IN pursuance of the provisions of the Local Government Act 1915 (No. 2686, section 46), the substance and prayer of a petition in accordance with the said Act, which has been presented to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, are published, viz.:

The petitioners purport to constitute a majority of the ratepayers in the portion of the shire of Dandenong which is described in their petition, and they desire that the area so described may be severed from the shire of Dandenong and constituted a new municipality under the name and title of "The Borough of Carrum."

Area described in Petition.—Commencing at the north-west corner of Crown allotment 12A, parish of Lyndhurst; thence along the Mordialloc Creek to the intersection of the drain running along the east boundaries of Crown allotment 135 to 101 in the said parish; thence to the south-east corner of Crown allotment 91; thence westerly by the Eel Race-road to Crown the Frankston-road; thence to the south-east corner of Crown allotment 1A; thence south-westerly by the southern boundary of that allotment and a straight line to Port Phillip Bay; thence along Port Phillip Bay to the point of commencement.

The petitioners state that by the constitution of the borough better supervision could be exercised over the area as to expenditure for maintenance, drainage, lighting, and other works, particularly with regard to health matters.

The area of the proposed new borough is 4½ square miles, and a 2s. 3d. rate would yield approximately £4,275, which, with revenue derived from other sources, would, it is stated by the petitioners, be ample to adequately maintain the new borough.

The petitioners therefore pray that His Excellency in Council may be pleased to sever the area above described and constitute it a separate municipality under the name and title of "The Borough of Carrum," such municipality to be subdivided into three wards.

Notice for the petitioners may be served on Mr. H. J. Richardson, Edithvale.

5. The members of the Appeal Board (other than the Chairman) shall be appointed in the following manner:—

Tramways Board and Employees to Nominate Representatives.

- (a) The Registrar shall, not later than the 31st day of March, 1920, and thereafter from time to time whenever it may be necessary as vacancies in the Appeal Board occur, publish concurrently in the Government Gazette and in one of the daily newspapers circulating in the city of Melbourne, a notice calling upon the Tramways Board and the employees respectively, within twenty-one days of the publication of such notice, to nominate a person to represent, each of them on the Appeal Board.

The failure of the Tramways Board to furnish such lists, and the wilful or negligent omission of the name of any employee by the Tramways Board or of any of its officers who may be charged with a preparation of such lists, shall be deemed to be a breach of these Regulations by the Tramways Board, and shall be punishable as hereinafter provided.

Each elector shall strike out on the voting paper received by him all the names except the name of the candidate for whom such elector desires to vote, and shall forthwith return such voting paper to the Returning Officer by placing it in a ballot-box provided for the purpose or posting it. No voting paper shall be allowed if more than one name is left uncanceled.

24. Each member of the Appeal Board (other than the Chairman) shall, for his services as such member, be entitled to receive from the Tramways Board out of the general fund of the Tramways Board an attendance fee of £1 1s. for each meeting of the Appeal Board at which a quorum is present, and at which he attends, but not more than one such fee shall be paid to any member in respect of any one day. The Registrar's certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the member therein named is entitled to be paid the fee or fees therein mentioned.

Filling Casual Vacancy.

27. Every casual vacancy shall be filled by the same appointing authority, and as far as practicable in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as in the case of the vacating member, and the person so appointed shall hold office for the residue of the term of the vacating member. Upon any casual vacancy being reported to the Registrar, he shall take such action as may be necessary, in terms of clause 5 hereof, to procure the appointment of another member to fill such vacancy.

Quorum of Board.

28. The presence of the Chairman and of at least one of the other members of the Appeal Board shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at every meeting of the Board.

Decision of Questions at Meetings of Board.

29. In all matters coming before the Appeal Board, the decision of the Appeal Board shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present, except in the case of an equality of votes, in which case the Chairman shall have a casting vote. The determination of the Board in every case shall be binding upon the Tramways Board and every appellant, and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Vacancies, Informalities, &c., not to Void Decisions.

30. Subject to the last two preceding clauses, the Appeal Board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body, and in no case shall any act of the Appeal Board be questioned on the grounds of any informality in the appointment of a member, or on the ground that the seat of any member is vacant, or that any supposed member is incapable of being or continuing a member.

Governor in Council may Appoint Chairman or Member.

31. In the case of the illness or unavoidable absence of the Chairman of the Appeal Board for a period of twenty-one days or upwards, the Governor in Council shall appoint some other fit person to act as Chairman during such illness or absence, and in the case of the illness or unavoidable absence of either of the other members of the Appeal Board, or disqualification by personal interest in the appeal under consideration, or in the subject matter thereof, or being a witness, or in the event of the Tramways Board or employees neglecting or failing to appoint a member of the Appeal Board, the Governor in Council may in such case temporarily appoint some suitable person to act as a member of the Appeal Board during the illness or absence or disqualification of such member as aforesaid, or until such time as the Tramways Board or employees appoint such member; and the person so appointed shall, while acting upon the Appeal Board, have all the powers of a member duly appointed by the Tramways Board or employees.

32. The Appeal Board may in its discretion accept or reject any evidence, and may also permit the Tramways Board or appellant to be represented by solicitor, counsel, or agent. All evidence shall be on oath, or in such other manner as is permitted by law.

Right of Persons to be Present During Appeal.

33. No person other than the parties to the appeal then being heard, and their representatives, shall have the right to be present during the proceedings of the Appeal Board except with the consent and approval of the Appeal Board or a majority thereof.

Registrar's Duties.

34. It shall be the duty of the Registrar—
- To receive, register, and perform all administrative acts in connexion with all appeals.
  - To convene the Appeal Board for the purpose of dealing with such appeals by giving three days notice, in writing, to each member, the Tramways Board, and the appellant, of the intention to hold such meeting, and the time and place thereof.
  - To keep a register, in which shall be entered the particulars of such appeals, and the determination of the Appeal Board thereon. Such register shall at all times be open to the perusal of any member of the Appeal Board, and of the Minister, or of such person as he may appoint, or of the Tramways Board, or of any employee of the said Board.
  - To obtain the signature of the Chairman to all entries in such register in proof of their correctness.
  - To forward a true copy of any determination (certified by him as such true copy) of the Appeal Board thereon to the appellant, to the Tramways Board, and to the Minister respectively, and in addition to forward to the Minister particulars of the matter appealed against.
  - To issue all summonses to witnesses and notices, and perform all other acts in connexion with the sittings of the Board as the Chairman directs.
  - To deliver to members certificates of their attendance.

Time and Place for Hearing Appeals.

35. Appeals shall be heard at such convenient times and places as the Chairman may from time to time determine. Every appeal shall come on for hearing as soon as practicable after the date on which notice thereof shall have been given to the Registrar.

Procedure for Appeals.

36. With respect of every appeal, the following provisions shall apply:—

- Every appeal shall be commenced by notice of appeal addressed to the Chairman of the Appeal Board, c/o the Registrar, Court of Industrial Appeals, Department of Labour, Melbourne.
- Such notice of appeal against any dismissal, fine, deduction from wages, reduction in rank, grade, or pay, or other punishment inflicted by the Tramways Board, or on the ground of promotion having been unreasonably withheld, shall not be considered unless the appellant give notice in accordance with these Regulations within twenty-one days from the happening of such events.
- Such notice may be in the form of an ordinary letter, and shall set forth clearly the grounds of appeal, and the date or dates when the subject-matter of such appeal arose. Such appeal must in every case be a matter personally affecting the appellant himself. Copies of the correspondence or other documents, if any, or statements of fact relating to the dispute shall be attached to the notice of appeal.
- A copy of the notice of appeal, together with a copy of the correspondence or other documents as mentioned in the last sub-clause, shall be served on the Tramways Board by the appellant.
- The Appeal Board may decline to hear an appeal which does not comply with the foregoing conditions, or which it considers to be frivolous or irrelevant, but if satisfied that the failure to comply with such conditions is not due to the wilful neglect of the appellant, the Appeal Board may hear the appeal, notwithstanding such failure.

37. In every case the appellant shall (unless the facts are admitted by the Tramways Board) begin by tendering evidence in support of the subject matter of his appeal. The burden of proof shall then rest upon the Tramways Board, at the conclusion of whose case the appellant may tender evidence in rebuttal of the case for the Tramways Board.

38. The provisions of sections 14, 15, and 16 of the Evidence Act shall apply as if the Appeal Board had been expressly mentioned therein.

39. On the hearing of any appeal, the Appeal Board may adjourn the consideration thereof, if it is of opinion that it is desirable so to do.

40. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations the Board may regulate its own procedure.

Certified Extracts.

41. Every document purporting to be an extract from the register mentioned in clause 34 certified by the Registrar to be a true copy, shall be prima facie evidence of the matters entered therein, and every document purporting to be such an extract shall be taken to be such extract, and so certified unless the contrary is made to appear.

Expenses of Registrar.

42. All expenses incurred by the Registrar in carrying out his duties under these Regulations shall be paid and borne by the Tramways Board, and such Registrar shall receive such remuneration for his services as the Minister shall from time to time determine.

Penalties.

43. Breaches of these Regulations may be punishable by a fine not exceeding £20 recoverable by the Registrar for and in the name of the Minister of Public Works before a Court of Petty Sessions.

Disputes.

44. In the event of any dispute or question arising as to the meaning of these Regulations, or any portion thereof, the same shall be referred to the Minister for determination, and his decision shall be final and conclusive, but all questions as to matters of form or admissibility of evidence, and all other questions arising out of or in connexion with any appeal, shall be decided by the Appeal Board.

And the Honorable Frank Clarke, His Majesty's Commissioner of Public Works for the State of Victoria, shall give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
