Such charges shall be paid to the licensees monthly on receipt of an account for same, but not later than the fourteenth day of the month following that for which the charges are due.

41. Where a forest officer has in good faith, on the undertaking of a lessee or a licensee to pay the royalty due, branded with the Crown brand forest produce and allowed it to be removed from a forest, he may again, in default of such payment within seven days, seize such produce in any place on behalf of the Crown and brand it as seized with the broad-arrow face of his authorized hammer brand.

Reserving Forest Areas from the Operations of Leases, &c.

42. Any area of reserved forest may be reserved by the Commission from the operation of any lease, licence, permit, or authority granted under these Regulations.

Reservations for Draught Cattle.

43. Any area in a reserved forest may be reserved from the operation of any lease or licence and set aside for the agistment of draught cattle lawfully used or employed by lessees, licensees, or permit holders under the Forests Acts in such forests.

44. No cattle except such as are lawfully admitted under the authority of a grazing licence or permit shall be depastured in a reserved forest, and on receiving written notice from a forest officer the owner or reputed owner shall forthwith remove such trespassing cattle from the forest after payment of agistment fees prescribed by these Regulations, but such notice and payment of trespass or agistment fees shall not relieve such owner or reputed owner from liability to prosecution under clause 53 (b) of these Regulations.

Travelling Stock.

45. Any owner or person in charge of cattle who wishes to take them through a reserved forest shall give at least forty-eight hours' written notice to the nearest forest officer either personally or by registered post, and then shall drive them only on or over a road or track commonly used by the public. Such cattle shall not be delayed in their passage except for the purpose of giving them water and reasonable rest for a time not exceeding two hours. Cattle may not under any circumstances be driven through a forest reserve at night.

Clearings.

46. No clearings of dead or live timber, trees, or underwood shall be made in a forest except in the case of an area not exceeding one acre lawfully occupied under a residence licence for the purpose of a dwelling and garden, and then only on such portions as may be authorized under the conditions of such licence.

47. For the purpose of preserving and encouraging the growth of forest seedlings and young trees, the Commission may in any forest reserve or portion thereof order the discontinuance of any forest grazing licence or permit on the expiration of such licence or permit, and may also, should the safety of the young tree-growth require it, suspend any grazing licence or permit and exclude cattle from any specified area, subject to repayment to the owner of such cattle of the rental paid by him for the unexpired portion of the term of his grazing licence or permit, or of a fair and reasonable proportion to be determined by the Commission of any agistment fees paid by such owner.

Forest Brands.

48. The ordinary brands authorized to be used by the forest officers for branding trees, timber and other forest produce shall be:—

(1) A hammer brand having on one face the figure of a Crown with a number enclosed therein to indicate the forest officer who has it in his charge, thus , and on the other face the figure of a broad arrow, thus .

The Crown face of the brand shall be used for marking trees for felling, for authorizing the removal of timber or other forest produce from the forest after measurement, record, and payment of all royalties, dues and charges; and for releasing, on the written authority of the Commission, timber or other forest produce which has previously been seized.

The broad-arrow face of the brand shall be used for marking trees which are not to be felled on any area where timber cutting is being carried on, or for seizing on behalf of the Commission any timber or other forest produce, or any fence, building or weir which has been cut, damaged, stripped, removed, erected or constructed without authority or illegally, or improperly cut, damaged, stripped, removed, erected or constructed; or for indicating that to be otherwise lawfully cut or obtained is for the time being not to be removed till such brand is obliterated by a forest officer with the Crown face of the brand.

(2) Special brands may be used by forest officers as follows:—

- (a) A brand with the letter R in a circle, thus , and with a Crown on the other face, to indicate that a tree is specially reserved and may not be felled by any person even though he may be licensed to fell ordinary timber.
- (b) A brand bearing the initial letters of the common name of any species of timber-tree (thus, I.B. for Ironbark, B.G. for Bluegum, or Y.S.B. for Yellow Stringybark), or any distinguishing mark or letters considered applicable, to show that the timber thus marked is truly of the species which such letters or marks indicate, for the purpose of preventing fraud in the supply of inferior timbers for public or municipal works or for export.
- (c) A brand having on one face the figure of a broad arrow with a distinctive number, thus , and on the other face the letters G.D. to indicate timber stored in a Government timber depot. Such brand shall be used to stamp all timber on admission to an authorized timber depot, and the broad arrow shall not be removed or obliterated by a forest officer till all charges due and payable on such timber for storage in the depot has been paid.

49. No forest brand shall be used for any purpose other than that set forth in these Regulations. No forest officer shall allow any brand intrusted to his charge to go out of his possession without the written authority of the Commission, or permit any timber cutter, carter, forest licensee, or other person to use it for any purpose whatsoever, and no timber cutter or other person who may find or obtain possession of any such brand shall use it for the purpose of branding forest produce.

50. Every saw-milling lessee or licensed cutter of mill logs, piles, beams, railway sleepers, paling and fencing material, or other forest produce, when required to do so by the Commission, shall provide himself with a distinctive brand, which may be a letter or figure, but shall not be a colourable imitation of or resemble any authorized forest brand, and shall impress such brand on all timber cut by him as well as on the stump and waste trunk head of each tree felled by him.

The design of every such brand shall be subject to the approval of the Commission, and the lessee or licensee who wishes to use it must apply in writing to the Commission for such approval. If the brand be a suitable one, the Commission may authorize its use and cause the design to be registered in the head office of the Commission.

Cutting and Removing and Branding of Certain Forest Produce.

51. Trees of the undermentioned species shall not be cut, felled or removed from any forest which are of a less stem-girth than that set forth hereunder when measured at the height from the surface of the ground prescribed, save on the written authority of the Commission or under the provisions of a forest working plan when such is in force for the forest concerned:—
