REFERRING to General Notice to Mariners, page 91, describing the shore and outlying waters between Rickett's Point and Half Moon Bay, mariners and others are hereby notified that, in connexion with the establishment of a measured mile on the eastern shore of Port Phillip, two beacons, each consisting of three piles, have been erected in 20 feet of water. The beacons lie a mile apart south-east and north-west; the south-eastern being S. 38 deg. W. 400 yards from Rickett's Point, and the north-western being S. 55 deg. W. 500 yards from Quiet Corner.

Further notice will be given when the rear or shore beacons in connexion with same have been established.

As the north-western beacon will now serve the purpose of the red buoy marking the low-water rock off Quiet Corner, such red buoy will be removed.

Owing to the foul ground in the locality, boatmen should keep outside the line of beacons.

The Marine Act 1890.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE EQUIPMENT OF SHIPS WITH LIFE-SAVING APPLIANCES.

IN pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the Marine Act 1890, the Marine Board of Victoria, with the consent of His Excellency the Governor of Victoria, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof, doth hereby make the following additional Regulations, that is to say:—

Such Regulations shall form portion of "The Regulations for the Equipment of Ships with Life-saving Appliances" made by the Board on the third day of February, 1899, and published in the Government Gazette on the twenty-fourth day of February, 1899, and shall be read in connexion therewith, and shall take effect from the date of publication hereof in the Government Gazette:—

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS.

Decked Lifeboats.

For the purpose of defining the conditions under which a decked lifeboat may be substituted for an open lifeboat of section (A), section (B), or section (C), the Regulations in force dealing with the equipment of ships with life-saving appliances shall be amended as follows:—

The General Regulations aforesaid—Clause (1.) Boats—shall be read as if the following words were inserted at the commencement thereof, namely:—"In the case of such ships as are required to carry two or more boats of section (A), or section (B), or section (C), it shall be permissible for a proportion of the boats to be decked boats. This proportion shall not exceed one-half of the number of boats of each section which the ship is required to carry."

Section (A) of clause (1) aforesaid shall be read as if the following words were added thereto, namely:—"A boat of this section may also be a lifeboat of whale-boat form, fitted with a strong watertight deck, provided the boat is constructed in a manner approved by the Board. A decked metal lifeboat must be fitted with strong and serviceable inclosed air-tight compartments, having a capacity of at least 1 cubic foot for each person whom the boat is deemed fit to carry, but in a wooden decked boat, inclosed air-tight compartments may be dispensed with, subject to such conditions as may be approved by the Board."

Section (B) of clause (1) aforesaid shall be read as if the following words were added thereto, namely:—"A boat of this section may also be a decked lifeboat, subject to the conditions approved for a decked lifeboat of section (A)."

Section (C) of clause (1) aforesaid shall be read as if the following words were added thereto, namely:—"A boat of this section may also be a lifeboat of whale-boat form, fitted with a strong watertight deck, and constructed in a manner approved by the Board."

In the General Regulations aforesaid—Clause (2.) Cubic Capacity—the words “an open boat, and of a decked boat of section (D) or section (E),” shall be substituted for the words “a boat” in the first line of the clause.

The clause shall also be read as if the following words were added thereto, namely:—“The cubic capacity of a decked lifeboat of section (A), section (B), or section (C) shall be deemed to be the number of cubic feet obtained by multiplying the number of persons the boat is deemed fit to carry, by ten.”

In the General Regulations aforesaid—Clause (3.) Number of Persons for Boats—the words “an open boat” shall be substituted for the words “a boat” in the first paragraph of the clause. The words “an open boat of section (B) or section (C), or an open or decked boat of section (D) or section (E),” shall be substituted for the words “a boat of section (B), section (C), section (D), or section (E)” in the second paragraph of the clause.

The clause shall also be read as if the following words were added thereto, namely:—“The number of persons a decked boat of section (A), section (B), or section (C) shall be deemed fit to carry shall be such that the top of the deck amidships is at a height above the water, approved by the Board, when the boat is so loaded, subject to there being a deck space of at least 3.8 square feet for each person.”

“When the dimensions and form of the boat are such that, in the opinion of the Board, a practical test of the boat afloat is unnecessary, the number of persons the boat is fit to carry shall be deemed to be the number obtained by dividing the area of the deck in square feet by 3.8.”

“When a practical test is considered to be necessary, the boat shall be placed afloat and loaded with weights until the top of the deck amidships is at the approved height above water, and a weight of 140 pounds avoirdupois shall be deemed equivalent to the weight of one person. If it is not practicable for the test to be made before the boat is placed on board a ship, the number of persons the boat is fit to carry, pending the practical test afloat, shall be deemed to be the number obtained by dividing the area of the deck in square feet by such a number greater than 3.8, as the Board may determine.”

The foregoing additional Regulations were made and passed at a meeting of the Marine Board of Victoria held this 12th day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twelve.

Applications must be made on the prescribed forms, and lodged with the Secretary, Closer Settlement Branch, Lands Department, accompanied by the deposit, as shown in Schedule hereunder, for the most valuable allotment applied for. The deposit includes registration fee of 5s. and lease fee of £1.

Conditional Purchase Lease.

The leases issued to successful applicants may be for such a term of years, not exceeding 31½, as may be agreed upon between the lessee and the Board.

An applicant may apply for more than one allotment, but will only be required to lodge one deposit, being the amount chargeable on the most valuable allotment applied for.

No conditional purchase lease of a Farm Allotment can be granted to any person who is already the holder of land of the value of £2,500 (township land excepted), or who would thereby become the holder of land exceeding such value.

Improvements to the value of at least two instalments of the purchase money must be effected on each farm allotment before the end of the first year from the date of the lease, and 10 per cent. of the purchase money before the end of the third year, and a further 10 per cent. before the end of the sixth year.

The lessee must reside on the allotment. (Personal residence by a wife, or any child not less than eighteen years of age of lessee, may be considered personal residence by the lessee, with the approval of the Board.)

The lessee cannot transfer, assign, mortgage, or sublet the whole or any part of his allotment within the first six years of the lease.

The Crown grant may be issued to the lessee at the end of any half-year after the first twelve years have expired, on payment of the balance of purchase money.

The amount of deposit (less £1 5s.) will be deducted from the capital value, and the half-yearly instalments calculated on the balance of purchase money.

Payments in advance may be made at any time at the option of the lessee, and proportionate reduction of interest secured thereby.

The balance of purchase money, with interest at 4½ per cent., must be paid by 63 or a lesser number of half-yearly instalments, calculated according to any of the tables under Division 3 of Part I. of the Savings Banks Act 1890 Amendment Act 1896, the first of such instalments being payable six months after the date of the lease. Each instalment will include interest upon the balance of the purchase money remaining unpaid.
