(Adopted at a Special General Meeting held in Melbourne Town Hall, 27th August, 1929.)

INTRODUCTORY.

The institution was founded on or about the 12th day of October, 1849, for the benefit of the afflicted or distressed inhabitants and sojourners, for the time being, of and in the City of Melbourne, and was, by Order-in-Council, dated the Fifth day of May, 1868, duly incorporated with perpetual succession and a Common Seal.

All By-Laws made prior to the date of making these By-Laws shall be, and the same are hereby, repealed. Provided always that any rule or Regulation made under By-Laws heretofore in force shall be taken to have been made under these By-Laws, and shall continue in force until the same are amended or repealed.

In the interpretation of these By-Laws the masculine shall include the feminine and the singular the plural.

(The Hospitals and Charities Act 1922 (No. 3260) is referred to at end of clause as "Act.")

QUALIFICATION AND PRIVILEGES OF CONTRIBUTORS.

1. Any person who subscribes on his own behalf towards the maintenance of the Institution a sum of not less than £1 per annum shall be a contributor, and shall be entitled to recommend patients for admission, and also to vote at all elections and general meetings of contributors.

2. Contributors of £1 shall be entitled to one vote, of £2 to two votes, and of £5 and upwards to three votes. Life Members shall be entitled to one vote and Life Governors to three votes.—Act, Sec. 65 (2).

5. Any public or corporate body or partnership that shall contribute a sum of not less than £20 in any one year to the Institution shall be entitled to nominate some person approved of by the Committee to be a Life Member. If the aforesaid contribution be not less than £100 the contributor shall be entitled to nominate some person approved of as aforesaid to be a Life Governor.

6. A contributor unable to attend any meeting may vote by post.

7. Every annual contribution shall be paid in advance, and shall be calculated from the date of payment.

8. The privileges of contributors shall be suspended until their contributions are paid.

9. Persons who have conferred any signal benefit on the Institution, irrespective of contributions, may be elected life members or life governors by the Committee.

COMMITTEE AND GENERAL MEETINGS.

10. The management of the Institution shall (subject to these By-Laws) be vested in the Committee, which shall consist of not less than seven contributors elected by the contributors, together with the President, two Vice-Presidents, and an Honorary Treasurer, who must also be contributors, and who shall be ex-officio members of the Committee.—Act, Sec. 52 (1). Sec. 53 (1).

11. His Excellency the Governor for the time being, if elected by the contributors, shall be the President of the Institution during his residence in the State. The two Vice-Presidents and the Honorary Treasurer, if so elected, shall hold office for three years.—Act, Sec. 61.

12. One-third, or the number nearest to one-third of the ordinary members of Committee shall retire from office in rotation at the annual meeting in every year. The members who shall retire shall be those appointed by the Committee to fill casual vacancies, and those who have been longest in office without re-election.—Act, Sec. 57.

13. Annual General Meetings of contributors shall be held between the 1st day of July and the 31st day of August in every year, at such time and place as the Committee shall appoint, and shall be advertised by the Secretary at least 14 days before the day on which such meeting is to be held, in some newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood. Such meeting shall receive the report and balance-sheet from the Committee, fill any vacancies in the offices of President, Vice-Presidents, Honorary Treasurer, Honorary Medical Officers, Trustees, Auditors, and Committee, and transact any other business of which due notice shall be given. Ten contributors personally present shall form a quorum at general meetings.—Act, Secs. 56 and 58 (3).

If no quorum is present within one hour from the time fixed, the meeting shall be adjourned to the same hour of the same day in the following week at the same place, and at this or any subsequent adjournment, eight contributors shall form a quorum.—Act, Sec. 59 (1) and (2).

14. At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting other than an election shall be decided on a show of hands, unless before, or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded by at least one-fourth of the members present, and unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the Institution shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.—Act, Sec. 60.

15. If a poll is duly demanded, it shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner as the Chairman directs, provided that the hours for contributors who vote in person shall be from eight o'clock in the morning to seven o'clock in the evening of the day appointed for the poll, and for contributors who vote by post, the letter must be addressed to the Secretary, and must reach the Institution before the closing-time for the poll. No proxies shall be received.—Act, Sec. 60 (2).

16. The Committee shall meet as often as is necessary. The General Committee Meeting shall be held on the second and fourth Thursday in each month, at a time and place decided by the Committee, and four members shall form a quorum, provided the number of the Committee does not exceed twelve, but if the number of the Committee exceeds twelve, the quorum shall be one-third of the said number. The Committee shall have power to make Rules and Regulations (not inconsistent with these By-laws) for the conduct of their own proceedings and that of the officers, inmates, and visitors, and generally for the proper management of the Institution. Such Rules and Regulations shall be binding upon all parties until duly altered or repealed by the Committee. The Committee shall have power to appoint house, finance, and other sub-committees, and save as hereinafter provided, to define their duties. The Committee shall also have power to appoint and discharge all paid officers, to fix their salaries, and to specify their duties and hours of attendance, and to enter into contracts for the supply of provisions, materials, or the performance of any work that may be required for the Institution, provided that provisions, materials, or performance of any work that may be required as aforesaid over the value of £20 shall in all cases be tendered for, excepting with the consent of the Committee in General Meeting, who, by a unanimous vote, may decide otherwise.—Act, Sec. 52 (4).

17. The President, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Presidents shall preside at all meetings of contributors, and, in their absence, those present shall appoint their own chairman, and the President or chairman shall, in the event of there being an equality of votes on any question, have a casting vote only.—Act, Sec. 64 (2).

18. The Committee may convene a special general meeting of contributors at any time and place by advertisement at least seven days previously in one or more of the Melbourne newspapers, and such advertisement shall contain the business to be brought before such general meeting, and none other shall be discussed thereat. Any twenty contributors may request the Committee to call a special meeting at any time; and, should the Committee, after receiving such requisition signed by twenty or more contributors, refuse or neglect for a period of seven days thereafter to call such meeting, then any twenty contributors shall have power to convene such meeting upon advertising as directed above.

19. The chairman at any meeting of Committee shall have a deliberative vote, and also, in the event of the numbers being equal, a casting vote.

20. No motion to make, vary, amend, rescind, or revoke any By-Law, Rule, or Regulation shall be entertained unless one calendar month's previous notice in writing of such motion has been given to the Secretary.

21. Save as aforesaid, no motion, except on current business, shall be entertained unless notice of the same shall have been given to the Secretary at least three days previous to the meeting, and is included in the business to come before the meeting in the notice sent to each member of the Committee.

22. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, the Committee shall have power by a unanimous vote to waive any notice and deal with any motion or business at any of its meetings.

23. There shall be two standing sub-committees, each consisting of not less than three members. First, the House Committee, whose duties shall be to inspect weekly the several wards and other parts of the Institution; to inquire into the condition of the inmates, the character and quality of the provisions, and other articles supplied to the Institution; and, in conjunction with the paid medical officer, ascertain if any of the inmates are in a fit state for employment, or to leave the institution, and to report to the next meeting of the Committee; also to offer suggestions, from time to time, as to necessary repairs, alterations, or improvements.
