General—

- (m) For youthful inmates not declared to be habitual criminals, who, in the opinion of the Board, are not suitable on account of their criminal record or their conduct in prison for detention at the Castlemaine Reformatory, or inmates whose criminal record, in the Board's opinion, is not such as to require the full term of detention prescribed by paragraphs (c) and (h) of this Regulation:—
- Two-thirds of the time prescribed for each grade.
- (n) For inmates undergoing a definite sentence, transferred to a reformatory—
- Such term as the Board shall in each case determine, having regard to the age of the inmate, the time already served by him in prison, his previous history, and his conduct while in prison.

APPLICATION FOR PROMOTION OR RELEASE ON PAROLE.

18. (a) Every application for promotion in grade or release on parole by any inmate detained elsewhere than in the Castlemaine Reformatory shall be in the form contained in the First Schedule to these Regulations, and shall be finally dealt with at some meeting of the Board convened in Melbourne for general business, unless the Board considers it desirable in any particular case to deal with the application at the reformatory in which the applicant is detained.

(b) If the Board refuses any application for promotion or release, then, in the absence of any indication by the Board as to when the same may be renewed, or unless new or unforeseen circumstances exist which, in the Board's opinion, justify an earlier renewal, a further application shall not be permitted until a period of not less than six months has elapsed since the date of the previous application.

GRADE PRIVILEGES.

19. Third grade inmates shall be treated in accordance with the Gaols Regulations for the time being in force as far as the same may be applicable.

20. The Gaols Regulations for the time being in force, so far as applicable, shall apply to second grade inmates in regard to dietary, correspondence, and visits from relatives and friends.

21. Second grade inmates shall be privileged, while their conduct is satisfactory, to be present at lectures or addresses that may be given in the reformatory for the inmates, to change their library books thrice weekly, and, under proper supervision, to associate for recreation outside working hours at such times and under such conditions as may be sanctioned by the Inspector-General.

22. Second grade inmates detained in the Castlemaine Reformatory whose conduct has been satisfactory for at least three months, may be permitted to spend such portion of their earnings in the purchase of such articles specified in Regulation 42 hereof, or clothing, as may be recommended by the Inspector-General, and approved by the Board.

23. First grade inmates may be permitted by the Inspector-General to dine in association, and to spend such portion of their earnings in the purchase of such articles specified in Regulation 42 hereof, or clothing, as may be recommended by the Inspector-General, and approved by the Board.

24. Subject to the conditions contained in the Gaols Regulations for the time being in force, and with the permission of the Inspector-General, first grade inmates detained elsewhere than in the Castlemaine Reformatory may be allowed to receive and write one letter fortnightly, and to have visits from relatives and friends at intervals of not less than two weeks.

25. First grade inmates detained in the Castlemaine Reformatory whose conduct has been satisfactory for at least three months, may be allowed to receive and write letters, and have visits from reputable persons, at such times as may be authorized by the Inspector-General.

26. First grade inmates shall be privileged to attend lectures for the inmates and approved meetings that may be held in the reformatory, and to change their library books as often as may be reasonably required. They may be granted extended privileges in regard to association and recreation at the discretion of the Inspector-General.

27. Inmates in the special division shall, as far as practicable, be kept apart from other inmates. They shall enjoy all the privileges of the first grade, and be given access to such weekly journals and newspapers as may be sanctioned by the Inspector-General. The Inspector-General may permit them to receive or write a letter at any time, and may allow them to receive visits at frequent intervals from relatives and friends likely to take a desirable interest in them on liberation, and to be of use to them in finding employment, or in assisting them to lead honest lives.

28. No inmate under the age of eighteen years shall be entitled to a ration of tobacco.

EMPLOYMENT.

29. (1) Every inmate shall work at some trade or vocation, or be employed at some labour, as may be directed by the superintendent.

(2) An inmate whose conduct is satisfactory shall be credited, in respect of his employment, as hereinafter provided:—

(a) Where he is employed at a trade in which he is proficient, and the products of his work are sold or disposed of, the amount of credit shall be not more than—

- (i) (if a first grade inmate), one-half;
 - (ii) (if a second grade inmate), one-fourth;
 - (iii) (if a third grade inmate), one-eighth,
- of the net proceeds of such sale or disposal remaining, after deducting the cost of his maintenance in the reformatory.

(b) Where he is employed as a skilled artisan or tradesman, and the products of his work are not sold, the amount of credit which shall be fixed according to the nature, quality, and quantity of his work, shall be not more than—

- (i) (if a first grade inmate), 1s. 6d. per diem;
- (ii) (if a second grade inmate), 9d. per diem;
- (iii) (if a third grade inmate), 4½d. per diem.

(c) Where he is employed in the internal work of the reformatory or at gardening, or at other unskilled labour, or at any trade in which he is not a skilled worker, and the work performed by him is satisfactory in quality and quantity, the amount of credit shall be not more than—

- (i) (if a first grade inmate), 1s. per diem;
- (ii) (if a second grade inmate), 6d. per diem;
- (iii) (if a third grade inmate), 3d. per diem.

Provided that, after an inmate has remained in the lower division of the first grade for a period of two years, the amount with which he would be credited, as provided by this Regulation, may be reduced by one-half, and after he has remained in such division for a period of four years, may be reduced by three-fourths.

Provided further that an inmate detained at French Island reformatory, whose conduct and industry, in the opinion of the Inspector-General, are deserving of special recognition may be credited with not more than—

- (i) (if a first grade inmate), 1s. 6d. per diem;
- (ii) (if a second grade inmate), 1s. per diem;
- (iii) (if a third grade inmate), 6d. per diem.

30. The amounts with which an inmate is credited in respect of his employment over and above Two pounds shall, in the discretion of the Board, be applied—

- (a) towards the maintenance, during his detention, of his wife and family (if any);
- (b) in repayment to the Children's Welfare Department of any amount expended for the maintenance and support of his children during his detention;
- (c) in satisfaction of costs awarded to the Crown on any appeal or question of law raised by the inmate;

- (e) towards the payment of fees for education and training of the inmate;
- (f) towards supplying the personal needs of the inmate;
- (g) towards the purchase, on the recommendation of the Inspector-General, of any article specified in Regulation 42 hereof.

31. Earnings shall be forfeited for absconding, attempting to abscond, or for committing any indictable offence, in the event of deportation from the Commonwealth, or when and to the extent directed by the Board under the powers conferred by sub-section (5) of section 525 of the Act.

32. For the purposes of these Regulations, the cost of maintenance of each inmate in the reformatory shall, from time to time, be fixed by the Inspector-General.

DISCIPLINE.

33. The superintendent may curtail the privileges of an inmate in regard to indulgences, recreation, attendance at lectures and meetings, visits, and letters, for inattention or want of interest in work, disobedience or unsatisfactory conduct not amounting to a definite breach of discipline: provided that full particulars of the circumstances in each such case shall be promptly reported to the Inspector-General.

34. Any inmate charged with a serious breach of discipline, or with any conduct which, in the opinion of the superintendent, makes it inadvisable that he should associate with other inmates, may be kept in separate confinement until further dealt with.

35. The superintendent may hear and determine any charge against an inmate of any minor breach of discipline, such as, under the Gaols Regulations for the time being in force, are directed to be submitted to the governor of a gaol, and may punish such inmate by solitary confinement for any term not exceeding forty-eight hours, or by close confinement on half rations for any term not exceeding four days, or by separate confinement for any term not exceeding seven days, or by stoppage or curtailment of privileges in regard to indulgences, recreation, attendance at lectures and meetings, visits, and letters for any period not exceeding fourteen days: provided that a record of all such punishments shall be entered in a book kept for the purpose, and a monthly return thereof forwarded to the Inspector-General and the Board.

36. The Board may inquire in a summary way into any charge of idleness, misconduct, breach of discipline, escaping, or attempting to escape from any reformatory which is brought against any inmate not declared to be an habitual criminal. And the Board may punish such inmate by solitary confinement, either continuously or at such intervals as it may see fit, for any period not exceeding three weeks, or by close confinement on half rations for any period not exceeding six weeks or by separate confinement for any period not exceeding eight weeks, or by reduction to any lower grade for such period, and with such terms of solitary, close, or separate confinement, as limited by this Regulation, and with deprivation or curtailment of such indulgences and privileges as the Board may see fit: provided that, in addition to or in substitution for any such punishment, the Board may impose a fine to be deducted from any sum at any time standing to the credit of such inmate in the account kept at the reformatory, and order that such inmate's earnings be debited with such sum as may be necessary to repair or replace any article of furniture, equipment, utensil, or implement or other property destroyed or damaged by him.

RELEASE ON PAROLE OR PROBATION.

37. An inmate shall not be released on parole or probation unless—

(1) The Board considers that his release would not be detrimental to the public welfare. The decision of the Board, in this regard, shall be based on the following considerations:—

- (a) His record and character as shown in the reformatory.
- (b) The nature, character, and number of his convictions.
- (c) His previous record and environment, and his probable surroundings, if released.
- (d) His powers of self-control, and the probability of his leading a useful and industrious life, and refraining from crime.
- (e) Any other facts bearing on the advisability of his release on parole or probation.

(2) He has been promoted to the special division, or, in the case of an inmate of the Castlemaine Reformatory, to the first grade, and has shown good conduct in that division or grade;

- (3) He has an assurance of immediate employment; or has standing to his credit sufficient money to maintain him for four weeks, or, in the case of an inmate of the Castlemaine Reformatory, for two weeks, after release; and
- (4) He has reasonable prospects, in the opinion of the Board, of earning an honest livelihood.

Provided that the Board may recommend the suspension of any of these conditions except condition (1) in regard to any inmate in the special division of the first grade, or in the first grade (in the case of an inmate of the Castlemaine Reformatory), who is considered deserving of exceptional treatment.

38. Any released person who violates the conditions of his probation, and is returned to a reformatory, and any person who, having once been released on probation, is again convicted and dealt with under the Act, shall, on re-admission to a reformatory, be placed in the third grade, and shall be liable to serve the terms in the third and other grades prescribed by these Regulations: provided that when, in any such case, the Board considers it necessary or desirable, the Board may increase or reduce the term of detention in any grade.

39. Any inmate released on parole who has been returned to a reformatory on conviction or for a breach of the conditions of his parole, shall be placed in the third grade, and shall be kept in each grade for such time as the Board may determine, having regard to the nature of his offence or breach of conditions, his conduct while on parole and the prospects of his reform.

40. Every inmate released on parole or probation shall be given a certificate with a full statement thereon of the conditions which he is required to observe during the period of his parole or probation.

41. When the period for which an inmate has been released on parole is about to expire, or has expired, the Board may, if it thinks fit, extend such parole for a further period upon the conditions approved when such parole was first granted, and may at the same time impose such other conditions as it deems desirable. Notice of extension of parole and new conditions (if any) shall be given to the person released on parole by notice in writing, delivered to him in person, or posted to him at his last-known address.

42. For the purpose of these Regulations, indulgences shall comprise the following:—

Postage Stamps,
Butter,
Coffee,
Cocoa,
Cheese,
Fruit,
Jam or Golden Syrup,
Milk,
Oatmeal,
Rice,
Tobacco,
Pipes,

and such other articles (including clothing and books) as may from time to time be recommended by the Inspector-General and approved by the Board.

43. Any inmate may receive such dental attention as the Inspector-General approves, the payment for which may be authorized by the Board out of the inmate's earnings.

44. The Gaols Regulations and general orders in regard to prisons for the time being in force shall, as far as practicable, and when not inconsistent with these Regulations, or with any corresponding regulations which may hereafter be brought into operation, apply to every reformatory.

45. The secretary shall receive, on behalf of the Board, all sums standing to the credit of each inmate on his release, and shall keep an account thereof and of the disbursements made by the Board, in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.

46. The superintendent may, subject to these Regulations, exercise all or any of the powers conferred on the governor of a gaol, under the Gaols Act 1928, for the purpose of dealing with breaches of discipline.

47. In every reformatory, the hours of rising, the time for meals, the hours of work and of instruction, the time allowed for reading and exercise, the hours for lights and bed, the hours to be spent at drill and at school, and the arrangements therefor, the clothing of the inmates in each grade, together with the internal arrangements as may be necessary and not provided for in these Regulations, shall be in the discretion of the Inspector-General.

48. Any order made by a Court of Petty Sessions under the provisions of section 516 (1) of the Act shall be in the form of the Second Schedule hereto or to the like effect.

49. Any order made by a judge of the Supreme Court or chairman of a Court of General Sessions of the Peace under section 516 (3) of the Act shall be in the form of the Third Schedule hereto or to the like effect.
