19. If the officer or employee charged admits the truth of the charge, and does not show sufficient cause why he should not be punished, the Board shall proceed to determine and impose the punishment it deems should be inflicted.

20. If the officer or employee charged denies the truth of the charge—

(a) the case for the officer making the charge shall be stated, his witnesses shall be examined, cross-examined and re-examined, and any other evidence he may desire to adduce in support of the charge shall be adduced;

(b) the case for the officer or employee charged shall then be stated, his witnesses shall be examined, cross-examined and re-examined, and any other evidence he desires to adduce in his defence shall be adduced.
