1. This By-law shall extend and apply to all tram cars and other vehicles of the Board used for the conveyance of passengers for hire, also to all buildings, plant, shelters, and premises used for or in connexion with the business of the Board.

2. In this By-law the word "Board" means the Melbourne and Metropolitan Tramways Board and any person authorized by the Board to do any particular matter or thing.

"Conductor" includes any gripman, motorman, conductor, inspector or duly authorized officer or servant in the employment of the Board.

"Tram" includes any vehicle used by the Board for the conveyance of passengers for hire.

3. No person shall smoke in or upon any tram or portion of a tram where smoking is prohibited by notice displayed in or upon such tram.

4. No passenger or other person whilst riding in or upon any tram shall solicit alms, play or perform upon any musical instrument, distribute handbills or advertisements, or offer any article for sale.

5. No person, who in the opinion of the Conductor is in a state of intoxication, shall be allowed to enter or to mount upon any tram, or to enter any premises of the Board; and if found in or upon any such tram or premises, such person shall, at the request of the Conductor, leave such tram or premises, and his fare if paid shall be forfeited; and if he do not at once leave such tram or premises he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor, and in addition he shall also be liable to the penalty provided by this By-law.

6. No person shall drink any intoxicating liquor upon any tram or premises belonging to the Board. Any person refusing to cease from so doing, shall, at the request of the Conductor, leave such tram or premises and his fare if paid shall be forfeited; and if he do not at once leave such tram or premises, he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor, and in addition he shall also be liable to the penalty provided by this By-law.

7. No person shall swear or use obscene, insulting or offensive language, or commit any nuisance in or upon any tram or premises of the Board, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger; and any person who in the opinion of the Conductor shall have committed a breach of this clause, shall, at the request of the Conductor, leave such tram or premises, and his fare if previously paid, shall be forfeited; and if he do not leave the tram or premises at once he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor and he shall also be liable to the penalty provided by this By-law.

8. No person shall damage any tram or premises or remove or interfere with any fastening on any tram or premises or remove, affix or deface any lamp, number, fitting, printed notice or advertisement, or break or scratch any window or wood or iron work of any tram, or otherwise wilfully damage any tram or premises.

Any person acting in contravention of this clause shall be liable to pay for the damage done in addition to the penalty provided by this By-law.

9. No person whose dress, clothing or luggage may in the opinion of the Conductor soil or injure the seats or lining of any tram or waiting room, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, and no person who in the opinion of the Conductor may for any reason be offensive to other passengers or to occupants of a waiting room shall be entitled to enter or remain in or upon any tram or waiting room and any such person may be prevented from entering in or upon any tram or waiting room and shall not enter any tram or waiting room after having been requested by the Conductor not to do so, and if found in or upon any tram or waiting room shall upon the request of the Conductor and on having his fare (if previously paid) returned, leave the tram or waiting room; and if he do not at once leave the tram or waiting room he may be removed by or under the direction of the Conductor and in such case he shall also be liable for the penalty provided in this By-law.

11. Every passenger shall upon demand exhibit and/or deliver up his ticket or pay to the Conductor the fare legally demandable for the journey.

12. No passenger shall tender to the Conductor in respect of his fare or as evidence that his fare has been paid any ticket that is rolled up, defaced or illegible or in such a condition that it cannot be easily read at sight, or that has been divided, or from which any parts have been cut or taken off; no such ticket will be accepted and the passenger tendering any such ticket will be deemed not to have paid his fare, and shall upon demand, pay to the Conductor the fare legally demandable for the journey then being travelled by the passenger and in respect of which such ticket has been produced as aforesaid.

15. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Board shall enter the Motorman's or Gripman's compartment or the rear compartment of any electric tram, or travel on the roof, steps, bumpers, or drawbars of any tram or pass from one tram to another while they are in motion.
