Factories and Shops Acts.

IN compliance with an application in writing under the provisions of the Factories and Shops Act 1905, and after due inquiry, I, being the responsible Minister for the time being administering the said Act, do hereby suspend the operation of sub-section (1) of section 40 of the said Act in the

FACTORY OR WORK-ROOMS OF MISSES PATON AND DOWER, DRESSMAKERS, EMPIRE BUILDINGS, FLINDERS-STREET, MEL-BOURNE.

for a period of two weeks from the 29th October, 1906, upon the following express conditions, that is to say:—

1. That no person or persons shall employ in the said factory or work-rooms more than twelve females for more than forty-eight hours in any one week, and that the said twelve females shall not be employed for more than fifty-seven hours in any one week, nor for more than three hours beyond the ordinary working hours in any one day, in preparing or manufacturing articles for trade or sale.
2. That every female so employed shall receive not less than Eight shillings per week for each week during which she works overtime, and, in addition, each wage-worker shall be paid for such overtime at the rate of time and a half; and each piece-worker shall be paid Three pence per hour for overtime in addition to ordinary earnings by piece-work.
3. That every female shall receive Sixpence tea money each evening she works overtime.
4. That none of such females shall be so employed for more than forty-eight hours in any one week without their consent.
5. That a copy of this Order be kept conspicuously and continually posted in such factory or work-rooms for the information of all concerned.

Given under my hand, at Melbourne, the 1st day of November, 1906.

SAMUEL GILLOTT,
Minister of Labour.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This not only helps in tracking expenses but also ensures compliance with tax regulations.

In the second section, the author outlines the process of reconciling bank statements. It is crucial to compare the bank's records with the company's ledger to identify any discrepancies. Common causes for these differences include timing differences and errors in recording.

The third section focuses on the role of the accounting department in providing financial insights. By analyzing trends and patterns in the data, accountants can help management make informed decisions about the company's future.

Finally, the document concludes by highlighting the importance of transparency and communication. Regular reporting and open dialogue between departments are essential for the overall success of the organization.
