NARRACAN SHIRE.

PROPOSED SEVERANCE OF AREA AND CONSTITUTION OF NEW SHIRE.

IN pursuance of the provisions of the Local Government Act 1874 (No. 506, sec. 46), the substance and prayer of a Petition, in accordance with the 44th section of the said Act, which has been presented to His Excellency the Governor, are published, viz.:-

The petitioners purport to constitute a majority of the rate-payers in the portion of the Shire of Narracan which is described in their petition, and they desire that the area so described may be severed from the Shire of Narracan, and constituted a new shire under the name or title of "The Shire of Woorayl."

Area described in the petition :-

The South Riding.

Petitioners state that the interests of the district urgently demand that a new shire should be formed, that the valuation of the area sought to be severed is £15,730, the numbers of persons assessed being 495, holding upwards of 95,072 acres, and in the natural progress of events a very large and constant annual increase therein must take place.

Petitioners therefore pray that the area above described be severed from the Shire of Narracan and constituted a separate municipality, to be named the "Woorayl;" that the number of councillors be six (6), and that the shire be subdivided into two ridings.

Notices for the petitioners may be served on Mr. Charles Ogilvy, Mirboo North.

SHIRE OF HAMPDEN.—THE PORT CAMPBELL COMMON.

THE Governor in Council has approved of the subjoined regulations for the Port Campbell Common.

CHARLES H. PEARSON,
For the Commissioner of Crown Lands and Survey.
Lands and Survey Office, Melbourne.

SHIRE OF HAMPDEN.

Regulations for management of the Port Campbell Common within the Shire of Hampden.

In pursuance of the regulations relating to commons, made by the Governor in Council on the 17th day of March 1885, the Council of the Shire of Hampden, having drafted the following regulations for management of the above-mentioned common, submit the same for revision by the Board of Land and Works and approval by the Governor in Council.

REGULATIONS.

1. Ratepayers and holders of business licenses or carriers' licenses, and farmers residing within five miles of the common, may respectively depasture thereon four (4) head of large cattle, or the equivalent of the whole or a portion thereof in small cattle, on the basis that one (1) head of large cattle be deemed equivalent to three (3) head of small cattle. A farmer having under cultivation not less than one-tenth portion of the land occupied by him may depasture on the common one additional head of large cattle, or the equivalent in small cattle, for every ten acres of such land cultivated by him.

2. For the construction and for the purposes of these regulations, the words "large cattle" shall mean cows, heifers, oxen, steers, mares, geldings, colts, fillies, asses, and mules, and the words "small cattle" shall mean sheep and goats.

3. The scale of fees for depasturing cattle on the common shall be as follows, and shall be payable quarterly, in advance, on the first day of January, the first day of April, the first day of July, and the first day of October in every year:—

For every head of large cattle, two (2) shillings per quarter.

For every head of small cattle, eight (8) pence per quarter.

4. Sheep shall be allowed to depasture on such portions only of the common as the managers may set apart for that purpose.

5. At the commencement of each quarter, the herdsman shall call on all persons having cattle entered in the common books, and if the fees are not paid the cattle of such persons shall, within three days of such demand, be deemed to be trespassing on the common, and may be dealt with accordingly.

6. Every person desiring to depasture cattle on the common shall deliver a description of the same in writing, signed by the owner or some person on his behalf, to the herdsman of such common, who shall satisfy himself as to the correctness of the same, and give a receipt specifying their description and brands, and immediately afterwards the herdsman, assisted by the owner or some person on his behalf, shall brand the cattle with the common brand with tar or pitch.

7. No person other than the owner shall wilfully disturb or remove from the common any cattle depasturing thereon unless the consent in writing of the herdsman shall be first obtained.

8. The managers shall not be responsible for any loss or injury to any cattle depasturing on the common; but in the event of any cattle duly registered and all fees thereon paid being impounded in any pound, the herdsman shall pay one-half the pound fees.

9. Cattle affected with any contagious disease shall not be allowed to depasture on the common; and should any cattle become affected with such disease while depasturing on the common and registered in the common books, the herdsman shall give immediate notice in writing personally, or by delivering or causing the same to be delivered at the residence of the owner or owners of such cattle, that if the said cattle are not removed from the common within twenty-four hours from the time of delivery of such notice the owner or owners of such cattle shall be liable for all expense incurred in the removal or destruction of such cattle. Cattle found on the common suffering from any contagious disease, and the owners thereof being unknown, shall be liable to be destroyed by the herdsman in the presence of one of the managers, and a written description of the cattle so destroyed, signed by the herdsman and witness, shall be forwarded to the constable in charge stationed nearest to the common on which the cattle have been destroyed.

10. If any cattle above the age of six months in respect of which commonage fees have not been paid be found depasturing on the common, such cattle shall be dealt with as trespassing thereon. Pigs and geese found trespassing on the common shall be dealt with according to law.

11. All complaints against the herdsman shall be made in writing to the President of the Shire of Hampden, and must set forth the nature of the charge, and be duly signed by the person aggrieved.

Every person offending against any of the foregoing regulations shall, on conviction before any justice, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds (£20) for each offence.

J. P. MACK, President.

DAVID HAMILTON, Secretary.

P. S. LANG—Witnessing Councillor.

The lock-ups at City Watch-House, Carlton, Collingwood, Fitzroy, Fitzroy North, Hotham Hill, King street, Little Bourke street, North Melbourne, Port Melbourne, Prahran, Richmond, St. Kilda, St. Kilda road, and South Melbourne are included in the contracts for the Melbourne District.

Samples of the whole of the above-mentioned articles can also be seen at the offices of the Secretary to the Tender Board.

The prices must be expressed, without alterations or erasures, in words as well as in figures, and the total amount of tender stated.

Printed forms of tender, showing the estimated monthly consumption, and conditions of contract, may be obtained from the Secretary to the Tender Board, Melbourne; and for the respective districts from the Receivers and Paymasters at Geelong, Ararat, Ballarat, Beechworth, Castlemaine, Maryborough, Sale, Sandhurst, and Portland; the Medical Superintendent, Lunatic Asylum, Sunbury; and the Inspector of Forests, Macedon, by whom also information will be afforded to persons tendering.

Security will be required, either in Government debentures, bank deposit-receipt, or cash deposit, as the tenderer may elect. The security is calculated at Ten per cent. on contracts under £1,000, and Five per cent. over that sum; and the preliminary deposit at Ten per cent. of the security; but no deviation will be allowed from the amounts above specified.

Bank deposit-receipts to be in favor of the Secretary, Tender Board.

Tenders must be accompanied by a preliminary deposit, as shown above, in bank notes, or a bank draft payable to the order of the Secretary to the Tender Board (cheques will in no case be received), which will be returned within ten days to unsuccessful tenderers on their application. Such deposit to be forfeited in the event of the successful tenderer failing to complete the security within the prescribed period.

The security must be completed and contract signed within ten days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the contract may be again advertised, or another tender accepted.

Tenderers failing to take up their accepted tenders will be disqualified from tendering for Government supplies for a period of twelve months.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

Tenders enclosed in a separate envelope, and having the words "Tender for at" (as the case may be) written thereon, must be deposited in the Tender-box at the Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne, or (if sent by post) must be prepaid, and addressed to the Chairman of the Tender Board, Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT.

1. All the articles are to be of the best quality of the several kinds, in the best condition, and to be delivered in sound packages, free from all charges for cartage, freight, &c.

2. Supplies for country stations for which no local contract may have been taken, or for which the contract has been terminated, may be ordered under the Melbourne contract.

3. Packages suitable for transport of goods supplied must be provided by the contractor free of expense, and the value of these packages, whether in bulk or otherwise, is to be included in the price demanded, except brandy casks, porter cases, hogheads, butter firkins, and soap boxes (not including fancy soaps), flour, meal, and potato bags, which will remain the property of the contractor, and only the actual net weight or quantity received will be paid for. The empties to be removed at the contractor's expense.

4. Bread.—A sample of the best ordinarily retailed to the public will be considered as a test loaf for first quality. Third quality (that issued to prisoners of the Crown) to be made of flour, fine sharps, the produce of prime, strong, thin-skinned, good colored wheat, to be perfectly free from coarse pollard or other offal.

5. Milk.—The milk must be fresh, pure, and of the best quality, and subject to test when required by the department. Should the supply prove to be not of contract quality, any expense incurred will be charged to the contractor.

6. Fresh meat is to be supplied in such proportions as may be required, and, when the quality admits, to be delivered in fore and hind quarters alternately, also buttocks only when ordered. When shins of beef form a portion of the supply, a fair proportion of the bone, not less than ten inches, must have been cut off. The sticking pieces must be removed from the fore quarters of beef.

7. Potatoes to be dry and free from dirt. Contractors to supply 105 lbs. of potatoes for each cental credited to them, and, in addition, to take back all rejected before being cooked.

8. The supplies coming under the head of Rations and Medical Comforts are to be delivered direct to the establishment entitled thereto on the written order of the officer in charge. All other supplies will be ordered by the head of department concerned.

9. The order issued by the head of department must accompany the goods, and the account is to be rendered simultaneously with the delivery of the supplies. For the supplies coming under the head of Rations and Medical Comforts, the account is to be rendered monthly for such quantities only as are issued, the difference between the supply and issue to be kept at the contractor's credit. Supplies not issued at the termination of the contract to be removed by the contractor. The rates or quantities quoted in the orders cannot be exceeded.

10. Should the contractor fail to supply any articles at the time mentioned in the order, they will be otherwise procured, and the expense over and above the contract price will be deducted from his account.

11. In the event of a difference of opinion between the contractor and the officer receiving the supplies as to the quality, the same to be decided, in cases where the article is not of a perishable nature, by a board of survey composed of persons named by the head of the department, and the decision of the board is to be considered final. In the event of the decision being against the contractor, the survey fees and expenses (if any) will be deducted as in clause 10.

12. If the board shall decide that the article is not of proper quality, it must be immediately replaced by the contractor; failing which it will be procured by the officer requiring it, and the expense charged as in clause 10.

13. In the case of supplies for lunatic asylums, it will also be competent for two or more of the official visitors, in conjunction with the medical superintendent, to reject any supplies that they may consider not in accordance with contract; and in such cases the reference to a board of survey will not be deemed to be necessary on the part of the contractor.

14. In the case of supplies for lunatic asylums, it will be competent for a board of survey, consisting of the medical superintendent (or, in his absence, of the deputy medical superintendent) and any two officers named by him, to examine and reject any supplies that may be objected to. It must be distinctly understood, however, that the contractor will have a right of appeal to the Treasurer of the colony for the time being; but pending such appeal, he must take back the rejected articles and at once supply others of approved quality; failing which, the supplies required may be obtained by the officer concerned, and the expense charged to the contractor.

15. As the exact quantity of any article of provisions which may be required cannot be stated, the estimate being approximate only, the Government will not be bound by the quantity stated in the schedule, but will be at liberty to order more or less, according to circumstances, and the contractor will be bound to supply the same as ordered.

16. In cases where the article is of a perishable nature, or when from some other cause injury would be sustained either by the persons to whom the rations are due or to the contractor in waiting for a board of survey, the head of the department, or officer in charge of the station, will have power to reject such article or articles as are obviously of inferior quality, it being understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing, and that the contractor must take back the rejected article and supply good in its stead; failing which, it will be obtained by the officer requiring it, and the expense charged as in clause 10.

17. A repetition of irregularity in the quantity or quality of the supplies, or of delay in delivery or replacing them when required, or refusal to execute orders, will subject the contractor, upon report from the Tender Board, to such mulct, not exceeding £50, as the said Treasurer may direct. It will also be in the power of the said Treasurer to terminate the contract forthwith and forfeit the whole or any part of the security.

18. When a contractor is required to make delivery of goods at a railway station for transmission by rail, he shall obtain a receipt for the goods in duplicate on the Stores and Transport consignment note, at the same time handing in a triplicate of the form as an authority for the carriers to act as agent for and charge the freight to the Stores and Transport Department. He shall as soon as possible, and not later than twenty-four hours thereafter, deliver at the Tender Board Offices the original, the duplicate to be retained by himself. Should the goods thus forwarded be rejected, the contractor must bear the cost of replacing such goods, for which service the departmental consignment note is not to be used. Any infringement of this condition may subject the contractor to such mulct as the Tender Board may recommend under clause 17 of these conditions.

19. Contractors are not at liberty to transfer their contracts under cover of power-of-attorney, coupled with an interest or otherwise, and no such transfer will be recognized by the Government.

20. It will be competent for the Secretary to the Tender Board on behalf of the Government, or the contractor on his own behalf, to terminate the contract, by giving, in writing, a notice of three full calendar months; it being understood that such notice can be given only from the first day of a month, and within the period for which the contract is made; and under no other circumstances will a contractor be permitted to abandon his contract. It will also be competent for the Secretary to the Tender Board to terminate the contract, without notice, for the breach or neglect of the same, or should there be reason to know that the contractor takes advantage of his contract to communicate improperly with a prisoner.

21. The contracts entered into under this notice are not to be considered as being broken, infringed, or vitiated by the importation of stores for the Government service, or by any contracts or purchases made by the Imperial Commissariat or Defence Department, or on account of other Governments, or for rabbit extirpation, or for supplies to the aborigines; or by the consumption of the produce or surplus stock of any Government establishment; or by any article being made at and supplied for the use of any Government establishment.

22. In the event of the contractor failing to carry on the contract, the contract security money will in that case be absolutely forfeited; and in addition the contractor will be held liable for any loss which the Government may sustain in consequence of such failure.

23. In the event of any alteration in the tariff affecting any of the items included in these contracts, the Government, or the contractor, as may be the case, will make a proportionate allowance by way of deduction from or increase of the price of the item so affected.

Treasurer.

Tenders must be accompanied by a bank draft payable to the order of the Secretary of the Tender Board, or by bank notes, for Ten per cent. of the amount of the security required (cheques will in no case be received), which will be returned within ten days to unsuccessful tenderers. Such deposit to be forfeited in the event of the successful tenderer failing to complete the security within the prescribed period.

The security must be completed and contract signed within ten days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the contract may be again advertised or another tender accepted.

Tenders must express the prices in words as well as in figures, and without alterations or erasures.

Tenderers failing to take up their accepted tenders will be disqualified from tendering for Government supplies for a period of twelve months.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

Tenders enclosed in a separate envelope, and having the words "Tender for Steam Coal at" written thereon, must be deposited in the Tender-box at the Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT.

1. The coal to be supplied must have been screened at the pit's mouth, and must be of the best quality; No other coal will be received.

2. The orders will be issued by the departments requiring the coal.

3. Coal to be delivered in such quantity as may be stated in the order.

4. The pit certificate to be produced upon request.

5. The contractor will be bound to deliver the coal for vessels into the ship's bunkers. (Dredges not included in this condition.)

6. When baskets are used in the delivery of coal, they are all to be of one size, and the contractor will be bound to tare the baskets when so required by the officer taking delivery. In other cases the contractor will be bound to satisfy the officer receiving that the weight or quantity is correct.

7. Coal to be put on board at a rate of not less than 10 (ten) tons per hour.

8. In the event of the officer ordering the coal not requiring the same to be put into the ship's bunkers, as required by condition No. 5, a rebate of 1s. per ton to be made by the contractor.

9. In the event of a difference of opinion between the contractor and the officer receiving the supply as to the quality, the same is to be decided by a board of survey, composed of persons named by the head of the department, and the decision of the board is to be considered as final.

10. If the board of survey shall decide that the coal is of inferior quality, the delay in delivering the quality specified in condition No. 1 will subject the contractor to a mulct assessed according to the actual loss sustained by such delay, and it will also be in the power of the Treasurer of the colony for the time being to terminate the contract forthwith.

11. Steam vessels are to be supplied with coal on demand. No more delay will be allowed than is sufficient to give the necessary orders and get the hulk or vessel alongside. Bad weather to be the only excuse. When there is not a necessity for an immediate supply, a day's notice will be given.

12. As soon as the orders shall have been completed, the contractor will be required to furnish his accounts in the prescribed form, with the order attached thereto, to the department supplied.

13. A repetition of irregularity in the quality or quantity of the supplies, or of delay in delivering or replacing them when required, or of refusal to execute orders, will subject the contractor to such mulct, not exceeding £50, as the said Treasurer may direct. It will also be in the power of the Treasurer, upon such repetition, to terminate the contract forthwith.

14. Contractors are not at liberty to transfer their contracts under cover of power-of-attorney, coupled with an interest or otherwise; and no such transfer will be recognised by the Government.

15. In the event of the contractor failing to carry on the contract, the contract security money will in that case be absolutely forfeited, and in addition the contractor will be held liable for any loss which the Government may sustain in consequence of such failure.

16. It will be also competent for the Secretary to the Tender Board on behalf of the Government, or the contractor on his own behalf, to terminate the contract, by giving, in writing, a notice of one month within the period for which the contract is made, and under no other circumstances will a contractor be permitted to abandon his contract.

17. The contracts entered into under this notice are not to be considered as being broken, infringed, or vitiated by any purchase of Welsh coal by the Defence Department for the use of torpedo boats.

18. In the event of any alteration in the tariff affecting any of the items included in these contracts, the Government or the contractor, as may be the case, will make a proportionate allowance by way of deduction from or increase of the price of the item so affected.

The firewood for Yarra Bend is to be tendered for at per ton weight of 2,240 lbs.

Printed forms of tender, giving estimates of the probable requirements, may be obtained from the Secretary to the Tender Board, Melbourne, the Receiver and Paymaster at Geelong, and the Medical Superintendent, Sunbury Asylum, by whom also any information or explanation will be afforded to persons tendering.

Security will be required in cash, Government debentures, or bank deposit-receipt, in favour of the Secretary, Tender Board.

The security is calculated at Ten per cent. upon contracts not exceeding £1,000, and at Five per cent. over that sum, but no deviation will be allowed from the amounts above stated.

Tenders must be accompanied by the preliminary deposit above mentioned in bank notes or a bank draft payable to the order of the Secretary of the Tender Board (cheques will in no case be received), which will be returned within ten days to unsuccessful tenderers. Such deposit to be forfeited in the event of the successful tenderer failing to complete the security within the prescribed period.

The security must be completed and contract signed within ten days of acceptance of the tender, failing which the contract may be again advertised or another tender accepted.

Tenders must express the prices in words as well as in figures, and without alterations or erasures.

Tenderers failing to take up their accepted tenders will be disqualified from tendering for Government supplies for a period of twelve months.

The Government will not necessarily accept the lowest or any tender.

Tenders, enclosed in a separate envelope, and having the words "Tender for Firewood or Charcoal at _____" (as the case may be) written thereon, must be deposited in the Tender-box at the Pay Office, Treasury, Melbourne.

CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT.

1. The firewood must consist of box, she-oak, red or white gum, or peppermint, and must be dry, perfectly sound, and of good burning quality. The charcoal must be made from redgum and be of the best quality, free from dirt or other impurities.

2. The orders will be issued by the departments requiring the supplies; and should an order not be complied with within forty-eight hours, it will be competent for the department concerned to purchase at the contractor's risk, and to deduct from the contractor's account the extra expense (if any) over and above the contract price.

3. The contractor for wood will be bound to place it in stacks for measurement on such ground as may be pointed out. The stacks are to be two feet wide by five feet high, with space between each stack for measuring; and the billets are all to lie the same way, viz., crossways of the stacks in the form of a cord, and are to be laid as closely and solidly as possible in the stack, and to the satisfaction of the officer receiving the supply. In case the firewood for Yarra Bend is required to be supplied at per ton weight, the contractor will be bound to weigh the wood upon the Asylum weigh-bridge. Each load to be tared separately. The weigh-bridge ticket to be rendered in support of the account. Firewood, when ordered by weight, is not to be stacked by the contractor, but it must be deposited on such ground as may be pointed out.

4. As soon as the orders shall have been completed, the contractor will be required to furnish his account in the prescribed form, with the order attached thereto, to the department supplied. Accounts will be payable at the Treasury, Melbourne, Ballarat, or Geelong, as the contractor may require.

5. In the event of a difference of opinion between the contractor and the officer receiving the supply as to the quality, the same is to be decided by a board of survey, composed of persons named by the head of the department, and the decision of the board is to be considered as final.

6. If the board shall decide that the article is not of proper quality, it must be immediately replaced by the contractor, failing which it will be procured elsewhere, and the extra expense (if any) will be deducted from the contractor's account.

7. If from any cause injury would accrue to the public service by waiting for a board of survey, the head of the department, or officer in charge of station, will have the power to reject such articles as are obviously of inferior quality, it being understood that he will be responsible to the Government for so doing; and the contractor must take back the rejected article, and supply good in its stead, failing which it will be procured elsewhere, and the extra expense, if any, will be charged, as in condition 6.

8. A repetition of irregularity in the quality or quantity of the supplies, or of delay in delivering or replacing them when required, or of refusal to execute orders, will subject the contractor to such mulet not exceeding £50 as the Treasurer of the colony for the time being may direct. It will also be in the power of the said Treasurer, upon such repetition, to terminate the contract forthwith.

9. Contractors are not at liberty to transfer their contracts under cover of power-of-attorney, coupled with an interest or otherwise; and no such transfer will be recognised by the Government.

10. In the event of the contractor failing to carry on the contract, the contract security money will in that case be absolutely forfeited, and in addition the contractor will be held liable for any loss which the Government may sustain in consequence of such failure.

11. It will be competent for the Secretary to the Tender Board on behalf of the Government, or the contractor for firewood or charcoal on his own behalf, to terminate the contract, by giving, in writing, a notice of three full calendar months; it being understood that such notice can be given only from the first day of a month, and within the period for which the contract is made.

TENDERS FOR GRAZING LANDS.

Tenders must be sent in on proper form, which can be obtained on application to the Lands Department, Melbourne, or any of the Survey Offices in the country.

Tenders must be placed in the Crown Lands Office Tender-box not later than Twelve noon on Tuesday, 1st May 1888.

NOTE.—The fee for the period from 1st May 1888 to 31st December 1888, and fee of Five shillings for license, must accompany each tender.

TENDERS will be received by the Board of Land and Works, up to Noon of Tuesday, 1st May 1888, for the occupation for Grazing purposes only of the following unappropriated portions of land, subject to the Regulations approved by the Governor in Council and also the subjoined special conditions.

Every license granted under section 119 of The Land Act 1884 shall be subject to the conditions set forth in the schedule hereto, and to such special conditions and payment in advance of such fee as the Minister may determine, and shall be issued by an officer of the Department of Lands and Survey duly authorized in that behalf.

Under sections 3 and 4 of The Rabbit Suppression Act Amendment Act 1884, all licensees under the section for which these licenses will issue are liable for the destruction of rabbits within the boundaries of their licenses.

Conditions:

1. The issue of this license shall not prevent the land comprised therein, or any part or parts thereof, being sold, leased, licensed, alienated, or dealt with under any of the provisions of The Land Act 1884, except under the 119th section thereof, under which the license is issued, or being resumed by order of the Governor or Administrator of the Government of Victoria, with the advice of the Executive Council, for any of the purposes for which land may be reserved under section 10 of The Land Act 1884, or for mining purposes.

2. In case the said land, or any part or parts thereof, shall be sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid, the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation other than the return of such portion of his license fee paid by him as the responsible Minister of the Crown for the time being administering Part XI. of The Land Act 1884 may think fit. This license is also subject to the rights of the holders of miners' rights or of mining leases now issued or hereafter to be issued to enter upon the allotment hereby licensed, and to search for gold, and to mine therein, and to erect and occupy mining plant and machinery, without making any compensation for surface or other damage.

2A. Subject to these conditions, the licensee shall be entitled to use the land for the purposes for which the license has been granted, until notice has been given in the Government Gazette that such land, or any part thereof, has been sold, leased, licensed, alienated, dealt with, or resumed as aforesaid; and, immediately upon such notice being given, all the interest of the licensee in the licensed land described in such notice shall cease and be determined, and any person entitled to occupy the licensed land, or any part thereof, may lawfully make entry upon and hold the same, without the permission or sanction of the licensee, or any one claiming under her, him, or them.

3. No land comprised in roads from time to time surveyed and marked out within the boundaries of the land comprised in this license shall be deemed within its operation.

4. This license entitles the holder thereof, during the period for which it is granted, to use the land therein comprised for depasturing purposes only, but does not confer any right to build thereon, or to cultivate, or to fence any portion thereof.

5. If the licensee desire a renewal of this license, notice to that effect must be given to the responsible Minister aforesaid one month prior to the expiration thereof, but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to confer the right to any renewal.

6. The interest in this license may not be transferred without the consent of the Minister aforesaid and the payment of a fee of £1.

7. No claim whatever shall be made or entertained by reason of the license not being renewed or transferred.

8. This license is to be used under and in accordance with the regulations made or to be made under the provisions of the said Act and for the time being in force.

9. This license may be forfeited if the licensee commit a breach of or neglect to comply with any of these conditions.

10. The publication of a notice in the Government Gazette purporting to declare that the Governor or Administrator, with the advice aforesaid, has forfeited this license, shall be conclusive evidence that the license is forfeited.

Special Conditions :

1. The period of occupation will be from 1st May 1888 to 31st December 1888.
 2. The license fee must be paid in advance. The fee for the period from 1st May 1888 to 31st December 1888—for which the license will be issued—must accompany the tender, or be paid by the successful tenderer or his agent immediately on the declaration of the acceptance of the tender, otherwise the offer of the next highest tenderer who may be prepared to comply with this condition may be accepted.
 3. Tenders to be for so much per lot and block per annum.
 4. Separate tenders must be lodged for each block.
 5. Tenders to be endorsed "Tender for Lot 1, Block 727," or "Lot 2, Block 746," or "Lot 3, Block 2132," as the case may be.
 6. The highest or any tender not necessarily accepted.
 7. Tenderers must give their full name and ordinary postal address.

BOROUGH OF ESSENDON.

REGULATION No. 7.

A Regulation of the borough of Essendon, made under the first section of part five of the thirteenth schedule to the "Local Government Act 1874," in force in the borough by virtue of a bye-law of the above-named borough, numbered 12, for regulating the distance from any other building at which it shall be lawful to construct any building; and also the height, thickness, construction or materials of the party-walls of buildings adjoining each other, and of the external walls of buildings and of chimneys and the materials for and mode of enclosing the same, and for appointing the fees which may be charged and received on account of the municipal fund by the proper officer of the Council for any inspection, superintendence, or other service made or performed by him under any such regulation as aforesaid.

IN pursuance of the Local Government Act 1874, the mayor, councillors, and burgesses of the borough of Essendon make the regulations following, viz.:

First Schedule.

AS TO BUILDINGS.

Rules for determining the classes and rates to which buildings are to be deemed to belong for the purposes of these regulations, and the thickness of the walls of buildings of such rates.

CLASSES OF BUILDINGS.

1. For the purposes of these regulations all buildings, of whatever kind, subject to the provisions hereof, are to be deemed to belong to one or other of the following three classes, that is to say:—

2. First class.—If a building be built originally as a dwelling-house, or for an office, or suites or sets of chambers or offices, or be occupied, or intended to be occupied as such, then it is to be deemed to belong to the first or dwelling-house class.

3. Second class.—If a building be built originally as a warehouse, storehouse, granary, brewery, distillery, manufactory, workshop, or public stable, or be occupied, or intended to be occupied as such, or for a similar purpose, then it is to be deemed to belong to the second or warehouse class.

4. Third class.—If a building be built originally as a church, chapel or other place of public worship, college, hall, hospital, theatre, public concert-room, public ball-room, public lecture-room, public exhibition-room, or occupied, or intended to be occupied as such, or for a similar purpose, or otherwise used or intended to be used, either temporarily or permanently, for the assemblage of persons in large numbers, whether for public worship, business, instruction, debate, diversion, or resort, then it is to be deemed to belong to the third or public-building class.

5. Alteration of class.—And if any room, whether constructed within any other building or not, and whether included in the aforesaid classes or not, be used at any time for the public or general congregation of persons, then the building containing such room is to be deemed a building of the third or public-building class.

6. If a building originally built, or subsequently altered, so as to bring it within any one class, be subsequently converted into, or used as a building of another class, then it is deemed to belong to such other class, and as to all the conditions prescribed with regard to buildings of the same rate of such other class must be fulfilled, as if it had been originally built of such class, subject nevertheless to such modifications as shall be sanctioned by the surveyor and official referees, on supervision thereof; or if a building be used partly as a dwelling-house, and partly for any purpose which would bring it within the second or warehouse class, then it is to be deemed to belong to the said second or warehouse class; and as to all the conditions prescribed with regard to buildings of the same rate of such class must be fulfilled, as if it had been originally built of such class, subject, nevertheless, to such modifications as shall be sanctioned by the surveyor and official referees, on supervision thereof.

6. And the buildings included in the said classes are to be deemed to belong to the rates of those classes, according to the conditions of height, area, and number of stories set forth in the following tables, which conditions are to be determined according to the following rules:—

7. Rule for ascertaining height.—The height of every building is to be ascertained by measuring from the surface of the lowest floor of the building up to the top of the wall-plate for receiving the roof.

8. Rule for ascertaining area.—And the area of every building (except the second or warehouse class) is to be determined by the number of squares contained in the surface of any floor, which shall contain the greatest number of squares at or above the principal entrance to such building; including in such surface the area of all the external walls, and such portions of the party walls as belong to such building, but excluding from such surface the area of any attached building or office, area, balcony, or open portico.

10. Rule for ascertaining the number of stories.—And the stories of every building are to be counted from the foundation upwards.

And if the space in height between the top of the footings and the level of the lowest floor do not exceed five feet (then the story above such space is to be considered the lowest or first story) but if such space exceed five feet, then such space is to be considered to contain the lowest or first story, and in that case such surface is to be considered the level of the lowest floor.

And the thickness of the external walls must be, at the least, 13½ inches from the top of the footing up to a height equal at least to two-thirds of the entire height of such wall, and thence at least 8½ inches to the top of the wall.	And the thickness of the party walls must be, at the least, 13½ inches from the top of the footing up to the top of the wall.
35. If more than 66 feet.	Or if it contain more than 160,000 cubic feet, and not more than 200,000 cubic feet.	It is to be an extra first-rate of this class.	And the thickness of the external walls must be, at the least, 26 inches from the top of the footing up to the underside of the floor next but three below the topmost floor, and at the least 21½ inches from the underside of the floor next but three below the topmost floor up to the underside of the floor next below the topmost floor, and at the least 17½ inches from the underside of the floor next below the topmost floor up to the top of the wall.	And the thickness of the party walls must be, at the least, 26 inches from the top of the footing up to the underside of the floor next but three below the topmost floor, and at the least 21½ inches from the underside of the floor next but three below the topmost floor, and at the least 17½ inches from the underside of the floor next below the topmost floor up to the square of the building, and 13½ inches at the least from the square of the building up to the top of the wall.

RULES CONCERNING BUILDINGS OF THE SECOND OR WAREHOUSE CLASS.

36. With regard to any building of the second class hereafter built or rebuilt, in reference to the capacity or contents thereof, within the same enclosing walls:—

Such building must not contain more than 400,000 cubic feet between the enclosing walls of such building; and where such building exceeds 200,000 cubic feet, the walls thereof shall be increased four inches in thickness from the foundation upwards, beyond the thickness prescribed in the foregoing conditions for buildings not containing more than 200,000 cubic feet.

37. Roofs.—And with regard to the roofs of building of the second class:—

In order to prevent the formation of curbed roofs to such buildings, the plane of the surface of the roof of every such building must not incline from the external or party walls upwards at a greater angle than forty degrees with the horizon.

CONDITIONS FOR DETERMINING THE RATE TO WHICH ANY BUILDING OF THE THIRD OR PUBLIC BUILDING CLASS IS TO BE DEEMED TO BELONG.

38. If any building of the third or public building class correspond in form, or structure, or disposition, with a dwelling house, then the rate thereof is to be determined by the same rule as the rates of the first or dwelling house class; and the thickness of the external and party walls, and the width of the footings thereof, are to be, at the least, four inches more than is hereby required for the external and party walls, and the footings thereof, of buildings of the same rate of the first or dwelling house class, unless the surveyor and official referees in each case shall otherwise appoint; but if it correspond in form, or structure, or disposition with a warehouse, or any building of the second class, then the rate thereof is to be determined by the same rules as the rates of the second or warehouse class, and the thickness of the external and party walls, and the width of the footings thereof are to be, at the least, four inches more than is hereby required for the external and party walls, and the footings thereof, of buildings of the same rate of the second or warehouse class, unless the surveyor and official referees, in each case, shall otherwise appoint; but if it do not correspond in form, and structure, or in either, with buildings of the first or second class, or either of them, then such building is to be subject, as to its walls or other construction, to the special approval of the surveyor and official referees.

RULES CONCERNING ATTACHED, AND DETACHED, AND INSULATED BUILDINGS AS TO THE RATES AND WALLS THEREOF.

39. Attached buildings and offices.—With regard to buildings or offices now built, or hereafter to be built (except out-houses, privies, greenhouses, vineries, aviaries, or other such like buildings) and that whether such buildings or offices be attached to, or detached from the building to which they belong, every such building is to be deemed, in respect of the walls thereof, and all other requisites, as a building of the rate to which it would belong if it had been built separately.

40. Insulated buildings.—And with regard to buildings of the first or dwelling house class, and of the second or warehouse class, which shall be insulated so far as relates to the distance thereof from any other building or from ground, not in the same possession or occupation, the walls of such building must be distant from the walls of such other building at the least four feet. And provided caves of any such building do not project more than eight inches from face of walls, and if the external walls of such building be so distant from any other building or from ground not in the same possession or occupation therewith, then the external walls of such building may be built of wood, and covered with good sound weatherboards or good galvanized corrugated iron, but the roof-covering must be the same as provided for in these regulations [numbered 95 and 96]. All buildings may be built to line of streets or ways; all insulated buildings of stone or brick must be built not nearer to each other than four feet, or nearer to the boundary of the land upon which each house is built than two feet, such building having close cut or projecting eaves, except in the case where the street forms the boundary, in which case the building may be erected flush with the building line.

41. Insulated buildings afterwards divided.—Provided always, that if any such building be hereafter divided into two or more distinct buildings, and the several parts of such buildings so divided be not at the aforesaid distance from each other, and from other buildings and ground, then such several parts must be separated from each other by such party walls as are herein prescribed for the rate to which such several parts, if adjoining, would belong; and if such requisites be not observed, then such several parts of such building in respect of which they are not so observed shall be deemed a public nuisance, and as such be taken down, and the owner summoned under the "Local Government Act, 1874," for breach of these regulations. Wooden buildings may adjoin, provided they are divided by walls 9 inches thick built of brick, and with parapets carried through roof 12 inches above highest part of gutter or flashing. In case of verandahs, the same must be divided by 9-inch brick-work, the face being carried out 4 inches beyond wood-work.

42. Buildings built for purposes of trade, &c.—And with regard to certain buildings which shall be built for the purposes of trade, or for similar purposes other than a dwelling-house, and not otherwise herein particularly defined:—

Such building must not cover an area of more than two and a half squares, and must be distant four feet at the least from any other building, or from other ground not in the same occupation. And every such building may be enclosed with good sound weatherboards or good galvanized corrugated iron, but the roof thereof must be covered as herein directed with regard to roofs, and the chimney and flue (if any) must be built as herein directed with regard to chimneys and flues; and if such buildings be properly framed together of good sound timber, and securely covered with good galvanized corrugated iron, then every such building may be built so as not to cover more than eight squares area.

RULES CONCERNING WALLS OF WHATEVER KIND.

43. Foundations.—With regard to the foundations of walls:—Every external wall, and every party wall, and every party fence-wall, must be built upon a constructed footing, based upon solid ground, or upon other sufficient foundation.

FOOTINGS.

44. With regard to footings of walls, in reference to the materials thereof, to the width thereof, to the height thereof above the foundation, and to the depth below the surface:—

Materials.—In reference to the materials thereof:—Every footing must be built of brick or stone, or of bricks and stones together, laid in with mortar or cement, in such manner as to produce solid work.

45. Width.—In reference to the width thereof:—The bottom of the footing of every external wall and party wall of the first rate must be, at the least, eight inches wider than the wall standing thereon; and the bottom of every footing of every external wall and party wall of the second and third rates must be, at the least, six inches wider than the wall standing thereon; and the bottom of the footing of every party fence-wall must be, at the least, four inches wider than the wall standing thereon; the top of the footing of every party fence-wall and of every external wall and party wall, must be, at the least, four inches wider than the wall standing thereon.

46. Height.—In reference to the height above the foundation:—The footing of every external wall and party wall must not be brought up nearer to the surface of the ground, area, or footing adjoining thereto, than three inches. The footing of every external wall and party wall of the first rate, must be, at the least, 11 inches high above the foundation. The footing of every external wall and party wall of the second and third rates must be, at the least, eight inches high above the foundation. The footing of every party fence-wall, and of every external wall, and party wall of every other kind, must be, at the least, five inches high above the foundation.

47. Depth below lowest floor.—In reference to the depth thereof below the surface of the lowest floor adjoining, or intended to adjoin thereto:—The top of the footing of every external wall and party wall must be, at the least, six inches below such surface; and in any buildings of the first class the surface of the earth, or of any paving on the outside (except the pavement of any public way) must not at any time be raised to within six inches on the surface of the lowest or first floor of such building.

48. Thickness of enclosing walls to stories of buildings of whatever rate.—With regard to the enclosing walls to stories of buildings of the first and second classes, each of the enclosing walls of any such story (throughout the whole height thereof, from the top of the footing up to the top of such story, with all the sets-off in addition required for such wall, to whatever rate or whichever class it may belong, including piers properly distributed, equal to one-third of the whole length of such wall); must be of the following dimensions (unless cross or return walls, coursed and bonded with the enclosing walls, shall, in the opinion of the surveyor, upon application to him in each particular case, give sufficient strength, with less thickness in such enclosing walls), that is to say:—

As to first-class buildings, if the story be in height more than 14 feet, unless the story shall be the next below the topmost floor, or shall be the only story of a building, in which case the height may be 15 feet, the thickness of its enclosing walls must be, at the least, 13½ inches; or if the story be in height more than 15 feet, then the thickness of its enclosing walls must be, at the least, 17½ inches. As to second-class buildings, if the story be in height more than 9 feet, then the thickness of its enclosing walls must be, at the least, 13½ inches; or if the story be in height more than 12 feet, then the thickness of its enclosing wall must be, at the least, 17½ inches; or if the story be in height more than 20 feet, then the thickness of its enclosing walls must be, at the least, 22 inches.

49. Nevertheless, as to any external wall of any building of the first class, in which there are no apertures or recesses, if there be another external wall and a cross wall, of not less than 8½ inches thick, coursing and bonding with such external wall, or if two such cross walls occur within a length of 24 feet of such wall, then such external wall may be built of the thickness of 13½ inches of any height not exceeding 18 feet within any story, although the rate of the wall may require a greater thickness; but always upon the condition that the substructure of such wall is 4 inches thicker, at the least, than such superstructure, and vertically under it.

And also, if any such wall be abutted by cross or return walls within a length of 12 feet, and if not more than one aperture or recess occur within such length of 12 feet, and not more than one-half the quantity in length be taken out of such compartment of a wall by any such aperture or recess, then such external wall may be built of any thickness not less than 13 inches, notwithstanding the rate of such wall may require a greater thickness.

50. Return or cross walls.—And with regard to return walls, which may be either external, party, or cross walls, such walls must be built across the entire story, of either brick or stone, at right angles to the ridge of the roof, and to the full height of such story, and must be properly bonded to the external or party walls, and must not contain openings or recesses exceeding one-half of the superficial area of the wall measured in each story, and provided always that buildings containing not more than ten squares shall not require more than one cross wall.

51. Construction and materials.—And with regard to the component materials of external walls to buildings of whatever class, every such wall must be built of brick or stone, or of bricks and stone together, laid in and with mortar or cement in such a manner as to produce solid work, or of good sound wood plastered throughout on the inside, and every such wall must be carried up to its full thickness to the underside of the plate under the roof, except in case of stables or workshops, when same may be constructed of palings—that is to say, the sides and ends.

52. Nevertheless, in such walls, besides all requisite openings for doors and windows, recesses may be formed, so that the back thereof be of the thickness of 8½ inches at the least, provided that such recess or recesses shall be arched over with an arch having a rise at least equal to one-fourth of its span, and provided further that such recess or recesses shall in no case exceed 6 feet in width and 8 feet in height, measured to the springing, and that the aggregate of such recesses shall in no case exceed one-third of the superficial area of the wall in which such recess or recesses is or are constructed; and further, that the stability and sufficiency of the wall be not injuriously affected by making such recesses.

53. And with regard to other substances than the component materials of external walls, there may be such wood and iron as shall be necessary, and every plate, lintel, bond, corbel, being of wood, and every wood brick laid into any external wall, and all the ends of joists, of girders, and of the heads and sills of partitions running into any external wall, must be fixed at a distance from the external face of the wall of 4 inches at the least, except ceiling joists, which may go through the wall, provided a sufficient corbel be formed to separate one building from another at the line of the party and external walls. And the frames of doors and windows must be fixed in reveals, at a distance from the external face of the wall of 3 inches at the least. And shop fronts must be fixed in such manner as is herein specially directed. And the tiers of door-case to warehouses must be fixed in the opening left in such walls, at a distance from the external face of the wall of 2 inches at the least. But no timber must be laid into any external wall in such manner or of such lengths as to render the part of the wall above it wholly or in great part dependent upon the wood for support, or so that any such wood might not be withdrawn without endangering the safety of the superincumbent structure, except in the case of breasting-mers.

54. Height and thickness of parapets.—And with regard to external walls, in reference to the height and thickness of any parapet thereon:—

If any external wall be built within 2 feet of ground in occupation of another person, then such external wall must be carried up and remain one foot at the least above the highest part of its own adjoining gutter. And the thickness of an external wall so carried up above the level of the underside of the gutter plate and forming a parapet, must be at the least, in every such wall of the first rate of the first class, and in every such wall of the first rate of the second class, 8½ inches thick; and in every other external wall, of whatever rate or whichever class, 8½ inches thick. Provided always that it shall not be necessary for party or dividing walls between property owned by the same person to be carried up farther than underside of slates of roof, and provided such roof be not a hip and valley roof, in which case the wall must be carried through roof, and each house made to carry its own water—the parapet wall being at least 12 inches above gutter. No such wall shall be less than 8½ inches thick.

55. Brestsummers.—With regard to every brestsummer fixed to carry any front wall of a building:—

Every such brestsummer must have a bearing in the direction of its length of 6 inches at the least at each end upon a sufficient pier of brick or stone; and where the span exceeds 14 feet between the bearings the bearings must be increased 1 inch at each end for every 4 feet or portion of 4 feet by which the bearing exceeds 14 feet, in addition to which the brestsummer must be supported, at the discretion of the building surveyor, on one or more timber or iron story posts, fixed upon solid foundations; and the ends of such brestsummer, if of wood, shall not be placed nearer to the centre line of the party wall than 1½ inches. Every brestsummer bearing upon any wall must be borne by a template or corbel of stone or iron, tailed through at least one-half the thickness of such wall and of the full breadth of the brestsummer.

56. Materials to be used in repairs.—And with regard to old external walls or other external enclosures of any building already built, in reference to materials to be used in the repair thereof:—

If any such wall or enclosure be not built of the materials required by these Regulations for external walls or other external enclosures, hereafter to be built, then every part of such wall, or other external enclosure (except the enclosure of roofs, and the flats, gutters, dormers, turrets, lantern lights, and other erections thereon), may be at all times thereafter repaired with materials of the same sort as those of which such external wall or enclosure has been already built.

57. Materials to be used in re-building.—But if any such external wall or enclosure be at any time hereafter taken down or otherwise demolished for the height of one story, or for a space equal to one-fourth of the whole surface of such external wall, then every part thereof, not built in the manner and of the several materials by these regulations directed for external walls, must be taken down; and the same must be re-built in such manner, and of such materials, for and in all respects as by these regulations directed for external walls hereafter to be built, according to the class and rate of the building to which such external wall or enclosure shall belong.

58. External wall used as a party wall.—And with regard to external walls to be used as party walls to any building adjoining thereto, if such external wall to any building already built, be at the least 8½ inches in thickness in every part, and be of sound and proper materials and in good condition, then such wall may, at the discretion of the building surveyor, with the consent in writing of the adjoining owner, be used as a party wall; but if the house of which such wall forms a part be rebuilt, then such wall must become subject to the provisions of these regulations, in respect of party walls, according to the class and rate to which the said wall did first belong.

59. Division of buildings.—And with regard to walls used to divide single buildings into two or more:—

If it be intended to divide any building into two or more distinct parts, then every wall for that purpose must be built as a party wall, in the manner and of the materials and of the several heights and thicknesses for party walls of the highest rate of building, to which such party wall shall belong or adjoin, as prescribed in reference to the thickness of party walls in the foregoing conditions.

60. And if any building already built, or which shall be hereafter built, be converted, used, or occupied as two or more separate buildings, each having a separate entrance or staircase, such conversion, use, or occupation not having been made, or not having taken place prior to these regulations coming into operation, then every such building shall be deemed to be two or more separate houses, and such separate houses must be divided from each other by a party wall, or party arch or arches, built in the manner and of the materials required for party walls, or for party arches for the class and rate to which the largest of the buildings so divided shall belong.

61. Site of walls.—And with regard to party walls in reference to the site thereof:—

If the buildings be of equal rate, then such party walls must be built on the line of junction of such buildings one-half on the ground of the owner of one of such buildings, and one-half on the ground of the owner of the other of such buildings.

62. If such buildings be of different rates, then such wall must be built on the line of junction thereof as follows: that is to say, one-half of the thickness of the wall required for the building of the lower rate on the ground of each of the adjoining owners; and the whole of the additional thickness of the wall required for the building of the higher rate, on the ground of the owner of such building of the higher rate.

63. And if such building of the lower rate be thereafter enlarged or altered, so as to become a building of a higher rate, then the owner of such first-mentioned building of the higher rate for the time being shall be entitled to receive from the owner of such building of the lower rate such sum of money as shall be a sufficient compensation for the ground occupied by that portion of the party wall which, according to the rate of the building enlarged, ought to have been built by its owner on his own ground, as well as the value of so much of the wall itself as may be more than the owner of such building of the lower rate had already paid for.

64. Construction and material.—And with regard to party walls in reference to the component materials thereof:—Every part of such party wall must be built of sound bricks or of stone, or of such bricks and stone together, laid in and with mortar or cement, in such manner as to produce solid work.

65. And as to the woodwork which it may be desired to connect with the party walls of any building, the bearing ends of wooden beams, brestsummers, girders, trimming joists, and the ends of partition heads and sills, and the bearing ends of the main timbers of a roof, and wood-bricks, may be laid into the substance of a party wall; but no such beam, brestsummer, girder, joist, partition head or sill, nor any part of a roof being wood, nor any wood brick, must be laid or placed within 1½ inches of the centre of any party wall; and no other woodwork of any kind must be laid into, placed upon, or be run or driven into any part of the substance of any party wall.

66. But if the ends of timbers be carried on iron shoes or stone corbels, then such iron shoes or stone corbels must be built into the wall, at the least one-half of the thickness of such wall.

67. And the top of every such party wall must be finished with one course of sound hard bricks, set on edge, with good mortar or cement, or by a coping of any other properly secured and sufficient waterproof and fireproof covering.

68. Height of party walls above roof between properties belonging to different owners.—And with regard to party walls in reference to the height thereof:—

If a party wall adjoin to any roof, then such party wall must be carried up and remain one foot, at the least, above the part where the party wall and roof adjoin, measured at a right angle with the back of the rafters of such roof.

69. And if any party wall, in any building of the first class adjoin a gutter, then such party wall must be carried up and remain one foot, at the least, above the highest part of any such gutter.

70. And if any party wall, in any building of the second class adjoin a gutter, then such party wall must be carried up and remain two feet, at the least, above the highest part of any such gutter.

71. If there be fixed within five feet of a party wall, upon the flat or roof of a building, any turret, dormer, lantern light, or other erection of combustible materials, then every such party wall must be carried up next to every such turret, dormer, lantern light, or other erection, and must extend one foot six inches higher, and one foot six inches wider, than any such erection on each side thereof.

72. Opening in party walls.—And for the purpose of regulating the making of openings through any party wall between one dwelling house and another where two or more dwelling houses shall be united:—With regard to any dwelling houses of any rate, such dwelling houses may be united by means of openings in the party walls.

73. But with regard to any such dwelling houses which, when so united, shall be, and continue to be in the same occupation, then upon being declared by the surveyor that, in his opinion, the stability of any or either of such dwelling houses will not be endangered by making such opening, they may be made accordingly.

74. Party walls and party arches between intermixed property.—And with regard to any building already built, having rooms the property of different owners which lie intermixed, without being separated by any party wall:—

If any such building be altogether rebuilt, or to the extent of one-fourth of the cubical contents thereof, then such intermixed properties must be separated from each other by a party wall constructed in conformity with these regulations.

75. Buildings over public ways.—And with regard to buildings extending over any public way, as to the part thereof which extends over such way so far as relates to the separation of such part from such public way:—

If such part be rebuilt, then it must be separated from such public way either by a floor or arch formed of brick or stone, or of other combustible materials, subject to the consent of the surveyor; or by a floor formed of iron girders and brick arches, or stone landings, or by an arch formed of brick or of stone, which arch, if the span thereof do not exceed 9 feet, must be of the thickness of 9 inches at the least, and which, if the span exceed 9 feet, must be of the thickness of 13½ inches at the least; and the soffit of the arch must not be less than 14 feet from the pavement of such public way; and such floor or arch, with its abutments must be built in such manner as shall be approved of by the surveyor; but there must not be formed over any public way a ceiling of lath and plaster, or of lath and cement. And no buildings shall be built over any street or public way after the date of these regulations coming into operation.

RULES CONCERNING EXTERNAL PROJECTIONS.

76. Projections from the face wall, &c.—And with regard to buildings hereafter to be built or re-built, in reference to projections therefrom, as to copings, parapets, cornices to overhanging roofs, blocking courses, piers, columns, pilasters, entablatures, facias, door and window dressings, or other architectural decorations, forming part of an external wall, all such must be built of the same materials as are by these regulations directed to be used for building external walls to which such projections belong, or of such other proper and sufficient materials as the surveyor may approve and permit. And as to all verandahs, porches, porticos, shop fronts, open enclosures of open areas, and steps, and water pipes, and all other projections from external walls not forming part thereof:—Every such projection must be built of brick, tile, stone, artificial stone, slate, cement, metal, or other fire-proof material; and such projections must be so built as not to overhang the ground belonging to any other owner, nor to obstruct the light or air, or be otherwise injurious to the owner or occupier of the buildings adjoining thereto on any side thereof; nor shall any such projections extend beyond the building line at any height less than 10 feet from the level of the public footway, nor encroach upon the building line of any public footway, except that the base or plinth thereof may project beyond the building line to an extent not exceeding 4 inches in streets of 99 feet width, and 2½ inches in streets of less width. And no projections, including steps, cellar doors, and area enclosures, are to encroach upon the building line of any public footway; and no verandah must approach nearer to the end of the house to which it belongs than 2 feet, unless built wholly of fire-proof material, or separated from any adjoining verandah or premises by party walls at least 8½ inches in thickness, and with regard to the projecting eaves of any building on either side thereof, such eaves may project beyond the face of the external wall 8 inches, provided such eaves be at least 1 foot 4 inches from the ground not in the same occupation, and be at least 2 feet 8 inches clear, measured horizontally from the eaves of any other building. And no cornice must project a greater distance than the thickness of the wall of the story surmounted by the same, and every such cornice must have one course of stone flagging tailed through to the inside of the said wall, unless the method of construction of such cornice shall have previously been submitted to the building surveyor, and shall have been by him approved.

77. Projected buildings beyond the general line of buildings, and from other external walls.—And with regard to buildings already built, or hereafter to be built, as to how windows or other projections of any kind, such projections must neither be built with or added to any building on any face of an external wall thereof, so as to extend beyond the general line of building in any street (which general line may be determined by the surveyor), except so far as is hereinbefore provided, with regard to projections from face walls and shop fronts; nor so as to overhang the ground belonging to any other owner; nor so as to obstruct the light and air, or be otherwise injurious to the owners or occupiers of the buildings adjoining thereto, on any side thereof.

78. Projections from insulated buildings.—Provided always, with regard to any insulated buildings, that if the projections be at the least 8 feet from any other building not in the same occupation, unless such other building shall have been built under these regulations, and shall have a proper parapet wall on the side next to such insulated building, in which case, if such projections from such insulated building be distant from such other building at the least 4 feet, then such projections are excepted from the rules and directions of these regulations.

79. Wooden shop fronts, shutters, sign and show boards.—And with regard to shop fronts and their entablatures, their shutters and pilasters, and stall boards made of wood:—

No part of such shop front, except the cornice, must project from the face of a wall, whether there be an area or not, further than the base line, nor must the cornice project therefrom more than 12 inches. And the woodwork of any shop front must not be fixed nearer than 4½ inches to the centre line of a party wall.

80. And with regard to such woodwork, if it be put up at such distance of 4½ inches, then a pier or corbel built of stone, or of brick, or incombustible material, to commence at the level of the underside of the plinth at bottom of the wood plaster, and to be of the width of 8½ inches at the least, must be fixed in the line of the party wall so as to be as high as such woodwork, and so as to project 1 inch at the least in front of the face thereof. And no showboard or signboard shall be affixed to the front of any building so as to extend over any public footway or nearer than 2 feet to the end of such building unless such showboard or signboard abut against a brick or stone corbel, pier, or plaster 9 inches in thickness, and projecting 1 inch beyond the face of such showboard or signboard, and be carried up to the full height of the same.

RULES CONCERNING CHIMNEYS HEREAFTER BUILT OR REBUILT.

81. Construction.—With regard to chimneys and chimney-stacks, except angle chimneys, in reference to the construction thereof:—

The foundations and footings of every such chimney and chimney-stack must be built similar to those of the wall in or adjoining to which it shall be; and every such chimney and chimney-stack must be built from the foundation to the top thereof without any corbelling over, whereby any upper part of the brickwork of such chimney or chimney-stack shall overhang any lower part of the brickwork on the front thereof; nevertheless, with regard to buildings of the first or dwelling-house class, the jamba, breast, and flue in any single chimney may be built upon stone or iron corbels above the ceiling of the ground floor of every such building, and no such corbels shall have their beds upon timber, but the projection, both of such jamba and breast, must not in any case exceed fourteen inches before the face of the wall or stack to which the same shall adjoin. And with regard to angle chimneys, such chimneys may be built in the internal angle of any building, so that the width of the breast thereof do not exceed 8 feet, and so that it be properly supported, on iron girders, with brick arches, or on strong stone landings, not less than 4 inches thick, and tailed at least 9 inches into each of the two walls forming such angle.

82. Dimensions and materials.—And with regard to chimneys, in reference to the dimensions of the jamba thereof:—

The jamba of every chimney must not be less than 8½ inches wide on each side of such opening. And with regard to chimneys and flues, in reference to the thickness of the brickwork thereof, the breast of every chimney, and the front, back width, or partition of every flue must be, at the least, 4 inches in thickness of bricks, and the joints of the work must be filled in with good mortar or cement, and all the inside thereof, and also the outside or face thereof next the interior of any building must be rendered or pargetted. And with regard to flues, in reference to the dimensions thereof, no flue may be used for a smoke flue which is of less internal diameter in any section than 8½ inches.

83. Timber or woodwork.—And with regard to chimneys, in reference to timber:—

No timber must be placed over any opening for supporting the breast of any chimney, but there must be an arch of brick or stone over the opening of every such chimney, to support the breasts thereof, and an iron bar or bars must be built into the jamba, at the least, 9 inches on each side, to tie in the abutments whenever the breast projects more than 4½ inches from the face of the wall, and the jamb on either side is of less width than two-thirds of the opening.
