PUBLIC AND BANK HOLIDAYS.—PROCLAMATION PARTLY REVOKED.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Sir HENRY BROUGHAM LOCH, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Colony of Victoria and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by The Public Service Act 1833 it was amongst other things enacted that the Governor in Council might, by Proclamation in the Government Gazette, appoint, in addition to certain specified days, any other day or days to be kept as Public Holidays: And whereas by The Bank Holidays Act 1873 it was amongst other things enacted that the Governor might from time to time, as he might think fit by Proclamation, appoint a special day to be observed as a Bank Holiday either throughout Victoria or in any part thereof: And whereas by a Proclamation under the hand of the Governor and seal of the colony, bearing date the twenty-second day of August One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and made in pursuance of the said Acts, the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, did proclaim certain days to be kept as Public and Bank Holidays: And whereas it is expedient to revoke in part the said Proclamation: Now therefore I, the Governor of Victoria, by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, do hereby revoke the said Proclamation bearing date the twenty-second day of August One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, so far only as the same relates to Saturday the seventeenth day of September instant being observed as a Bank Holiday at Dunkeld and Panshurst.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Colony, at Melbourne, this fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and in the fifty-first year of Her Majesty's reign.

(L.S.)

HENRY B. LOCH.

By His Excellency's Command,

ALFRED DEAKIN,
Chief Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
