rules and regulations made by the Governor in Council in pursuance of the said Act in that behalf; and that no objections to the said application have been lodged within the time provided in the said rules, and being satisfied also that it is expedient and proper that the said application should be granted, has determined to grant the same subject to the restrictions and conditions hereinafter contained. Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, doth, for the purpose aforesaid, make the Order following, that is to say:—That the Council of the Municipality of the Shire of Flinders and Kangerong shall be, and is hereby authorized to construct a tramway in the Municipal District of the Shire of Flinders and Kangerong.

Motive power.—That the motive power to be used upon the said tramway shall be steam or horses.

Maximum speed.—That the maximum speed of the progression of the cars upon the said tramway shall be ten (10) miles in the hour.

If upon the report to the Governor in Council by the referee made under the said clause 26 of the Regulations in the Second Schedule of the said Act, the Governor in Council shall, as such sole judge, determine that there has been any failure of or compliance with or that any breach of any of the requirements contained in this Order has occurred, by way either of commission or omission, then the powers conferred by this Order shall be forfeited, or shall cease and determine, or shall be suspended, as the Governor in Council shall direct; and in the case of the Governor in Council ordering a suspension only of such powers, then the Governor in Council shall, in his adjudication, state for what period such suspension shall take effect.

PROSPECTUS OF THE BALLARAT TRUSTEES, EXECUTORS, AND AGENCY CO. (LIMITED).

TO be incorporated under the Companies Statute 1864, limiting the liability of shareholders to the amount of their shares. Capital: £100,000, in 40,000 shares of £2 10s. each, with power to increase to 100,000 shares of £2 10s. each—equal to £250,000. The first issue will be 20,000 shares, upon which it is proposed to call up 15s. per share, as follows:—2s. 6d. per share on application, 2s. 6d. per share on allotment, and the remainder at 3, 6, 9, and 12 months, making a total capital of £15,000 to be called up during the first year; £10,000 of which will be invested in Government debentures as a guarantee fund.

Directors: Thomas D. Wanliss, Esq., A. M. Greenfield, Esq., J.P., Alex. White, Esq., James Coghlan, Esq., J.P., Thomas Stoddart, Esq., J. Noble Wilson, Esq., J.P., Managing Director. Bankers: the Commercial Bank of Australia Limited. Solicitors: Messrs. Mitchell, Nevett, and Robinson.

The remarkable success of Trustees and Executors Companies, wherever they have been formed, is a convincing proof of their suitability for the work they undertake. It is indeed now commonly admitted that the highly important and responsible duties of trustees and executors can be best carried out by a company whose stability is beyond question, whose actions are guided by men of position and prudence, and whose capital (a large portion of which invested, as it must be, in State bonds) forms a guarantee that no estate can suffer pecuniary loss. Such a company is, moreover, the best trustee, because it has perpetual succession. Unlike a private individual, it cannot vacate its place, and being closely scrutinised by the public, and managed by men possessing the confidence and respect of the public, its integrity and fitness is beyond doubt or cavil.

The Ballarat Trustees, Executors, and Agency Company is formed for the following purposes:—

1. To act as executors, administrators, and trustees. Persons appointing this company their executors may employ their own solicitors, and they may nominate a private friend or friends to act with the company as joint executors, and may nominate any bank into which their funds shall be paid; and a testator may elect or name any solicitor he pleases to advise with the company in matters relating to his estate. The company will also, when requested, act jointly with any other trustee or any estate agent, and will generally do and act as directed by the persons employing them.
2. To act as trustee under marriage or other settlements or deeds of trust.
3. To manage estates for minors or others whose estates may be under the direction and authority of the Supreme Court.
4. To relieve trustees, executors, or administrators of their responsibilities, and to act in their place and stead. There are many trustees who find the labour and responsibility of trusteeship to be so burdensome that they would gladly be relieved of their duties could they be sure that they had found a proper successor, and this company will relieve them of their risks and labours.
5. To act as agents for the management of property of absentees, &c. Those who want to leave the colony, or those who reside abroad, can nominate the company to act for them during their absence, under power of attorney, and anyone who lives in the colony and requires a responsible agent can appoint the company to manage their business. The company will sell or let houses or lands; will collect rents, dividends, interest, or debts; will buy or sell real or personal property; will negotiate loans on mortgage; will invest trust or other funds, or do anything within the scope of an estate agency. Surveys can be made when necessary to bring properties under the Lands Transfer Statute, or for subdivision of land into lots, and such lands can be sold by public auction or privately, as required.

6. To negotiate loans for public, municipal, or other corporate bodies, or for private individuals.

7. To act as receivers or committee of estates of lunatics.

In Melbourne several Trustees and Executors Companies have been formed, and the first company in the field has steadily advanced in public favour. Its shares, with £1 paid up, are now scarcely obtainable at £7 per share. In the Cape Colony, where Trustees Companies appear to have flourished for a number of years, they have become first-rate investments for shareholders. Indeed, such companies can scarcely fail of success. They are not required to run any risks in trading; and, with prudent management, their income must steadily advance year by year.

The Ballarat Trustees, Executors, and Agency Company is formed to meet the requirements of those in this wide district who prefer that their business should be managed locally, by men who are qualified to know the value of their property, and who are personally acquainted with the surroundings of every man's estate. The directors have made arrangements with Mr. J. Noble Wilson to take the position of managing director for a period of not less than five years, and to merge his own business into that of the Ballarat Trustees, Executors, and Agency Company; and as the transfer of Mr. Wilson's trust and agency business will leave the company in the receipt of an income sufficient to carry it on, except for the expense of forming the company, the directors think that there will be no need to call up more than 15s. per share for the first year, or until a good use can be found for a larger capital.

It is of the first importance to the stability of a company of this character that as few changes should be made in the management as is consistent with the fullest public confidence, and therefore the board of directors will act as a permanent body, removable only for special reasons, and vacancies in it will be filled in the manner provided by other companies formed for a similar purpose.

The charges to be made by the company will be upon a most moderate scale, and in no case will they exceed the charges made by other companies doing a similar kind of business.

The prospects of the Ballarat Trustees, Executors, and Agency Company are such as will commend themselves to the people of this district at once; most of the capital is, indeed, already offered, but the directors are desirous of having a large share list rather than a few large shareholders.

The business of the company will commence on the 1st January 1888, and will be conducted in the new premises built by Mr. Wilson, in Camp street, Ballarat.

Application for shares to be made to the Managing Director, Camp street, Ballarat, or to any recognized sharebroker.

The share list will be closed on 30th November, and the allotment will be made immediately afterwards. All shares in the company will rank equally—there will be no preferences of any kind.

Ballarat, 29th October 1887.
