

VICTORIA
GOVERNMENT GAZETTE.

Published by Authority.

[Registered at the General Post Office, Melbourne, for transmission by post as a newspaper.]

No. 16]

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30.

[1931

South Australian and Victorian Border Railways Act 1930
(No. 3932).

DATE OF COMING INTO OPERATION.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency the Governor of the State of Victoria and its Dependencies in the Commonwealth of Australia, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of the State of Victoria passed in the twenty-first year of the reign of His present Majesty King George V. and numbered 3932 and intituled the "South Australian and Victorian Border Railways Act 1930," it is amongst other things enacted that the said Act shall not come into force until an Act approving and ratifying the new agreement the subject of the Victorian Act hereinbefore referred to (hereinafter referred to as the "Victorian Act") and providing for the carrying out by the State of South Australia of the provisions thereof so far as such provisions are to be carried out by that State has been passed by the Parliament of that State and has been assented to by the Governor thereof and further enacting that when such Act of the Parliament of South Australia has been passed and assented to as aforesaid the Governor in Council may by Proclamation published in the Government Gazette fix the day when the Victorian Act shall come into force such day not being earlier than the date when the said Act of the Parliament of South Australia is to come into force when the Victorian Act is to come into force accordingly: And whereas an Act approving and ratifying the said agreement and providing for the carrying out by the State of South Australia of the provisions thereof so far as such provisions are to be carried out by that State has been passed by the Parliament of that State and was assented to by the Governor thereof on the 20th day of November now last past: And whereas by such Act of the Parliament of South Australia the day fixed when it is to come into force is a day not earlier than the date when the said Victorian Act is to come into force: And whereas the respective Governments of the States of South Australia and Victoria have mutually agreed to fix the thirty-first day of January now next as the date when the particular Act of the several States shall be proclaimed as coming into force in the State of which it is an Act: Now therefore I, the Governor of the State of Victoria, acting by and with the advice of the Executive Council thereof and on the good faith of the Government of the State of South Australia acting under an agreement with the Government of Victoria that the Governor of South Australia will by Proclamation in the Government Gazette of the State of South Australia fix the thirty-first day of January, 1931, as the day when the Act of the Parliament of South Australia hereinbefore referred to shall come into force in that State do hereby by this my Proclamation fix and appoint the thirty-first day of January, 1931, as the date on which the Victorian Act hereinbefore referred to (which under its provisions may be cited as the South Australian and Victorian Border Railways Act 1930) shall come into force and conditional on the said Act of the Parliament of South Australia coming into force on that date as agreed as aforesaid I hereby ordain and declare that the said Victorian Act being the South Australian and Victorian Border Railways Act 1930 number 3932 and assented to by me on the thirty-first day of December last past shall come into force on that date accordingly.

Given under my Hand and the Seal of the State of Victoria aforesaid, at Melbourne, this thirtieth day of January, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and thirty-one, and in the twenty-first year of the reign of His Majesty King George V.

(L.S.)

SOMERS.

By His Excellency's Command,

JOHN CAIN,
Minister of Railways.

GOD SAVE THE KING!

