PUBLIC SERVICE ACTS.—ALTERATION OF REGULATIONS.

THE Public Service Board, pursuant to the provisions of the Public Service Act 1890 and the Public Service Act 1900, hereby repeals all Regulations heretofore made by the Board relating to the Salary of Officers in the Professional Division, excepting so far as regards the Departments of Trade and Customs, Post and Telegraph, and Defence, and hereby makes the following Regulations:—

CHAPTER II.

CLASSIFICATION OF PROFESSIONAL DIVISION.

[Section 59 (1) of Act No. 1133, and Section 13 of Act No. 1721.]

1. When an office in the Professional Division becomes vacant, it shall, unless it be found absolutely necessary to appoint to such vacancy a duly qualified person from outside the service, be filled by the promotion thereto of the officer who, in the opinion of the Board, possesses the particular qualifications required for the vacant office, and is next entitled by merit, good and diligent conduct, length of service, and relative seniority, and the nature of the work performed by him.

2. In the case of appointments, transfers, or promotions made on or after the 27th December, 1900, to any such office, the scale or amount of salary assigned to the several offices mentioned in the Schedule hereto shall be that respectively entered opposite the name of the office in such Schedule.

3. When a minimum rate and a maximum rate of salary are attached to any office, the person holding such office shall be paid such amount, being not less than the minimum nor more than the maximum rate, as shall be from time to time approved by the Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Board, provided that an officer on his first appointment to the service shall be paid the minimum rate of his office.

4. Any officer transferred or promoted to any Professional office shall thereupon, so far as regards seniority for promotion, be considered the junior officer in the office or grade to which he is transferred or promoted, but, notwithstanding anything in the Schedule hereto, he shall be paid a salary not less than that which he was receiving immediately before such transfer or promotion.

5. Increments may be granted to officers appointed to the offices mentioned in the Schedule hereto in accordance with the scale shown hereunder, viz.:—

Three increments each equal to one-third of the difference between the minimum and maximum salary of the office to be payable as follows:—

- 1st increment, after an interval of one year from appointment, or, in the case of an officer transferred, from the date upon which he commences duty in his new office;
- 2nd increment, after a further interval of two years;
- 3rd increment, after a further interval of three years.

Where the difference does not exceed £45—

- 1st and 2nd increments as above;
- 3rd increment after a further interval of two years.

6. In cases where officers are in receipt of salaries between the minimum and maximum assigned to their several offices, increments may be granted on the scale shown hereunder, viz. :—

Three increments, each equal to one-third of the difference between the salary of the officer and the maximum of his office, to be payable as follows :—

Where the difference between his salary and the maximum provided for his office exceeds £45—

1st increment, after an interval of one year from the date upon which he commences duty in his new office ;

2nd increment, after a further interval of two years ;

3rd increment, after a further interval of three years.

Where the difference does not exceed £45—

1st and 2nd increments, as above ;

3rd, after a further interval of two years.

Provided that where the difference between the salary of an officer and the maximum of his office does not exceed the sum of £10 an increment or increments may be given at intervals of one year.

7. Every increment to be discretionary, and not to be payable except on the certificate of the Permanent Head of the Department and (after an independent inquiry) of the Public Service Board that such increment has been earned by good conduct and efficient service.

8. If any officer is in receipt of pay greater than the maximum above fixed, he shall continue to receive such greater pay until he can be employed upon work equivalent to his salary.

9. The above Regulations are to take effect from the 27th December, 1900, and no addition to salary shall be payable under these Regulations for any period prior to such date, nor shall an increment in any case accrue until the 27th December, 1901.
