the land cleared of the pests, and that the complainant's land is suffering any damage from rabbits coming from this reserve owing to the negligence of the licensee, or the insufficient means adopted by him to clear the land, the said licensee will be notified of such complaint, and called upon to prove to the satisfaction of the before-mentioned inspectors that he has faithfully complied with the conditions of this tender. If he fail to do this, he may be allowed a period of three months from the date of the above inspectors' report in which to complete the work satisfactorily, or if, in the opinion of the said inspectors, he is not deserving of this concession, the license may be at once revoked, and the rent paid and portion of bonus forfeited, same as provided for in latter part of condition 8.

10. Before any tender is finally accepted, the tenderer must furnish this Department with satisfactory evidence of his bona fides, and that he is in a position to comply with the condition of tender.

11. No restriction as to the means to be adopted or the materials to be used for the destruction of the rabbits, or for the clearing of the land from the pests, will be insisted on.

12. In the event of the licensee erecting a rabbit-proof fence around the land, the Department reserves to itself the right either to allow the licensee to remove the said fence on the termination of the contract, or to purchase the same at a price to be agreed upon.

13. The amount (£20) of the first year's license fee, together with 5s. for preparation of the license, must be forwarded within seven days from the notification that tender has been accepted.

14. The lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

15. The tenders will be received up to Noon on Tuesday the 30th November 1886, and must be addressed to the Secretary for Lands, Lands Department, Melbourne, and endorsed "Tender for right to graze the Mount Arapiles Timber Reserve."

16. The successful tenderer will be notified by letter of the acceptance of his tender.

17. The following undertaking must be signed by the successful tenderer:—
